New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

*

An Act to enable Richard Tilden Smith, of Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, and John Thomas Mance, of Parramatta, in the said Colony, to construct a Railway from the Silkstone Coal-mine to the Great Northern Railway. [Assented to, 30th September, 1889.]

New South Wales, and John Thomas Mance, of Paramatta, in the said Colony, have opened coal-mines upon lands situated near Maitland, in the parish of Stanford, in the county of Northumberland, and in order to facilitate communication between the said coal-mines and the Great Northern Railway, the said Richard Tilden Smith and John Thomas Mance, hereinafter designated the promoters, are desirous of constructing a railway from their said coal-mines to the Great Northern Railway, but as part of such proposed railway is intended to be made upon and pass through land believed to be the property of the Crown, bodies corporate, and private persons respectively, the same cannot be made without Legislative authority. And whereas the said coal-mines are likely to prove beneficial to the Colony, and the public are concerned in promoting such an increase in and facilities for the supply of coal for local consumption, steam navigation, and export, as would result from the construction of the said proposed railway, and traffic on the Great Northern Railway would be increased increased thereby. It is therefore desirable to authorize by Legislative enactment the construction of the said railway, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, upon payment of compensation to the several parties through whose land the same shall pass for such portion of their respective lands as may be required to be taken and occupied thereby. Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by authority of the same, as follows:—

Authority to construct railway, and connect same with Great Northern Railway.

1. It shall be lawful for the said promoters to make and construct a railway, which shall be of the same gauge as the Government Railways, from a point inside the boundary of their property situated in the parish of Stanford, county of Northumberland, and from thence crossing the eastern boundary in a north-easterly direction, through properties held by S. Hebblewhite, James Weston, H. J. Adams, J. Callaghan, Samuel Clift, W. Turnbull, and P. H. Swan, and through land believed to be owned by Miss Nine, Mrs. Harrington, J. Hickey, the East Greta Coal Company, J. Leonard, H. H. Capper, E. P. Capper, Mrs. Pilcher, J. Woolf, J. Callaghan, E. Hungerford, C. Simpson, and others, and being portion of a parcel of land formerly owned by E. Hungerford, containing two thousand acres, the line running generally in a north-easterly direction through the said properties; thence crossing a road, known as the Telarah Road, to and through property held by Peter Green, and terminating at a point on the Great Northern Railway, at twenty miles sixty-five chains seventytwo links from Newcastle, and which lands and route are particularly described in the Schedule, and to effect, if necessary, a junction between the said line and the Great Northern Railway in accordance with section one hundred and twelve of the "Public Works Act of 1888," such railway to be in the direction described in the Schedule, and the said promoters may take and occupy three acres of land, or any lesser area, at the junction of the said railway with the Great Northern Railway.

Site of railway shall be vested in the promoters without conveyance.

2. The ground and soil of so much of the site of the railway as passes over the lands of the said owners of lands respectively, and over Crown Lands, together with such rights of ingress, egress, and regress upon the adjacent land as may be necessary for the making and repair of such railway, shall so far as is necessary for the purpose of this Act be vested, by virtue of this Act, and without the necessity of any conveyance, in the promoters for the purposes of the railway. Provided that no lands vested in the Commissioners for Railways shall by virtue of this Act be vested in the promoters, and nothing herein contained shall prevent the said owners from carrying on any mining operations beneath the said railway which shall not interfere with the safety of the said railway and the traffic thereon; and the promoters shall have no further right to the soil of the said lands beneath the surface than shall be requisite for the formation and repairs of the said road by cutting, embanking, sinking wells, or otherwise. Provided that the said railway shall be constructed and brought into use within three years after the passing of this Act, and that in default thereof, or if after its completion, the said railway shall cease to be used for three years continuously, all the said lands, including Crown Lands, and all the said promoters' interest and estate therein shall revert without any conveyance to the Crown and original owners thereof, their heirs and assigns respectively. Provided also that if in the exercise of the powers hereby granted it be found necessary to cross-cut through, sink, raise, or use any part of any road, so as to render it impassable for, or dangerous or inconvenient to the persons entitled to the use thereof, the promoters shall, before the commencement of any such operations, cause a sufficient road road to be made instead of any road interfered with, and shall, at their own expense, maintain such substituted road in a state as convenient as the road interfered with, or as nearly as may be. And the promoters, before they use the said lands of the said owners of land and the said Crown Lands respectively for any of the purposes aforesaid, shall, if required so to do, separate the same by a sufficient fence from the land adjoining thereto, with such gates as may be required for the convenient occupation of such land, and shall also, to all private roads used by them as aforesaid, put up fences and gates in like manner in all cases where the same may be necessary to prevent the straying of cattle from or upon the lands traversed by such roads, and in case of any difference between the owners or occupiers of such roads and lands and the promoters as to the necessity for such fences and gates, then the said promoters shall put up and erect such fences and gates as any two Justices of the Peace, after inquiry, shall deem necessary for the purposes aforesaid, on application being made to them.

3. The railway shall be open to the public use for the con-Railway open to the veyance of coal and goods upon payment of a toll to the promoters public. for the conveyance of coal of a sum not exceeding one penny per ton per mile, with a minimum charge of threepence per ton in respect of every ton of coal for every transit, and for the conveyance of goods at the rate per ton not exceeding that charged by the Commissioners for Railways in respect of every ton of goods for every transit, the person seeking transit supplying and loading his own trucks or on Government waggons, and the promoters or Government supplying locomotive power; and all trucks when emptied, shall be conveyed, on their return, free of charge. Provided always, that it shall not be compulsory on the promoters to supply locomotive power unless the party seeking transit guarantee and bring one hundred tons, at least, during the twelve working hours, and give notice of same at least, twenty-four hours previously. The railway shall at all times be open to the public for conveyance of coal and goods upon payment of a toll to the promoters for the conveyance of coal of a sum not exceeding one half-penny per ton per mile, with a minimum charge of twopence per ton in respect of every ton of coal for every transit, and for goods of a sum not exceeding one penny half-penny per ton per mile in respect of every ton of goods for every transit, if the party seeking transit supply the locomotive power as well as the trucks and waggons. Provided that so long as the promoters shall be willing to supply locomotive power, no other person shall use locomotive power on the line other than the Commissioners for Railways. Provided that if the railway shall be damaged by parties who shall themselves use the railway for transit and supply locomotive power, the promoters shall be entitled to compensation for such damage, to be recovered, either by action in the Supreme Court of New South Wales, or, if such damage do not exceed the sum of twenty pounds, summarily before two Justices; and in estimating such damage, the promoters shall be entitled, not only to compensation for the cost of repairing and restoring the railway, but to the consequential damage (if any) sustained by reason of the suspension of transit or otherwise.

4. It shall be lawful for the owners or occupiers of the lands Branch railways. adjoining thereto or traversed by the said railway to lay down upon their own lands any collateral branches of railway to communicate with the said railway for the purpose of bringing carriages, trucks, and waggons to or from or upon the said railway, and the promoters shall, if required, at the expense of such owners or occupiers, make openings in the rails and such additional lines of railway as may be necessary for effecting such communication in places where the communication can be made with safety to the public and without injury to the said railway, and without inconvenience to the traffic thereupon, and the promoters shall not take any rate or toll or other moneys for the passing of any passengers, coal, and goods, or other things along any branch so to be made by any such owner or occupier or other person, but this enactment shall be subject to the following restrictions

and conditions (that is to say)—

No such railway shall run parallel to the said railway—provided that this shall not apply to any railway line connecting any other colliery in that neighbourhood with the Great Northern Railway, the promoters shall not be bound to make any such openings in any place which they shall have set apart for any specific purpose with which such communication would interfere, nor upon any inclined plane or bridge, nor in any tunnel.

The persons making or using such branch railways shall be subject to all by-laws and regulations of the promoters, from time to time made, with respect to passing upon or crossing the railway and otherwise; and the persons making or using such branch railways shall be bound to construct, and from time to time, as need may require, to renew the off set plates and switches according to the most approved plan adopted by the promoters, under the direction of their engineer.

Power to divert or alter roads.

5. For the purposes, and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, it shall be lawful for the promoters, their deputies, agents, servants, and workmen, and all other persons by them authorized and empowered, to divert or alter the course of any road or way crossing the railway, or to raise or sink any road or way, in order the more conveniently to carry the same over, or under, or by the side of the railway.

Penalty for not sub tituting a road. 6. If the promoters do not cause another sufficient road to be so made before they interfere with any such existing road as aforesaid, they shall forfeit twenty pounds for every day during which such substituted road shall not be made after the existing road shall have been interrupted, and such penalty shall be paid to the trustees, commissioners, surveyor, or other persons having the management of such road, if a public road, and shall be applied for the purposes thereof, or in case of a private road, the same shall be paid to the owner thereof, and every such penalty shall be recoverable, with costs, by action in any of the superior Courts.

Right to carry passengers.

7. It shall be lawful for but not compulsory upon the said promoters from time to time, and at any and all times, to carry passengers and live stock upon the said railway or any part thereof respectively, and to make, demand, take, receive and recover such tolls or dues for carrying the same at such rates per mile, or other scale of charges as shall be established from time to time by the promoters for or in respect of all such passengers and live stock which shall be conveyed or transported upon such railway or any part thereof respectively. And the promoters are hereby authorized to make such by-laws and regulations not inconsistent with this Act as may be necessary for the regulation of such traffic, and such by-laws or regulations shall be binding upon all persons using or travelling upon the said railway, and any persons offending against such by-laws or regulations shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds for each offence, to be recovered in a summary way before any two Justices. Provided always that if the rates, tolls, or dues that may be established as aforesaid under and by virtue of this Act shall be found excessive, it shall and may be lawful for any person by petition to the Executive Council to reduce the said rates, tolls, or dues, and to revise them in such manner as may seem most proper and advisable.

8. If, in the course of making the railway, the promoters shall Road repairs. use or interfere with any road, they shall from time to time make good all damage done by them to such road, and if any question shall arise as to the damage done to any such road by the promoters, or as to the repair thereof by them, such question shall be referred to the determination of two Justices, and such Justices may direct such repairs to be made in the state of such road in respect of damage done by the promoters, and within such period as they may think reasonable, and may impose on the promoters for not carring into effect such repairs any penalty not exceeding ten pounds per day as to such Justices shall seem fit, and any such penalty shall be paid to the surveyor, or other person having the management of the road interfered with by the promoters, if a public road, and be applied for the purposes of such road, or if a private road, the same shall be paid to the owner thereof. Provided always the said Justices shall have regard to, and shall make full allowance for, any tolls that may have been paid to the promoters on such road in the course of the using thereof.

9. Until the promotors shall have made the bridges or other Owners crossing.

proper communications, which they shall, under the provisions herein contained, have been required to make between lands intersected and the railway, and no longer, the owners and occupiers of such lands, and any other persons whose right-of-way shall be affected by the want of such communications, and their respective servants, may at all times freely pass and repass with carriages, horses, and other animals directly but not otherwise, across any part of the railway made in or through their respective lands solely for the purpose of occupying the same lands, or for the exercise of such right-of-way, and so as not to obstruct the passage along the railway, or to damage the same; nevertheless if the owner or occupier of any such lands have, in his arrangements with the promotors, received, or agreed to receive, compensation for or on account of any such communications instead of the same being formed, such owner or occupier, or those claiming under him, shall not be entitled so to cross the railway.

10. If the railway cross any public highways or parish road on Provisions in sases a level, the promoters shall erect, and at all times maintain, good and crossed on a level. sufficient gates across such road on each side of the railway where the same shall communicate therewith, and shall employ proper persons to open and shut such gates, and such gates shall be kept constantly closed across such roads on both sides of the railway, except during the time when horses, cattle, carts, or carriages passing along the same shall have to cross such railway, and such gates shall be of such dimensions, and so constructed as when closed to fence in the railway, and prevent cattle or horses passing along the road from entering upon the railway, and the person entrusted with the care of such gates shall cause the same to be closed as soon as such horses, cattle, carts, or carriages shall have passed through the same, under a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for every default therein, to be recoverable before any two Justices in a summary way. Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works in any case in which he shall be satisfied that it will be more conducive to the public safety that the gates or any level crossing over any such road shall be kept closed across the railway, to order that such gates shall be kept so closed instead of across the road, and in case such gates shall be kept constantly closed across the railway, except when engines or carriages passing along the railway shall have occasion to cross such road in the same manner and under the like penalty as above directed with respect to the gates being kept closed across the road.

11. In case of accidents or slips happening or being apprehended to the cuttings, embankments, or other works of the said railway it repair accidents, shall subject to certain restrictions.

shall be lawful for the promoters and their workmen and servants to enter upon the land adjoining thereto at any time whatsoever for the purpose of repairing or preventing such accidents, and to do such works as may be necessary for the purpose, but in every such case the promoters shall within forty-eight hours after such entry make a report to the Secretary for Public Works, specifying the nature of such accident or apprehended accident, and of the works necessary to be done, and such powers shall cease and determine if the said Secretary shall, after considering the said report, certify that their exercise is not necessary for the public safety. Provided also that such works shall be as little injurious to the said adjoining lands as the nature of the accident or apprehended accident will admit of, and shall be executed with all possible despatch, and full compensation shall be made to the owners and occupiers of such lands for the loss or injury or inconvenience sustained by them respectively by reason of such works, the amount of which compensation, in case of any dispute about the same, shall be settled by arbitrators in the manner hereinafter mentioned. And provided also that no land shall be taken permanently for any such works otherwise than is herein provided with respect to the lands originally taken for the purpose of making the said railway.

Construction of bridges over roads.

- 12. Every bridge to be erected for the purpose of carrying the railway over any road shall be built in conformity with the following regulations, that is to say:—
  - The width of the arch shall be such as to leave thereunder a clear space of not less than thirty feet, if the arch be over a public highway, and of twenty feet if over a parish road, and of twelve feet if over a private road.
  - The clear height of the arch from the surface of the road shall not be less than sixteen feet for a space of twelve feet if the arch be over a main road, and fifteen feet for a space of ten feet if over a public carriage-road; and in each of such cases the clear height at the springing of the arch shall not be less than twelve feet; the clear height of the arch for a space of nine feet shall not be less than fourteen feet over a private road.
  - The descent made in the road in order to carry the same under the bridge shall not be more than one foot in thirty feet if the bridge be over a public highway, one foot in twenty feet if over a parish road, and one foot in sixteen feet if over a private road, not being a tramroad or railroad, or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the descent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

Construction of bridges over railroads

- 13. Every bridge erected for carrying any road over the railway shall be built in conformity with the following regulations, that is to say:—
  - There shall be a good and sufficient fence on each side of the bridge, of not less height than four feet, and on each side of the immediate approaches of such bridge of not less than three feet.
  - The road over the bridge shall have a clear space between the fences thereof of thirty-five feet if the road be a public highway, and twenty-five feet if a parish road, and twelve feet if a private road.
  - The ascent shall not be more than one foot in thirty-feet if the road be a main road, one foot in twenty-feet if a parish road, and one foot in sixteen if a private road, not being a tramroad or railroad; or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the ascent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

14. Provided always that in all cases where the average avail- The width of the able width for the passing of carriages of any existing road within fifty bridges need not yards of the point of crossing the same is less than the width herein- the road in certain before prescribed for bridges over or under the railway, the width of cases. such bridges need not be greater than such average available width of such roads, but so, nevertheless, that such bridges be not of less width in case of a public highway or parish road than twenty feet. Provided also, that if at any time after the construction of the railway, the average available width of any such road shall be increased beyond the width of such bridge on either side thereof, the promoters shall be bound at their own expense to increase the width of the said bridge to such extent as they may be required by the trustees or suveyors of such road, not exceeding the width of such road as so widened, or the maximum width herein prescribed for a bridge in the like case over or under the railway.

15. Provided also, that if the mesne inclination of any road Existing inclination within two hundred and fifty yards of the point of crossing the same, diverted need not or the inclination of such portion of any road as may be preserved to be improved. be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted, shall be steeper than the inclination hereinbefore required to be preserved by the promoters, then the promoters may carry any such road over or under the railway, or may construct such altered or substituted road at an inclination not steeper than the said mesne inclination of the road so to be crossed, or of the road so requiring to be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted.

16. The promoters shall make and at all times thereafter works for benefit of maintain the following works for the accommodation of the owners and owners. occupiers of lands adjoining the railway, that is to say-

Such and so many convenient gates, bridges, arches, culverts, and Gates, bridges, &c. passages over, under, or by the sides of or leading to or from the railway as shall be necessary for the purpose of making good any interruptions caused by the railway to the use of the lands through which the railway shall be made; and such works shall be made forthwith after the part of the railway passing over such lands shall have been laid out or formed, or during the formation thereof.

All sufficient posts, rails, hedges, ditches, mounds or other fences Fences. for separating the land taken for the use of the railway from the adjoining lands not taken, and protecting such lands from trespass, or the cattle of the owners or occupiers thereof from straying thereon by reason of the railway, together with all necessary gates made to open towards such adjoining lands and not towards the railway; and all necessary stiles, and such posts, rails, and other fences shall be made forthwith after the taking of any such lands if the owners thereof shall so require, and the said other works as soon as conveniently may be.

Also, all necessary arches, tunnels, culverts, drains, or other Drains. passages, either over or under or by the sides of the railway of such dimensions as will be sufficient at all times to convey the water as clearly from the lands lying near or affected by the railway as before the making of the railway, or as nearly so as may be, and such works shall be made from time to time as the railway works proceed.

Also, proper watering-places for cattle or compensation in lieu Watering-places. thereof, where by reason of the railway the cattle of any person occupying any lands lying near thereto shall be deprived of access to their former watering-places; and such wateringplaces shall be so made as to be at all times sufficiently supplied with water as theretofore, and as if the railway had not been made, or as nearly so as may be. And the said promoters shall make all necessary watercourses and drains for the purpose of conveying water to the said watering-places.

Provided always that the promoters shall not be required to make such accommodation works in such a manner as would prevent or obstruct the working or using of the railway, nor to make any accommodation works with respect to which the owners and occupiers of the land shall have agreed to receive, and shall have been paid compensation instead of the making them.

Penalty on persons omitting to fasten gates.

17. If any person omit to shut and fasten any gate set up at either side of the railway for the accommodation of the owners or occupiers of the adjoining lands, so soon as he, and the carriage, cattle, or other animals under his care have passed through the same, he shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding ten pounds, to be recoverable in a summary way before any two Justices.

Minerals not to pass.

18. The promoters shall not be entitled to any minerals under any land whereof the surface is vested in them by virtue of this Act, except only such parts thereof as shall be necessary to be dug or carried away in the construction of the works hereby authorized. And such mines shall not be deemed to yest in the said presentation.

mines shall not be deemed to vest in the said promoters.

Compensation clause.

Appointment of arbitrators.

19. If within twenty-eight days after the passing of this Act, the said persons through whose lands the railway shall pass, or any of them and the promoters shall not agree as to the amount of compensation to be paid by them for the said lands belonging to the said parties, or any of them, or for any damage that may be sustained by them or him, by reason of the execution of the works, or if any other question as to compensations hall arise under this Act, the amount of such compensation shall be settled by arbitrators in manner hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: Unless both parties shall concur in the appointment of a single arbitrator, each party on the request of the other party shall nominate and appoint an arbitrator, to whom such dispute or other matter shall be referred. And every appointment of an arbitrator shall be under the hand of such party. And such appointment shall be delivered to the arbitrator or arbitrators, and shall be deemed a submission to arbitration on the part of the party by whom the same shall be made. And after any such appointment shall have been made, neither party shall have power to revoke the same without the consent of the other, nor shall the death of either party operate as a revocation. for the space of fourteen days after any such dispute or other matter shall have arisen, and after a request in writing shall have been served by the one party on the other party, to appoint an arbitrator, such lastmentioned party fail to appoint such arbitrator, then, upon such failure, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General for the time being of the said Colony, on the application of the party who has himself appointed an arbitrator, to appoint such arbitrator to act on behalf of both parties. And such arbitrator may proceed to hear and determine the matters which shall be in dispute. And in such case the award or determination of such single arbitrator shall be final and conclusive.

Vacancy of arbitrator to be supplied.

20. If, before the matter so referred shall be determined, any arbitrator appointed by either party shall die, or become incapable, or refuse, or for fourteen days neglect to act as arbitrator, the party by whom such arbitrator was appointed may nominate and appoint in writing some other person to act in his place. And if, for the space of seven days after notice in writing from the other party for that purpose, he fail to do so, the remaining or other arbitrators may proceed alone. And every arbitrator so to be substituted as aforesaid shall have the same powers and authorities as were vested in the former arbitrator at the time of such, his death, refusal, neglect, or disability as aforesaid.

21. Where more than one arbitrator shall have been appointed Appointment of such arbitrators shall, before they enter upon the matters referred to umpire. them, nominate and appoint, by writing under their hands, an umpire to decide any matters on which they shall differ, or which shall be referred to them under the provisions of this Act. And if such umpire shall die, or refuse, or for seven days neglect to act, after being called upon to do so by the arbitrators, they shall forthwith, after such death, refusal, or neglect appoint another umpire in his place; and the decision of every such umpire on the matters so referred to him shall be final.

22. If in either of the cases aforesaid the arbitrators shall Attorney-General to refuse, or for seven days after request of either party to such appoint umpire on arbitration neglect to appoint an umpire, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General for the time being, on the application of either party to such arbitration, to appoint an umpire; and the decision of such umpire on the matters on which the arbitrators shall differ, or which shall be referred to him under this Act, shall be final.

23. If, when a single arbitrator shall have been appointed, In case of death of such arbitrator shall die, or become incapable, or shall refuse, or for single arbitrator the fourteen days neglect to act before he shall have made his award, the de novo. matters referred to him shall be determined by arbitration, under the provisions of this Act, in the same manner as if such arbitrator had not been appointed.

24. If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been if either arbitrator appointed, either of the arbitrators shall refuse, or for seven days refuse to act, the other to proceed neglect to act, the other arbitrator may proceed alone; and the exparte, decision of such other arbitrator shall be as effectual as if he had been

the single arbitrator appointed by both parties.

25. If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been if arbitrators fail to appointed, and where neither of them shall refuse or neglect to act as make their award within twenty-one aforesaid, such arbitrators shall fail to make their award within twenty-days the matter to one days after the day on which the last of such arbitrators shall have go to the umpire. been appointed, or within such extended time (if any) as shall have been appointed for that purpose by both of such arbitrators under their hands, the matters referred to them shall be determined by the umpire to be so appointed as aforesaid.

26. The said arbitrators or their umpire may call for the pro- Powers of arbitrators duction of any documents in the possession or power of either party to call for books, &c. which they or he may think necessary for determining the question in dispute, and may examine the parties or their witnesses on oath, and administer the oaths necessary for that purpose.

27. Before any arbitrator or umpire shall enter into the con-Arbitrator or umpire sideration of any matters referred to him, he shall, in the presence of to make a declaration for faithful discharge a Justice of the Peace, make and subscribe the following declaration, of duty. that is to say-

I, A.B. do solemnly and sincerely declare that I will faithfully and honestly, and to the best of my skill and ability, hear and determine the matters referred to me under the provisions of the "Silkstone Coal-mine Railway Act."

Made and subscribed in the presence of

A.B.

And such declaration shall be annexed to the award when made, and Penalty for miscon if any arbitrator or umpire, having made such declaration, shall wil-duct. fully act contrary thereto, he shall be guilty of misdemeanour.

28. All the costs of any such arbitration and incident thereto Cost of arbitration to be settled by the arbitrators shall be borne by the promoters, unless how to be borne. the arbitrators shall award the same or a less sum than shall have been offered by the promoters, in which case each party shall bear his own costs incident to the arbitration, and the costs of the arbitrators shall be borne by the parties in equal proportions, unless the amount awarded awarded shall be one-fourth less than the amount, in which case the whole costs shall be paid by the claimant. Provided that if either party shall be dissatisfied with the costs allowed by the arbitrators as aforesaid, the costs may be taxed by the Prothonotary or other proper officer of the Supreme Court, and the amount allowed by such officer shall be the amount of costs to be paid.

Award to be delivered to the promoters.

ward not void

through error in Compensation for

injuries

29. The arbitrators shall deliver their award in writing to the promoters, who shall retain the same, and shall forthwith, on demand, at their own expense, furnish a copy thereof to the other party, and shall at all times on demand produce the said award, and allow the same to be inspected or examined by such party, or any person appointed by him for that purpose, and the amount awarded shall be paid within sixty days after the publication of such award.

30. The submission to any such arbitration may be made a Submission may be made a rule of Court. rule of the Supreme Court on the application of either of the parties.

31. No award made with respect to any question referred to arbitration, under the provisions of this Act, shall be set aside for irregularity or error in matter of form.

32. The promoters shall make compensation and satisfaction to temporary or perma-nent or recurring the said owners and occupiers (the amount of such compensation and satisfaction to be ascertained and recovered in case of difference in the manner hereby provided) for temporary, permanent, or recurring injury, and all other damage, loss, costs, charges, and inconvenience which may in anywise be occasioned to the said owners or occupiers by the non-performance by the said promoters of any of the matters and things hereby required to be performed by them or otherwise.

Compensation to be made for temporary occupation.

33. In every case where the promoters shall take temporary possession of lands by virtue of the powers hereby granted, it shall be incumbent on them, within one month after their entry upon such lands, upon being required so to do, to pay to the occupier of the said lands, the value of any crop or dressing that may be thereon, as well as full compensation for any other damage of a temporary nature which he may sustain by reason of their so taking possession of their lands; and they shall also from time to time during their occupation of the said lands pay half-yearly to such occupier or to the owner of the lands, as the case may require, a rent to be fixed by two Justices in case the parties differ, and shall also within six months after the completion of the railway, pay to such owner or occupier or deposit in a bank for the benefit of all parties interested, as the case may require, compensation of all permanent or other loss, damage, or injury that may have been sustained by them by reason of the exercise as regards the said lands of the powers hereby granted, including the full value of all clay, stone, gravel, sand, and other things taken from such lands.

Power for Government to purchase railway.

34. It shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works on behalf of the Government, at any time by notice in writing, to require the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns to sell, and thereupon the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall sell to the Government, as the case may be, the said railway upon the terms of paying the then value (exclusive of any allowance for past or future profits of the said railway or any compensation for compulsory sale or other consideration whatsoever) of the said railway, and all lands, buildings, works, materials, and plant of the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, suitable to and used by them for the purposes of the said railway, such value in case of difference to be ascertained by arbitration in the manner provided by the "Public Works Act of 1888," fifty-first Victoria number thirty-seven, for settling cases of disputed compensation, and subject to the terms and conditions therein contained. when any such sale shall have been made to the said Government, the said

said railway, lands, buildings, works, materials, plant, and premises shall vest in the Commissioners for Railways, who shall have all the rights, powers, and authorities of the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns in respect of the said railway so sold.

35. For the purpose of regulating the conduct of the officers Company may make and servants of the promoters, and for providing for the due manage-by-law ment of the affairs of the promoters in all respects, it shall be lawful for the promoters, subject to the provisions herein mentioned, from time to time to make such by-laws and regulations as they shall think fit. Provided that such by-laws be not repugnant to the laws of the Colony, or to the provisions of this Act; and such by-laws shall be reduced into writing, and shall have affixed thereto the names of the promoters, and a copy of such by-laws shall be given to every officer and servant of the promoters affected thereby, and such by-laws may specify a maximum and minimum penalty for any breach thereof, such penalty to be proceeded for and recovered under the provisions of the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, chapter forty-three. Provided always that any by-laws of the said promoters relating to penalties must be first approved of by the Attorney-General of the Colony for the time being.

36. The production of a printed or written copy of the by-laws Evidence of by-laws.

of the promoters, shall be sufficient evidence of such by-laws in all

proceedings under the same.

37. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to authorize the said Lands belonging to Commissioners for promoters to take or enter upon any lands belonging to the Commis-Railways not to be sioners for Railways, or to alter or to interfere with the Great Northern taken. Railway, or any of the works thereof, further or otherwise than is necessary for making the junction and inter-communication between the Railways, without the previous consent in writing in every instance of the Commissioners for Railways.

38. The said Commissioners shall from time to time erect such Commissioners may signals and conveniences incident to the junction, either upon their appoint watchmen own lands or on the lands of the promoters, and may from time to and switchmen. time appoint and remove such watchmen, switchmen, and other persons, as may be necessary for the prevention of danger to or interference with the traffic at or near the junction, and in all cases at the expense of the promoters.

39. The working and management of such signals and con-Working of signals veniences, wherever situate, shall be under the exclusive regulation to be under regulations of Commissions of of the Commissioners for Railways.

40. Nothing herein contained shall alter, repeal, or otherwise Public Works and Government Railways affect the "Public Works Act of 1888," or the "Government Railways Acts of 1888 not altered or repealed. Act of 1888."

41. In this Act the word "Justices" shall mean Justices of Interpretation the Peace in and for the territory of New South Wales; and when any matter shall be authorized or required to be done by two Justices, the expression "two Justices" shall mean two Justices assembled and acting together in Petty Sessions or a Stipendiary or Police Magistrate; the word "Owner" shall mean any person or corporation who under the provisions of this Act would be able to sell land to the promoters; and the word "promoters" shall mean and include the said Richard Tilden Smith and John Thomas Mance, and the survivor of them, and the heirs, executors, or administrators of such survivor, their or his

42. This Act whenever cited shall be sufficiently described as Short title.

the "Silkstone Coal-mine Railway Act of 1889."

SCHEDULE.

From a point inside the boundary of their property, situate in the parish of Stanford, county of Northumberland, and from thence crossing the eastern boundary in a north-easterly direction through properties held by S. Hebblewhite, James Weston, H. J. Adams, J. Callaghan, Samuel Clift, W. Turnbull, and J. H. Swan, and through land believed to be owned by Miss Nine, Mrs. Harrington, J. Hickey, the East Greta Coal Company, J. Leonard, H. H. Capper, E. P. Capper, Mrs. Pilcher, J. Woolf, J. Callaghan, E. Hungerford, C. Simpson, and others, and being portions of a parcel of land formerly owned by E. Hungerford, containing two thousand acres, the line running generally in a north-easterly direction through the said properties; thence crossing the Telarah Road to and through property held by Peter Green, and terminating at a point on the Great Northern Railway at twenty miles sixty-five chains seventy-two links from Newcastle. Newcastle.

By Authority: CHARLES POTTER, Government Printer, Sydney, 1889.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

************

An Act to enable Richard Tilden Smith, of Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, and John Thomas Mance, of Parramatta, in the said Colony, to construct a Railway from the Silkstone Coal-mine to the Great Northern Railway. [Assented to, 30th September, 1889.]

WHEREAS Richard Tilden Smith, of Sydney, in the Colony of Preamble.

New South Wales, and John Thomas Mance, of Parramatta, in the said Colony, have opened coal-mines upon lands situated near Maitland, in the parish of Stanford, in the county of Northumberland, and in order to facilitate communication between the said coal-mines and the Great Northern Railway, the said Richard Tilden Smith and John Thomas Mance, hereinafter designated the promoters, are desirous of constructing a railway from their said coal-mines to the Great Northern Railway, but as part of such proposed railway is intended to be made upon and pass through land believed to be the property of the Crown, bodies corporate, and private persons respectively, the same cannot be made without Legislative authority. And whereas the said coal-mines are likely to prove beneficial to the Colony, and the public are concerned in promoting such an increase in and facilities for the supply of coal for local consumption, steam navigation, and export, as would result from the construction of the said proposed railway, and traffic on the Great Northern Railway would be increased

It is therefore desirable to authorize by Legislative increased thereby. enactment the construction of the said railway, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, upon payment of compensation to the several parties through whose land the same shall pass for such portion of their respective lands as may be required to be taken and occupied thereby. Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled,

and by authority of the same, as follows:-

Authority to con-struct railway, and connect same with Great Northern Railway.

