An Act to amend the Law relating to the Discharge of Mortgages.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the Discharge of Mortgages: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Act fiftieth Victoria number five is hereby repealed. Repeal.
2. Whenever the person for the time being entitled to receive payment of money secured by mortgage upon real or leasehold property shall personally or by his attorney sign a receipt endorsed, or purporting to be endorsed, on such deed to the effect that his claim thereunder has been satisfied or the moneys thereby secured have been paid, the mortgaged property shall, upon such acknowledgment of satisfaction, or such receipt being registered in manner provided by law for the registration of instruments affecting land thereupon, but as from the date of such acknowledgment of satisfaction or receipt, be deemed vested in the person at such date entitled to the equity of redemption therein, subject to all the uses, trusts, estates, and interests to or upon which the same then stood limited, and without the necessity for any reconveyance, reassignment, or other assurance at law or in equity whatever. Discharge to be endorsed on mortgage.

This Form has originated in the Laboratory Department, and having the day passed, is now ready for presentation to the Laboratory Council for its consideration.