1. It shall be lawful for the said promoters to make and construct a railway, which shall be of the same gauge as the Government Railways, from a point inside the boundary of their property situated in the parish of Stanford, county of Northumberland, and from thence crossing the eastern boundary in a north-easterly direction, through properties held by S. Hebblewhite, James Weston, H. J. Adams, J. Callaghan, Samuel Clift, W. Turnbull, and P. H. Swan, and through land believed to be owned by Miss Nine, Mrs. Harrington, J. Hickey, the East Greta Coal Company, J. Leonard, H. H. Capper, E. P. Capper, Mrs. Pilcher, J. Woolf, J. Callaghan, E. Hungerford, C. Simpson, and others, and being portion of a parcel of land formerly owned by E. Hungerford, containing two thousand acres, the line running generally in a north-easterly direction through the said properties; thence crossing a road, known as the Telarah Road, to and through property held by Peter Green, and terminating at a point on the Great Northern Railway, at twenty miles sixty-five chains seventytwo links from Newcastle, and which lands and route are particularly described in the Schedule, and to effect, if necessary, a junction between the said line and the Great Northern Railway in accordance with section one hundred and twelve of the "Public Works Act of 1888," such railway to be in the direction described in the Schedule, and the said promoters may take and occupy three acres of land, or any lesser area, at the junction of the said railway with the Great Northern Railway.

Site of railway shall be vested in the promoters without conveyance.

2. The ground and soil of so much of the site of the railway as passes over the lands of the said owners of lands respectively, and over Crown Lands, together with such rights of ingress, egress, and regress upon the adjacent land as may be necessary for the making and repair of such railway, shall so far as is necessary for the purpose of this Act be vested, by virtue of this Act, and without the necessity of any conveyance, in the promoters for the purposes of the railway. Provided that no lands vested in the Commissioners for Railways shall by virtue of this Act be vested in the promoters, and nothing herein contained shall prevent the said owners from carrying on any mining operations beneath the said railway which shall not interfere with the safety of the said railway and the traffic thereon; and the promoters shall have no further right to the soil of the said lands beneath the surface than shall be requisite for the formation and repairs of the said road by cutting, embanking, sinking wells, or otherwise. Provided that the said railway shall be constructed and brought into use within three years after the passing of this Act, and that in default thereof, or if after its completion, the said railway shall cease to be used for three years continuously, all the said lands, including Crown Lands, and all the said promoters' interest and estate therein shall revert without any conveyance to the Crown and original owners thereof, their heirs and assigns respectively. Provided also that if in the exercise of the powers hereby granted it be found necessary to cross-cut through, sink, raise, or use any part of any road, so as to render it impassable for, or dangerous or inconvenient to the persons entitled to the use thereof, the promoters shall, before the commencement of any such operations, cause a sufficient road

road to be made instead of any road interfered with, and shall, at their own expense, maintain such substituted road in a state as convenient as the road interfered with, or as nearly as may be. And the promoters, before they use the said lands of the said owners of land and the said Crown Lands respectively for any of the purposes aforesaid, shall, if required so to do, separate the same by a sufficient fence from the land adjoining thereto, with such gates as may be required for the convenient occupation of such land, and shall also, to all private roads used by them as aforesaid, put up fences and gates in like manner in all cases where the same may be necessary to prevent the straying of cattle from or upon the lands traversed by such roads, and in case of any difference between the owners or occupiers of such roads and lands and the promoters as to the necessity for such fences and gates, then the said promoters shall put up and erect such fences and gates as any two Justices of the Peace, after inquiry, shall deem necessary for the purposes aforesaid, on application being made to them.

3. The railway shall be open to the public use for the con-Railway open to the veyance of coal and goods upon payment of a toll to the promoters public. for the conveyance of coal of a sum not exceeding one penny per ton per mile, with a minimum charge of threepence per ton in respect of every ton of coal for every transit, and for the conveyance of goods at the rate per ton not exceeding that charged by the Commissioners for Railways in respect of every ton of goods for every transit, the person seeking transit supplying and loading his own trucks or on Government waggons, and the promoters or Government supplying locomotive power; and all trucks when emptied, shall be conveyed, on their return, free of charge. Provided always, that it shall not be compulsory on the promoters to supply locomotive power unless the party seeking transit guarantee and bring one hundred tons, at least, during the twelve working hours, and give notice of same at least, twenty-four hours previously. The railway shall at all times be open to the public for conveyance of coal and goods upon payment of a toll to the promoters for the conveyance of coal of a sum not exceeding one half-penny per ton per mile, with a minimum charge of twopence per ton in respect of every ton of coal for every transit, and for goods of a sum not exceeding one penny half-penny per ton per mile in respect of every ton of goods for every transit, if the party seeking transit supply the locomotive power as well as the trucks and waggons. Provided that so long as the promoters shall be willing to supply locomotive power, no other person shall use locomotive power on the line other than the Commissioners for Railways. Provided that if the railway shall be damaged by parties who shall themselves use the railway for transit and supply locomotive power, the promoters shall be entitled to compensation for such damage, to be recovered, either by action in the Supreme Court of New South Wales, or, if such damage do not exceed the sum of twenty pounds, summarily before two Justices; and in estimating such damage, the promoters shall be entitled, not only to compensation for the cost of repairing and restoring the railway, but to the consequential damage (if any) sustained by reason of the suspension of transit or otherwise.

4. It shall be lawful for the owners or occupiers of the lands Branch railways. adjoining thereto or traversed by the said railway to lay down upon their own lands any collateral branches of railway to communicate with the said railway for the purpose of bringing carriages, trucks, and waggons to or from or upon the said railway, and the promoters shall, if required, at the expense of such owners or occupiers, make openings in the rails and such additional lines of railway as may be necessary for effecting such communication in places where the communication can be made with safety to the public and without injury

to the said railway, and without inconvenience to the traffic thereupon, and the promoters shall not take any rate or toll or other moneys for the passing of any passengers, coal, and goods, or other things along any branch so to be made by any such owner or occupier or other person, but this enactment shall be subject to the following restrictions

and conditions (that is to say)—

No such railway shall run parallel to the said railway—provided that this shall not apply to any railway line connecting any other colliery in that neighbourhood with the Great Northern Railway, the promoters shall not be bound to make any such openings in any place which they shall have set apart for any specific purpose with which such communication would interfere, nor upon any inclined plane or bridge, nor in any tunnel.

The persons making or using such branch railways shall be subject to all by-laws and regulations of the promoters, from time to time made, with respect to passing upon or crossing the railway and otherwise; and the persons making or using such branch railways shall be bound to construct, and from time to time, as need may require, to renew the off set plates and switches according to the most approved plan adopted by the promoters, under the direction of their engineer.

5. For the purposes, and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, it shall be lawful for the promoters, their deputies, agents, servants, and workmen, and all other persons by them authorized and empowered, to divert or alter the course of any road or way crossing the railway, or to raise or sink any road or way, in order the more conveniently to carry the same over, or under, or by the side of the railway.

Penalty for not sub tituting a road.

Power to divert or alter roads.

6. If the promoters do not cause another sufficient road to be so made before they interfere with any such existing road as aforesaid, they shall forfeit twenty pounds for every day during which such substituted road shall not be made after the existing road shall have been interrupted, and such penalty shall be paid to the trustees, commissioners, surveyor, or other persons having the management of such road, if a public road, and shall be applied for the purposes thereof, or in case of a private road, the same shall be paid to the owner thereof, and every such penalty shall be recoverable, with costs, by action in any of the superior Courts.

Right to earry passengers.

7. It shall be lawful for but not compulsory upon the said promoters from time to time, and at any and all times, to carry passengers and live stock upon the said railway or any part thereof respectively, and to make, demand, take, receive and recover such tolls or dues for carrying the same at such rates per mile, or other scale of charges as shall be established from time to time by the promoters for or in respect of all such passengers and live stock which shall be conveyed or transported upon such railway or any part thereof respectively. And the promoters are hereby authorized to make such by-laws and regulations not inconsistent with this Act as may be necessary for the regulation of such traffic, and such by-laws or regulations shall be binding upon all persons using or travelling upon the said railway, and any persons offending against such by-laws or regulations shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds for each offence, to be recovered in a summary way before any two Justices. Provided always that if the rates, tolls, or dues that may be established as aforesaid under and by virtue of this Act shall be found excessive, it shall and may be lawful for any person by petition to the Executive Council to reduce the said rates, tolls, or dues, and to revise them in such manner as may seem most proper and advisable.

8. If, in the course of making the railway, the promoters shall Road repairs. use or interfere with any road, they shall from time to time make good all damage done by them to such road, and if any question shall arise as to the damage done to any such road by the promoters, or as to the repair thereof by them, such question shall be referred to the determination of two Justices, and such Justices may direct such repairs to be made in the state of such road in respect of damage done by the promoters, and within such period as they may think reasonable, and may impose on the promoters for not carring into effect such repairs any penalty not exceeding ten pounds per day as to such Justices shall seem fit, and any such penalty shall be paid to the surveyor, or other person having the management of the road interfered with by the promoters, if a public road, and be applied for the purposes of such road, or if a private road, the same shall be paid to the owner thereof. Provided always the said Justices shall have regard to, and shall make full allowance for, any tolls that may have been paid to the promoters on such road in the course of the using thereof.

9. Until the promotors shall have made the bridges or other Owners crossing.

proper communications, which they shall, under the provisions herein contained, have been required to make between lands intersected and the railway, and no longer, the owners and occupiers of such lands, and any other persons whose right-of-way shall be affected by the want of such communications, and their respective servants, may at all times freely pass and repass with carriages, horses, and other animals directly but not otherwise, across any part of the railway made in or through their respective lands solely for the purpose of occupying the same lands, or for the exercise of such right-of-way, and so as not to obstruct the passage along the railway, or to damage the same; nevertheless if the owner or occupier of any such lands have, in his arrangements with the promotors, received, or agreed to receive, compensation for or on account of any such communications instead of the same being formed, such owner or occupier, or those claiming under him, shall not be entitled so to cross the railway.

10. If the railway cross any public highways or parish road on Provisions in cases a level, the promoters shall erect, and at all times maintain, good and where roads are sufficient gates across such road on each side of the railway where the same shall communicate therewith, and shall employ proper persons to open and shut such gates, and such gates shall be kept constantly closed across such roads on both sides of the railway, except during the time when horses, cattle, carts, or carriages passing along the same shall have to cross such railway, and such gates shall be of such dimensions, and so constructed as when closed to fence in the railway, and prevent cattle or horses passing along the road from entering upon the railway, and the person entrusted with the care of such gates shall cause the same to be closed as soon as such horses, cattle, carts, or carriages shall have passed through the same, under a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for every default therein, to be recoverable before any two Justices in a summary way. Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works in any case in which he shall be satisfied that it will be more conducive to the public safety that the gates or any level crossing over any such road shall be kept closed across the railway, to order that such gates shall be kept so closed instead of across the road, and in case such gates shall be kept constantly closed across the railway, except when engines or carriages passing along the railway shall have occasion to cross such road in the same manner and under the like penalty as above directed with respect to the gates being kept closed across the road.

11. In case of accidents or slips happening or being apprehended adjoining lands to to the cuttings, embankments, or other works of the said railway it repair accidents, shall subject to certain restrictions.

restrictions.

shall be lawful for the promoters and their workmen and servants to enter upon the land adjoining thereto at any time whatsoever for the purpose of repairing or preventing such accidents, and to do such works as may be necessary for the purpose, but in every such case the promoters shall within forty-eight hours after such entry make a report to the Secretary for Public Works, specifying the nature of such accident or apprehended accident, and of the works necessary to be done, and such powers shall cease and determine if the said Secretary shall, after considering the said report, certify that their exercise is not necessary for the public safety. Provided also that such works shall be as little injurious to the said adjoining lands as the nature of the accident or apprehended accident will admit of, and shall be executed with all possible despatch, and full compensation shall be made to the owners and occupiers of such lands for the loss or injury or inconvenience sustained by them respectively by reason of such works, the amount of which compensation, in case of any dispute about the same, shall be settled by arbitrators in the manner hereinafter mentioned. And provided also that no land shall be taken permanently for any such works otherwise than is herein provided with respect to the lands originally taken for the purpose of making the said railway.

Construction of bridges over roads.

12. Every bridge to be erected for the purpose of carrying the railway over any road shall be built in conformity with the following

regulations, that is to say :-

The width of the arch shall be such as to leave thereunder a clear space of not less than thirty feet, if the arch be over a public highway, and of twenty feet if over a parish road, and of

twelve feet if over a private road.

The clear height of the arch from the surface of the road shall not be less than sixteen feet for a space of twelve feet if the arch be over a main road, and fifteen feet for a space of ten feet if over a public carriage-road; and in each of such cases the clear height at the springing of the arch shall not be less than twelve feet; the clear height of the arch for a space of nine feet shall not be less than fourteen feet over a private road.

The descent made in the road in order to carry the same under the bridge shall not be more than one foot in thirty feet if the bridge be over a public highway, one foot in twenty feet if over a parish road, and one foot in sixteen feet if over a private road, not being a tramroad or railroad, or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the descent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

Construction of bridges over railroads

13. Every bridge erected for carrying any road over the railway shall be built in conformity with the following regulations, that is to say:

There shall be a good and sufficient fence on each side of the bridge, of not less height than four feet, and on each side of the immediate approaches of such bridge of not less than three feet.

The road over the bridge shall have a clear space between the fences thereof of thirty-five feet if the road be a public highway, and twenty-five feet if a parish road, and twelve feet if a private road.

The ascent shall not be more than one foot in thirty-feet if the road be a main road, one foot in twenty-feet if a parish road, and one foot in sixteen if a private road, not being a tramroad or railroad; or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the ascent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

14.

14. Provided always that in all cases where the average avail- The width of the able width for the passing of carriages of any existing road within fifty bridges need not exceed the width of yards of the point of crossing the same is less than the width herein- the road in certain before prescribed for bridges over or under the railway, the width of cases. such bridges need not be greater than such average available width of such roads, but so, nevertheless, that such bridges be not of less width in case of a public highway or parish road than twenty feet. Provided also, that if at any time after the construction of the railway, the average available width of any such road shall be increased beyond the width of such bridge on either side thereof, the promoters shall be bound at their own expense to increase the width of the said bridge to such extent as they may be required by the trustees or suveyors of such road, not exceeding the width of such road as so widened, or the maximum width herein prescribed for a bridge in the like case over or under the railway.

15. Provided also, that if the mesne inclination of any road Existing inclination within two hundred and fifty yards of the point of crossing the same, diverted need not or the inclination of such portion of any road as may be preserved to be improved. be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted, shall be steeper than the inclination hereinbefore required to be preserved by the promoters, then the promoters may carry any such road over or under the railway, or may construct such altered or substituted road at an inclination not steeper than the said mesne inclination of the road so to be crossed, or of the road so requiring to be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted.

16. The promoters shall make and at all times thereafter Works for benefit of maintain the following works for the accommodation of the owners and owners.

occupiers of lands adjoining the railway, that is to say—Such and so many convenient gates, bridges, arches, culverts, and Gates, bridges, &c. passages over, under, or by the sides of or leading to or from the railway as shall be necessary for the purpose of making good any interruptions caused by the railway to the use of the lands through which the railway shall be made; and such works shall be made forthwith after the part of the railway passing over such lands shall have been laid out or formed, or during the formation thereof.

All sufficient posts, rails, hedges, ditches, mounds or other fences Fences. for separating the land taken for the use of the railway from the adjoining lands not taken, and protecting such lands from trespass, or the cattle of the owners or occupiers thereof from straying thereon by reason of the railway, together with all necessary gates made to open towards such adjoining lands and not towards the railway; and all necessary stiles, and such posts, rails, and other fences shall be made forthwith after the taking of any such lands if the owners thereof shall so require, and the said other works as soon as conveniently may be.

Also, all necessary arches, tunnels, culverts, drains, or other Drains. passages, either over or under or by the sides of the railway of such dimensions as will be sufficient at all times to convey the water as clearly from the lands lying near or affected by the railway as before the making of the railway, or as nearly so as may be, and such works shall be made from time to time as the railway works proceed.

Also, proper watering-places for cattle or compensation in lieu Watering-places. thereof, where by reason of the railway the cattle of any person occupying any lands lying near thereto shall be deprived of access to their former watering-places; and such wateringplaces shall be so made as to be at all times sufficiently supplied with water as theretofore, and as if the railway had not been made, or as nearly so as may be. And the said promoters shall make all necessary watercourses and drains for the purpose of conveying water to the said watering-places.

Provided always that the promoters shall not be required to make such accommodation works in such a manner as would prevent or obstruct the working or using of the railway, nor to make any accommodation works with respect to which the owners and occupiers of the land shall have agreed to receive, and shall have been paid compensation instead of the making them.

Penalty on persons omitting to fasten gates.

17. If any person omit to shut and fasten any gate set up at either side of the railway for the accommodation of the owners or occupiers of the adjoining lands, so soon as he, and the carriage, cattle, or other animals under his care have passed through the same, he shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding ten pounds, to be recoverable in a summary way before any two Justices.

Minerals not to pass.

18. The promoters shall not be entitled to any minerals under any land whereof the surface is vested in them by virtue of this Act, except only such parts thereof as shall be necessary to be dug or carried away in the construction of the works hereby authorized. And such mines shall not be deemed to vest in the said promoters.

Compensation clause.

Appointment of arbitrators.

19. If within twenty-eight days after the passing of this Act, the said persons through whose lands the railway shall pass, or any of them and the promoters shall not agree as to the amount of compensation to be paid by them for the said lands belonging to the said parties, or any of them, or for any damage that may be sustained by them or him, by reason of the execution of the works, or if any other question as to compensation shall arise under this Act, the amount of such compensation shall be settled by arbitrators in manner hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: Unless both parties shall concur in the appointment of a single arbitrator, each party on the request of the other party shall nominate and appoint an arbitrator, to whom such dispute or other matter shall And every appointment of an arbitrator shall be under the hand of such party. And such appointment shall be delivered to the arbitrator or arbitrators, and shall be deemed a submission to arbitration on the part of the party by whom the same shall be made. And after any such appointment shall have been made, neither party shall have power to revoke the same without the consent of the other, nor shall the death of either party operate as a revocation. for the space of fourteen days after any such dispute or other matter shall have arisen, and after a request in writing shall have been served by the one party on the other party, to appoint an arbitrator, such lastmentioned party fail to appoint such arbitrator, then, upon such failure, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General for the time being of the said Colony, on the application of the party who has himself appointed an arbitrator, to appoint such arbitrator to act on behalf of both parties. And such arbitrator may proceed to hear and determine the matters which shall be in dispute. And in such case the award or determination of such single arbitrator shall be final and conclusive.

Vacancy of arbitrator to be supplied.

20. If, before the matter so referred shall be determined, any arbitrator appointed by either party shall die, or become incapable, or refuse, or for fourteen days neglect to act as arbitrator, the party by whom such arbitrator was appointed may nominate and appoint in writing some other person to act in his place. And if, for the space of seven days after notice in writing from the other party for that purpose, he fail to do so, the remaining or other arbitrators may proceed alone. And every arbitrator so to be substituted as aforesaid shall have the same powers and authorities as were vested in the former arbitrator at the time of such, his death, refusal, neglect, or disability as aforesaid.

21.

21. Where more than one arbitrator shall have been appointed Appointment of such arbitrators shall, before they enter upon the matters referred to umpire. them, nominate and appoint, by writing under their hands, an umpire to decide any matters on which they shall differ, or which shall be referred to them under the provisions of this Act. And if such umpire shall die, or refuse, or for seven days neglect to act, after being called upon to do so by the arbitrators, they shall forthwith, after such death, refusal, or neglect appoint another umpire in his place; and the decision of every such umpire on the matters so referred to him shall be final.

22. If in either of the cases aforesaid the arbitrators shall Attorney-General to refuse, or for seven days after request of either party to such appoint umpire on arbitration neglect to appoint an umpire, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General for the time being, on the application of either party to such arbitration, to appoint an umpire; and the decision of such umpire on the matters on which the arbitrators shall differ, or which shall be referred to him under this Act, shall be final.

23. If, when a single arbitrator shall have been appointed, In case of death of such arbitrator shall die, or become incapable, or shall refuse, or for single arbitrator the fourteen days neglect to act before he shall have made his award, the de novo. matters referred to him shall be determined by arbitration, under the provisions of this Act, in the same manner as if such arbitrator had not been appointed.

24. If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been If either arbitrator appointed, either of the arbitrators shall refuse, or for seven days refuse to act, the neglect to act, the other arbitrator may proceed alone; and the exparte decision of such other arbitrator shall be as effectual as if he had been

the single arbitrator appointed by both parties.

25. If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been if arbitrators fail to appointed, and where neither of them shall refuse or neglect to act as make their award aforespid, such arbitrators shall fail to make their award within twenty-one aforesaid, such arbitrators shall fail to make their award within twenty-days the matter to one days after the day on which the last of such arbitrators shall have go to the umpire. been appointed, or within such extended time (if any) as shall have been appointed for that purpose by both of such arbitrators under their hands, the matters referred to them shall be determined by the umpire to be so appointed as aforesaid.

26. The said arbitrators or their umpire may call for the pro-Powers of arbitrators duction of any documents in the possession or power of either party to call for books, &c. which they or he may think necessary for determining the question in dispute, and may examine the parties or their witnesses on oath, and administer the oaths necessary for that purpose.

27. Before any arbitrator or umpire shall enter into the con-Arbitrator or umpire sideration of any matters referred to him, he shall, in the presence of to make a declaration of for faithful discharge a Justice of the Peace, make and subscribe the following declaration, of duty. that is to say-

I, A.B. do solemnly and sincerely declare that I will faithfully and honestly, and to the best of my skill and ability, hear and determine the matters referred to me under the provisions of the "Silkstone Coal-mine Railway Act."

Made and subscribed in the presence of

A.B.

And such declaration shall be annexed to the award when made, and Penalty for miscon if any arbitrator or umpire, having made such declaration, shall wil-duct. fully act contrary thereto, he shall be guilty of misdemeanour.

28. All the costs of any such arbitration and incident thereto Cost of arbitration to be settled by the arbitrators shall be borne by the promoters, unless how to be borne. the arbitrators shall award the same or a less sum than shall have been offered by the promoters, in which case each party shall bear his own costs incident to the arbitration, and the costs of the arbitrators shall be borne by the parties in equal proportions, unless the amount awarded awarded shall be one-fourth less than the amount, in which case the whole costs shall be paid by the claimant. Provided that if either party shall be dissatisfied with the costs allowed by the arbitrators as aforesaid, the costs may be taxed by the Prothonotary or other proper officer of the Supreme Court, and the amount allowed by such officer shall be the amount of costs to be paid.

Award to be delivered to the promoters.

Award not void through error in

Compensation for temporary or permanent or recurring

form.

injuries

29. The arbitrators shall deliver their award in writing to the promoters, who shall retain the same, and shall forthwith, on demand, at their own expense, furnish a copy thereof to the other party, and shall at all times on demand produce the said award, and allow the same to be inspected or examined by such party, or any person appointed by him for that purpose, and the amount awarded shall be paid within sixty days after the publication of such award.

Submission may be 30. The submission to any such arbitration in made a rule of Court, rule of the Supreme Court on the application of either of the parties. 30. The submission to any such arbitration may be made a

31. No award made with respect to any question referred to arbitration, under the provisions of this Act, shall be set aside for

irregularity or error in matter of form.

32. The promoters shall make compensation and satisfaction to the said owners and occupiers (the amount of such compensation and satisfaction to be ascertained and recovered in case of difference in the manner hereby provided) for temporary, permanent, or recurring injury, and all other damage, loss, costs, charges, and inconvenience which may in anywise be occasioned to the said owners or occupiers by the non-performance by the said promoters of any of the matters and things hereby required to be performed by them or otherwise.

Compensation to be made for temporary occupation.

33. In every case where the promoters shall take temporary possession of lands by virtue of the powers hereby granted, it shall be incumbent on them, within one month after their entry upon such lands, upon being required so to do, to pay to the occupier of the said lands, the value of any crop or dressing that may be thereon, as well as full compensation for any other damage of a temporary nature which he may sustain by reason of their so taking possession of their lands; and they shall also from time to time during their occupation of the said lands pay half-yearly to such occupier or to the owner of the lands, as the case may require, a rent to be fixed by two Justices in case the parties differ, and shall also within six months after the completion of the railway, pay to such owner or occupier or deposit in a bank for the benefit of all parties interested, as the case may require, compensation of all permanent or other loss, damage, or injury that may have been sustained by them by reason of the exercise as regards the said lands of the powers hereby granted, including the full value of all clay, stone, gravel, sand, and other things taken from such lands.

Power for Government to purchase railway.

34. It shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works on behalf of the Government, at any time by notice in writing, to require the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns to sell, and thereupon the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall sell to the Government, as the case may be, the said railway upon the terms of paying the then value (exclusive of any allowance for past or future profits of the said railway or any compensation for compulsory sale or other consideration whatsoever) of the said railway, and all lands, buildings, works, materials, and plant of the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, suitable to and used by them for the purposes of the said railway, such value in case of difference to be ascertained by arbitration in the manner provided by the "Public Works Act of 1888," fifty-first Victoria number thirty-seven, for settling cases of disputed compensation, and subject to the terms and conditions therein contained. when any such sale shall have been made to the said Government, the said railway, lands, buildings, works, materials, plant, and premises shall vest in the Commissioners for Railways, who shall have all the rights, powers, and authorities of the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns in respect of the said railway so sold.

35. For the purpose of regulating the conduct of the officers company may make and servants of the promoters, and for providing for the due manage-by-laws. ment of the affairs of the promoters in all respects, it shall be lawful for the promoters, subject to the provisions herein mentioned, from time to time to make such by-laws and regulations as they shall think fit. Provided that such by-laws be not repugnant to the laws of the Colony, or to the provisions of this Act; and such by-laws shall be reduced into writing, and shall have affixed thereto the names of the promoters, and a copy of such by-laws shall be given to every officer and servant of the promoters affected thereby, and such by-laws may specify a maximum and minimum penalty for any breach thereof, such penalty to be proceeded for and recovered under the provisions of the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, chapter forty-three. Provided always that any by-laws of the said promoters relating to penalties must be first approved of by the Attorney-General of the Colony for the time being.

36. The production of a printed or written copy of the by-laws Evidence of by-laws.

of the promoters, shall be sufficient evidence of such by-laws in all

proceedings under the same.

37. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to authorize the said Lands belonging to commissioners for promoters to take or enter upon any lands belonging to the Commis-Railways not to be sioners for Railways, or to alter or to interfere with the Great Northern Railway, or any of the works thereof, further or otherwise than is necessary for making the junction and inter-communication between the Railways, without the previous consent in writing in every instance of the Commissioners for Railways.

38. The said Commissioners shall from time to time erect such Commissioners may signals and conveniences incident to the junction, either upon their appoint watchmen own lands or on the lands of the promoters, and may from time to and switchmen. time appoint and remove such watchmen, switchmen, and other persons, as may be necessary for the prevention of danger to or interference with the traffic at or near the junction, and in all cases at the expense of the promoters. 39. The working and management of such signals and con-Working of signals veniences, wherever situate, shall be under the exclusive regulation to be under regulaof the Commissioners for Railways.

40. Nothing herein contained shall alter, repeal, or otherwise Public Works and Government Railways affect the "Public Works Act of 1888," or the "Government Railways Acts of 1888 not altered or repealed." Act of 1888."

41. In this Act the word "Justices" shall mean Justices of Interpretation the Peace in and for the territory of New South Wales; and when any matter shall be authorized or required to be done by two Justices, the expression "two Justices" shall mean two Justices assembled and acting together in Petty Sessions or a Stipendiary or Police Magistrate; the word "Owner" shall mean any person or corporation who under the provisions of this Act would be able to sell land to the promoters; and the word "promoters" shall mean and include the said Richard Tilden Smith and John Thomas Mance, and the survivor of them, and the heirs, executors, or administrators of such survivor, their or his assigns.

42. This Act whenever cited shall be sufficiently described as Short title.

the "Silkstone Coal-mine Railway Act of 1889."

SCHEDULE.

SCHEDULE.

From a point inside the boundary of their property, situate in the parish of Stanford, county of Northumberland, and from thence crossing the eastern boundary in a north-easterly direction through properties held by S. Hebblewhite, James Weston, H. J. Adams, J. Callaghan, Samuel Clift, W. Turnbull, and J. H. Swan, and through land believed to be owned by Miss Nine, Mrs. Harrington, J. Hickey, the East Greta Coal Company, J. Leonard, H. H. Capper, E. P. Capper, Mrs. Pilcher, J. Woolf, J. Callaghan, E. Hungerford, C. Simpson, and others, and being portions of a parcel of land formerly owned by E. Hungerford, containing two thousand acres, the line running generally in a north-easterly direction through the said properties; thence crossing the Telarah Road to and through property held by Peter Green, and terminating at a point on the Great Northern Railway at twenty miles sixty-five chains seventy-two links from Newcastle.

By Authority: CHARLES POTTER, Government Printer, Sydney, 1889.

I Certify that this PRIVATE BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

Legislative Assembly Chamber, Sydney, 25 September, 1889.

F. W. WEBB, Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

An Act to enable Richard Tilden Smith, of Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, and John Thomas Mance, of Parramatta, in the said Colony, to construct a Railway from the Silkstone Coal-mine to the Great Northern Railway. [Assented to, 30th September, 1889.]

WHEREAS Richard Tilden Smith, of Sydney, in the Colony of Preamble. New South Wales, and John Thomas Mance, of Parramatta, in the said Colony, have opened coal-mines upon lands situated near Maitland, in the parish of Stanford, in the county of Northumberland, and in order to facilitate communication between the said coal-mines and the Great Northern Railway, the said Richard Tilden Smith and John Thomas Mance, hereinafter designated the promoters, are desirous of constructing a railway from their said coal-mines to the Great Northern Railway, but as part of such proposed railway is intended to be made upon and pass through land believed to be the property of the Crown, bodies corporate, and private persons respectively, the same cannot be made without Legislative authority. And whereas the said coal-mines are likely to prove beneficial to the Colony, and the public are concerned in promoting such an increase in and facilities for the supply of coal for local consumption, steam navigation, and export, as would result from the construction of the said proposed railway, and traffic on the Great Northern Railway would be increased

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

NINIAN MELVILLE, Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

increased thereby. It is therefore desirable to authorize by Legislative enactment the construction of the said railway, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, upon payment of compensation to the several parties through whose land the same shall pass for such portion of their respective lands as may be required to be taken and occupied Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled,

Authority to con-struct railway, and connect same with Great Northern Railway.

and by authority of the same, as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the said promoters to make and construct a railway, which shall be of the same gauge as the Government Railways, from a point inside the boundary of their property situated in the parish of Stanford, county of Northumberland, and from thence crossing the eastern boundary in a north-easterly direction, through properties held by S. Hebblewhite, James Weston, H. J. Adams, J. Callaghan, Samuel Clift, W. Turnbull, and P. H. Swan, and through land believed to be owned by Miss Nine, Mrs. Harrington, J. Hickey, the East Greta Coal Company, J. Leonard, H. H. Capper, E. P. Capper, Mrs. Pilcher, J. Woolf, J. Callaghan, E. Hungerford, C. Simpson, and others, and being portion of a parcel of land formerly owned by E. Hungerford, containing two thousand acres, the line running generally in a north-easterly direction through the said properties; thence crossing a road, known as the Telarah Road, to and through property held by Peter Green, and terminating at a point on the Great Northern Railway, at twenty miles sixty-five chains seventytwo links from Newcastle, and which lands and route are particularly described in the Schedule, and to effect, if necessary, a junction between the said line and the Great Northern Railway in accordance with section one hundred and twelve of the "Public Works Act of 1888," such railway to be in the direction described in the Schedule, and the said promoters may take and occupy three acres of land, or any lesser area, at the junction of the said railway with the Great Northern Railway.

Site of railway shall be vested in the promoters without eonveyance.

2. The ground and soil of so much of the site of the railway as passes over the lands of the said owners of lands respectively, and over Crown Lands, together with such rights of ingress, egress, and regress upon the adjacent land as may be necessary for the making and repair of such railway, shall so far as is necessary for the purpose of this Act be vested, by virtue of this Act, and without the necessity of any conveyance, in the promoters for the purposes of the railway. Provided that no lands vested in the Commissioners for Railways shall by virtue of this Act be vested in the promoters, and nothing herein contained shall prevent the said owners from carrying on any mining operations beneath the said railway which shall not interfere with the safety of the said railway and the traffic thereon; and the promoters shall have no further right to the soil of the said lands beneath the surface than shall be requisite for the formation and repairs of the said road by cutting, embanking, sinking wells, or otherwise. Provided that the said railway shall be constructed and brought into use within three years after the passing of this Act, and that in default thereof, or if after its completion, the said railway shall cease to be used for three years continuously, all the said lands, including Crown Lands, and all the said promoters' interest and estate therein shall revert without any conveyance to the Crown and original owners thereof, their heirs and assigns respectively. Provided also that if in the exercise of the powers hereby granted it be found necessary to cross-cut through, sink, raise, or use any part of any road, so as to render it impassable for, or dangerous or inconvenient to the persons entitled to the use thereof, the promoters shall, before the commencement of any such operations, cause a sufficient road to be made instead of any road interfered with, and shall, at their own expense, maintain such substituted road in a state as convenient as the road interfered with, or as nearly as may be. And the promoters, before they use the said lands of the said owners of land and the said Crown Lands respectively for any of the purposes aforesaid, shall, if required so to do, separate the same by a sufficient fence from the land adjoining thereto, with such gates as may be required for the convenient occupation of such land, and shall also, to all private roads used by them as aforesaid, put up fences and gates in like manner in all cases where the same may be necessary to prevent the straying of cattle from or upon the lands traversed by such roads, and in case of any difference between the owners or occupiers of such roads and lands and the promoters as to the necessity for such fences and gates, then the said promoters shall put up and erect such fences and gates as any two Justices of the Peace, after inquiry, shall deem necessary for the purposes aforesaid, on application being made to them.

3. The railway shall be open to the public use for the con-Railway open to the veyance of coal and goods upon payment of a toll to the promoters public. for the conveyance of coal of a sum not exceeding one penny per ton per mile, with a minimum charge of threepence per ton in respect of every ton of coal for every transit, and for the conveyance of goods at the rate per ton not exceeding that charged by the Commissioners for Railways in respect of every ton of goods for every transit, the person seeking transit supplying and loading his own trucks or on Government waggons, and the promoters or Government supplying locomotive power; and all trucks when emptied, shall be conveyed, on their return, free of charge. Provided always, that it shall not be compulsory on the promoters to supply locomotive power unless the party seeking transit guarantee and bring one hundred tons, at least, during the twelve working hours, and give notice of same at least, twenty-four hours previously. The railway shall at all times be open to the public for conveyance of coal and goods upon payment of a toll to the promoters for the conveyance of coal of a sum not exceeding one half-penny per ton per mile, with a minimum charge of twopence per ton in respect of every ton of coal for every transit, and for goods of a sum not exceeding one penny half-penny per ton per mile in respect of every ton of goods for every transit, if the party seeking transit supply the locomotive power as well as the trucks and waggons. Provided that so long as the promoters shall be willing to supply locomotive power, no other person shall use locomotive power on the line other than the Commissioners for Railways. Provided that if the railway shall be damaged by parties who shall themselves use the railway for transit and supply locomotive power, the promoters shall be entitled to compensation for such damage, to be recovered, either by action in the Supreme Court of New South Wales, or, if such damage do not exceed the sum of twenty pounds, summarily before two Justices; and in estimating such damage, the promoters shall be entitled, not only to compensation for the cost of repairing and restoring the railway, but to the consequential damage (if any) sustained by reason of the suspension of transit or otherwise.

4. It shall be lawful for the owners or occupiers of the lands Branch railways. adjoining thereto or traversed by the said railway to lay down upon their own lands any collateral branches of railway to communicate with the said railway for the purpose of bringing carriages, trucks, and waggons to or from or upon the said railway, and the promoters shall, if required, at the expense of such owners or occupiers, make openings in the rails and such additional lines of railway as may be necessary for effecting such communication in places where the communication can be made with safety to the public and without injury

to the said railway, and without inconvenience to the traffic thereupon, and the promoters shall not take any rate or toll or other moneys for the passing of any passengers, coal, and goods, or other things along any branch so to be made by any such owner or occupier or other person, but this enactment shall be subject to the following restrictions

and conditions (that is to say)-

No such railway shall run parallel to the said railway—provided that this shall not apply to any railway line connecting any other colliery in that neighbourhood with the Great Northern Railway, the promoters shall not be bound to make any such openings in any place which they shall have set apart for any specific purpose with which such communication would interfere, nor upon any inclined plane or bridge, nor in any tunnel.

The persons making or using such branch railways shall be subject to all by-laws and regulations of the promoters, from time to time made, with respect to passing upon or crossing the railway and otherwise; and the persons making or using such branch railways shall be bound to construct, and from time to time, as need may require, to renew the off set plates and switches according to the most approved plan adopted by the promoters, under the direction of their engineer.

5. For the purposes, and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, it shall be lawful for the promoters, their deputies, agents, servants, and workmen, and all other persons by them authorized and empowered, to divert or alter the course of any road or way crossing the railway, or to raise or sink any road or way, in order the more conveniently to carry the same over, or under, or by the side of the railway.

Penalty for not sub. stituting a road.

Power to divert or alter roads.

> 6. If the promoters do not cause another sufficient road to be so made before they interfere with any such existing road as aforesaid, they shall forfeit twenty pounds for every day during which such substituted road shall not be made after the existing road shall have been interrupted, and such penalty shall be paid to the trustees, commissioners, surveyor, or other persons having the management of such road, if a public road, and shall be applied for the purposes thereof, or in case of a private road, the same shall be paid to the owner thereof, and every such penalty shall be recoverable, with costs,

by action in any of the superior Courts.

7. It shall be lawful for but not compulsory upon the said promoters from time to time, and at any and all times, to carry passengers and live stock upon the said railway or any part thereof respectively, and to make, demand, take, receive and recover such tolls or dues for carrying the same at such rates per mile, or other scale of charges as shall be established from time to time by the promoters for or in respect of all such passengers and live stock which shall be conveyed or transported upon such railway or any part thereof respectively. And the promoters are hereby authorized to make such by-laws and regulations not inconsistent with this Act as may be necessary for the regulation of such traffic, and such by-laws or regulations shall be binding upon all persons using or travelling upon the said railway, and any persons offending against such by-laws or regulations shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds for each offence, to be recovered in a summary way before any two Justices. Provided always that if the rates, tolls, or dues that may be established as aforesaid under and by virtue of this Act shall be found excessive, it shall and may be lawful for any person by petition to the Executive Council to reduce the said rates, tolls, or dues, and to revise them in such manner as may seem most proper and advisable.

Right to carry passengers.

8. If, in the course of making the railway, the promoters shall Road repairs. use or interfere with any road, they shall from time to time make good all damage done by them to such road, and if any question shall arise as to the damage done to any such road by the promoters, or as to the repair thereof by them, such question shall be referred to the determination of two Justices, and such Justices may direct such repairs to be made in the state of such road in respect of damage done by the promoters, and within such period as they may think reasonable, and may impose on the promoters for not carring into effect such repairs any penalty not exceeding ten pounds per day as to such Justices shall seem fit, and any such penalty shall be paid to the surveyor, or other person having the management of the road interfered with by the promoters, if a public road, and be applied for the purposes of such road, or if a private road, the same shall be paid to the owner thereof. Provided always the said Justices shall have regard to, and shall make full allowance for, any tolls that may have been paid to the promoters on such road in the course of the using thereof.

9. Until the promotors shall have made the bridges or other Owners crossing. proper communications, which they shall, under the provisions herein contained, have been required to make between lands intersected and the railway, and no longer, the owners and occupiers of such lands, and any other persons whose right-of-way shall be affected by the want of such communications, and their respective servants, may at all times freely pass and repass with carriages, horses, and other animals directly but not otherwise, across any part of the railway made in or through their respective lands solely for the purpose of occupying the same lands, or for the exercise of such right-of-way, and so as not to obstruct the passage along the railway, or to damage the same; nevertheless if the owner or occupier of any such lands have, in his arrangements with the promotors, received, or agreed to receive, compensation for or on account of any such communications instead of the same being formed, such owner or occupier, or those claiming under him, shall not be entitled so to cross the railway.

10. If the railway cross any public highways or parish road on Provisions in cases a level, the promoters shall erect, and at all times maintain, good and where roads are crossed on a level. sufficient gates across such road on each side of the railway where the same shall communicate therewith, and shall employ proper persons to open and shut such gates, and such gates shall be kept constantly closed across such roads on both sides of the railway, except during the time when horses, cattle, carts, or carriages passing along the same shall have to cross such railway, and such gates shall be of such dimensions, and so constructed as when closed to fence in the railway, and prevent cattle or horses passing along the road from entering upon the railway, and the person entrusted with the care of such gates shall cause the same to be closed as soon as such horses, cattle, carts, or carriages shall have passed through the same, under a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for every default therein, to be recoverable before any two Justices in a summary way. Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works in any case in which he shall be satisfied that it will be more conducive to the public safety that the gates or any level crossing over any such road shall be kept closed across the railway, to order that such gates shall be kept so closed instead of across the road, and in case such gates shall be kept constantly closed across the railway, except when engines or carriages passing along the railway shall have occasion to cross such road in the same manner and under the like penalty as above directed with respect to the gates being kept closed across the road.

11. In case of accidents or slips happening or being apprehended to the cuttings, embankments, or other works of the said railway it repair accidents, shall subject to certain restrictions.

shall be lawful for the promoters and their workmen and servants to enter upon the land adjoining thereto at any time whatsoever for the purpose of repairing or preventing such accidents, and to do such works as may be necessary for the purpose, but in every such case the promoters shall within forty-eight hours after such entry make a report to the Secretary for Public Works, specifying the nature of such accident or apprehended accident, and of the works necessary to be done, and such powers shall cease and determine if the said Secretary shall, after considering the said report, certify that their exercise is not necessary for the public safety. Provided also that such works shall be as little injurious to the said adjoining lands as the nature of the accident or apprehended accident will admit of, and shall be executed with all possible despatch, and full compensation shall be made to the owners and occupiers of such lands for the loss or injury or inconvenience sustained by them respectively by reason of such works, the amount of which compensation, in case of any dispute about the same, shall be settled by arbitrators in the manner hereinafter mentioned. And provided also that no land shall be taken permanently for any such works otherwise than is herein provided with respect to the lands originally taken for the purpose of making the said railway.

Construction of bridges over roads.

- 12. Every bridge to be erected for the purpose of carrying the railway over any road shall be built in conformity with the following regulations, that is to say:—
  - The width of the arch shall be such as to leave thereunder a clear space of not less than thirty feet, if the arch be over a public highway, and of twenty feet if over a parish road, and of twelve feet if over a private road.
  - The clear height of the arch from the surface of the road shall not be less than sixteen feet for a space of twelve feet if the arch be over a main road, and fifteen feet for a space of ten feet if over a public carriage-road; and in each of such cases the clear height at the springing of the arch shall not be less than twelve feet; the clear height of the arch for a space of nine feet shall not be less than fourteen feet over a private road.
  - The descent made in the road in order to carry the same under the bridge shall not be more than one foot in thirty feet if the bridge be over a public highway, one foot in twenty feet if over a parish road, and one foot in sixteen feet if over a private road, not being a tramroad or railroad, or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the descent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

Construction of bridges over railroads

- 13. Every bridge erected for carrying any road over the railway shall be built in conformity with the following regulations, that is to say:—
  - There shall be a good and sufficient fence on each side of the bridge, of not less height than four feet, and on each side of the immediate approaches of such bridge of not less than three feet.
  - The road over the bridge shall have a clear space between the fences thereof of thirty-five feet if the road be a public highway, and twenty-five feet if a parish road, and twelve feet if a private road.
  - The ascent shall not be more than one foot in thirty-feet if the road be a main road, one foot in twenty-feet if a parish road, and one foot in sixteen if a private road, not being a tramroad or railroad; or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the ascent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

14. Provided always that in all cases where the average avail- The width of the able width for the passing of carriages of any existing road within fifty bridges need not yards of the point of crossing the same is less than the width herein-the road in certain before prescribed for bridges over or under the railway, the width of cases. such bridges need not be greater than such average available width of such roads, but so, nevertheless, that such bridges be not of less width in case of a public highway or parish road than twenty feet. also, that if at any time after the construction of the railway, the average available width of any such road shall be increased beyond the width of such bridge on either side thereof, the promoters shall be bound at their own expense to increase the width of the said bridge to such extent as they may be required by the trustees or suveyors of such road, not exceeding the width of such road as so widened, or the maximum width herein prescribed for a bridge in the like case over or under the railway.

15. Provided also, that if the mesne inclination of any road Existing inclination within two hundred and fifty yards of the point of crossing the same, of roads crossed or diverted need not or the inclination of such portion of any road as may be preserved to be improved. be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted, shall be steeper than the inclination hereinbefore required to be preserved by the promoters, then the promoters may carry any such road over or under the railway, or may construct such altered or substituted road at an inclination not steeper than the said mesne inclination of the road so to be crossed, or of the road so requiring to be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted.

16. The promoters shall make and at all times thereafter works for benefit of maintain the following works for the accommodation of the owners and owners. occupiers of lands adjoining the railway, that is to say-

Such and so many convenient gates, bridges, arches, culverts, and Gates, bridges, &c. passages over, under, or by the sides of or leading to or from the railway as shall be necessary for the purpose of making good any interruptions caused by the railway to the use of the lands through which the railway shall be made; and such works shall be made forthwith after the part of the railway passing over such lands shall have been laid out or formed, or during the formation thereof.

All sufficient posts, rails, hedges, ditches, mounds or other fences Fences. for separating the land taken for the use of the railway from the adjoining lands not taken, and protecting such lands from trespass, or the cattle of the owners or occupiers thereof from straying thereon by reason of the railway, together with all necessary gates made to open towards such adjoining lands and not towards the railway; and all necessary stiles, and such posts, rails, and other fences shall be made forthwith after the taking of any such lands if the owners thereof shall so require, and the said other works as soon as conveniently may be.

Also, all necessary arches, tunnels, culverts, drains, or other Drains. passages, either over or under or by the sides of the railway of such dimensions as will be sufficient at all times to convey the water as clearly from the lands lying near or affected by the railway as before the making of the railway, or as nearly so as may be, and such works shall be made from time to time as the railway works proceed.

Also, proper watering-places for cattle or compensation in lieu watering-places. thereof, where by reason of the railway the cattle of any person occupying any lands lying near thereto shall be deprived of access to their former watering-places; and such wateringplaces shall be so made as to be at all times sufficiently supplied with water as theretofore, and as if the railway had not been made, or as nearly so as may be. And the said promoters shall make all necessary watercourses and drains for the purpose of conveying water to the said watering-places.

Provided always that the promoters shall not be required to make such accommodation works in such a manner as would prevent or obstruct the working or using of the railway, nor to make any accommodation works with respect to which the owners and occupiers of the land shall have agreed to receive, and shall have been paid compensation instead of the making them.

Penalty on persons omitting to fasten gates.

17. If any person omit to shut and fasten any gate set up at either side of the railway for the accommodation of the owners or occupiers of the adjoining lands, so soon as he, and the carriage, cattle, or other animals under his care have passed through the same, he shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding ten pounds, to be recoverable in a summary way before any two Justices.

Minerals not to pass.

18. The promoters shall not be entitled to any minerals under any land whereof the surface is vested in them by virtue of this Act, except only such parts thereof as shall be necessary to be dug or carried away in the construction of the works hereby authorized.

Compensation clause.

And such mines shall not be deemed to vest in the said promoters. 19. If within twenty-eight days after the passing of this Act, the said persons through whose lands the railway shall pass, or any of them and the promoters shall not agree as to the amount of compensation to be paid by them for the said lands belonging to the said parties, or any of them, or for any damage that may be sustained by them or him, by reason of the execution of the works, or if any other question as to compensation shall arise under this Act, the amount of such compensation shall be settled by arbitrators in manner hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: Unless both parties shall concur in the appointment of a single arbitrator, each party on the request of the other party shall nominate and appoint an arbitrator, to whom such dispute or other matter shall And every appointment of an arbitrator shall be under the hand of such party. And such appointment shall be delivered to the arbitrator or arbitrators, and shall be deemed a submission to arbitration on the part of the party by whom the same shall be made. And after any such appointment shall have been made, neither party shall have power to revoke the same without the consent of the other, nor shall the death of either party operate as a revocation. for the space of fourteen days after any such dispute or other matter shall have arisen, and after a request in writing shall have been served by the one party on the other party, to appoint an arbitrator, such lastmentioned party fail to appoint such arbitrator, then, upon such failure, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General for the time being of the said Colony, on the application of the party who has himself appointed an arbitrator, to appoint such arbitrator to act on behalf of both parties. And such arbitrator may proceed to hear and determine the matters which shall be in dispute. And in such case the award or determination of such single arbitrator shall be final and conclusive.

Appointment of arbitrators.

Vacancy of arbitrator to be supplied.

20. If, before the matter so referred shall be determined, any arbitrator appointed by either party shall die, or become incapable, or refuse, or for fourteen days neglect to act as arbitrator, the party by whom such arbitrator was appointed may nominate and appoint in writing some other person to act in his place. And if, for the space of seven days after notice in writing from the other party for that purpose, he fail to do so, the remaining or other arbitrators may proceed alone. And every arbitrator so to be substituted as aforesaid shall have the same powers and authorities as were vested in the former arbitrator at the time of such, his death, refusal, neglect, or disability as aforesaid.

21. Where more than one arbitrator shall have been appointed Appointment of such arbitrators shall, before they enter upon the matters referred to umpire. them, nominate and appoint, by writing under their hands, an umpire to decide any matters on which they shall differ, or which shall be referred to them under the provisions of this Act. And if such umpire shall die, or refuse, or for seven days neglect to act, after being called upon to do so by the arbitrators, they shall forthwith, after such death, refusal, or neglect appoint another umpire in his place; and the decision of every such umpire on the matters so referred to him shall be final.

22. If in either of the cases aforesaid the arbitrators shall Attorney-General to refuse, or for seven days after request of either party to such appoint umpire on arbitration neglect to appoint an armine it shall be leaven for the arbitration neglect to appoint an umpire, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General for the time being, on the application of either party to such arbitration, to appoint an umpire; and the decision of such umpire on the matters on which the arbitrators shall differ, or which shall be referred to him under this Act, shall be final.

23. If, when a single arbitrator shall have been appointed, In case of death of such arbitrator shall die, or become incapable, or shall refuse, or for single arbitrator the fourteen days neglect to act before he shall have made his award, the de novo. matters referred to him shall be determined by arbitration, under the provisions of this Act, in the same manner as if such arbitrator had not been appointed.

24. If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been if either arbitrator appointed, either of the arbitrators shall refuse, or for seven days refuse to act, the other to proceed neglect to act, the other arbitrator may proceed alone; and the ex parte. decision of such other arbitrator shall be as effectual as if he had been

the single arbitrator appointed by both parties.

25. If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been if arbitrators fail to appointed, and where neither of them shall refuse or neglect to act as make their award aforesaid, such arbitrators shall fail to make their award within twenty-days the matter to one days after the day on which the last of such arbitrators shall have go to the umpire. been appointed, or within such extended time (if any) as shall have been appointed for that purpose by both of such arbitrators under their hands, the matters referred to them shall be determined by the umpire to be so appointed as aforesaid.

26. The said arbitrators or their umpire may call for the pro-Powers of arbitrators duction of any documents in the possession or power of either party to call for books, &c. which they or he may think necessary for determining the question in dispute, and may examine the parties or their witnesses on oath, and administer the oaths necessary for that purpose.

27. Before any arbitrator or umpire shall enter into the con-Arbitrator or umpire sideration of any matters referred to him, he shall, in the presence of to make a declaration for faithful discharge a Justice of the Peace, make and subscribe the following declaration, of duty. that is to say-

I, A.B. do solemnly and sincerely declare that I will faithfully and honestly, and to the best of my skill and ability, hear and determine the matters referred to me under the provisions of the "Silkstone Coal-mine Railway Act."

Made and subscribed in the presence of

A.B.

And such declaration shall be annexed to the award when made, and Penalty for misconif any arbitrator or umpire, having made such declaration, shall wil-duct. fully act contrary thereto, he shall be guilty of misdemeanour.

28. All the costs of any such arbitration and incident thereto Cost of arbitration to be settled by the arbitrators shall be borne by the promoters, unless how to be borne. the arbitrators shall award the same or a less sum than shall have been offered by the promoters, in which case each party shall bear his own costs incident to the arbitration, and the costs of the arbitrators shall be borne by the parties in equal proportions, unless the amount awarded awarded shall be one-fourth less than the amount, in which case the whole costs shall be paid by the claimant. Provided that if either party shall be dissatisfied with the costs allowed by the arbitrators as aforesaid, the costs may be taxed by the Prothonotary or other proper officer of the Supreme Court, and the amount allowed by such officer shall be the amount of costs to be paid.

Award to be delivered to the promoters.

Award not void through error in

Compensation for

form.

injuries.

29. The arbitrators shall deliver their award in writing to the promoters, who shall retain the same, and shall forthwith, on demand, at their own expense, furnish a copy thereof to the other party, and shall at all times on demand produce the said award, and allow the same to be inspected or examined by such party, or any person appointed by him for that purpose, and the amount awarded shall be paid within sixty days after the publication of such award.

Submission may be a rule of Court. rule of the Supreme Court on the application of either of the parties. 30. The submission to any such arbitration may be made a

31. No award made with respect to any question referred to arbitration, under the provisions of this Act, shall be set aside for

irregularity or error in matter of form.

32. The promoters shall make compensation and satisfaction to temporary or perma-nent or recurring the said owners and occupiers (the amount of such compensation and satisfaction to be ascertained and recovered in case of difference in the manner hereby provided) for temporary, permanent, or recurring injury, and all other damage, loss, costs, charges, and inconvenience which may in anywise be occasioned to the said owners or occupiers by the non-performance by the said promoters of any of the matters and things hereby required to be performed by them or otherwise.

Compensation to be made for temporary occupation.

33. In every case where the promoters shall take temporary possession of lands by virtue of the powers hereby granted, it shall be incumbent on them, within one month after their entry upon such lands, upon being required so to do, to pay to the occupier of the said lands, the value of any crop or dressing that may be thereon, as well as full compensation for any other damage of a temporary nature which he may sustain by reason of their so taking possession of their lands; and they shall also from time to time during their occupation of the said lands pay half-yearly to such occupier or to the owner of the lands, as the case may require, a rent to be fixed by two Justices in case the parties differ, and shall also within six months after the completion of the railway, pay to such owner or occupier or deposit in a bank for the benefit of all parties interested, as the case may require, compensation of all permanent or other loss, damage, or injury that may have been sustained by them by reason of the exercise as regards the said lands of the powers hereby granted, including the full value of all clay, stone, gravel, sand, and other things taken from such lands.

Power for Government to purchase railway.

34. It shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works on behalf of the Government, at any time by notice in writing, to require the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns to sell, and thereupon the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall sell to the Government, as the case may be, the said railway upon the terms of paying the then value (exclusive of any allowance for past or future profits of the said railway or any compensation for compulsory sale or other consideration whatsoever) of the said railway, and all lands, buildings, works, materials, and plant of the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, suitable to and used by them for the purposes of the said railway, such value in case of difference to be ascertained by arbitration in the manner provided by the "Public Works Act of 1888," fifty-first Victoria number thirty-seven, for settling cases of disputed compensation, and subject to the terms and conditions therein contained. when any such sale shall have been made to the said Government, the said railway, lands, buildings, works, materials, plant, and premises shall vest in the Commissioners for Railways, who shall have all the rights, powers, and authorities of the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns in respect of the said railway so sold.

35. For the purpose of regulating the conduct of the officers Company may make and servants of the promoters, and for providing for the due manage-by-laws. ment of the affairs of the promoters in all respects, it shall be lawful for the promoters, subject to the provisions herein mentioned, from time to time to make such by-laws and regulations as they shall think fit. Provided that such by-laws be not repugnant to the laws of the Colony, or to the provisions of this Act; and such by-laws shall be reduced into writing, and shall have affixed thereto the names of the promoters, and a copy of such by-laws shall be given to every officer and servant of the promoters affected thereby, and such by-laws may specify a maximum and minimum penalty for any breach thereof, such penalty to be proceeded for and recovered under the provisions of the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, chapter forty-three. Provided always that any by-laws of the said promoters relating to penalties must be first approved of by the Attorney-General of the Colony for the time being.

36. The production of a printed or written copy of the by-laws Evidence of by-laws. of the promoters, shall be sufficient evidence of such by-laws in all

proceedings under the same.

37. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to authorize the said Lands belonging to promoters to take or enter upon any lands belonging to the Commis-Railways not to be sioners for Railways, or to alter or to interfere with the Great Northern taken. Railway, or any of the works thereof, further or otherwise than is necessary for making the junction and inter-communication between the Railways, without the previous consent in writing in every instance of the Commissioners for Railways.

38. The said Commissioners shall from time to time erect such Commissioners may signals and conveniences incident to the junction, either upon their appoint watchmen own lands or on the lands of the promoters, and may from time to and switchmen. time appoint and remove such watchmen, switchmen, and other persons, as may be necessary for the prevention of danger to or interference with the traffic at or near the junction, and in all cases at the expense of the promoters.

39. The working and management of such signals and con-Working of signals veniences, wherever situate, shall be under the exclusive regulation to be under regulaof the Commissioners for Railways.

sioners.

40. Nothing herein contained shall alter, repeal, or otherwise Public Works and affect the "Public Works Act of 1888," or the "Government Railways Act of 1888 or taltered or repealed. Act of 1888.'

41. In this Act the word "Justices" shall mean Justices of Interpretation the Peace in and for the territory of New South Wales; and when any matter shall be authorized or required to be done by two Justices, the expression "two Justices" shall mean two Justices assembled and acting together in Petty Sessions or a Stipendiary or Police Magistrate; the word "Owner" shall mean any person or corporation who under the provisions of this Act would be able to sell land to the promoters; and the word "promoters" shall mean and include the said Richard Tilden Smith and John Thomas Mance, and the survivor of them, and the heirs, executors, or administrators of such survivor, their or his assigns.

42. This Act whenever cited shall be sufficiently described as Short title. the "Silkstone Coal-mine Railway Act of 1889."

SCHEDULE.

SCHEDULE.

From a point inside the boundary of their property, situate in the parish of Stanford, county of Northumberland, and from thence crossing the eastern boundary in a north-easterly direction through properties held by S. Hebblewhite, James Weston, H. J. Adams, J. Callaghan, Samuel Clift, W. Turnbull, and J. H. Swan, and through land believed to be owned by Miss Nine, Mrs. Harrington, J. Hickey, the East Greta Coal Company, J. Leonard, H. H. Capper, E. P. Capper, Mrs. Pilcher, J. Woolf, J. Callaghan, E. Hungerford, C. Simpson, and others, and being portions of a parcel of land formerly owned by E. Hungerford, containing two thousand acres, the line running generally in a north-easterly direction through the said properties; thence crossing the Telarah Road to and through property held by Peter Green, and terminating at a point on the Great Northern Railway at twenty miles sixty-five chains seventy-two links from Newcastle. Newcastle.

In the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.

CARRINGTON.

Government House, Sydney, 30 September, 1889. . I Certify that this Private Bill, which originated in the Legislative Assembly, has finally passed the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales.

Legislative Assembly Chamber, Sydney, 25 September, 1889.

F. W. WEBB, Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

An Act to enable Richard Tilden Smith, of Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, and John Thomas Mance, of Parramatta, in the said Colony, to construct a Railway from the Silkstone Coal-mine to the Great Northern Railway. [Assented to, 30th September, 1889.]

WHEREAS Richard Tilden Smith, of Sydney, in the Colony of Preamble, New South Wales, and John Thomas Mance, of Parramatta, in the said Colony, have opened coal-mines upon lands situated near Maitland, in the parish of Stanford, in the county of Northumberland, and in order to facilitate communication between the said coal-mines and the Great Northern Railway, the said Richard Tilden Smith and John Thomas Mance, hereinafter designated the promoters, are desirous of constructing a railway from their said coal-mines to the Great Northern Railway, but as part of such proposed railway is intended to be made upon and pass through land believed to be the property of the Crown, bodies corporate, and private persons respectively, the same cannot be made without Legislative authority. And whereas the said coal-mines are likely to prove beneficial to the Colony, and the public are concerned in promoting such an increase in and facilities for the supply of coal for local consumption, steam navigation, and export, as would result from the construction of the said proposed railway, and traffic on the Great Northern Railway would be increased

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

NINIAN MELVILLE, Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

increased thereby. It is therefore desirable to authorize by Legislative enactment the construction of the said railway, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, upon payment of compensation to the several parties through whose land the same shall pass for such portion of their respective lands as may be required to be taken and occupied thereby. Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by authority of the same, as follows:—

Authority to construct railway, and connect same with Great Northern Railway.

1. It shall be lawful for the said promoters to make and construct a railway, which shall be of the same gauge as the Government Railways, from a point inside the boundary of their property situated in the parish of Stanford, county of Northumberland, and from thence crossing the eastern boundary in a north-easterly direction, through properties held by S. Hebblewhite, James Weston, H. J. Adams, J. Callaghan, Samuel Clift, W. Turnbull, and P. H. Swan, and through land believed to be owned by Miss Nine, Mrs. Harrington, J. Hickey, the East Greta Coal Company, J. Leonard, H. H. Capper, E. P. Capper, Mrs. Pilcher, J. Woolf, J. Callaghan, E. Hungerford, C. Simpson, and others, and being portion of a parcel of land formerly owned by E. Hungerford, containing two thousand acres, the line running generally in a north-easterly direction through the said properties; thence crossing a road, known as the Telarah Road, to and through property held by Peter Green, and terminating at a point on the Great Northern Railway, at twenty miles sixty-five chains seventytwo links from Newcastle, and which lands and route are particularly described in the Schedule, and to effect, if necessary, a junction between the said line and the Great Northern Railway in accordance with section one hundred and twelve of the "Public Works Act of 1888," such railway to be in the direction described in the Schedule, and the said promoters may take and occupy three acres of land, or any lesser area, at the junction of the said railway with the Great Northern Railway.

Site of railway shall be vested in the promoters without conveyance.

2. The ground and soil of so much of the site of the railway as passes over the lands of the said owners of lands respectively, and over Crown Lands, together with such rights of ingress, egress, and regress upon the adjacent land as may be necessary for the making and repair of such railway, shall so far as is necessary for the purpose of this Act be vested, by virtue of this Act, and without the necessity of any conveyance, in the promoters for the purposes of the railway. Provided that no lands vested in the Commissioners for Railways shall by virtue of this Act be vested in the promoters, and nothing herein contained shall prevent the said owners from carrying on any mining operations beneath the said railway which shall not interfere with the safety of the said railway and the traffic thereon; and the promoters shall have no further right to the soil of the said lands beneath the surface than shall be requisite for the formation and repairs of the said road by cutting, embanking, sinking wells, or otherwise. Provided that the said railway shall be constructed and brought into use within three years after the passing of this Act, and that in default thereof, or if after its completion, the said railway shall cease to be used for three years continuously, all the said lands, including Crown Lands, and all the said promoters' interest and estate therein shall revert without any conveyance to the Crown and original owners thereof, their heirs and assigns respectively. Provided also that if in the exercise of the powers hereby granted it be found necessary to cross-cut through, sink, raise, or use any part of any road, so as to render it impassable for, or dangerous or inconvenient to the persons entitled to the use thereof, the promoters shall, before the commencement of any such operations, cause a sufficient road to be made instead of any road interfered with, and shall, at their own expense, maintain such substituted road in a state as convenient as the road interfered with, or as nearly as may be. And the promoters, before they use the said lands of the said owners of land and the said Crown Lands respectively for any of the purposes aforesaid, shall, if required so to do, separate the same by a sufficient fence from the land adjoining thereto, with such gates as may be required for the convenient occupation of such land, and shall also, to all private roads used by them as aforesaid, put up fences and gates in like manner in all cases where the same may be necessary to prevent the straying of cattle from or upon the lands traversed by such roads, and in case of any difference between the owners or occupiers of such roads and lands and the promoters as to the necessity for such fences and gates, then the said promoters shall put up and erect such fences and gates as any two Justices of the Peace, after inquiry, shall deem necessary for the purposes aforesaid, on application being made to them.

3. The railway shall be open to the public use for the con-Railway open to the veyance of coal and goods upon payment of a toll to the promoters public. for the conveyance of coal of a sum not exceeding one penny per ton per mile, with a minimum charge of threepence per ton in respect of every ton of coal for every transit, and for the conveyance of goods at the rate per ton not exceeding that charged by the Commissioners for Railways in respect of every ton of goods for every transit, the person seeking transit supplying and loading his own trucks or on Government waggons, and the promoters or Government supplying locomotive power; and all trucks when emptied, shall be conveyed, on their return, free of charge. Provided always, that it shall not be compulsory on the promoters to supply locomotive power unless the party seeking transit guarantee and bring one hundred tons, at least, during the twelve working hours, and give notice of same at least, twenty-four hours previously. The railway shall at all times be open to the public for conveyance of coal and goods upon payment of a toll to the promoters for the conveyance of coal of a sum not exceeding one half-penny per ton per mile, with a minimum charge of twopence per ton in respect of every ton of coal for every transit, and for goods of a sum not exceeding one penny half-penny per ton per mile in respect of every ton of goods for every transit, if the party seeking transit supply the locomotive power as well as the trucks and waggons. Provided that so long as the promoters shall be willing to supply locomotive power, no other person shall use locomotive power on the line other than the Commissioners for Railways. Provided that if the railway shall be damaged by parties who shall themselves use the railway for transit and supply locomotive power, the promoters shall be entitled to compensation for such damage, to be recovered, either by action in the Supreme Court of New South Wales, or, if such damage do not exceed the sum of twenty pounds, summarily before two Justices; and in estimating such damage, the promoters shall be entitled, not only to compensation for the cost of repairing and restoring the railway, but to the consequential damage (if any) sustained by reason of the suspension of transit or otherwise.

4. It shall be lawful for the owners or occupiers of the lands Branch railways. adjoining thereto or traversed by the said railway to lay down upon their own lands any collateral branches of railway to communicate with the said railway for the purpose of bringing carriages, trucks, and waggons to or from or upon the said railway, and the promoters shall, if required, at the expense of such owners or occupiers, make openings in the rails and such additional lines of railway as may be necessary for effecting such communication in places where the communication can be made with safety to the public and without injury

to the said railway, and without inconvenience to the traffic thereupon, and the promoters shall not take any rate or toll or other moneys for the passing of any passengers, coal, and goods, or other things along any branch so to be made by any such owner or occupier or other person, but this enactment shall be subject to the following restrictions and conditions (that is to say)—

No such railway shall run parallel to the said railway—provided that this shall not apply to any railway line connecting any other colliery in that neighbourhood with the Great Northern Railway, the promoters shall not be bound to make any such openings in any place which they shall have set apart for any specific purpose with which such communication would interfere, nor upon any inclined plane or bridge, nor in any tunnel.

The persons making or using such branch railways shall be subject to all by-laws and regulations of the promoters, from time to time made, with respect to passing upon or crossing the railway and otherwise; and the persons making or using such branch railways shall be bound to construct, and from time to time, as need may require, to renew the off set plates and switches according to the most approved plan adopted by the promoters, under the direction of their engineer.

5. For the purposes, and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, it shall be lawful for the promoters, their deputies, agents, servants, and workmen, and all other persons by them authorized and empowered, to divert or alter the course of any road or way crossing the railway, or to raise or sink any road or way, in order the more conveniently to carry the same over, or under, or by the side of the railway.

6. If the promoters do not cause another sufficient road to be so made before they interfere with any such existing road as aforesaid, they shall forfeit twenty pounds for every day during which such substituted road shall not be made after the existing road shall have been interrupted, and such penalty shall be paid to the trustees, commissioners, surveyor, or other persons having the management of such road, if a public road, and shall be applied for the purposes thereof, or in case of a private road, the same shall be paid to the owner thereof, and every such penalty shall be recoverable, with costs,

by action in any of the superior Courts.

7. It shall be lawful for but not compulsory upon the said promoters from time to time, and at any and all times, to carry passengers and live stock upon the said railway or any part thereof respectively, and to make, demand, take, receive and recover such tolls or dues for carrying the same at such rates per mile, or other scale of charges as shall be established from time to time by the promoters for or in respect of all such passengers and live stock which shall be conveyed or transported upon such railway or any part thereof respectively. And the promoters are hereby authorized to make such by-laws and regulations not inconsistent with this Act as may be necessary for the regulation of such traffic, and such by-laws or regulations shall be binding upon all persons using or travelling upon the said railway, and any persons offending against such by-laws or regulations shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds for each offence, to be recovered in a summary way before any two Justices. Provided always that if the rates, tolls, or dues that may be established as aforesaid under and by virtue of this Act shall be found excessive, it shall and may be lawful for any person by petition to the Executive Council to reduce the said rates, tolls, or dues, and to revise them in such manner as may seem most proper and advisable.

Power to divert or alter roads.

Penalty for not substituting a road.

Right to carry passengers.

8. If, in the course of making the railway, the promoters shall Road repairs. use or interfere with any road, they shall from time to time make good all damage done by them to such road, and if any question shall arise as to the damage done to any such road by the promoters, or as to the repair thereof by them, such question shall be referred to the determination of two Justices, and such Justices may direct such repairs to be made in the state of such road in respect of damage done by the promoters, and within such period as they may think reasonable, and may impose on the promoters for not carring into effect such repairs any penalty not exceeding ten pounds per day as to such Justices shall seem fit, and any such penalty shall be paid to the surveyor, or other person having the management of the road interfered with by the promoters, if a public road, and be applied for the purposes of such road, or if a private road, the same shall be paid to the owner thereof. Provided always the said Justices shall have regard to, and shall make full allowance for, any tolls that may have been paid to the promoters on such road in the course of the using thereof.

9. Until the promotors shall have made the bridges or other Owners crossing. proper communications, which they shall, under the provisions herein contained, have been required to make between lands intersected and the railway, and no longer, the owners and occupiers of such lands, and any other persons whose right-of-way shall be affected by the want of such communications, and their respective servants, may at all times freely pass and repass with carriages, horses, and other animals directly but not otherwise, across any part of the railway made in or through their respective lands solely for the purpose of occupying the same lands, or for the exercise of such right-of-way, and so as not to obstruct the passage along the railway, or to damage the same; nevertheless if the owner or occupier of any such lands have, in his arrangements with the promotors, received, or agreed to receive, compensation for or on account of any such communications instead of the same being formed, such owner or occupier, or those claiming under him, shall not be entitled so to cross the railway.

10. If the railway cross any public highways or parish road on Provisions in cases a level, the promoters shall erect, and at all times maintain, good and where roads are crossed on a level. sufficient gates across such road on each side of the railway where the same shall communicate therewith, and shall employ proper persons to open and shut such gates, and such gates shall be kept constantly closed across such roads on both sides of the railway, except during the time when horses, cattle, carts, or carriages passing along the same shall have to cross such railway, and such gates shall be of such dimensions, and so constructed as when closed to fence in the railway, and prevent cattle or horses passing along the road from entering upon the railway, and the person entrusted with the care of such gates shall cause the same to be closed as soon as such horses, cattle, carts, or carriages shall have passed through the same, under a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for every default therein, to be recoverable before any two Justices in a summary way. Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works in any case in which he shall be satisfied that it will be more conducive to the public safety that the gates or any level crossing over any such road shall be kept closed across the railway, to order that such gates shall be kept so closed instead of across the road, and in case such gates shall be kept constantly closed across the railway, except when engines or carriages passing along the railway shall have occasion to cross such road in the same manner and under the like penalty as above directed with respect to the gates being kept closed across the road.

11. In case of accidents or slips happening or being apprehended to the cuttings, embankments, or other works of the said railway it repair accidents, shall subject to certain restrictions.

shall be lawful for the promoters and their workmen and servants to enter upon the land adjoining thereto at any time whatsoever for the purpose of repairing or preventing such accidents, and to do such works as may be necessary for the purpose, but in every such case the promoters shall within forty-eight hours after such entry make a report to the Secretary for Public Works, specifying the nature of such accident or apprehended accident, and of the works necessary to be done, and such powers shall cease and determine if the said Secretary shall, after considering the said report, certify that their exercise is not necessary for the public safety. Provided also that such works shall be as little injurious to the said adjoining lands as the nature of the accident or apprehended accident will admit of, and shall be executed with all possible despatch, and full compensation shall be made to the owners and occupiers of such lands for the loss or injury or inconvenience sustained by them respectively by reason of such works, the amount of which compensation, in case of any dispute about the same, shall be settled by arbitrators in the manner hereinafter mentioned. And provided also that no land shall be taken permanently for any such works otherwise than is herein provided with respect to the lands originally taken for the purpose of making the said railway.

Construction of bridges over roads.

12. Every bridge to be erected for the purpose of carrying the railway over any road shall be built in conformity with the following regulations, that is to say:-

The width of the arch shall be such as to leave thereunder a clear space of not less than thirty feet, if the arch be over a public highway, and of twenty feet if over a parish road, and of twelve feet if over a private road.

The clear height of the arch from the surface of the road shall not be less than sixteen feet for a space of twelve feet if the arch be over a main road, and fifteen feet for a space of ten feet if over a public carriage-road; and in each of such cases the clear height at the springing of the arch shall not be less than twelve feet; the clear height of the arch for a space of nine feet shall not be less than fourteen feet over a private road.

The descent made in the road in order to carry the same under the bridge shall not be more than one foot in thirty feet if the bridge be over a public highway, one foot in twenty feet if over a parish road, and one foot in sixteen feet if over a private road, not being a tramroad or railroad, or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the descent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

Construction of

- 13. Every bridge erected for carrying any road over the railway bridges over railroads shall be built in conformity with the following regulations, that is to say :-
  - There shall be a good and sufficient fence on each side of the bridge, of not less height than four feet, and on each side of the immediate approaches of such bridge of not less than
  - The road over the bridge shall have a clear space between the fences thereof of thirty-five feet if the road be a public highway, and twenty-five feet if a parish road, and twelve feet if a private road.
  - The ascent shall not be more than one foot in thirty-feet if the road be a main road, one foot in twenty-feet if a parish road, and one foot in sixteen if a private road, not being a tramroad or railroad; or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the ascent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

14. Provided always that in all cases where the average avail- The width of the able width for the passing of carriages of any existing road within fifty bridges need not yards of the point of crossing the same is less than the width herein-the road in certain before prescribed for bridges over or under the railway, the width of cases. such bridges need not be greater than such average available width of such roads, but so, nevertheless, that such bridges be not of less width in case of a public highway or parish road than twenty feet. Provided also, that if at any time after the construction of the railway, the average available width of any such road shall be increased beyond the width of such bridge on either side thereof, the promoters shall be bound at their own expense to increase the width of the said bridge to such extent as they may be required by the trustees or suveyors of such road, not exceeding the width of such road as so widened, or the maximum width herein prescribed for a bridge in the like case over or under the railway.

15. Provided also, that if the mesne inclination of any road Existing inclination within two hundred and fifty yards of the point of crossing the same, of roads crossed or diverted need not or the inclination of such portion of any road as may be preserved to be improved. be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted, shall be steeper than the inclination hereinbefore required to be preserved by the promoters, then the promoters may carry any such road over or under the railway, or may construct such altered or substituted road at an inclination not steeper than the said mesne inclination of the road so to be crossed, or of the road so requiring to be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted.

16. The promoters shall make and at all times thereafter works for benefit of maintain the following works for the accommodation of the owners and owners. occupiers of lands adjoining the railway, that is to say-

Such and so many convenient gates, bridges, arches, culverts, and Gates, bridges, &c. passages over, under, or by the sides of or leading to or from the railway as shall be necessary for the purpose of making good any interruptions caused by the railway to the use of the lands through which the railway shall be made; and such works shall be made forthwith after the part of the railway passing over such lands shall have been laid out or formed, or during the formation thereof. All sufficient posts, rails, hedges, ditches, mounds or other fences Fences. for separating the land taken for the use of the railway from

the adjoining lands not taken, and protecting such lands from trespass, or the cattle of the owners or occupiers thereof from straying thereon by reason of the railway, together with all necessary gates made to open towards such adjoining lands and not towards the railway; and all necessary stiles, and such posts, rails, and other fences shall be made forthwith after the taking of any such lands if the owners thereof shall so require, and the said other works as soon as conveniently may be.

Also, all necessary arches, tunnels, culverts, drains, or other Drains. passages, either over or under or by the sides of the railway of such dimensions as will be sufficient at all times to convey the water as clearly from the lands lying near or affected by the railway as before the making of the railway, or as nearly so as may be, and such works shall be made from time to time as the railway works proceed.

Also, proper watering-places for cattle or compensation in lieu Watering-places. thereof, where by reason of the railway the cattle of any person occupying any lands lying near thereto shall be deprived of access to their former watering-places; and such wateringplaces shall be so made as to be at all times sufficiently supplied with water as theretofore, and as if the railway had not been made, or as nearly so as may be. And the said promoters shall make all necessary watercourses and drains for the purpose of conveying water to the said watering-places.

Provided always that the promoters shall not be required to make such accommodation works in such a manner as would prevent or obstruct the working or using of the railway, nor to make any accommodation works with respect to which the owners and occupiers of the land shall have agreed to receive, and shall have been paid compensation instead of the making them.

Penalty on persons omitting to fasten gates. 17. If any person omit to shut and fasten any gate set up at either side of the railway for the accommodation of the owners or occupiers of the adjoining lands, so soon as he, and the carriage, cattle, or other animals under his care have passed through the same, he shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding ten pounds, to be recoverable in a summary way before any two Justices.

Minerals not to pass.

18. The promoters shall not be entitled to any minerals under any land whereof the surface is vested in them by virtue of this Act, except only such parts thereof as shall be necessary to be dug or carried away in the construction of the works hereby authorized. And such mines shall not be deemed to vest in the said promoters.

Compensation clause.

19. If within twenty-eight days after the passing of this Act, the said persons through whose lands the railway shall pass, or any of them and the promoters shall not agree as to the amount of compensation to be paid by them for the said lands belonging to the said parties, or any of them, or for any damage that may be sustained by them or him, by reason of the execution of the works, or if any other question as to compensation shall arise under this Act, the amount of such compensation shall be settled by arbitrators in manner hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: Unless both parties shall concur in the appointment of a single arbitrator, each party on the request of the other party shall nominate and appoint an arbitrator, to whom such dispute or other matter shall And every appointment of an arbitrator shall be under be referred. the hand of such party. And such appointment shall be delivered to the arbitrator or arbitrators, and shall be deemed a submission to arbitration on the part of the party by whom the same shall be made. And after any such appointment shall have been made, neither party shall have power to revoke the same without the consent of the other, nor shall the death of either party operate as a revocation. And if for the space of fourteen days after any such dispute or other matter shall have arisen, and after a request in writing shall have been served by the one party on the other party, to appoint an arbitrator, such lastmentioned party fail to appoint such arbitrator, then, upon such failure, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General for the time being of the said Colony, on the application of the party who has himself appointed an arbitrator, to appoint such arbitrator to act on behalf of both parties. And such arbitrator may proceed to hear and determine the matters which shall be in dispute. And in such case the award or determination of such single arbitrator shall be final and conclusive.

Appointment of arbitrators.

20. If, before the matter so referred shall be determined, any arbitrator appointed by either party shall die, or become incapable, or refuse, or for fourteen days neglect to act as arbitrator, the party by whom such arbitrator was appointed may nominate and appoint in writing some other person to act in his place. And if, for the space of seven days after notice in writing from the other party for that purpose, he fail to do so, the remaining or other arbitrators may proceed alone. And every arbitrator so to be substituted as aforesaid shall have the same powers and authorities as were vested in the former arbitrator at the time of such, his death, refusal, neglect, or disability as aforesaid.

Vacancy of arbitrator to be supplied.

21. Where more than one arbitrator shall have been appointed Appointment of such arbitrators shall, before they enter upon the matters referred to umpire. them, nominate and appoint, by writing under their hands, an umpire to decide any matters on which they shall differ, or which shall be referred to them under the provisions of this Act. And if such umpire shall die, or refuse, or for seven days neglect to act, after being called upon to do so by the arbitrators, they shall forthwith, after such death, refusal, or neglect appoint another umpire in his place; and the decision of every such umpire on the matters so referred to him shall be final.

22. If in either of the cases aforesaid the arbitrators shall Attorney-General to refuse, or for seven days after request of either party to such appoint umpire on arbitration neglect to appoint an umpire, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General for the time being, on the application of either party to such arbitration, to appoint an umpire; and the decision of such umpire on the matters on which the arbitrators shall differ, or which shall be referred to him under this Act, shall be final.

23. If, when a single arbitrator shall have been appointed, In case of death of such arbitrator shall die, or become incapable, or shall refuse, or for single arbitrator the matter to begin fourteen days neglect to act before he shall have made his award, the de novo. matters referred to him shall be determined by arbitration, under the provisions of this Act, in the same manner as if such arbitrator had not been appointed.

24. If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been If either arbitrator appointed, either of the arbitrators shall refuse, or for seven days refuse to act, the other arbitrator may proceed alone; and the exparte. decision of such other arbitrator shall be as effectual as if he had been

the single arbitrator appointed by both parties.

25. If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been If arbitrators fail to appointed, and where neither of them shall refuse or neglect to act as make their award aforesaid, such arbitrators shall fail to make their award within twenty-one days after the day on which the last of such arbitrators shall have go to the umpire. been appointed, or within such extended time (if any) as shall have been appointed for that purpose by both of such arbitrators under their hands, the matters referred to them shall be determined by the umpire to be so appointed as aforesaid.

26. The said arbitrators or their umpire may call for the pro-Powers of arbitrators duction of any documents in the possession or power of either party to call for books, &c. which they or he may think necessary for determining the question in dispute, and may examine the parties or their witnesses on oath, and administer the oaths necessary for that purpose.

27. Before any arbitrator or umpire shall enter into the con-Arbitrator or umpire sideration of any matters referred to him, he shall, in the presence of to make a declaration for faithful discharge a Justice of the Peace, make and subscribe the following declaration, of duty.

I, A.B. do solemnly and sincerely declare that I will faithfully and honestly, and to the best of my skill and ability, hear and determine the matters referred to me under the provisions of the "Silkstone Coal-mine Railway Act."

Made and subscribed in the presence of

A.B.

And such declaration shall be annexed to the award when made, and Penalty for misconif any arbitrator or umpire, having made such declaration, shall wil-duct. fully act contrary thereto, he shall be guilty of misdemeanour.

28. All the costs of any such arbitration and incident thereto Cost of arbitration to be settled by the arbitrators shall be borne by the promoters, unless how to be borne. the arbitrators shall award the same or a less sum than shall have been offered by the promoters, in which case each party shall bear his own costs incident to the arbitration, and the costs of the arbitrators shall be borne by the parties in equal proportions, unless the amount awarded shall be one-fourth less than the amount, in which case the whole costs shall be paid by the claimant. Provided that if either party shall be dissatisfied with the costs allowed by the arbitrators as aforesaid, the costs may be taxed by the Prothonotary or other proper officer of the Supreme Court, and the amount allowed by such officer shall be the amount of costs to be paid.

Award to be delivered to the promoters.

ward not void

through error in

Compensation for temporary or permanent or recurring injuries.

form.

29. The arbitrators shall deliver their award in writing to the promoters, who shall retain the same, and shall forthwith, on demand, at their own expense, furnish a copy thereof to the other party, and shall at all times on demand produce the said award, and allow the same to be inspected or examined by such party, or any person appointed by him for that purpose, and the amount awarded shall be paid within sixty days after the publication of such award.

Submission may be 30. The submission to any such arbitration made a rule of Court. rule of the Supreme Court on the application of either of the parties. 30. The submission to any such arbitration may be made a

31. No award made with respect to any question referred to arbitration, under the provisions of this Act, shall be set aside for

irregularity or error in matter of form.

32. The promoters shall make compensation and satisfaction to the said owners and occupiers (the amount of such compensation and satisfaction to be ascertained and recovered in case of difference in the manner hereby provided) for temporary, permanent, or recurring injury, and all other damage, loss, costs, charges, and inconvenience which may in anywise be occasioned to the said owners or occupiers by the non-performance by the said promoters of any of the matters and things hereby required to be performed by them or otherwise.

Compensation to be made for temporary occupation.

33. In every case where the promoters shall take temporary possession of lands by virtue of the powers hereby granted, it shall be incumbent on them, within one month after their entry upon such lands, upon being required so to do, to pay to the occupier of the said lands, the value of any crop or dressing that may be thereon, as well as full compensation for any other damage of a temporary nature which he may sustain by reason of their so taking possession of their lands; and they shall also from time to time during their occupation of the said lands pay half-yearly to such occupier or to the owner of the lands, as the case may require, a rent to be fixed by two Justices in case the parties differ, and shall also within six months after the completion of the railway, pay to such owner or occupier or deposit in a bank for the benefit of all parties interested, as the case may require, compensation of all permanent or other loss, damage, or injury that may have been sustained by them by reason of the exercise as regards the said lands of the powers hereby granted, including the full value of all clay, stone, gravel, sand, and other things taken from such lands.

Power for Government to purchase railway.

34. It shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works on behalf of the Government, at any time by notice in writing, to require the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns to sell, and thereupon the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall sell to the Government, as the case may be, the said railway upon the terms of paying the then value (exclusive of any allowance for past or future profits of the said railway or any compensation for compulsory sale or other consideration whatsoever) of the said railway, and all lands, buildings, works, materials, and plant of the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, suitable to and used by them for the purposes of the said railway, such value in case of difference to be ascertained by arbitration in the manner provided by the "Public Works Act of 1888," fifty-first Victoria number thirty-seven, for settling cases of disputed compensation, and subject to the terms and conditions therein contained. when any such sale shall have been made to the said Government, the said railway, lands, buildings, works, materials, plant, and premises shall yest in the Commissioners for Railways, who shall have all the rights, powers, and authorities of the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns in respect of the said railway so sold.

35. For the purpose of regulating the conduct of the officers company may make and servants of the promoters, and for providing for the due manage-by-laws. ment of the affairs of the promoters in all respects, it shall be lawful for the promoters, subject to the provisions herein mentioned, from time to time to make such by-laws and regulations as they shall think Provided that such by-laws be not repugnant to the laws of the Colony, or to the provisions of this Act; and such by-laws shall be reduced into writing, and shall have affixed thereto the names of the promoters, and a copy of such by-laws shall be given to every officer and servant of the promoters affected thereby, and such by-laws may specify a maximum and minimum penalty for any breach thereof, such penalty to be proceeded for and recovered under the provisions of the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, chapter forty-three. Provided always that any by-laws of the said promoters relating to penalties must be first approved of by the Attorney-General of the Colony for the time being.

36. The production of a printed or written copy of the by-laws Evidence of by-laws. of the promoters, shall be sufficient evidence of such by-laws in all

proceedings under the same.

37. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to authorize the said Lands belonging to promoters to take or enter upon any lands belonging to the Commis-Railways not to be sioners for Railways, or to alter or to interfere with the Great Northern taken. Railway, or any of the works thereof, further or otherwise than is necessary for making the junction and inter-communication between the Railways, without the previous consent in writing in every instance of the Commissioners for Railways.

38. The said Commissioners shall from time to time erect such Commissioners may signals and conveniences incident to the junction, either upon their appoint watchmen own lands or on the lands of the promoters, and may from time to and switchmen. time appoint and remove such watchmen, switchmen, and other persons, as may be necessary for the prevention of danger to or interference with the traffic at or near the junction, and in all cases at the expense of the promoters.

39. The working and management of such signals and con-Working of signals veniences, wherever situate, shall be under the exclusive regulation to be under regulaof the Commissioners for Railways.

40. Nothing herein contained shall alter, repeal, or otherwise Public Works and Government Railways affect the "Public Works Act of 1888," or the "Government Railways Acts of 1888 not altered or repealed. Act of 1888."

41. In this Act the word "Justices" shall mean Justices of Interpretation clause. the Peace in and for the territory of New South Wales; and when any matter shall be authorized or required to be done by two Justices, the expression "two Justices" shall mean two Justices assembled and acting together in Petty Sessions or a Stipendiary or Police Magistrate; the word "Owner" shall mean any person or corporation who under the provisions of this Act would be able to sell land to the promoters; and the word "promoters" shall mean and include the said Richard Tilden Smith and John Thomas Mance, and the survivor of them, and the heirs, executors, or administrators of such survivor, their or his assigns.

42. This Act whenever cited shall be sufficiently described as Short title. the "Silkstone Coal-mine Railway Act of 1889."

SCHEDULE.

SCHEDULE.

From a point inside the boundary of their property, situate in the parish of Stanford, county of Northumberland, and from thence crossing the eastern boundary in a north-easterly direction through properties held by S. Hebblewhite, James Weston, H. J. Adams, J. Callaghan, Samuel Clift, W. Turnbull, and J. H. Swan, and through land believed to be owned by Miss Nine, Mrs. Harrington, J. Hickey, the East Greta Coal Company, J. Leonard, H. H. Capper, E. P. Capper, Mrs. Pilcher, J. Woolf, J. Callaghan, E. Hungerford, C. Simpson, and others, and being portions of a parcel of land formerly owned by E. Hungerford, containing two thousand acres, the line running generally in a north-easterly direction through the said properties; thence crossing the Telarah Road to and through property held by Peter Green, and terminating at a point on the Great Northern Railway at twenty miles sixty-five chains seventy-two links from Newcastle.

In the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.

CARRINGTON.

Government House, Sydney, 30 September, 1889.

alvust

SILKSTONE COAL-MINE RAILWAY BILL

SCHEDULE of Amendments referred to in Message of 20th June, 1889.

```
Page 2, clause 1, line 11. After "Railway" insert "which shall be of the same gauge as the Govern-
   Page 2, clause 2, line 38. After "shall" insert "so far as is necessary for the purpose of this Act"
   Page 2, clause 2, line 49. Omit "five" insert "three"
   Page 2, clause 2, line 52. After "lands" insert "including Crown Lands"
   Page 2, clause 2, line 54. After "the" insert "Crown and"
   Page 2, clause 2, line 54. After "assigns" insert "respectively"
  Page 3, clause 3, line 16. After "use" insert "for the conveyance of coal and goods"
  Page 3, clause 3, lines 17 and 18. Omit "of a sum not exceeding the rate per ton" insert "for the con-
           "veyance of coal of a sum not exceeding one penny per ton per mile, with a minimum
           "charge of threepence per ton in respect of every ton of coal for every transit, and for
           "the conveyance of goods at the rate per ton not exceeding that"
  Page 3, clause 3, line 28. Omit "two" insert "one"
  Page 3, clause 3, line 31. After "public" insert "for conveyance of coal and goods"
  Page 3, clause 3, line 32. After "promoters" insert "for the conveyance of coal of a sum not "exceeding one half-penny per ton per mile, with a minimum charge of twopence per
          "ton in respect of every ton of coal for every transit, and for goods"
  Page 3, clause 4, line 50. Omit "And be it enacted that"
 Page 3, clause 4, line 51. After "lands" insert "adjoining thereto or"
 Page 3, clause 4, line 54. After "carriages" insert "trucks and waggons"
 Page 4, clause 4, line 2. After "passengers" insert "coal, and"
 Page 4, clause 4, line 6. After "railway" second occurring, insert "provided that this shall not apply
          "to any railway line connecting any other colliery in that neighbourhood with the Great
          "Northern Railway"
 Page 4, clause 7, line 56. After "for" insert "any person by petition to"
 Page 4, clause 7, line 58. After "advisable" omit remainder of clause.
 Page 5, clause 10, line 54. After "therein" insert "to be recoverable before any two Justices in a Page 8, clause 17. At end of clause add "to be recoverable in a summary way before any two
Page 10, clause 33, line 44. Omit "and" insert "or"
Page 10, clause 33, line 44. Omit "a" insert "or"
Page 10, clause 33, line 44. Before "bank" omit "the" insert "a"
Page 11, clause 38, line 37. After "the" insert "said"
Page 11, clause 41, line 50. Omit "said" insert "word"
Page 11, clause 41, line 54. After "Sessions" insert "or a Stipendiary or Police Magistrate"
Page 12, clause 42, lines 1 and 2. Omit "shall be deemed and taken to be a public Act, and the same
```

COMPANY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE

STEPPENT Of Model and Small and Cross of 20th Feet 1991

To A clair to occur and off prospectual zerol as a social training of the company April 12 change it line is the party of the first printer shall be of her same cange at the Governvings ton Della me works to the control of the cont

lago 11, clame 41, has 55. . (Ale " Samone" town " or a Samondiary or Poice Magnate'.

Face 14, clame 47 has a cod 2. One " shall be decined and biles to be a public Act, and the same

- - tî U

This PRIVATE BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

Legislative Assembly Chamber,

F. W. WEBB, Sydney, 21 May, 1889. Sydney, 21 May, 1889.

The LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL has this day agreed to this Bill with Amendments.

Legislative Council Chamber, Sydney, 20th June, 1889. For the Clerk of the Parliaments, ADOLPHUS P. CLAPIN, Clerk Assistant.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

An Act to enable Richard Tilden Smith, of Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, and John Thomas Mance, of Parramatta, in the said Colony, to construct a Railway from the Silkstone Coal-mine to the Great Northern Railway.

WHEREAS Richard Tilden Smith, of Sydney, in the Colony of Preamble. New South Wales, and John Thomas Mance, of Parramatta, in the said Colony, have opened coal-mines upon lands situated near Maitland, in the parish of Stanford, in the county of Northumberland, 5 and in order to facilitate communication between the said coal-mines and the Great Northern Railway, the said Richard Tilden Smith and John Thomas Mance, hereinafter designated the promoters, are desirous of constructing a railway from their said coal-mines to the Great Northern Railway, but as part of such proposed railway is intended 10 to be made upon and pass through land believed to be the property of the Crown, bodies corporate, and private persons respectively, the same cannot be made without Legislative authority. And whereas the said coal-mines are likely to prove beneficial to the Colony, and the public are concerned in promoting such an increase in and 15 facilities for the supply of coal for local consumption, steam navigation, and export, as would result from the construction of the said proposed railway, and traffic on the Great Northern Railway would be 141-A increased

increased thereby. It is therefore desirable to authorize by Legislative enactment the construction of the said railway, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, upon payment of compensation to the several parties through whose land the same shall pass for such portion 5 of their respective lands as may be required to be taken and occupied thereby. Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by authority of the same, as follows:-

1. It shall be lawful for the said promoters to make and con-Authority to construct a railway, which shall be of the same guage as the Government struct railway, and connect same with Railways, from a point inside the boundary of their property Great Northern situated in the parish of Stanford, county of Northumberland, and Railway.

from thence crossing the eastern boundary in a north-easterly direction,

15 through properties held by S. Hebblewhite, James Weston, H. J. Adams, J. Callaghan, Samuel Clift, W. Turnbull, and P. H. Swan, and through land believed to be owned by Miss Nine, Mrs. Harrington, J. Hickey, the East Greta Coal Company, J. Leonard, H. H. Capper, E. P. Capper, Mrs. Pilcher, J. Woolf, J. Callaghan, E. Hungerford, C.

20 Simpson, and others, and being portion of a parcel of land formerly owned by E. Hungerford, containing two thousand acres, the line running generally in a north-easterly direction through the said properties; thence crossing a road, known as the Telarah Road, to and through property held by Peter Green, and terminating at a point on

25 the Great Northern Railway, at twenty miles sixty-five chains seventytwo links from Newcastle, and which lands and route are particularly described in the Schedule, and to effect, if necessary, a junction between the said line and the Great Northern Railway in accordance with section one hundred and twelve of the "Public Works Act of

30 1888," such railway to be in the direction described in the Schedule, and the said promoters may take and occupy three acres of land, or any lesser area, at the junction of the said railway with the Great

Northern Railway.

2. The ground and soil of so much of the site of the railway as Site of railway shall 35 passes over the lands of the said owners of lands respectively, and over be vested in the promoters without Crown Lands, together with such rights of ingress, egress, and regress conveyance. upon the adjacent land as may be necessary for the making and repair of such railway, shall so far as is necessary for the purpose of this Act be vested, by virtue of this Act, and without the necessity of any con-

40 veyance, in the promoters for the purposes of the railway. Provided that no lands vested in the Commissioners for Railways shall by virtue of this Act be vested in the promoters, and nothing herein contained shall prevent the said owners from carrying on any mining operations beneath the said railway which shall not interfere with the safety of

45 the said railway and the traffic thereon; and the promoters shall have no further right to the soil of the said lands beneath the surface than shall be requisite for the formation and repairs of the said road by cutting, embanking, sinking wells, or otherwise. Provided that the said railway shall be constructed and brought into use within five three years

50 after the passing of this Act, and that in default thereof, or if after its completion, the said railway shall cease to be used for three years continuously, all the said lands, including Crown Lands, and all the said promoters' interest and estate therein shall revert without any conveyance to the Crown and original owners thereof, their heirs, and assigns

55 respectively. Provided also that if in the exercise of the powers hereby granted it be found necessary to cross-cut through, sink, raise, or use any part of any road, so as to render it impassable for, or dangerous or inconvenient to the persons entitled to the use thereof, the promoters shall, before the commencement of any such operations, cause a sufficient

60 road to be made instead of any road interfered with, and shall, at their own

expense, maintain such substituted road in a state as convenient as the road interfered with, or as nearly as may be. And the promoters, before they use the said lands of the said owners of land and the said Crown Lands respectively for any of the purposes aforesaid, shall, if required 5 so to do, separate the same by a sufficient fence from the land adjoining thereto, with such gates as may be required for the convenient occupation of such land, and shall also, to all private roads used by them as aforesaid, put up fences and gates in like manner in all cases where the same may be necessary to prevent the straying of cattle from or 10 upon the lands traversed by such roads, and in case of any difference between the owners or occupiers of such roads and lands and the promoters as to the necessity for such fences and gates, then the said promoters shall put up and erect such fences and gates as any two Justices of the Peace, after inquiry, shall deem necessary for the pur-

15 poses aforesaid, on application being made to them.

3. The railway shall be open to the public use for the conveyance Railway open to the of coal and goods upon payment of a toll to the promoters of a sum not public. exceeding the rate per ton for the conveyance of coal of a sum not exceeding one penny per ton per mile, with a minimum charge of three-

20 pence per ton in respect of every ton of coal for every transit, and for the conveyance of goods at the rate per ton not exceeding that charged by the Commissioners for Railways in respect of every ton of goods for every transit, the person seeking transit supplying and loading his own trucks or on Government waggons, and the promoters or Government

25 supplying locomotive power; and all trucks when emptied, shall be conveyed, on their return, free of charge. Provided always, that it shall not be compulsory on the promoters to supply locomotive power unless the party seeking transit guarantee and bring two one hundred tons, at least, during the twelve working hours, and give notice of same at 30 least, twenty-four hours previously. The railway shall at all times be open to the public for conveyance of coal and goods upon payment of a toll to the promoters for the conveyance of coal of a sum not exceeding one half-penny per ton per mile, with a minimum charge of twopence per ton in respect of every ton of coal for every transit, and for goods of

35 a sum not exceeding one penny half-penny per ton per mile in respect of every ton of goods for every transit, if the party seeking transit supply the locomotive power as well as the trucks and waggons. Provided that so long as the promoters shall be willing to supply locomotive power, no other person shall use locomotive power on the line other

40 than the Commissioners for Railways. Provided that if the railway shall be damaged by parties who shall themselves use the railway for transit and supply locomotive power, the promoters shall be entitled to compensation for such damage, to be recovered, either by action in the Supreme Court of New South Wales, or, if such damage do not exceed pension of transit or otherwise.

45 the sum of twenty pounds, summarily before two Justices; and in estimating such damage, the promoters shall be entitled, not only to compensation for the cost of repairing and restoring the railway, but to the consequential damage (if any) sustained by reason of the suspension of the site o

4. And be it enacted that It shall be lawful for the owners or Branch railways. occupiers of the lands adjoining thereto or traversed by the said railway to lay down upon their own lands any collateral branches of railway to communicate with the said railway for the purpose of bringing carriages, trucks, and waggons to or from or upon the said railway, 55 and the promoters shall, if required, at the expense of such owners or occupiers, make openings in the rails and such additional lines of railway as may be necessary for effecting such communication in places where the communication can be made with safety to the public and without injury to the said railway, and without inconvenience to the

traffic

traffic thereupon, and the promoters shall not take any rate or toll or other moneys for the passing of any passengers, coal, and goods, or other things along any branch so to be made by any such owner or occupier or other person, but this enactment shall be subject to the 5 following restrictions and conditions (that is to say)

No such railway shall run parallel to the said railway—provided that this shall not apply to any railway line connecting any other colliery in that neighbourhood with the Great Northern Railway, the promoters shall not be bound to make any such openings in any place which they shall have set apart for any specific purpose with which such communication would interfere, nor upon any inclined plane or bridge, nor in any

The persons making or using such branch railways shall be subject 15 to all by-laws and regulations of the promoters, from time to time made, with respect to passing upon or crossing the railway and otherwise; and the persons making or using such branch railways shall be bound to construct, and from time to time, as need may require, to renew the off set plates and 20 switches according to the most approved plan adopted by the

promoters, under the direction of their engineer.

5. For the purposes, and subject to the provisions hereinafter Power to divert or contained, it shall be lawful for the promoters, their deputies, agents, alter roads.

servants, and workmen, and all other persons by them authorized and 25 empowered, to divert or alter the course of any road or way crossing the railway, or to raise or sink any road or way, in order the more conveniently to carry the same over, or under, or by the side of the railway.

6. If the promoters do not cause another sufficient road to be renalty for not sub. 30 so made before they interfere with any such existing road as aforesaid, stituting a road. they shall forfeit twenty pounds for every day during which such substituted road shall not be made after the existing road shall have been interrupted, and such penalty shall be paid to the trustees, commissioners, surveyor, or other persons having the management of 35 such road, if a public road, and shall be applied for the purposes thereof, or in case of a private road, the same shall be paid to the owner thereof, and every such penalty shall be recoverable, with costs,

by action in any of the superior Courts.

10

7. It shall be lawful for but not compulsory upon the said Right to carry 40 promoters from time to time, and at any and all times, to carry passengers. passengers and live stock upon the said railway or any part thereof respectively, and to make, demand, take, receive and recover such tolls or dues for carrying the same at such rates per mile, or other scale of charges as shall be established from time to time by the pro-

45 moters for or in respect of all such passengers and live stock which shall be conveyed or transported upon such railway or any part thereof respectively. And the promoters are hereby authorized to make such by-laws and regulations not inconsistent with this Act as may be necessary for the regulation of such traffic, and such by-laws or regu-

50 lations shall be binding upon all persons using or travelling upon the said railway, and any persons offending against such by-laws or regulations shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds for each offence, to be recovered in a summary way before any two Justices. Provided always that if the rates, tolls, or dues that may be established

55 as aforesaid under and by virtue of this Act shall be found excessive, it shall and may be lawful for any person by petition to the Executive Council to reduce the said rates, tolls, or dues, and to revise them in such manner as may seem most proper and advisable. And it is hereby provided that not hing in this Act contained shall extend to charge or make liable the said promoters further or in any other case than where, according to the laws of this Colony, stage-coach proprietors and common carriers would be liable, nor shall extend in any degree to deprive the said promoters of any protection or privilege which 5 common carriers or stage-coach proprietors may be entitled to, but on the contrary the promoters shall at all times be entitled to the benefit of every such protection and privilege.

8. If, in the course of making the railway, the promoters shall Road repairs.

use or interfere with any road, they shall from time to time make good 10 all damage done by them to such road, and if any question shall arise as to the damage done to any such road by the promoters, or as to the repair thereof by them, such question shall be referred to the determination of two Justices, and such Justices may direct such repairs to be made in the state of such road in respect of damage done by the 15 promoters, and within such period as they may think reasonable, and may impose on the promoters for not carring into effect such repairs any penalty not exceeding ten pounds per day as to such Justices shall seem fit, and any such penalty shall be paid to the surveyor, or other person having the management of the road interfered with by the 20 promoters, if a public road, and be applied for the purposes of such road, or if a private road, the same shall be paid to the owner thereof. Provided always the said Justices shall have regard to, and shall make full allowance for, any tolls that may have been paid to the promoters on such road in the course of the using thereof.

9. Until the promotors shall have made the bridges or other Owners crossing. 25 proper communications, which they shall, under the provisions herein contained, have been required to make between lands intersected and the railway, and no longer, the owners and occupiers of such lands, and any other persons whose right-of-way shall be affected by the want of 30 such communications, and their respective servants, may at all times freely pass and repass with carriages, horses, and other animals directly but not otherwise, across any part of the railway made in or through their respective lands solely for the purpose of occupying the same lands, or for the exercise of such right-of-way, and so as not to obstruct 35 the passage along the railway, or to damage the same; nevertheless if the owner or occupier of any such lands have, in his arrangements with the promotors, received, or agreed to receive, compensation for or on account of any such communications instead of the same being formed, such owner or occupier, or those claiming under him, shall

40 not be entitled so to cross the railway.

10. If the railway cross any public highways or parish road on Provisions in cases a level, the promoters shall erect, and at all times maintain, good and where roads are crossed on a level. sufficient gates across such road on each side of the railway where the same shall communicate therewith, and shall employ proper persons 45 to open and shut such gates, and such gates shall be kept constantly closed across such roads on both sides of the railway, except during the time when horses, cattle, carts, or carriages passing along the same shall have to cross such railway, and such gates shall be of such dimensions, and so constructed as when closed to fence in the railway, and 50 prevent cattle or horses passing along the road from entering upon the railway, and the person entrusted with the care of such gates shall cause the same to be closed as soon as such horses, cattle, carts, or carriages shall have passed through the same, under a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for every default therein, to be recoverable 55 before any two Justices in a summary way. Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works in any case in which he shall be satisfied that it will be more conducive to the public safety that the gates or any level crossing over any such road shall be kept closed across the railway, to order that such gates shall be kept so closed instead of across the road, and in case such gates shall be kept constantly closed across the railway, except when engines or carriages passing along the railway shall have occasion to cross such road in the same manner and under the like penalty as above directed

5 with respect to the gates being kept closed across the road.

11. In case of accidents or slips happening or being apprehended Power to enter upon to the cuttings, embankments, or other works of the said railway it adjoining lands to shall be lawful for the promoters and their workmen and servants to extain vestilities. enter upon the land adjoining thereto at any time whatsoever for the restrictions.

10 purpose of repairing or preventing such accidents, and to do such works as may be necessary for the purpose, but in every such case the promoters shall within forty-eight hours after such entry make a report to the Secretary for Public Works, specifying the nature of such accident or apprehended accident, and of the works necessary to be done,

15 and such powers shall cease and determine if the said Secretary shall, after considering the said report, certify that their exercise is not necessary for the public safety. Provided also that such works shall be as little injurious to the said adjoining lands as the nature of the accident or apprehended accident will admit of, and shall be executed

20 with all possible despatch, and full compensation shall be made to the owners and occupiers of such lands for the loss or injury or inconvenience sustained by them respectively by reason of such works, the amount of which compensation, in case of any dispute about the same, shall be settled by arbitrators in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

25 And provided also that no land shall be taken permanently for any such works otherwise than is herein provided with respect to the lands originally taken for the purpose of making the said railway.

12. Every bridge to be erected for the purpose of carrying the Construction of railway over any road shall be built in conformity with the following bridges over roads.

30 regulations, that is to say :-

35

40

45

55

The width of the arch shall be such as to leave thereunder a clear space of not less than thirty feet, if the arch be over a public highway, and of twenty feet if over a parish road, and of twelve feet if over a private road.

The clear height of the arch from the surface of the road shall not be less than sixteen feet for a space of twelve feet if the arch be over a main road, and fifteen feet for a space of ten feet if over a public carriage-road; and in each of such cases the clear height at the springing of the arch shall not be less than twelve feet; the clear height of the arch for a space of nine feet shall not be less than fourteen feet over a private road. The descent made in the road in order to carry the same under the bridge shall not be more than one foot in thirty feet if the bridge be over a public highway, one foot in twenty feet if over a parish road, and one foot in sixteen feet if over a private road, not being a tramroad or railroad, or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the descent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

13. Every bridge erected for carrying any road over the railway Construction of 50 shall be built in conformity with the following regulations, that is to bridges over railroads. say:

There shall be a good and sufficient fence on each side of the bridge, of not less height than four feet, and on each side of the immediate approaches of such bridge of not less than three feet.

The road over the bridge shall have a clear space between the fences thereof of thirty-five feet if the road be a public highway, and twenty-five feet if a parish road, and twelve feet if a private road.

The

5

35

40

45

50

55

The ascent shall not be more than one foot in thirty-feet if the road be a main road, one foot in twenty-feet if a parish road, and one foot in sixteen if a private road, not being a tramroad or railroad; or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the ascent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

14. Provided always that in all cases where the average avail- The width of the able width for the passing of carriages of any existing road within fifty bridges need not yards of the point of crossing the same is less than the width herein-the road in certain 10 before prescribed for bridges over or under the railway, the width of cases.

such bridges need not be greater than such average available width of such roads, but so, nevertheless, that such bridges be not of less width in case of a public highway or parish road than twenty feet. Provided also, that if at any time after the construction of the railway, the 15 average available width of any such road shall be increased beyond the width of such bridge on either side thereof, the promoters shall be bound at their own expense to increase the width of the said bridge to such extent as they may be required by the trustees or suveyors of such road, not exceeding the width of such road as so widened, or the 20 maximum width herein prescribed for a bridge in the like case over or under the railway.

15. Provided also, that if the mesne inclination of any road Existing inclination within two hundred and fifty yards of the point of crossing the same, diverted need not or the inclination of such portion of any road as may be preserved to be improved.

25 be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted, shall be steeper than the inclination hereinbefore required to be preserved by the promoters, then the promoters may carry any such road over or under the railway, or may construct such altered or substituted road at an inclination not steeper than the said mesne inclination of the

30 road so to be crossed, or of the road so requiring to be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted.

16. The promoters shall make and at all times thereafter Works for benefit of maintain the following works for the accommodation of the owners and owners.

occupiers of lands adjoining the railway, that is to say—
Such and so many convenient gates, bridges, arches, culverts, and Gates, bridges, &c. passages over, under, or by the sides of or leading to or from the railway as shall be necessary for the purpose of making good any interruptions caused by the railway to the use of the lands through which the railway shall be made; and such works shall be made forthwith after the part of the railway passing over such lands shall have been laid out or

formed, or during the formation thereof. All sufficient posts, rails, hedges, ditches, mounds or other fences Fences. for separating the land taken for the use of the railway from the adjoining lands not taken, and protecting such lands from trespass, or the cattle of the owners or occupiers thereof from straying thereon by reason of the railway, together with all necessary gates made to open towards such adjoining lands and not towards the railway; and all necessary stiles, and such posts, rails, and other fences shall be made forthwith after the taking of any such lands if the owners thereof shall so require, and the said other works as soon as conveniently may be.

Also, all necessary arches, tunnels, culverts, drains, or other Drains. passages, either over or under or by the sides of the railway of such dimensions as will be sufficient at all times to convey the water as clearly from the lands lying near or affected by the railway as before the making of the railway, or as nearly so as may be, and such works shall be made from time to time as the railway works proceed.

Also,

Also, proper watering-places for cattle or compensation in lieu Watering-places. thereof, where by reason of the railway the cattle of any person occupying any lands lying near thereto shall be deprived of access to their former watering-places; and such wateringplaces shall be so made as to be at all times sufficiently supplied with water as theretofore, and as if the railway had not been made, or as nearly so as may be. And the said promoters shall make all necessary watercourses and drains for the purpose of conveying water to the said watering-places.

10 Provided always that the promoters shall not be required to make such accommodation works in such a manner as would prevent or obstruct the working or using of the railway, nor to make any accommodation works with respect to which the owners and occupiers of the land shall have agreed to receive, and shall have been paid compensation instead of

15 the making them.

5

17. If any person omit to shut and fasten any gate set up at Penalty on persons either side of the railway for the accommodation of the owners or omitting to fasten occupiers of the adjoining lands, so soon as he, and the carriage, cattle, or other animals under his care have passed through the same, he shall 20 forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding ten pounds, to be recoverable in a summary way before any two Justices.

18. The promoters shall not be entitled to any minerals under Minerals not to pass. any land whereof the surface is vested in them by virtue of this Act, except only such parts thereof as shall be necessary to be dug or carried 25 away in the construction of the works hereby authorized. And such mines shall not be deemed to vest in the said promoters.

19. If within twenty-eight days after the passing of this Act, the Compensation clause. said persons through whose lands the railway shall pass, or any of them and the promoters shall not agree as to the amount of compensation to 30 be paid by them for the said lands belonging to the said parties, or any of them, or for any damage that may be sustained by them or him, by reason of the execution of the works, or if any other question as to compensation shall arise under this Act, the amount of such compensation shall be settled by arbitrators in manner hereinafter mentioned, that is

35 to say: Unless both parties shall concur in the appointment of a single Appointment of arbitrator, each party on the request of the other party shall nominate arbitrators. and appoint an arbitrator, to whom such dispute or other matter shall be referred. And every appointment of an arbitrator shall be under the hand of such party. And such appointment shall be delivered to

40 the arbitrator or arbitrators, and shall be deemed a submission to arbitration on the part of the party by whom the same shall be made. And after any such appointment shall have been made, neither party shall have power to revoke the same without the consent of the other, nor shall the death of either party operate as a revocation.

45 for the space of fourteen days after any such dispute or other matter shall have arisen, and after a request in writing shall have been served by the one party on the other party, to appoint an arbitrator, such lastmentioned party fail to appoint such arbitrator, then, upon such failure, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General for the time being of the

50 said Colony, on the application of the party who has himself appointed an arbitrator, to appoint such arbitrator to act on behalf of both parties. And such arbitrator may proceed to hear and determine the matters which shall be in dispute. And in such case the award or determination of such single arbitrator shall be final and conclusive.

20. If, before the matter so referred shall be determined, any Vacancy of arbitrator arbitrator appointed by either party shall die, or become incapable, or to be supplied. refuse, or for fourteen days neglect to act as arbitrator, the party by whom such arbitrator was appointed may nominate and appoint in writing some other person to act in his place. And if, for the space of seven days after notice in writing from the other party for that purpose, he fail to do so, the remaining or other arbitrators may proceed alone. And every arbitrator so to be substituted as aforesaid shall have the same powers and authorities as were vested in the 5 former arbitrator at the time of such, his death, refusal, neglect, or disability as aforesaid.

21. Where more than one arbitrator shall have been appointed appointment of such arbitrators shall, before they enter upon the matters referred to unpire.

them, nominate and appoint, by writing under their hands, an umpire to 10 decide any matters on which they shall differ, or which shall be referred to them under the provisions of this Act. And if such umpire shall die, or refuse, or for seven days neglect to act, after being called upon to do so by the arbitrators, they shall forthwith, after such death, refusal, or neglect appoint another umpire in his place; and the decision of 15 every such umpire on the matters so referred to him shall be final.

22. If in either of the cases aforesaid the arbitrators shall Attorney-General to refuse, or for seven days after request of either party to such appoint umpire on arbitration neglect to appoint an umpire, it shall be lawful for the

Attorney-General for the time being, on the application of either 20 party to such arbitration, to appoint an umpire; and the decision of such umpire on the matters on which the arbitrators shall differ, or which shall be referred to him under this Act, shall be final.

23. If, when a single arbitrator shall have been appointed, In case of death of such arbitrator shall die, or become incapable, or shall refuse, or for single arbitrator the such arbitrator shall die, or become incapable, or shall refuse, or for single arbitrator the matter to begin the de novo.

25 fourteen days neglect to act before he shall have made his award, the de novo.

matters referred to him shall be determined by arbitration, under the provisions of this Act, in the same manner as if such arbitrator had not been appointed.

24. If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been If either arbitrator 30 appointed, either of the arbitrators shall refuse, or for seven days refuse to act, the other to proceed neglect to act, the other arbitrator may proceed alone; and the exparte. decision of such other arbitrator shall be as effectual as if he had been

the single arbitrator appointed by both parties.

25. If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been if arbitrators fail to appointed, and where neither of them shall refuse or neglect to act as make their award aforesaid, such arbitrators shall fail to make their award within twenty-one days after the day on which the last of such arbitrators shall have been appointed, or within such extended time (if any) as shall have been appointed for that purpose by both of such arbitrators under their hands, the matters referred to them shall be determined by the umpire to be so appointed as aforesaid.

26. The said arbitrators or their umpire may call for the pro-Powers of arbitrators duction of any documents in the possession or power of either party to call for books, &c which they or he may think necessary for determining the question

45 in dispute, and may examine the parties or their witnesses on oath, and administer the oaths necessary for that purpose.

27. Before any arbitrator or umpire shall enter into the con-Arbitrator or umpire sideration of any matters referred to him, he shall, in the presence of to make a declaration a Justice of the Peace, make and subscribe the following declaration, of duty.

50 that is to say—

I, A.B. do selemnly and sincerely declare that I will faithfully and honestly, and to the best of my skill and ability, hear and determine the matters referred to me under the provisions of the "Silkstone Coal-mine Railway Act."

Made and subscribed in the presence of

55

And such declaration shall be annexed to the award when made, and Penalty for misconif any arbitrator or umpire, having made such declaration, shall wilded. fully act contrary thereto, he shall be guilty of misdemeanour.

141—B 28.

28. All the costs of any such arbitration and incident thereto Cost of arbitration to be settled by the arbitrators shall be borne by the promoters, unless how to be borne. the arbitrators shall award the same or a less sum than shall have been offered by the promoters, in which case each party shall bear his own 5 costs incident to the arbitration, and the costs of the arbitrators shall be borne by the parties in equal proportions, unless the amount awarded shall be one-fourth less than the amount, in which case the whole costs shall be paid by the claimant. Provided that if either party shall be dissatisfied with the costs allowed by the arbitrators as 10 aforesaid, the costs may be taxed by the Prothonotary or other proper officer of the Supreme Court, and the amount allowed by such officer shall be the amount of costs to be paid.

29. The arbitrators shall deliver their award in writing to the Award to be promoters, who shall retain the same, and shall forthwith, on demand, delivered to the 15 at their own expense, furnish a copy thereof to the other party, and promoters. shall at all times on demand produce the said award, and allow the same to be inspected or examined by such party, or any person appointed by him for that purpose, and the amount awarded shall be paid within sixty days after the publication of such award.

30. The submission to any such arbitration may be made a submission may be rule of the Supreme Court on the application of either of the parties. made a rule of Court.

31. No award made with respect to any question referred to Award not void arbitration, under the provisions of this Act, shall be set aside for through error in form.

irregularity or error in matter of form.

25

32. The promoters shall make compensation and satisfaction to Compensation for the said owners and occupiers (the amount of such compensation and temporary or permanent information to be accordingled by the said owners and occupiers (the amount of such compensation and temporary or permanent of such satisfaction to be ascertained and recovered in case of difference in the injuries. manner hereby provided) for temporary, permanent, or recurring injury, and all other damage, loss, costs, charges, and inconvenience which 30 may in anywise be occasioned to the said owners or occupiers by the non-performance by the said promoters of any of the matters and things hereby required to be performed by them or otherwise.

33. In every case where the promoters shall take temporary compensation to be possession of lands by virtue of the powers hereby granted, it shall be made for temporary incumbent on them within one month of the big granted, it shall be made for temporary occupation. 35 incumbent on them, within one month after their entry upon such lands, upon being required so to do, to pay to the occupier of the said lands, the value of any crop or dressing that may be thereon, as well as full compensation for any other damage of a temporary nature which he may sustain by reason of their so taking possession of their lands; 40 and they shall also from time to time during their occupation of the said lands pay half-yearly to such occupier or to the owner of the lands, as the case may require, a rent to be fixed by two Justices in case the parties differ, and shall also within six months after the completion of the railway, pay to such owner and or occupier a or deposit in the a bank

45 for the benefit of all parties interested, as the case may require, compensation of all permanent or other loss, damage, or injury that may have been sustained by them by reason of the exercise as regards the said lands of the powers hereby granted, including the full value of all clay,

stone, gravel, sand, and other things taken from such lands.

34. It shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works on Power for Govern-50 behalf of the Government, at any time by notice in writing, to require ment to purchase railway. the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns to sell, and thereupon the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall sell to the Government, as the case may be, 55 the said railway upon the terms of paying the then value (exclusive of any allowance for past or future profits of the said railway or any compensation for compulsory sale or other consideration whatsoever) of the said railway, and all lands, buildings, works, materials, and plant of the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, suitable suitable to and used by them for the purposes of the said railway, such value in case of difference to be ascertained by arbitration in the manner provided by the "Public Works Act of 1888," fifty-first Victoria number thirty-seven, for settling cases of disputed compensa-

5 tion, and subject to the terms and conditions therein contained. when any such sale shall have been made to the said Government, the said railway, lands, buildings, works, materials, plant, and premises shall vest in the Commissioners for Railways, who shall have all the rights, powers, and authorities of the said promoters, their heirs, executors, 10 administrators, and assigns in respect of the said railway so sold.

35. For the purpose of regulating the conduct of the officers company may make and servants of the promoters, and for providing for the due manage-by-laws ment of the affairs of the promoters in all respects, it shall be lawful

for the promoters, subject to the provisions herein mentioned, from 15 time to time to make such by-laws and regulations as they shall think fit. Provided that such by-laws be not repugnant to the laws of the Colony, or to the provisions of this Act; and such by-laws shall be reduced into writing, and shall have affixed thereto the names of the promoters, and a copy of such by-laws shall be given to every officer

20 and servant of the promoters affected thereby, and such by-laws may specify a maximum and minimum penalty for any breach thereof, such penalty to be proceeded for and recovered under the provisions of the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, chapter forty-three. Provided always that any by-laws of the said promoters relating to penalties 25 must be first approved of by the Attorney-General of the Colony for the time being.

36. The production of a printed or written copy of the by-laws Evidence of by-laws. of the promoters, shall be sufficient evidence of such by-laws in all

proceedings under the same.

37. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to authorize the said Lands belonging to promoters to take or enter upon any lands belonging to the Commis-Railways not to be sioners for Railways, or to alter or to interfere with the Great Northern taken. Railway, or any of the works thereof, further or otherwise than is necessary for making the junction and inter-communication between 35 the Railways, without the previous consent in writing in every instance of the Commissioners for Railways. 38. The said Commissioners shall from time to time erect such commissioners may signals and conveniences incident to the junction, either upon their erect signals and own lands or on the lands of the promoters, and may from time to and switchmen. 40 time appoint and remove such watchmen, switchmen, and other persons, as may be necessary for the prevention of danger to or interference with the traffic at or near the junction, and in all cases at the expense of the promoters. 39. The working and management of such signals and con- Working of signals 45 veniences, wherever situate, shall be under the exclusive regulation to be under regulations of Commisof the Commissioners for Railways.

40. Nothing herein contained shall alter, repeal, or otherwise Public Works and affect the "Public Works Act of 1888," or the "Government Railways Acts of 1888 acts of 1888 or repealed. Act of 1888.'

50 41. In this Act the said word "Justices" shall mean Justices of Interpretation the Peace in and for the territory of New South Wales; and when any clause matter shall be authorized or required to be done by two Justices, the expression "two Justices" shall mean two Justices assembled and acting together in Petty Sessions or a Stipendiary or Police Magistrate;

55 the word "Owner" shall mean any person or corporation who under the provisions of this Act would be able to sell land to the promoters; and the word "promoters" shall mean and include the said Richard Tilden Smith and John Thomas Mance, and the survivor of them, and the heirs, executors, or administrators of such survivor, their or his 60 assigns.

42. This Act shall be deemed and taken to be a public - Act, Short title. and the same whenever cited shall be sufficiently described as the "Silkstone Coal-mine Railway Act of 1889."

- SCHEDULE.

  From a point inside the boundary of their property, situate in the parish of Stanford, county of Northumberland, and from thence crossing the eastern boundary in a north-easterly direction through properties held by S. Hebblewhite, James Weston, H. J. Adams, J. Callaghan, Samuel Clift, W. Turnbull, and J. H. Swan, and through land believed to be owned by Miss Nine, Mrs. Harrington, J. Hickey, the East Greta Coal Company, J. Leonard, H. H. Capper, E. P. Capper, Mrs. Pilcher, J. Woolf, J. Callaghan, E. Hungerford, C. Simpson, and others, and being portions of a parcel of land formerly owned by E. Hungerford, containing two thousand acres, the line running generally in a north-easterly direction through the said properties; thence crossing the Telarah Road to and through property held by Peter Green, and terminating at a point on the Great Northern Railway at twenty miles sixty-five chains seventy-two links from Newcastle.

Sydney: Charles Potter, Government Printer.—1889.

SILKSTONE COAL-MINE RAILWAY BILL

SCHEDULE of Amendments referred to in Message of 20th June, 1889.

```
Page 2, clause 1, line 11. After "Railway" insert "which shall be of the same gauge as the Govern-
 Page 2, clause 2, line 38. After "shall" insert "so far as is necessary for the purpose of this Act"
 Page 2, clause 2, line 49. Omit "five" insert "three"
 Page 2, clause 2, line 52. After "lands" insert "including Crown Lands"
 Page 2, clause 2, line 54. After "the" insert "Crown and"
 Page 2, clause 2, line 54. After "assigns" insert "respectively"
 Page 3, clause 3, line 16. After "use" insert "for the conveyance of coal and goods"
 Page 3, clause 3, lines 17 and 18. Omit "of a sum not exceeding the rate per ton" insert "for the con-
          "veyance of coal of a sum not exceeding one penny per ton per mile, with a minimum
          "charge of threepence per ton in respect of every ton of coal for every transit, and for
          "the conveyance of goods at the rate per ton not exceeding that"
 Page 3, clause 3, line 28. Omit "two" insert "one"
 Page
       3, clause 3, line 31.
                           After "public" insert "for conveyance of coal and goods"
 Page 3, clause 3, line 32. After "promoters" insert "for the conveyance of coal of a sum not
          "exceeding one half-penny per ton per mile, with a minimum charge of twopence per
         "ton in respect of every ton of coal for every transit, and for goods"
 Page 3, clause 4, line 50. Omit "And be it enacted that"
 Page 3, clause 4, line 51.
                           After "lands" insert "adjoining thereto or"
 Page 3, clause 4, line 54.
                          After "carriages" insert "trucks and waggons"
Page 4, clause 4, line 2. After "passengers" insert "coal, and"
Page 4, clause 4, line 6. After "railway" second occurring, insert "provided that this shall not apply
         "to any railway line connecting any other colliery in that neighbourhood with the Great
         "Northern Railway"
Page 4, clause 7, line 56. After "for" insert "any person by petition to"
Page 4, clause 7, line 58. After "advisable" omit remainder of clause.
Page 5, clause 10, line 54. After "therein" insert "to be recoverable before any two Justices in a "summary way"
Page 8, clause 17. At end of clause add "to be recoverable in a summary way before any two
Page 10, clause 33, line 44. Omit "and" insert "or"
Page 10, clause 33, line 44.
                           Omit "a" insert "or"
Page 10, clause 33, line 44.
                           Before "bank" omit "the" insert "a"
Page 11, clause 38, line 37.
                           After "the" insert "said"
Page 11, clause 41, line 50.
                           Omit "said" insert "word"
Page 11, clause 41, line 54. After "Sessions" insert "or a Stipendiary or Police Magistrate"
Page 12, clause 42, lines 1 and 2. Omit "shall be deemed and taken to be a public Act, and the same
```

ALERT ANALITATION OF THE PARTIES OF THE PARTIES.

WHAT point, MOS by open Mari of history with make with A TATELLAND.

- control of the group and to dead it all the control of the same groups at the Governtion in the law of the group and the control of the

Ashoon has been to be error to be a required and the record of the sound of the sou

A Company of the Cartest of the Cart

entranta de la composició de la composició de la contradir de la contradir de la composició de la composició d La composició de la composició

The control of the co

To anting a function of the Prelimentate of the Presence acrosses the Presence of the Armania and State of the Community of the Armania and the Armania and Armani

This Private Bill originated in the Legislative Assembly, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the Legislative Council for its concurrence.

Legislative Assembly Chamber, Sydney, 21 May, 1889. F. W. WEBB, Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

The LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL has this day agreed to this Bill with Amendments.

Legislative Council Chamber, Sydney, 20th June, 1889. For the Clerk of the Parliaments, ADOLPHUS P. CLAPIN, Clerk Assistant.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

An Act to enable Richard Tilden Smith, of Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, and John Thomas Mance, of Parramatta, in the said Colony, to construct a Railway from the Silkstone Coal-mine to the Great Northern Railway.

WHEREAS Richard Tilden Smith, of Sydney, in the Colony of Preamble.

New South Wales, and John Thomas Mance, of Parramatta, in the said Colony, have opened coal-mines upon lands situated near Maitland, in the parish of Stanford, in the county of Northumberland,

and in order to facilitate communication between the said coal-mines and the Great Northern Railway, the said Richard Tilden Smith and John Thomas Mance, hereinafter designated the promoters, are desirous of constructing a railway from their said coal-mines to the Great Northern Railway, but as part of such proposed railway is intended to be made upon and pass through land believed to be the property of the Crown, bodies corporate, and private persons respectively, the same cannot be made without Legislative authority. And whereas the said coal-mines are likely to prove beneficial to the Colony, and the public are concerned in promoting such an increase in and facilities for the supply of coal for local consumption, steam navigation, and export, as would result from the construction of the said proposed railway, and traffic on the Great Northern Railway would be increased

increased thereby. It is therefore desirable to authorize by Legislative enactment the construction of the said railway, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, upon payment of compensation to the several parties through whose land the same shall pass for such portion 5 of their respective lands as may be required to be taken and occupied thereby. Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by authority of the same, as follows:-

1. It shall be lawful for the said promoters to make and con- Authority to construct a railway, which shall be of the same guage as the Government struct railway, and connect same with Railways, from a point inside the boundary of their property Great Northern situated in the parish of Stanford, county of Northumberland, and Railway. from thence crossing the eastern boundary in a north-easterly direction,

15 through properties held by S. Hebblewhite, James Weston, H. J. Adams, J. Callaghan, Samuel Clift, W. Turnbull, and P. H. Swan, and through land believed to be owned by Miss Nine, Mrs. Harrington, J. Hickey, the East Greta Coal Company, J. Leonard, H. H. Capper, E. P. Capper, Mrs. Pilcher, J. Woolf, J. Callaghan, E. Hungerford, C.

20 Simpson, and others, and being portion of a parcel of land formerly owned by E. Hungerford, containing two thousand acres, the line running generally in a north-easterly direction through the said properties; thence crossing a road, known as the Telarah Road, to and through property held by Peter Green, and terminating at a point on

25 the Great Northern Railway, at twenty miles sixty-five chains seventytwo links from Newcastle, and which lands and route are particularly described in the Schedule, and to effect, if necessary, a junction between the said line and the Great Northern Railway in accordance with section one hundred and twelve of the "Public Works Act of

30 1888," such railway to be in the direction described in the Schedule, and the said promoters may take and occupy three acres of land, or any lesser area, at the junction of the said railway with the Great Northern Railway.

2. The ground and soil of so much of the site of the railway as Site of railway shall 35 passes over the lands of the said owners of lands-respectively, and over be vested in the Crown Lands, together with such rights of investigations. Crown Lands, together with such rights of ingress, egress, and regress conveyance. upon the adjacent land as may be necessary for the making and repair of such railway, shall so far as is necessary for the purpose of this Act be vested, by virtue of this Act, and without the necessity of any con-40 veyance, in the promoters for the purposes of the railway. Provided that no lands vested in the Commissioners for Railways shall by virtue of this Act be vested in the promoters, and nothing herein contained

shall prevent the said owners from carrying on any mining operations beneath the said railway which shall not interfere with the safety of 45 the said railway and the traffic thereon; and the promoters shall have no further right to the soil of the said lands beneath the surface than shall be requisite for the formation and repairs of the said road by cutting, embanking, sinking wells, or otherwise. Provided that the said railway shall be constructed and brought into use within five three years

50 after the passing of this Act, and that in default thereof, or if after its completion, the said railway shall cease to be used for three years continuously, all the said lands, including Crown Lands, and all the said promoters' interest and estate therein shall revert without any conveyance to the Crown and original owners thereof, their heirs, and assigns

55 respectively. Provided also that if in the exercise of the powers hereby granted it be found necessary to cross-cut through, sink, raise, or use any part of any road, so as to render it impassable for, or dangerous or inconvenient to the persons entitled to the use thereof, the promoters shall, before the commencement of any such operations, cause a sufficient 60 road to be made instead of any road interfered with, and shall, at their own expense,

expense, maintain such substituted road in a state as convenient as the road interfered with, or as nearly as may be. And the promoters, before they use the said lands of the said owners of land and the said Crown Lands respectively for any of the purposes aforesaid, shall, if required 5 so to do, separate the same by a sufficient fence from the land adjoining thereto, with such gates as may be required for the convenient occupation of such land, and shall also, to all private roads used by them as aforesaid, put up fences and gates in like manner in all cases where the same may be necessary to prevent the straying of cattle from or 10 upon the lands traversed by such roads, and in case of any difference between the owners or occupiers of such roads and lands and the promoters as to the necessity for such fences and gates, then the said promoters shall put up and erect such fences and gates as any two Justices of the Peace, after inquiry, shall deem necessary for the pur-

15 poses aforesaid, on application being made to them.

3. The railway shall be open to the public use for the conveyance Railway open to the of coal and goods upon payment of a toll to the promoters of a sum not public exceeding the rate per ten for the conveyance of coal of a sum not exceeding one penny per ton per mile, with a minimum charge of three-20 pence per ton in respect of every ton of coal for every transit, and for the conveyance of goods at the rate per ton not exceeding that charged by the Commissioners for Railways in respect of every ton of goods for every transit, the person seeking transit supplying and loading his own trucks or on Government waggons, and the promoters or Government 25 supplying locomotive power; and all trucks when emptied, shall be conveyed, on their return, free of charge. Provided always, that it shall not be compulsory on the promoters to supply locomotive power unless the party seeking transit guarantee and bring two one hundred tons, at least, during the twelve working hours, and give notice of same at 30 least, twenty-four hours previously. The railway shall at all times be open to the public for conveyance of coal and goods upon payment of a toll to the promoters for the conveyance of coal of a sum not exceeding one half-penny per ton per mile, with a minimum charge of twopence per ton in respect of every ton of coal for every transit, and for goods of 35 a sum not exceeding one penny half-penny per ton per mile in respect of every ton of goods for every transit, if the party seeking transit supply the locomotive power as well as the trucks and waggons. Provided that so long as the promoters shall be willing to supply locomotive power, no other person shall use locomotive power on the line other 40 than the Commissioners for Railways. Provided that if the railway shall be damaged by parties who shall themselves use the railway for transit and supply locomotive power, the promoters shall be entitled to compensation for such damage, to be recovered, either by action in the Supreme Court of New South Wales, or, if such damage do not exceed

45 the sum of twenty pounds, summarily before two Justices; and in estimating such damage, the promoters shall be entitled, not only to compensation for the cost of repairing and restoring the railway, but to the consequential damage (if any) sustained by reason of the suspension of transit or otherwise.

4. And be it enacted that It shall be lawful for the owners or Branch railways, occupiers of the lands adjoining thereto or traversed by the said railway to lay down upon their own lands any collateral branches of railway to communicate with the said railway for the purpose of bringing carriages, trucks, and waggons to or from or upon the said railway, 55 and the promoters shall, if required, at the expense of such owners or occupiers, make openings in the rails and such additional lines of railway as may be necessary for effecting such communication in places where the communication can be made with safety to the public and without injury to the said railway, and without inconvenience to the traffic thereupon, and the promoters shall not take any rate or toll or other moneys for the passing of any passengers, coal, and goods, or other things along any branch so to be made by any such owner or occupier or other person, but this enactment shall be subject to the 5 following restrictions and conditions (that is to say)

No such railway shall run parallel to the said railway—provided that this shall not apply to any railway line connecting any other colliery in that neighbourhood with the Great Northern Railway, the promoters shall not be bound to make any such openings in any place which they shall have set apart for any specific purpose with which such communication would interfere, nor upon any inclined plane or bridge, nor in any

The persons making or using such branch railways shall be subject 15 to all by-laws and regulations of the promoters, from time to time made, with respect to passing upon or crossing the rail-way and otherwise; and the persons making or using such branch railways shall be bound to construct, and from time to time, as need may require, to renew the off set plates and 20 switches according to the most approved plan adopted by the promoters, under the direction of their engineer.

10

5. For the purposes, and subject to the provisions hereinafter Power to divert or contained, it shall be lawful for the promoters, their deputies, agents, alter roads.

servants, and workmen, and all other persons by them authorized and 25 empowered, to divert or alter the course of any road or way crossing the railway, or to raise or sink any road or way, in order the more conveniently to carry the same over, or under, or by the side of the railway.

6. If the promoters do not cause another sufficient road to be Penalty for not sub-30 so made before they interfere with any such existing road as aforesaid, stituting a road. they shall forfeit twenty pounds for every day during which such substituted road shall not be made after the existing road shall have been interrupted, and such penalty shall be paid to the trustees, commissioners, surveyor, or other persons having the management of 35 such road, if a public road, and shall be applied for the purposes thereof, or in case of a private road, the same shall be paid to the owner thereof, and every such penalty shall be recoverable, with costs, by action in any of the superior Courts.

7. It shall be lawful for but not compulsory upon the said Right to carry 40 promoters from time to time, and at any and all times, to carry passengers passengers and live stock upon the said railway or any part thereof respectively, and to make, demand, take, receive and recover such tolls or dues for carrying the same at such rates per mile, or other scale of charges as shall be established from time to time by the pro-

45 moters for or in respect of all such passengers and live stock which shall be conveyed or transported upon such railway or any part thereof And the promoters are hereby authorized to make such respectively. by-laws and regulations not inconsistent with this Act as may be necessary for the regulation of such traffic, and such by-laws or regu-

50 lations shall be binding upon all persons using or travelling upon the said railway, and any persons offending against such by-laws or regulations shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds for each offence, to be recovered in a summary way before any two Justices. Provided always that if the rates, tolls, or dues that may be established

55 as aforesaid under and by virtue of this Act shall be found excessive, it shall and may be lawful for any person by petition to the Executive Council to reduce the said rates, tolls, or dues, and to revise them in such manner as may seem most proper and advisable. And it is hereby provided that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to charge or make liable the said promoters further or in any other case than where, according to the laws of this Colony, stage-coach proprietors and common carriers would be liable, nor shall extend in any degree to deprive the said promoters of any protection or privilege which 5 common carriers or stage-coach proprietors may be entitled to, but on the contrary the promoters shall at all times be entitled to the benefit of every such protection and privilege.

8. If, in the course of making the railway, the promoters shall Road repairs.

use or interfere with any road, they shall from time to time make good 10 all damage done by them to such road, and if any question shall arise as to the damage done to any such road by the promoters, or as to the repair thereof by them, such question shall be referred to the determination of two Justices, and such Justices may direct such repairs to be made in the state of such road in respect of damage done by the 15 promoters, and within such period as they may think reasonable, and may impose on the promoters for not carring into effect such repairs any penalty not exceeding ten pounds per day as to such Justices shall seem fit, and any such penalty shall be paid to the surveyor, or other person having the management of the road interfered with by the 20 promoters, if a public road, and be applied for the purposes of such road, or if a private road, the same shall be paid to the owner thereof. Provided always the said Justices shall have regard to, and shall make full allowance for, any tolls that may have been paid to the promoters on such road in the course of the using thereof.

9. Until the promotors shall have made the bridges or other Owners crossing. proper communications, which they shall, under the provisions herein contained, have been required to make between lands intersected and the railway, and no longer, the owners and occupiers of such lands, and any other persons whose right-of-way shall be affected by the want of 30 such communications, and their respective servants, may at all times freely pass and repass with carriages, horses, and other animals directly but not otherwise, across any part of the railway made in or through their respective lands solely for the purpose of occupying the same lands, or for the exercise of such right-of-way, and so as not to obstruct

35 the passage along the railway, or to damage the same; nevertheless if the owner or occupier of any such lands have, in his arrangements with the promotors, received, or agreed to receive, compensation for or on account of any such communications instead of the same being formed, such owner or occupier, or those claiming under him, shall

40 not be entitled so to cross the railway.

10. If the railway cross any public highways or parish road on Provisions in cases a level, the promoters shall erect, and at all times maintain, good and where roads are grufficient getes percent such read on each side of the reilmon whom the sufficient gates across such road on each side of the railway where the same shall communicate therewith, and shall employ proper persons 45 to open and shut such gates, and such gates shall be kept constantly closed across such roads on both sides of the railway, except during the time when horses, cattle, carts, or carriages passing along the same shall have to cross such railway, and such gates shall be of such dimensions, and so constructed as when closed to fence in the railway, and 50 prevent cattle or horses passing along the road from entering upon the railway, and the person entrusted with the care of such gates shall cause the same to be closed as soon as such horses, cattle, carts, or carriages shall have passed through the same, under a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for every default therein, to be recoverable 55 before any two Justices in a summary way. Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works in any case in which he shall be satisfied that it will be more conducive to the public safety that the gates or any level crossing over any such road shall be kept closed across the railway, to order that such gates shall be kept so closed instead of across the road, and in case such gates shall be kept constantly closed across the railway, except when engines or carriages passing along the railway shall have occasion to cross such road in the same manner and under the like penalty as above directed

5 with respect to the gates being kept closed across the road.

11. In case of accidents or slips happening or being apprehended Power to enter upon to the cuttings, embankments, or other works of the said railway it adjoining lands to shall be lawful for the promoters and their workmen and servants to subject to certain enter upon the land adjoining thereto at any time whatsoever for the restrictions. 10 purpose of repairing or preventing such accidents, and to do such works as may be necessary for the purpose, but in every such case the promoters shall within forty-eight hours after such entry make a report to the Secretary for Public Works, specifying the nature of such accident or apprehended accident, and of the works necessary to be done,

15 and such powers shall cease and determine if the said Secretary shall, after considering the said report, certify that their exercise is not necessary for the public safety. Provided also that such works shall be as little injurious to the said adjoining lands as the nature of the accident or apprehended accident will admit of, and shall be executed

20 with all possible despatch, and full compensation shall be made to the owners and occupiers of such lands for the loss or injury or inconvenience sustained by them respectively by reason of such works, the amount of which compensation, in case of any dispute about the same, shall be settled by arbitrators in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

25 And provided also that no land shall be taken permanently for any such works otherwise than is herein provided with respect to the lands

originally taken for the purpose of making the said railway.

12. Every bridge to be erected for the purpose of carrying the Construction of railway over any road shall be built in conformity with the following bridges over roads. 30 regulations, that is to say :-

The width of the arch shall be such as to leave thereunder a clear space of not less than thirty feet, if the arch be over a public highway, and of twenty feet if over a parish road, and of

twelve feet if over a private road.

35 The clear height of the arch from the surface of the road shall not be less than sixteen feet for a space of twelve feet if the arch be over a main road, and fifteen feet for a space of ten feet if over a public carriage-road; and in each of such cases the clear height at the springing of the arch shall not be less than twelve feet; the clear height of the arch for a space of nine 40 feet shall not be less than fourteen feet over a private road.

The descent made in the road in order to carry the same under the bridge shall not be more than one foot in thirty feet if the bridge be over a public highway, one foot in twenty feet if over a parish road, and one foot in sixteen feet if over a private road, not being a tramroad or railroad, or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the descent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

13. Every bridge erected for carrying any road over the railway Construction of 50 shall be built in conformity with the following regulations, that is to bridges over railroads.

say:

45

55

There shall be a good and sufficient fence on each side of the bridge, of not less height than four feet, and on each side of the immediate approaches of such bridge of not less than

The road over the bridge shall have a clear space between the fences thereof of thirty-five feet if the road be a public highway, and twenty-five feet if a parish road, and twelve feet if a private road.

The ascent shall not be more than one foot in thirty-feet if the road be a main road, one foot in twenty-feet if a parish road, and one foot in sixteen if a private road, not being a tramroad or railroad; or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the ascent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

5

35

40

45

50

55

under the railway.

14. Provided always that in all cases where the average avail- The width of the able width for the passing of carriages of any existing road within fifty bridges need not yards of the point of crossing the same is less than the width herein-the road in certain 10 before prescribed for bridges over or under the railway, the width of cases. such bridges need not be greater than such average available width of such roads, but so, nevertheless, that such bridges be not of less width in case of a public highway or parish road than twenty feet. Provided also, that if at any time after the construction of the railway, the 15 average available width of any such road shall be increased beyond the width of such bridge on either side thereof, the promoters shall be bound at their own expense to increase the width of the said bridge to such extent as they may be required by the trustees or suveyors of such road, not exceeding the width of such road as so widened, or the 20 maximum width herein prescribed for a bridge in the like case over or

15. Provided also, that if the mesne inclination of any road Existing inclination within two hundred and fifty yards of the point of crossing the same, of roads crossed or the indicate the same, diverted need not or the inclination of such portion of any road as may be preserved to be improved.

25 be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted, shall be steeper than the inclination hereinbefore required to be preserved by the promoters, then the promoters may carry any such road over or under the railway, or may construct such altered or substituted road at an inclination not steeper than the said mesne inclination of the 30 road so to be crossed, or of the road so requiring to be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted.

16. The promoters shall make and at all times thereafter Works for benefit of maintain the following works for the accommodation of the owners and owners.

occupiers of lands adjoining the railway, that is to say—Such and so many convenient gates, bridges, arches, culverts, and Gates, bridges, &c. passages over, under, or by the sides of or leading to or from the railway as shall be necessary for the purpose of making good any interruptions caused by the railway to the use of the lands through which the railway shall be made; and such works shall be made forthwith after the part of the railway passing over such lands shall have been laid out or formed, or during the formation thereof.

All sufficient posts, rails, hedges, ditches, mounds or other fences Fences. for separating the land taken for the use of the railway from the adjoining lands not taken, and protecting such lands from trespass, or the cattle of the owners or occupiers thereof from straying thereon by reason of the railway, together with all necessary gates made to open towards such adjoining lands and not towards the railway; and all necessary stiles, and such posts, rails, and other fences shall be made forthwith after the taking of any such lands if the owners thereof shall so require, and the said other works as soon as conveniently may be.

Also, all necessary arches, tunnels, culverts, drains, or other Drains. passages, either over or under or by the sides of the railway of such dimensions as will be sufficient at all times to convey the water as clearly from the lands lying near or affected by the railway as before the making of the railway, or as nearly so as may be, and such works shall be made from time to time as the railway works proceed.

Also,

Also, proper watering-places for cattle or compensation in lieu Watering-places. thereof, where by reason of the railway the cattle of any person occupying any lands lying near thereto shall be deprived of access to their former watering-places; and such watering-places shall be so made as to be at all times sufficiently supplied with water as theretofore, and as if the railway had not been made, or as nearly so as may be. And the said promoters shall make all necessary watercourses and drains for the purpose of conveying water to the said watering-places.

10 Provided always that the promoters shall not be required to make such accommodation works in such a manner as would prevent or obstruct the working or using of the railway, nor to make any accommodation works with respect to which the owners and occupiers of the land shall have agreed to receive, and shall have been paid compensation instead of

15 the making them.

5

17. If any person omit to shut and fasten any gate set up at Penalty on persons either side of the railway for the accommodation of the owners or omitting to fasten occupiers of the adjoining lands, so soon as he, and the carriage, cattle, or other animals under his care have passed through the same, he shall 20 forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding ten pounds, to be recoverable in a summary way before any two Justices.

18. The promoters shall not be entitled to any minerals under Minerals not to pass. any land whereof the surface is vested in them by virtue of this Act, except only such parts thereof as shall be necessary to be dug or carried 25 away in the construction of the works hereby authorized. And such mines shall not be deemed to vest in the said promoters.

19. If within twenty-eight days after the passing of this Act, the Compensation clause. said persons through whose lands the railway shall pass, or any of them and the promoters shall not agree as to the amount of compensation to 30 be paid by them for the said lands belonging to the said parties, or any of them, or for any damage that may be sustained by them or him, by reason of the execution of the works, or if any other question as to compensation shall arise under this Act, the amount of such compensation shall be settled by arbitrators in manner hereinafter mentioned, that is

35 to say: Unless both parties shall concur in the appointment of a single Appointment of arbitrator, each party on the request of the other party shall nominate arbitrators. and appoint an arbitrator, to whom such dispute or other matter shall And every appointment of an arbitrator shall be under be referred. the hand of such party. And such appointment shall be delivered to

40 the arbitrator or arbitrators, and shall be deemed a submission to arbitration on the part of the party by whom the same shall be made. And after any such appointment shall have been made, neither party shall have power to revoke the same without the consent of the other,

nor shall the death of either party operate as a revocation. And if 45 for the space of fourteen days after any such dispute or other matter shall have arisen, and after a request in writing shall have been served by the one party on the other party, to appoint an arbitrator, such lastmentioned party fail to appoint such arbitrator, then, upon such failure, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General for the time being of the

50 said Colony, on the application of the party who has himself appointed an arbitrator, to appoint such arbitrator to act on behalf of both parties. And such arbitrator may proceed to hear and determine the matters which shall be in dispute. And in such case the award or determination of such single arbitrator shall be final and conclusive.

20. If, before the matter so referred shall be determined, any Vacancy of arbitrator 55 arbitrator appointed by either party shall die, or become incapable, or to be supplied. refuse, or for fourteen days neglect to act as arbitrator, the party by whom such arbitrator was appointed may nominate and appoint in writing some other person to act in his place. And if, for the space of seven days after notice in writing from the other party for that purpose, he fail to do so, the remaining or other arbitrators may proceed alone. And every arbitrator so to be substituted as aforesaid shall have the same powers and authorities as were vested in the former arbitrator at the time of such, his death, refusal, neglect, or disability as aforesaid.

21. Where more than one arbitrator shall have been appointed appointment of such arbitrators shall, before they enter upon the matters referred to umpire.

them, nominate and appoint, by writing under their hands, an umpire to 10 decide any matters on which they shall differ, or which shall be referred to them under the provisions of this Act. And if such umpire shall die, or refuse, or for seven days neglect to act, after being called upon to do so by the arbitrators, they shall forthwith, after such death, refusal, or neglect appoint another umpire in his place; and the decision of 15 every such umpire on the matters so referred to him shall be final.

22. If in either of the cases aforesaid the arbitrators shall Attorney-General to refuse, or for seven days after request of either party to such appoint umpire on arbitration neglect to appoint an umpire, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General for the time being, on the application of either

20 party to such arbitration, to appoint an umpire; and the decision of such umpire on the matters on which the arbitrators shall differ, or which shall be referred to him under this Act, shall be final.

23. If, when a single arbitrator shall have been appointed, In case of death of such arbitrator shall die, or become incapable, or shall refuse, or for single arbitrator the such arbitrator to begin the shall have made his award, the de novo.

matters referred to him shall be determined by arbitration, under the provisions of this Act, in the same manner as if such arbitrator had not been appointed.

24. If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been If either arbitrator 30 appointed, either of the arbitrators shall refuse, or for seven days refuse to act, the other to proceed alone; and the exparte. decision of such other arbitrator shall be as effectual as if he had been

the single arbitrator appointed by both parties.

25. If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been if arbitrators fail to appointed, and where neither of them shall refuse or neglect to act as make their award within twenty-one aforesaid, such arbitrators shall fail to make their award within twenty-days the matter to one days after the day on which the last of such arbitrators shall have go to the umpire. been appointed, or within such extended time (if any) as shall have been appointed for that purpose by both of such arbitrators under their hands, the matters referred to them shall be determined by the umpire to be so appointed as aforesaid.

26. The said arbitrators or their umpire may call for the pro-Powers of arbitrators duction of any documents in the possession or power of either party to call for books, &c which they or he may think necessary for determining the question

45 in dispute, and may examine the parties or their witnesses on oath, and administer the oaths necessary for that purpose.

27. Before any arbitrator or umpire shall enter into the con-Arbitrator or umpire sideration of any matters referred to him, he shall, in the presence of to make a declaration for faithful discharge a Justice of the Peace, make and subscribe the following declaration, of duty.

50 that is to say—

I, A.B. do selemnly and sincerely declare that I will faithfully and honestly, and to the best of my skill and ability, hear and determine the matters referred to me under the provisions of the "Silkstone Coal-mine Railway Act."

Made and subscribed in the presence of

A.B.

And such declaration shall be annexed to the award when made, and Penalty for misconif any arbitrator or umpire, having made such declaration, shall wil-duct. fully act contrary thereto, he shall be guilty of misdemeanour.

141—B

55

28. All the costs of any such arbitration and incident thereto Cost of arbitration to be settled by the arbitrators shall be borne by the promoters, unless how to be borne. the arbitrators shall award the same or a less sum than shall have been offered by the promoters, in which case each party shall bear his own 5 costs incident to the arbitration, and the costs of the arbitrators shall be borne by the parties in equal proportions, unless the amount awarded shall be one-fourth less than the amount, in which case the whole costs shall be paid by the claimant. Provided that if either party shall be dissatisfied with the costs allowed by the arbitrators as 10 aforesaid, the costs may be taxed by the Prothonotary or other proper officer of the Supreme Court, and the amount allowed by such officer shall be the amount of costs to be paid.

29. The arbitrators shall deliver their award in writing to the Award to be promoters, who shall retain the same, and shall forthwith, on demand, delivered to the 15 at their own expense, furnish a copy thereof to the other party, and shall at all times on demand produce the said award, and allow the same to be inspected or examined by such party, or any person appointed by him for that purpose, and the amount awarded shall be paid within sixty days after the publication of such award.

30. The submission to any such arbitration may be made a submission may be rule of the Supreme Court on the application of either of the parties. made a rule of Court.

31. No award made with respect to any question referred to Award not void arbitration, under the provisions of this Act, shall be set aside for through error in form. irregularity or error in matter of form.

25 32. The promoters shall make compensation and satisfaction to Compensation for the said owners and occupiers (the amount of such compensation and temporary or permanent of such compensation and temporary o satisfaction to be ascertained and recovered in case of difference in the injuries. manner hereby provided) for temporary, permanent, or recurring injury, and all other damage, loss, costs, charges, and inconvenience which 30 may in anywise be occasioned to the said owners or occupiers by the non-performance by the said promoters of any of the matters and things hereby required to be performed by them or otherwise.

33. In every case where the promoters shall take temporary Compensation to be possession of lands by virtue of the powers hereby granted, it shall be made for temporary occupation. 35 incumbent on them, within one month after their entry upon such lands, upon being required so to do, to pay to the occupier of the said lands, the value of any crop or dressing that may be thereon, as well as full compensation for any other damage of a temporary nature which he may sustain by reason of their so taking possession of their lands;

40 and they shall also from time to time during their occupation of the said lands pay half-yearly to such occupier or to the owner of the lands, as the case may require, a rent to be fixed by two Justices in case the parties differ, and shall also within six months after the completion of the railway, pay to such owner and or occupier a or deposit in the a bank

45 for the benefit of all parties interested, as the case may require, compensation of all permanent or other loss, damage, or injury that may have been sustained by them by reason of the exercise as regards the said lands of the powers hereby granted, including the full value of all clay, stone, gravel, sand, and other things taken from such lands.

50 34. It shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works on Power for Governbehalf of the Government, at any time by notice in writing, to require ment to purchase railway. the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns to sell, and thereupon the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall sell to the Government, as the case may be, 55 the said railway upon the terms of paying the then value (exclusive of any allowance for past or future profits of the said railway or any compensation for compulsory sale or other consideration whatsoever) of the said railway, and all lands, buildings, works, materials, and plant of the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns,

suitable

suitable to and used by them for the purposes of the said railway, such value in case of difference to be ascertained by arbitration in the manner provided by the "Public Works Act of 1888," fifty-first Victoria number thirty-seven, for settling cases of disputed compensa-5 tion, and subject to the terms and conditions therein contained. when any such sale shall have been made to the said Government, the said railway, lands, buildings, works, materials, plant, and premises shall vest in the Commissioners for Railways, who shall have all the rights, powers, and authorities of the said promoters, their heirs, executors,

10 administrators, and assigns in respect of the said railway so sold. 35. For the purpose of regulating the conduct of the officers company may make and servants of the promoters, and for providing for the due manage-by-laws. ment of the affairs of the promoters in all respects, it shall be lawful

for the promoters, subject to the provisions herein mentioned, from 15 time to time to make such by-laws and regulations as they shall think

fit. Provided that such by-laws be not repugnant to the laws of the Colony, or to the provisions of this Act; and such by-laws shall be reduced into writing, and shall have affixed thereto the names of the promoters, and a copy of such by-laws shall be given to every officer

20 and servant of the promoters affected thereby, and such by-laws may specify a maximum and minimum penalty for any breach thereof, such penalty to be proceeded for and recovered under the provisions of the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, chapter forty-three. always that any by-laws of the said promoters relating to penalties 25 must be first approved of by the Attorney-General of the Colony for the time being.

36. The production of a printed or written copy of the by-laws Evidence of by-laws. of the promoters, shall be sufficient evidence of such by-laws in all

proceedings under the same.

37. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to authorize the said Lands belonging to promoters to take or enter upon any lands belonging to the Commis-Commissioners for Railways not to be sioners for Railways, or to alter or to interfere with the Great Northern taken. Railway, or any of the works thereof, further or otherwise than is necessary for making the junction and inter-communication between 35 the Railways, without the previous consent in writing in every instance of the Commissioners for Railways.

38. The said Commissioners shall from time to time erect such Commissioners may signals and conveniences incident to the junction, either upon their erect signals and own lands or on the lands of the promoters, and may from time to and switchmen.

40 time appoint and remove such watchmen, switchmen, and other persons, as may be necessary for the prevention of danger to or interference with the traffic at or near the junction, and in all cases at the expense of the promoters.

39. The working and management of such signals and con-working of signals 45 veniences, wherever situate, shall be under the exclusive regulation to be under regulations of Commisof the Commissioners for Railways.

40. Nothing herein contained shall alter, repeal, or otherwise Public Works and affect the "Public Works Act of 1888," or the "Government Railways Acts of 1888 not altered or repealed. Act of 1888."

50 41. In this Act the said word "Justices" shall mean Justices of Interpretation the Peace in and for the territory of New South Wales; and when any clause. matter shall be authorized or required to be done by two Justices, the expression "two Justices" shall mean two Justices assembled and acting together in Petty Sessions or a Stipendiary or Police Magistrate;

55 the word "Owner" shall mean any person or corporation who under the provisions of this Act would be able to sell land to the promoters; and the word "promoters" shall mean and include the said Richard Tilden Smith and John Thomas Mance, and the survivor of them, and the heirs, executors, or administrators of such survivor, their or his

60 assigns,

42. This Act shall be deemed and taken to be a public Act, Short title. and the same whenever cited shall be sufficiently described as the "Silkstone Coal-mine Railway Act of 1889."

SCHEDULE.

- SCHEDULE.

  5 From a point inside the boundary of their property, situate in the parish of Stanford, county of Northumberland, and from thence crossing the eastern boundary in a north-easterly direction through properties held by S. Hebblewhite, James Weston, H. J. Adams, J. Callaghan, Samuel Clift, W. Turnbull, and J. H. Swan, and through land believed to be owned by Miss Nine, Mrs. Harrington, J. Hickey, the East Greta Coal 10 Company, J. Leonard, H. H. Capper, E. P. Capper, Mrs. Pilcher, J. Woolf, J. Callaghan, E. Hungerford, C. Simpson, and others, and being portions of a parcel of land formerly owned by E. Hungerford, containing two thousand acres, the line running generally in a north-easterly direction through the said properties; thence crossing the Telarah Road to and through property held by Peter Green, and terminating at a point on the 15 Great Northern Railway at twenty miles sixty-five chains seventy-two links from Newcastle.

Sydney: Charles Potter, Government Printer.—1889.

This Private Bill originated in the Legislative Assembly, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the Legislative Council for its concurrence.

Legislative Assembly Chamber, Sydney, 21 May, 1889. F. W. WEBB, Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

An Act to enable Richard Tilden Smith, of Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, and John Thomas Mance, of Parramatta, in the said Colony, to construct a Railway from the Silkstone Coal-mine to the Great Northern Railway.

WHEREAS Richard Tilden Smith, of Sydney, in the Colony of Preamble.

New South Wales, and John Thomas Mance, of Parramatta, in the said Colony, have opened coal-mines upon lands situated near Maitland, in the parish of Stanford, in the county of Northumberland,

and in order to facilitate communication between the said coal-mines and the Great Northern Railway, the said Richard Tilden Smith and John Thomas Mance, hereinafter designated the promoters, are desirous of constructing a railway from their said coal-mines to the Great Northern Railway, but as part of such proposed railway is intended to be made upon and pass through land believed to be the property of the Crown, bodies corporate, and private persons respectively, the same cannot be made without Legislative authority. And whereas the said coal-mines are likely to prove beneficial to the Colony, and the public are concerned in promoting such an increase in and facilities for the supply of coal for local consumption, steam navigation, and export, as would result from the construction of the said proposed railway, and traffic on the Great Northern Railway would be increased increased thereby. It is therefore desirable to authorize by Legislative enactment the construction of the said railway, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, upon payment of compensation to the several parties through whose land the same shall pass for such portion 5 of their respective lands as may be required to be taken and occupied Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled,

and by authority of the same, as follows:-

1. It shall be lawful for the said promoters to make and con- Authority to construct a railway from a point inside the boundary of their property struct railway, and with situated in the parish of Stanford, county of Northumberland, and Great Northern from thence crossing the eastern boundary in a north-easterly direction, through properties held by S. Hebblewhite, James Weston, H. J. 15 Adams, J. Callaghan, Samuel Clift, W. Turnbull, and P. H. Swan, and through land believed to be owned by Miss Nine, Mrs. Harrington, J. Hickey, the East Greta Coal Company, J. Leonard, H. H. Capper, E. P. Capper, Mrs. Pilcher, J. Woolf, J. Callaghan, E. Hungerford, C. Simpson, and others, and being portion of a parcel of land formerly

20 owned by E. Hungerford, containing two thousand acres, the line running generally in a north-easterly direction through the said properties; thence crossing a road, known as the Telarah Road, to and through property held by Peter Green, and terminating at a point on the Great Northern Railway, at twenty miles sixty-five chains seventy-

25 two links from Newcastle, and which lands and route are particularly described in the Schedule, and to effect, if necessary, a junction between the said line and the Great Northern Railway in accordance with section one hundred and twelve of the "Public Works Act of 1888," such railway to be in the direction described in the Schedule,

30 and the said promoters may take and occupy three acres of land, or any lesser area, at the junction of the said railway with the Great

Northern Railway.

2. The ground and soil of so much of the site of the railway as Site of railway shall passes over the lands of the said owners of lands respectively, and over be vested in the 35 Crown Lands, together with such rights of ingress, egress, and regress conveyance. upon the adjacent land as may be necessary for the making and repair of such railway, shall be vested, by virtue of this Act, and without the necessity of any conveyance, in the promoters for the purposes of the railway. Provided that no lands vested in the Commissioners for Rail-40 ways shall by virtue of this Act be vested in the promoters, and nothing herein contained shall prevent the said owners from carrying on any mining operations beneath the said railway which shall not interfere with the safety of the said railway and the traffic thereon; and the promoters shall have no further right to the soil of the said lands 45 beneath the surface than shall be requisite for the formation and repairs of the said road by cutting, embanking, sinking wells, or other-Provided that the said railway shall be constructed and brought into use within five years after the passing of this Act, and that in default thereof, or if after its completion, the said railway shall cease to

50 be used for three years continuously, all the said lands, and all the said promoters' interest and estate therein shall revert without any conveyance to the original owners thereof, their heirs, and assigns. Provided also that if in the exercise of the powers hereby granted it be found necessary to cross-cut through, sink, raise, or use any part of any road,

55 so as to render it impassable for, or dangerous or inconvenient to the persons entitled to the use thereof, the promoters shall, before the commencement of any such operations, cause a sufficient road to be made instead of any road interfered with, and shall, at their own expense, maintain such substituted road in a state as convenient as the road interfered interfered with, or as nearly as may be. And the promoters, before they use the said lands of the said owners of land and the said Crown Lands respectively for any of the purposes aforesaid, shall, if required so to do, separate the same by a sufficient fence from the land adjoining 5 thereto, with such gates as may be required for the convenient occupation of such land, and shall also, to all private roads used by them as aforesaid, put up fences and gates in like manner in all cases where the same may be necessary to prevent the straying of cattle from or upon the lands traversed by such roads, and in case of any difference

10 between the owners or occupiers of such roads and lands and the promoters as to the necessity for such fences and gates, then the said promoters shall put up and erect such fences and gates as any two Justices of the Peace, after inquiry, shall deem necessary for the purposes aforesaid, on application being made to them.

3. The railway shall be open to the public use upon payment of Railway open to the a toll to the promoters of a sum not exceeding the rate per ton charged by the Commissioners for Railways in respect of every ton of goods for every transit, the person seeking transit supplying and loading his own trucks or on Government waggons, and the promoters or Government

20 supplying locomotive power; and all trucks when emptied, shall be conveyed, on their return, free of charge. Provided always, that it shall not be compulsory on the promoters to supply locomotive power unless the party seeking transit guarantee and bring two hundred tons, at least, during the twelve working hours, and give notice of same at

25 least, twenty-four hours previously. The railway shall at all times be open to the public upon payment of a toll to the promoters of a sum not exceeding one penny half-penny per ton per mile in respect of every ton of goods for every transit, if the party seeking transit supply the locomotive power as well as the trucks and waggons. Provided

30 that so long as the promoters shall be willing to supply locomotive power, no other person shall use locomotive power on the line other than the Commissioners for Railways. Provided that if the railway shall be damaged by parties who shall themselves use the railway for transit and supply locomotive power, the promoters shall be entitled to

35 compensation for such damage, to be recovered, either by action in the Supreme Court of New South Wales, or, if such damage do not exceed the sum of twenty pounds, summarily before two Justices; and in estimating such damage, the promoters shall be entitled, not only to compensation for the cost of repairing and restoring the railway, but

40 to the consequential damage (if any) sustained by reason of the suspension of transit or otherwise.

60

4. And be it enacted that it shall be lawful for the owners or Branch railways. occupiers of the lands traversed by the said railway to lay down upon their own lands any collateral branches of railway to communicate 45 with the said railway for the purpose of bringing carriages to or from or upon the said railway, and the promoters shall, if required, at the expense of such owners or occupiers, make openings in the rails and such additional lines of railway as may be necessary for effecting such communication in places where the communication can be made with 50 safety to the public and without injury to the said railway, and without inconvenience to the traffic thereupon, and the promoters shall not take any rate or toll or other moneys for the passing of any passengers, goods, or other things along any branch so to be made by any such owner or occupier or other person, but this enactment shall be subject

55 to the following restrictions and conditions (that is to say)—

No such railway shall run parallel to the said railway—the promoters shall not be bound to make any such openings in any place which they shall have set apart for any specific purpose with which such communication would interfere, nor upon any inclined plane or bridge, nor in any tunnel.

The

The persons making or using such branch railways shall be subject to all by-laws and regulations of the promoters, from time to time made, with respect to passing upon or crossing the railway and otherwise; and the persons making or using such branch railways shall be bound to construct, and from time to time, as need may require, to renew the off set plates and switches according to the most approved plan adopted by the promoters, under the direction of their engineer.

5. For the purposes, and subject to the provisions hereinafter Power to divert or 10 contained, it shall be lawful for the promoters, their deputies, agents, alter roads. servants, and workmen, and all other persons by them authorized and empowered, to divert or alter the course of any road or way crossing the railway, or to raise or sink any road or way, in order the more conveniently to carry the same over, or under, or by the side of the

5

6. If the promoters do not cause another sufficient road to be Penalty for not sub. so made before they interfere with any such existing road as aforesaid, stituting a road. they shall forfeit twenty pounds for every day during which such substituted road shall not be made after the existing road shall have 20 been interrupted, and such penalty shall be paid to the trustees, commissioners, surveyor, or other persons having the management of such road, if a public road, and shall be applied for the purposes thereof, or in case of a private road, the same shall be paid to the owner thereof, and every such penalty shall be recoverable, with costs,

25 by action in any of the superior Courts.

7. It shall be lawful for but not compulsory upon the said Right to carry promoters from time to time, and at any and all times, to carry passengers. passengers and live stock upon the said railway or any part thereof respectively, and to make, demand, take, receive and recover such 30 tolls or dues for carrying the same at such rates per mile, or other scale of charges as shall be established from time to time by the promoters for or in respect of all such passengers and live stock which shall be conveyed or transported upon such railway or any part thereof respectively. And the promoters are hereby authorized to make such 35 by-laws and regulations not inconsistent with this Act as may be necessary for the regulation of such traffic, and such by-laws or regulations shall be binding upon all persons using or travelling upon the said railway, and any persons offending against such by-laws or regulations shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds for each 40 offence, to be recovered in a summary way before any two Justices.

as aforesaid under and by virtue of this Act shall be found excessive, it shall and may be lawful for the Executive Council to reduce the said rates, tolls, or dues, and to revise them in such manner as may 45 seem most proper and advisable. And it is hereby provided that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to charge or make liable the said promoters further or in any other case than where, according to the laws of this Colony, stage-coach proprietors and common carriers would be liable, nor shall extend in any degree to deprive the said

Provided always that if the rates, tolls, or dues that may be established

50 promoters of any protection or privilege which common carriers or stage-coach proprietors may be entitled to, but on the contrary the promoters shall at all times be entitled to the benefit of every such protection and privilege.

8. If, in the course of making the railway, the promoters shall Road repairs. 55 use or interfere with any road, they shall from time to time make good all damage done by them to such road, and if any question shall arise as to the damage done to any such road by the promoters, or as to the repair thereof by them, such question shall be referred to the determination of two Justices, and such Justices may direct such repairs to be made in the state of such road in respect of damage done by the promoters, and within such period as they may think reasonable, and may impose on the promoters for not carring into effect such repairs any penalty not exceeding ten pounds per day as to such Justices shall 5 seem fit, and any such penalty shall be paid to the surveyor, or other person having the management of the road interfered with by the promoters, if a public road, and be applied for the purposes of such road, or if a private road, the same shall be paid to the owner thereof. Provided always the said Justices shall have regard to, and shall make 10 full allowance for, any tolls that may have been paid to the promoters

on such road in the course of the using thereof.

9. Until the promotors shall have made the bridges or other owners crossing. proper communications, which they shall, under the provisions herein contained, have been required to make between lands intersected and 15 the railway, and no longer, the owners and occupiers of such lands, and any other persons whose right-of-way shall be affected by the want of such communications, and their respective servants, may at all times freely pass and repass with carriages, horses, and other animals directly but not otherwise, across any part of the railway made in or through 20 their respective lands solely for the purpose of occupying the same lands, or for the exercise of such right-of-way, and so as not to obstruct the passage along the railway, or to damage the same; nevertheless if the owner or occupier of any such lands have, in his arrangements with the promotors, received, or agreed to receive, compensation for or 25 on account of any such communications instead of the same being formed, such owner or occupier, or those claiming under him, shall not be entitled so to cross the railway.

10. If the railway cross any public highways or parish road on Provisions in cases a level, the promoters shall erect, and at all times maintain, good and where roads are crossed on a level 30 sufficient gates across such road on each side of the railway where the same shall communicate therewith, and shall employ proper persons to open and shut such gates, and such gates shall be kept constantly closed across such roads on both sides of the railway, except during the time when horses, cattle, carts, or carriages passing along the same 35 shall have to cross such railway, and such gates shall be of such dimensions, and so constructed as when closed to fence in the railway, and prevent cattle or horses passing along the road from entering upon the railway, and the person entrusted with the care of such gates shall cause the same to be closed as soon as such horses, cattle, carts, or

40 carriages shall have passed through the same, under a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for every default therein. Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works in any case in which he shall be satisfied that it will be more conducive to the public safety that the gates or any level crossing over any such road

45 shall be kept closed across the railway, to order that such gates shall be kept so closed instead of across the road, and in case such gates shall be kept constantly closed across the railway, except when engines or carriages passing along the railway shall have occasion to cross such road in the same manner and under the like penalty as above directed 50 with respect to the gates being kept closed across the road.

11. In case of accidents or slips happening or being apprehended to the cuttings, embankments, or other works of the said railway it repair accidents, shall be lawful for the promoters and their workmen and servants to subject to certain restrictions. 55 purpose of repairing or preventing such accidents, and to do such works as may be necessary for the purpose, but in every such case the promoters shall within forty-eight hours after such entry make a report to the Secretary for Public Works, specifying the nature of such accident or apprehended accident, and of the works necessary to be done, 60 and such powers shall cease and determine if the said Secretary shall, after

after considering the said report, certify that their exercise is not necessary for the public safety. Provided also that such works shall be as little injurious to the said adjoining lands as the nature of the accident or apprehended accident will admit of, and shall be executed 5 with all possible despatch, and full compensation shall be made to the owners and occupiers of such lands for the loss or injury or inconvenience sustained by them respectively by reason of such works, the amount of which compensation, in case of any dispute about the same, shall be settled by arbitrators in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

10 And provided also that no land shall be taken permanently for any such works otherwise than is herein provided with respect to the lands originally taken for the purpose of making the said railway.

12. Every bridge to be erected for the purpose of carrying the Construction of railway over any road shall be built in conformity with the following bridges over roads.

15 regulations, that is to say:—

The width of the arch shall be such as to leave thereunder a clear space of not less than thirty feet, if the arch be over a public highway, and of twenty feet if over a parish road, and of twelve feet if over a private road.

20 The clear height of the arch from the surface of the road shall not be less than sixteen feet for a space of twelve feet if the arch be over a main road, and fifteen feet for a space of ten feet if over a public carriage-road; and in each of such cases the clear height at the springing of the arch shall not be less than 25 twelve feet; the clear height of the arch for a space of nine feet shall not be less than fourteen feet over a private road.

The descent made in the road in order to carry the same under the bridge shall not be more than one foot in thirty feet if the bridge be over a public highway, one foot in twenty feet if over a parish road, and one foot in sixteen feet if over a private road, not being a tramroad or railroad, or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the descent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

13. Every bridge erected for carrying any road over the railway Construction of 35 shall be built in conformity with the following regulations, that is to bridgesover railroads.

30

40

45

50

There shall be a good and sufficient fence on each side of the bridge, of not less height than four feet, and on each side of the immediate approaches of such bridge of not less than

The road over the bridge shall have a clear space between the fences thereof of thirty-five feet if the road be a public highway, and twenty-five feet if a parish road, and twelve feet if

a private road.

The ascent shall not be more than one foot in thirty-feet if the road be a main road, one foot in twenty-feet if a parish road, and one foot in sixteen if a private road, not being a tramroad or railroad; or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the ascent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

14. Provided always that in all cases where the average avail- The width of the able width for the passing of carriages of any existing road within fifty bridges need not yards of the point of crossing the same is less than the width herein- the road in certain before prescribed for bridges over or under the railway, the width of cases.

55 such bridges need not be greater than such average available width of such roads, but so, nevertheless, that such bridges be not of less width in case of a public highway or parish road than twenty feet. Provided also, that if at any time after the construction of the railway, the average available width of any such road shall be increased beyond the width

width of such bridge on either side thereof, the promoters shall be bound at their own expense to increase the width of the said bridge to such extent as they may be required by the trustees or suveyors of such road, not exceeding the width of such road as so widened, or the 5 maximum width herein prescribed for a bridge in the like case over or under the railway.

15. Provided also, that if the mesne inclination of any road Existing inclination within two hundred and fifty yards of the point of crossing the same, of roads crossed or diverted need not or the inclination of such portion of any road as may be preserved to be improved.

10 be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted, shall be steeper than the inclination hereinbefore required to be preserved by the promoters, then the promoters may carry any such road over or under the railway, or may construct such altered or substituted road at an inclination not steeper than the said mesne inclination of the

15 road so to be crossed, or of the road so requiring to be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted.

16. The promoters shall make and at all times thereafter works for benefit of maintain the following works for the accommodation of the owners and owners. occupiers of lands adjoining the railway, that is to say-

Such and so many convenient gates, bridges, arches, culverts, and Gates, bridges, &c. 20 passages over, under, or by the sides of or leading to or from the railway as shall be necessary for the purpose of making good any interruptions caused by the railway to the use of the lands through which the railway shall be made; and such works shall be made forthwith after the part of the railway passing over such lands shall have been laid out or 25 formed, or during the formation thereof.

All sufficient posts, rails, hedges, ditches, mounds or other fences Fences. for separating the land taken for the use of the railway from the adjoining lands not taken, and protecting such lands from 30 trespass, or the cattle of the owners or occupiers thereof from straying thereon by reason of the railway, together with all necessary gates made to open towards such adjoining lands and not towards the railway; and all necessary stiles, and such posts, rails, and other fences shall be made forthwith after 35 the taking of any such lands if the owners thereof shall so require, and the said other works as soon as conveniently may be.

Also, all necessary arches, tunnels, culverts, drains, or other Drains. passages, either over or under or by the sides of the railway 40 of such dimensions as will be sufficient at all times to convey the water as clearly from the lands lying near or affected by the railway as before the making of the railway, or as nearly so as may be, and such works shall be made from time to 45 time as the railway works proceed.

Also, proper watering-places for cattle or compensation in lieu Watering-places. thereof, where by reason of the railway the cattle of any person occupying any lands lying near thereto shall be deprived of access to their former watering-places; and such wateringplaces shall be so made as to be at all times sufficiently 50 supplied with water as theretofore, and as if the railway had not been made, or as nearly so as may be. And the said promoters shall make all necessary watercourses and drains for the purpose of conveying water to the said watering-

Provided always that the promoters shall not be required to make such accommodation works in such a manner as would prevent or obstruct the working or using of the railway, nor to make any accommodation works

with respect to which the owners and occupiers of the land shall have agreed to receive, and shall have been paid compensation instead of

17. If any person omit to shut and fasten any gate set up at Penalty on persons 5 either side of the railway for the accommodation of the owners or omitting to fasten gates. occupiers of the adjoining lands, so soon as he, and the carriage, cattle, or other animals under his care have passed through the same, he shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding ten pounds.

18. The promoters shall not be entitled to any minerals under Minerals not to pass.

10 any land whereof the surface is vested in them by virtue of this Act, except only such parts thereof as shall be necessary to be dug or carried away in the construction of the works hereby authorized. And such mines shall not be deemed to vest in the said promoters.

19. If within twenty-eight days after the passing of this Act, the Compensation clause.

15 said persons through whose lands the railway shall pass, or any of them and the promoters shall not agree as to the amount of compensation to be paid by them for the said lands belonging to the said parties, or any of them, or for any damage that may be sustained by them or him, by reason of the execution of the works, or if any other question as to 20 compensation shall arise under this Act, the amount of such compensation shall be settled by arbitrators in manner hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: Unless both parties shall concur in the appointment of a single Appointment of arbitrator, each party on the request of the other party shall nominate

and appoint an arbitrator, to whom such dispute or other matter shall 25 be referred. And every appointment of an arbitrator shall be under the hand of such party. And such appointment shall be delivered to the arbitrator or arbitrators, and shall be deemed a submission to arbitration on the part of the party by whom the same shall be made. And after any such appointment shall have been made, neither party 30 shall have power to revoke the same without the consent of the other,

nor shall the death of either party operate as a revocation. And if for the space of fourteen days after any such dispute or other matter shall have arisen, and after a request in writing shall have been served by the one party on the other party, to appoint an arbitrator, such last-

35 mentioned party fail to appoint such arbitrator, then, upon such failure, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General for the time being of the said Colony, on the application of the party who has himself appointed an arbitrator, to appoint such arbitrator to act on behalf of both parties. And such arbitrator may proceed to hear and determine the matters

40 which shall be in dispute. And in such case the award or determination of such single arbitrator shall be final and conclusive.

20. If, before the matter so referred shall be determined, any Vacancy of arbitrator appointed by either party shall die, or become incapable, or to be supplied. refuse, or for fourteen days neglect to act as arbitrator, the party by 45 whom such arbitrator was appointed may nominate and appoint in writing some other person to act in his place. And if, for the space of seven days after notice in writing from the other party for that purpose, he fail to do so, the remaining or other arbitrators may proceed alone. And every arbitrator so to be substituted as aforesaid 50 shall have the same powers and authorities as were vested in the former arbitrator at the time of such, his death, refusal, neglect, or disability as aforesaid.

21. Where more than one arbitrator shall have been appointed Appointment of such arbitrators shall, before they enter upon the matters referred to umpire. 55 them, nominate and appoint, by writing under their hands, an umpire to decide any matters on which they shall differ, or which shall be referred to them under the provisions of this Act. And if such umpire shall die, or refuse, or for seven days neglect to act, after being called upon to do so by the arbitrators, they shall forthwith, after such death, refusal, or neglect appoint another umpire in his place; and the decision of every such umpire on the matters so referred to him shall be final.

22. If in either of the cases aforesaid the arbitrators shall Attorney-General to 5 refuse, or for seven days after request of either party to such appoint umpire on arbitration neglect to appoint an umpire, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General for the time being, on the application of either party to such arbitration, to appoint an umpire; and the decision of such umpire on the matters on which the arbitrators shall differ, or 10 which shall be referred to him under this Act, shall be final.

23. If, when a single arbitrator shall have been appointed, In case of death of such arbitrator shall die, or become incapable, or shall refuse, or for matter to begin fourteen days neglect to act before he shall have made his award, the de novo.

matters referred to him shall be determined by arbitration, under the 15 provisions of this Act, in the same manner as if such arbitrator had not been appointed.

24. If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been If either arbitrator appointed, either of the arbitrators shall refuse, or for seven days refuse to act, the neglect to act, the other arbitrator may proceed alone; and the ex parte. 20 decision of such other arbitrator shall be as effectual as if he had been

the single arbitrator appointed by both parties.

25. If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been If arbitrators fail to appointed, and where neither of them shall refuse or neglect to act as make their award aforesaid, such arbitrators shall fail to make their award within twenty-one days the matter to 25 one days after the day on which the last of such arbitrators shall have been appointed, or within such extended time (if any) as shall have been appointed for that purpose by both of such arbitrators under their hands, the matters referred to them shall be determined by the umpire to be so appointed as aforesaid.

26. The said arbitrators or their umpire may call for the pro-Powers of arbitrators duction of any documents in the possession or power of either party to call for books, &c. which they or he may think necessary for determining the question in dispute, and may examine the parties or their witnesses on oath, and administer the oaths necessary for that purpose.

27. Before any arbitrator or umpire shall enter into the con- Arbitrator or umpire 35 sideration of any matters referred to him, he shall, in the presence of to make a declaration a Justice of the Peace, make and subscribe the following declaration, of duty. that is to say-

I, A.B. do selemnly and sincerely declare that I will faithfully and honestly, and to the best of my skill and ability, hear and determine the matters referred to me under the provisions of the "Silkstone Coal-mine Railway Act."

Made and subscribed in the presence of

40

A.B. 45 And such declaration shall be annexed to the award when made, and Penalty for misconif any arbitrator or umpire, having made such declaration, shall wilfully act contrary thereto, he shall be guilty of misdemeanour.

28. All the costs of any such arbitration and incident thereto Cost of arbitration to be settled by the arbitrators shall be borne by the promoters, unless how to be borne. 50 the arbitrators shall award the same or a less sum than shall have been offered by the promoters, in which case each party shall bear his own costs incident to the arbitration, and the costs of the arbitrators shall be borne by the parties in equal proportions, unless the amount awarded shall be one-fourth less than the amount, in which case the

55 whole costs shall be paid by the claimant. Provided that if either party shall be dissatisfied with the costs allowed by the arbitrators as aforesaid, the costs may be taxed by the Prothonotary or other proper officer of the Supreme Court, and the amount allowed by such officer shall be the amount of costs to be paid.

141—B

29. The arbitrators shall deliver their award in writing to the Award to be promoters, who shall retain the same, and shall forthwith, on demand, delivered to the promoters. at their own expense, furnish a copy thereof to the other party, and shall at all times on demand produce the said award, and allow the 5 same to be inspected or examined by such party, or any person appointed by him for that purpose, and the amount awarded shall be paid within sixty days after the publication of such award.

30. The submission to any such arbitration may be made a Submission may be rule of the Supreme Court on the application of either of the parties.

31. No award made with respect to any question referred to Award not void arbitration, under the provisions of this Act, shall be set aside for form.

irregularity or error in matter of form.

10

32. The promoters shall make compensation and satisfaction to Compensation for temporary or permathe said owners and occupiers (the amount of such compensation and nent or recurring 15 satisfaction to be ascertained and recovered in case of difference in the injuries. manner hereby provided) for temporary, permanent, or recurring injury, and all other damage, loss, costs, charges, and inconvenience which may in anywise be occasioned to the said owners or occupiers by the non-performance by the said promoters of any of the matters and 20 things hereby required to be performed by them or otherwise.

33. In every case where the promoters shall take temporary Compensation to be possession of lands by virtue of the powers hereby granted, it shall be occupation.

incumbent on them, within one month after their entry upon such lands, upon being required so to do, to pay to the occupier of the said 25 lands, the value of any crop or dressing that may be thereon, as well as full compensation for any other damage of a temporary nature which he may sustain by reason of their so taking possession of their lands; and they shall also from time to time during their occupation of the said lands pay half-yearly to such occupier or to the owner of the lands, 30 as the case may require, a rent to be fixed by two Justices in case the parties differ, and shall also within six months after the completion of the railway, pay to such owner and occupier a deposit in the bank for the benefit of all parties interested, as the case may require, compensation of all permanent or other loss, damage, or injury that may have

35 been sustained by them by reason of the exercise as regards the said lands of the powers hereby granted, including the full value of all clay, stone, gravel, sand, and other things taken from such lands.

34. It shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works on Power for Government to purchase behalf of the Government, at any time by notice in writing, to require ment to purchase 40 the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns to sell, and thereupon the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall sell to the Government, as the case may be, the said railway upon the terms of paying the then value (exclusive of any allowance for past or future profits of the said railway or any 45 compensation for compulsory sale or other consideration whatsoever) of the said railway, and all lands, buildings, works, materials, and plant of the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, such value in case of difference to be ascertained by arbitration in the 50 manner provided by the "Public Works Act of 1888," fifty-first Victoria number thirty-seven, for settling cases of disputed compensation, and subject to the terms and conditions therein contained. when any such sale shall have been made to the said Government, the said railway, lands, buildings, works, materials, plant, and premises shall 55 vest in the Commissioners for Railways, who shall have all the rights, powers, and authorities of the said promoters, their heirs, executors, suitable to and used by them for the purposes of the said railway,

35. For the purpose of regulating the conduct of the officers Company may make and servants of the promoters, and for providing for the due manage-by-laws. 60 ment of the affairs of the promoters in all respects, it shall be lawful administrators, and assigns in respect of the said railway so sold.

for the promoters, subject to the provisions herein mentioned, from time to time to make such by-laws and regulations as they shall think fit. Provided that such by-laws be not repugnant to the laws of the Colony, or to the provisions of this Act; and such by-laws shall be 5 reduced into writing, and shall have affixed thereto the names of the promoters, and a copy of such by-laws shall be given to every officer and servant of the promoters affected thereby, and such by-laws may specify a maximum and minimum penalty for any breach thereof, such penalty to be proceeded for and recovered under the provisions 10 of the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, chapter forty-three. Provided always that any by-laws of the said promoters relating to penalties must be first approved of by the Attorney-General of the Colony for the time being.

36. The production of a printed or written copy of the by-laws Evidence of by-laws.

15 of the promoters, shall be sufficient evidence of such by-laws in all

proceedings under the same.

37. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to authorize the said Lands belonging to promoters to take or enter upon any lands belonging to the Commis-Railways not to be sioners for Railways, or to alter or to interfere with the Great Northern taken.

20 Railway, or any of the works thereof, further or otherwise than is necessary for making the junction and inter-communication between the Railways, without the previous consent in writing in every instance of the Commissioners for Railways.

38. The Commissioners shall from time to time erect such Commissioners may 25 signals and conveniences incident to the junction, either upon their appoint watchmen own lands or on the lands of the promoters, and may from time to and switchmen. time appoint and remove such watchmen, switchmen, and other persons, as may be necessary for the prevention of danger to or interference with the traffic at or near the junction, and in all cases at the

30 expense of the promoters. 39. The working and management of such signals and con-Working of signals veniences, wherever situate, shall be under the exclusive regulation to be under regula-

of the Commissioners for Railways.

40. Nothing herein contained shall alter, repeal, or otherwise Public Works and Government Railways affect the "Public Works Act of 1888," or the "Government Railways Acts of 1888 not altered or repealed. Act of 1888.'

41. In this Act the said "Justices" shall mean Justices of the Interpretation Peace in and for the territory of New South Wales; and when any clause. matter shall be authorized or required to be done by two Justices, the 40 expression "two Justices" shall mean two Justices assembled and acting together in Petty Sessions; the word "Owner" shall mean any person or corporation who under the provisions of this Act would be able to sell land to the promoters; and the word "promoters" shall mean and include the said Richard Tilden Smith and John Thomas Mance, 45 and the survivor of them, and the heirs, executors, or administrators of such survivor, their or his assigns.

42. This Act shall be deemed and taken to be a public Act, Short title. and the same whenever cited shall be sufficiently described as the "Silkstone Coal-mine Railway Act of 1889."

SCHEDULE.

From a point inside the boundary of their property, situate in the parish of Stanford, county of Northumberland, and from thence crossing the eastern boundary Stanford, county of Northumberland, and from thence crossing the eastern boundary in a north-easterly direction through properties held by S. Hebblewhite, James Weston, H. J. Adams, J. Callaghan, Samuel Clift, W. Turnbull, and J. H. Swan, and through land believed to be owned by Miss Nine, Mrs. Harrington, J. Hickey, the East Greta Coal Company, J. Leonard, H. H. Capper, E. P. Capper, Mrs. Pilcher, J. Woolf, J. Callaghan, E. Hungerford, C. Simpson, and others, and being portions of a parcel of land formerly owned by E. Hungerford, containing two thousand acres, the line running generally in a north-easterly direction through the said properties; thence crossing the Telarah Road to and through property held by Peter Green, and terminating at a point on the Great Northern Railway at twenty miles sixty-five chains seventy-two links from Newcastle. Newcastle.

As the pomenter, entired, to the provisors brown numbered, from Therefore there is not care browned resolution and the first that In Tradical that and provisors be not recognite to the bow of the International and the state of the state of the state of the International trade, and one in the state brown of the International trade, and one in the state brown of the International trade, and one of the state brown to the state of the International trade, and the state of the state of the International trade, and the state of the state of the
International trade of the state of the state of the state of the
International trade of the state of the state of the state of the
International trade of the state of the state of the state of the
International trade of the state of the state of the state of the
International trade of the state of the state of the state of the
International trade of the state of the state of the state of the
International trade of the state of the state of the state of the
International trade of the state of the state of the state of the International trade of the state of the state of the state of the state of the International trade of the state of The second of the resident first and find the second to the second of th This Private Bill originated in the Legislative Assembly, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the Legislative Council for its concurrence.

Legislative Assembly Chamber, Sydney, 21 May, 1889.

F. W. WEBB, Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

An Act to enable Richard Tilden Smith, of Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, and John Thomas Mance, of Parramatta, in the said Colony, to construct a Railway from the Silkstone Coal-mine to the Great Northern Railway.

WHEREAS Richard Tilden Smith, of Sydney, in the Colony of Preamble.

New South Wales, and John Thomas Mance, of Parramatta, in the said Colony, have opened coal-mines upon lands situated near Maitland, in the parish of Stanford, in the county of Northumberland,

and in order to facilitate communication between the said coal-mines and the Great Northern Railway, the said Richard Tilden Smith and John Thomas Mance, hereinafter designated the promoters, are desirous of constructing a railway from their said coal-mines to the Great Northern Railway, but as part of such proposed railway is intended to be made upon and pass through land believed to be the property of the Crown, bodies corporate, and private persons respectively, the same cannot be made without Legislative authority. And whereas the said coal-mines are likely to prove beneficial to the Colony, and the public are concerned in promoting such an increase in and facilities for the supply of coal for local consumption, steam navigation, and export, as would result from the construction of the said proposed railway, and traffic on the Great Northern Railway would be increased

increased thereby. It is therefore desirable to authorize by Legislative enactment the construction of the said railway, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, upon payment of compensation to the several parties through whose land the same shall pass for such portion 5 of their respective lands as may be required to be taken and occupied Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by authority of the same, as follows:-

1. It shall be lawful for the said promoters to make and con-Authority to con-10 struct a railway from a point inside the boundary of their property struct railway, and situated in the parish of Stanford, county of Northumberland, and Great Northern from thence crossing the eastern boundary in a north-easterly direction, Railway.

through properties held by S. Hebblewhite, James Weston, H. J. 15 Adams, J. Callaghan, Samuel Clift, W. Turnbull, and P. H. Swan, and through land believed to be owned by Miss Nine, Mrs. Harrington, J. Hickey, the East Greta Coal Company, J. Leonard, H. H. Capper, E. P. Capper, Mrs. Pilcher, J. Woolf, J. Callaghan, E. Hungerford, C. Simpson, and others, and being portion of a parcel of land formerly 20 owned by E. Hungerford, containing two thousand acres, the line running generally in a north-easterly direction through the said properties; thence crossing a road, known as the Telarah Road, to and through property held by Peter Green, and terminating at a point on the Great Northern Railway, at twenty miles sixty-five chains seventy-25 two links from Newcastle, and which lands and route are particularly described in the Schedule, and to effect, if necessary, a junction between the said line and the Great Northern Railway in accordance with section one hundred and twelve of the "Public Works Act of 1888," such railway to be in the direction described in the Schedule,

30 and the said promoters may take and occupy three acres of land, or any lesser area, at the junction of the said railway with the Great Northern Railway.

2. The ground and soil of so much of the site of the railway as Site of railway shall passes over the lands of the said owners of lands respectively, and over be vested in the promoters without 35 Crown Lands, together with such rights of ingress, egress, and regress conveyance. upon the adjacent land as may be necessary for the making and repair of such railway, shall be vested, by virtue of this Act, and without the necessity of any conveyance, in the promoters for the purposes of the railway. Provided that no lands vested in the Commissioners for Rail-40 ways shall by virtue of this Act be vested in the promoters, and nothing herein contained shall prevent the said owners from carrying on any mining operations beneath the said railway which shall not interfere with the safety of the said railway and the traffic thereon; and the promoters shall have no further right to the soil of the said lands 45 beneath the surface than shall be requisite for the formation and repairs of the said road by cutting, embanking, sinking wells, or otherwise. Provided that the said railway shall be constructed and brought into use within five years after the passing of this Act, and that in default thereof, or if after its completion, the said railway shall cease to 50 be used for three years continuously, all the said lands, and all the said promoters' interest and estate therein shall revert without any conveyance to the original owners thereof, their heirs, and assigns. Provided also that if in the exercise of the powers hereby granted it be found necessary to cross-cut through, sink, raise, or use any part of any road, 55 so as to render it impassable for, or dangerous or inconvenient to the persons entitled to the use thereof, the promoters shall, before the commencement of any such operations, cause a sufficient road to be made instead of any road interfered with, and shall, at their own expense, maintain such substituted road in a state as convenient as the road interfered

AND OF

Silkstone Coal-mine Railway.

interfered with, or as nearly as may be. And the promoters, before they use the said lands of the said owners of land and the said Crown Lands respectively for any of the purposes aforesaid, shall, if required so to do, separate the same by a sufficient fence from the land adjoining 5 thereto, with such gates as may be required for the convenient occupation of such land, and shall also, to all private roads used by them as aforesaid, put up fences and gates in like manner in all cases where the same may be necessary to prevent the straying of cattle from or upon the lands traversed by such roads, and in case of any difference 10 between the owners or occupiers of such roads and lands and the promoters as to the necessity for such fences and gates, then the said promoters shall put up and erect such fences and gates as any two promoters shall put up and erect such fences and gates as any two Justices of the Peace, after inquiry, shall deem necessary for the purposes aforesaid, on application being made to them.

3. The railway shall be open to the public use upon payment of Railway open to the a toll to the promoters of a sum not exceeding the rate per ton charged by the Commissioners for Railways in respect of every ton of goods for every transit, the person seeking transit supplying and loading his own trucks or on Government waggons, and the promoters or Government supplying locomotive power; and all trucks when emptied, shall be conveyed, on their return, free of charge. Provided always, that it shall not be compulsory on the promoters to supply locomotive power unless the party seeking transit guarantee and bring two hundred tons, at least, during the twelve working hours, and give notice of same at least, twenty-four hours previously. The railway shall at all times be open to the public upon payment of a toll to the promoters of a sum not exceeding one penny half-penny per ton per mile in respect of every ton of goods for every transit, if the party seeking transit supply the locomotive power as well as the trucks and waggons. Provided

30 that so long as the promoters shall be willing to supply locomotive power, no other person shall use locomotive power on the line other than the Commissioners for Railways. Provided that if the railway shall be damaged by parties who shall themselves use the railway for transit and supply locomotive power, the promoters shall be entitled to

35 compensation for such damage, to be recovered, either by action in the Supreme Court of New South Wales, or, if such damage do not exceed the sum of twenty pounds, summarily before two Justices; and in estimating such damage, the promoters shall be entitled, not only to compensation for the cost of repairing and restoring the railway, but 40 to the consequential damage (if any) sustained by reason of the suspension of transit or otherwise.

4. And be it enacted that it shall be lawful for the owners or Branch railways. occupiers of the lands traversed by the said railway to lay down upon their own lands any collateral branches of railway to communicate

45 with the said railway for the purpose of bringing carriages to or from or upon the said railway, and the promoters shall, if required, at the expense of such owners or occupiers, make openings in the rails and such additional lines of railway as may be necessary for effecting such communication in places where the communication can be made with 50 safety to the public and without injury to the said railway, and without inconvenience to the traffic thereupon, and the promoters shall not take any rate or toll or other moneys for the passing of any passengers, goods, or other things along any branch so to be made by any such owner or occupier or other person, but this enactment shall be subject

No such railway shall run parallel to the said railway—the promoters shall not be bound to make any such openings in any place which they shall have set apart for any specific purpose with which such communication would interfere, nor upon any inclined plane or bridge, nor in any tunnel.

60

The

The persons making or using such branch railways shall be subject to all by-laws and regulations of the promoters, from time to time made, with respect to passing upon or crossing the railway and otherwise; and the persons making or using such branch railways shall be bound to construct, and from time to time, as need may require, to renew the off set plates and switches according to the most approved plan adopted by the

promoters, under the direction of their engineer.

5. For the purposes, and subject to the provisions hereinafter Power to divert or 10 contained, it shall be lawful for the promoters, their deputies, agents, alter roads. servants, and workmen, and all other persons by them authorized and empowered, to divert or alter the course of any road or way crossing the railway, or to raise or sink any road or way, in order the more conveniently to carry the same over, or under, or by the side of the 15 railway.

6. If the promoters do not cause another sufficient road to be Penalty for not subso made before they interfere with any such existing road as aforesaid, stituting a road. they shall forfeit twenty pounds for every day during which such substituted road shall not be made after the existing road shall have 20 been interrupted, and such penalty shall be paid to the trustees, commissioners, surveyor, or other persons having the management of such road, if a public road, and shall be applied for the purposes thereof, or in case of a private road, the same shall be paid to the owner thereof, and every such penalty shall be recoverable, with costs,

25 by action in any of the superior Courts.

5

7. It shall be lawful for but not compulsory upon the said Right to carry promoters from time to time, and at any and all times, to carry passengers. passengers and live stock upon the said railway or any part thereof respectively, and to make, demand, take, receive and recover such 30 tolls or dues for carrying the same at such rates per mile, or other scale of charges as shall be established from time to time by the promoters for or in respect of all such passengers and live stock which shall be conveyed or transported upon such railway or any part thereof respectively. And the promoters are hereby authorized to make such 35 by-laws and regulations not inconsistent with this Act as may be necessary for the regulation of such traffic, and such by-laws or regulations shall be binding upon all persons using or travelling upon the said railway, and any persons offending against such by-laws or regulations shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds for each

as aforesaid under and by virtue of this Act shall be found excessive, it shall and may be lawful for the Executive Council to reduce the said rates, tolls, or dues, and to revise them in such manner as may 45 seem most proper and advisable. And it is hereby provided that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to charge or make liable the said promoters further or in any other case than where, according to the laws of this Colony, stage-coach proprietors and common carriers

40 offence, to be recovered in a summary way before any two Justices. Provided always that if the rates, tolls, or dues that may be established would be liable, nor shall extend in any degree to deprive the said 50 promoters of any protection or privilege which common carriers or stage-coach proprietors may be entitled to, but on the contrary the promoters shall at all times be entitled to the benefit of every such protection and privilege.

8. If, in the course of making the railway, the promoters shall Road repairs. 55 use or interfere with any road, they shall from time to time make good all damage done by them to such road, and if any question shall arise as to the damage done to any such road by the promoters, or as to the repair thereof by them, such question shall be referred to the determination of two Justices, and such Justices may direct such repairs to be made in the state of such road in respect of damage done by the promoters, and within such period as they may think reasonable, and may impose on the promoters for not carring into effect such repairs any penalty not exceeding ten pounds per day as to such Justices shall 5 seem fit, and any such penalty shall be paid to the surveyor, or other person having the management of the road interfered with by the promoters, if a public road, and be applied for the purposes of such road, or if a private road, the same shall be paid to the owner thereof. Provided always the said Justices shall have regard to, and shall make 10 full allowance for, any tolls that may have been paid to the promoters

on such road in the course of the using thereof.

9. Until the promotors shall have made the bridges or other Owners crossing. proper communications, which they shall, under the provisions herein contained, have been required to make between lands intersected and 15 the railway, and no longer, the owners and occupiers of such lands, and any other persons whose right-of-way shall be affected by the want of such communications, and their respective servants, may at all times freely pass and repass with carriages, horses, and other animals directly but not otherwise, across any part of the railway made in or through 20 their respective lands solely for the purpose of occupying the same lands, or for the exercise of such right-of-way, and so as not to obstruct the passage along the railway, or to damage the same; nevertheless if the owner or occupier of any such lands have, in his arrangements with the promotors, received, or agreed to receive, compensation for or 25 on account of any such communications instead of the same being formed, such owner or occupier, or those claiming under him, shall not be entitled so to cross the railway.

10. If the railway cross any public highways or parish road on Provisions in cases a level, the promoters shall erect, and at all times maintain, good and where roads are crossed on a level 30 sufficient gates across such road on each side of the railway where the same shall communicate therewith, and shall employ proper persons to open and shut such gates, and such gates shall be kept constantly closed across such roads on both sides of the railway, except during the time when horses, cattle, carts, or carriages passing along the same 35 shall have to cross such railway, and such gates shall be of such dimensions, and so constructed as when closed to fence in the railway, and prevent cattle or horses passing along the road from entering upon the railway, and the person entrusted with the care of such gates shall cause the same to be closed as soon as such horses, cattle, carts, or 40 carriages shall have passed through the same, under a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for every default therein. Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works in any case in which he shall be satisfied that it will be more conducive to the public safety that the gates or any level crossing over any such road 45 shall be kept closed across the railway, to order that such gates shall be kept so closed instead of across the road, and in case such gates shall be kept constantly closed across the railway, except when engines or carriages passing along the railway shall have occasion to cross such road in the same manner and under the like penalty as above directed

11. In case of accidents or slips happening or being apprehended adjoining lands to the cuttings, embankments, or other works of the said railway it repair accidents, shall be lawful for the promoters and their workmen and servants to subject to certain restrictions. enter upon the land adjoining thereto at any time whatsoever for the 55 purpose of repairing or preventing such accidents, and to do such works as may be necessary for the purpose, but in every such case the promoters shall within forty-eight hours after such entry make a report to the Secretary for Public Works, specifying the nature of such accident or apprehended accident, and of the works necessary to be done,

50 with respect to the gates being kept closed across the road.

60 and such powers shall cease and determine if the said Secretary shall,

after considering the said report, certify that their exercise is not necessary for the public safety. Provided also that such works shall be as little injurious to the said adjoining lands as the nature of the accident or apprehended accident will admit of, and shall be executed 5 with all possible despatch, and full compensation shall be made to the owners and occupiers of such lands for the loss or injury or inconvenience sustained by them respectively by reason of such works, the amount of which compensation, in case of any dispute about the same, shall be settled by arbitrators in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

10 And provided also that no land shall be taken permanently for any such works otherwise than is herein provided with respect to the lands originally taken for the purpose of making the said railway.

12. Every bridge to be erected for the purpose of carrying the Construction of railway over any road shall be built in conformity with the following bridges over roads.

1.5 regulations, that is to say :-

The width of the arch shall be such as to leave thereunder a clear space of not less than thirty feet, if the arch be over a public highway, and of twenty feet if over a parish road, and of

twelve feet if over a private road.

The clear height of the arch from the surface of the road shall not be less than sixteen feet for a space of twelve feet if the arch be over a main road, and fifteen feet for a space of ten feet if over a public carriage-road; and in each of such cases the clear height at the springing of the arch shall not be less than twelve feet; the clear height of the arch for a space of nine feet shall not be less than fourteen feet over a private road.

The descent made in the road in order to carry the same under the bridge shall not be more than one foot in thirty feet if the bridge be over a public highway, one foot in twenty feet if over a parish road, and one foot in sixteen feet if over a private road, not being a tramroad or railroad, or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the descent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tramroad or railroad.

13. Every bridge erected for carrying any road over the railway Construction of 35 shall be built in conformity with the following regulations, that is to bridges over railroads.

say:

20

25

30

40

There shall be a good and sufficient fence on each side of the bridge, of not less height than four feet, and on each side of the immediate approaches of such bridge of not less than three feet.

The road over the bridge shall have a clear space between the fences thereof of thirty-five feet if the road be a public highway, and twenty-five feet if a parish road, and twelve feet if a private road.

45 The ascent shall not be more than one foot in thirty-feet if the road be a main road, one foot in twenty-feet if a parish road, and one foot in sixteen if a private road, not being a tramroad or railroad; or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the ascent shall not be greater than the ruling gradient of such tram-50 road or railroad.

14. Provided always that in all cases where the average avail- The width of the able width for the passing of carriages of any existing road within fifty bridges need not yards of the point of crossing the same is less than the width herein the road in certain before prescribed for bridges over or under the railway, the width of cases.

55 such bridges need not be greater than such average available width of such roads, but so, nevertheless, that such bridges be not of less width in case of a public highway or parish road than twenty feet. Provided also, that if at any time after the construction of the railway, the average available width of any such road shall be increased beyond the width of such bridge on either side thereof, the promoters shall be bound at their own expense to increase the width of the said bridge to such extent as they may be required by the trustees or suveyors of such road, not exceeding the width of such road as so widened, or the maximum width herein prescribed for a bridge in the like case over or under the railway.

15. Provided also, that if the mesne inclination of any road Existing inclination within two hundred and fifty yards of the point of crossing the same, of roads crossed or or the inclination of such portion of any road as may be preserved to be improved.

10 be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted, shall be steeper than the inclination hereinbefore required to be preserved by the promoters, then the promoters may carry any such road over or under the railway, or may construct such altered or substituted road at an inclination not steeper than the said mesne inclination of the

15 road so to be crossed, or of the road so requiring to be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted.

16. The promoters shall make and at all times thereafter Works for benefit of maintain the following works for the accommodation of the owners and owners. occupiers of lands adjoining the railway, that is to say—

Such and so many convenient gates, bridges, arches, culverts, and Gates, bridges, &c.

passages over, under, or by the sides of or leading to or from the railway as shall be necessary for the purpose of making good any interruptions caused by the railway to the use of the lands through which the railway shall be made; and such works shall be made forthwith after the part of the railway passing over such lands shall have been laid out or formed, or during the formation thereof.

All sufficient posts, rails, hedges, ditches, mounds or other fences Fences.

for separating the land taken for the use of the railway from the adjoining lands not taken, and protecting such lands from trespass, or the cattle of the owners or occupiers thereof from straying thereon by reason of the railway, together with all necessary gates made to open towards such adjoining lands and not towards the railway; and all necessary stiles, and such posts, rails, and other fences shall be made forthwith after the taking of any such lands if the owners thereof shall so require, and the said other works as soon as conveniently may be.

Also, all necessary arches, tunnels, culverts, drains, or other Drains.

passages, either over or under or by the sides of the railway of such dimensions as will be sufficient at all times to convey the water as clearly from the lands lying near or affected by the railway as before the making of the railway, or as nearly so as may be, and such works shall be made from time to time as the railway works proceed.

Also, proper watering-places for cattle or compensation in lieu watering-places. thereof, where by reason of the railway the cattle of any person occupying any lands lying near thereto shall be deprived of access to their former watering-places; and such watering-places shall be so made as to be at all times sufficiently supplied with water as theretofore, and as if the railway had not been made, or as nearly so as may be. And the said promoters shall make all necessary watercourses and drains for the purpose of conveying water to the said watering-places.

Provided always that the promoters shall not be required to make such accommodation works in such a manner as would prevent or obstruct the working or using of the railway, nor to make any accommodation works

with

with respect to which the owners and occupiers of the land shall have agreed to receive, and shall have been paid compensation instead of the making them.

17. If any person omit to shut and fasten any gate set up at Penalty on persons 5 either side of the railway for the accommodation of the owners or omitting to fasten gates. occupiers of the adjoining lands, so soon as he, and the carriage, cattle, or other animals under his care have passed through the same, he shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding ten pounds.

18. The promoters shall not be entitled to any minerals under Minerals not to pass.

10 any land whereof the surface is vested in them by virtue of this Act, except only such parts thereof as shall be necessary to be dug or carried away in the construction of the works hereby authorized. mines shall not be deemed to vest in the said promoters.

19. If within twenty-eight days after the passing of this Act, the Compensation clause.

15 said persons through whose lands the railway shall pass, or any of them and the promoters shall not agree as to the amount of compensation to be paid by them for the said lands belonging to the said parties, or any of them, or for any damage that may be sustained by them or him, by reason of the execution of the works, or if any other question as to

20 compensation shall arise under this Act, the amount of such compensation shall be settled by arbitrators in manner hereinafter mentioned, that is to say: Unless both parties shall concur in the appointment of a single Appointment of arbitrator, each party on the request of the other party shall nominate and appoint an arbitrator, to whom such dispute or other matter shall

25 be referred. And every appointment of an arbitrator shall be under the hand of such party. And such appointment shall be delivered to the arbitrator or arbitrators, and shall be deemed a submission to arbitration on the part of the party by whom the same shall be made. And after any such appointment shall have been made, neither party

30 shall have power to revoke the same without the consent of the other, nor shall the death of either party operate as a revocation. for the space of fourteen days after any such dispute or other matter shall have arisen, and after a request in writing shall have been served by the one party on the other party, to appoint an arbitrator, such last-

35 mentioned party fail to appoint such arbitrator, then, upon such failure, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General for the time being of the said Colony, on the application of the party who has himself appointed an arbitrator, to appoint such arbitrator to act on behalf of both parties. And such arbitrator may proceed to hear and determine the matters 40 which shall be in dispute. And in such case the award or determination of such single arbitrator shall be final and conclusive.

20. If, before the matter so referred shall be determined, any vacancy of arbitrator arbitrator appointed by either party shall die, or become incapable, or to be supplied. refuse, or for fourteen days neglect to act as arbitrator, the party by

45 whom such arbitrator was appointed may nominate and appoint in writing some other person to act in his place. And if, for the space of seven days after notice in writing from the other party for that purpose, he fail to do so, the remaining or other arbitrators may proceed alone. And every arbitrator so to be substituted as aforesaid

50 shall have the same powers and authorities as were vested in the former arbitrator at the time of such, his death, refusal, neglect, or disability as aforesaid.

21. Where more than one arbitrator shall have been appointed Appointment of such arbitrators shall, before they enter upon the matters referred to umpire. 55 them, nominate and appoint, by writing under their hands, an umpire to decide any matters on which they shall differ, or which shall be referred to them under the provisions of this Act. And if such umpire shall die, or refuse, or for seven days neglect to act, after being called upon to do so by the arbitrators, they shall forthwith, after such

death, refusal, or neglect appoint another umpire in his place; and the decision of every such umpire on the matters so referred to him shall be final.

22. If in either of the cases aforesaid the arbitrators shall Attorney-General to 5 refuse, or for seven days after request of either party to such appoint umpire on arbitration neglect to appoint an umpire, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General for the time being, on the application of either party to such arbitration, to appoint an umpire; and the decision of such umpire on the matters on which the arbitrators shall differ, or

10 which shall be referred to him under this Act, shall be final.

23. If, when a single arbitrator shall have been appointed, In case of death of such arbitrator shall die, or become incapable, or shall refuse, or for matter to begin fourteen days neglect to act before he shall have made his award, the de novo. matters referred to him shall be determined by arbitration, under the 15 provisions of this Act, in the same manner as if such arbitrator had not been appointed.

30

40

24. If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been If either arbitrator appointed, either of the arbitrators shall refuse, or for seven days refuse to act, the neglect to act, the other arbitrator may proceed alone; and the ex parte.

20 decision of such other arbitrator shall be as effectual as if he had been

the single arbitrator appointed by both parties.

25. If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been If arbitrators fail to appointed, and where neither of them shall refuse or neglect to act as within twenty-one aforesaid, such arbitrators shall fail to make their award within twenty-days the matter to 25 one days after the day on which the last of such arbitrators shall have go to the umpire. been appointed, or within such extended time (if any) as shall have been appointed for that purpose by both of such arbitrators under their hands, the matters referred to them shall be determined by the umpire to be so appointed as aforesaid.

26. The said arbitrators or their umpire may call for the pro-Powers of arbitrators duction of any documents in the possession or power of either party to call for books, &c. which they or he may think necessary for determining the question in dispute, and may examine the parties or their witnesses on oath, and administer the oaths necessary for that purpose.

27. Before any arbitrator or umpire shall enter into the con-Arbitrator or umpire sideration of any matters referred to him, he shall, in the presence of to make a declaration a Justice of the Peace, make and subscribe the following declaration, of duty. that is to say-

I, A.B. do selemnly and sincerely declare that I will faithfully and honestly, and to the best of my skill and ability, hear and determine the matters referred to me under the provisions of the "Silkstone Coal-mine Railway Act."

Made and subscribed in the presence of

45 And such declaration shall be annexed to the award when made, and Penalty for misconif any arbitrator or umpire, having made such declaration, shall wil-duct. fully act contrary thereto, he shall be guilty of misdemeanour.

28. All the costs of any such arbitration and incident thereto Cost of arbitration to be settled by the arbitrators shall be borne by the promoters, unless how to be borne. 50 the arbitrators shall award the same or a less sum than shall have been offered by the promoters, in which case each party shall bear his own costs incident to the arbitration, and the costs of the arbitrators shall be borne by the parties in equal proportions, unless the amount awarded shall be one-fourth less than the amount, in which case the 55 whole costs shall be paid by the claimant. Provided that if either party shall be dissatisfied with the costs allowed by the arbitrators as aforesaid, the costs may be taxed by the Prothonotary or other proper officer of the Supreme Court, and the amount allowed by such officer shall be the amount of costs to be paid.

141—B

29.

29. The arbitrators shall deliver their award in writing to the Award to be promoters, who shall retain the same, and shall forthwith, on demand, delivered to the at their own expense, furnish a copy thereof to the other party, and shall at all times on demand produce the said award, and allow the 5 same to be inspected or examined by such party, or any person appointed by him for that purpose, and the amount awarded shall be paid within sixty days after the publication of such award.

30. The submission to any such arbitration may be made a Submission may be made a rule of Court. rule of the Supreme Court on the application of either of the parties. 10

31. No award made with respect to any question referred to Award not void arbitration, under the provisions of this Act, shall be set aside for form. irregularity or error in matter of form.

32. The promoters shall make compensation and satisfaction to Compensation for the said owners and occupiers (the amount of such compensation and temporary or permanent of such compensation and nent or recurring 15 satisfaction to be ascertained and recovered in case of difference in the injuries. manner hereby provided) for temporary, permanent, or recurring injury, and all other damage, loss, costs, charges, and inconvenience which may in anywise be occasioned to the said owners or occupiers by the non-performance by the said promoters of any of the matters and 20 things hereby required to be performed by them or otherwise.

33. In every case where the promoters shall take temporary Compensation to be possession of lands by virtue of the powers hereby granted, it shall be occupation. incumbent on them, within one month after their entry upon such lands, upon being required so to do, to pay to the occupier of the said 25 lands, the value of any crop or dressing that may be thereon, as well as full compensation for any other damage of a temporary nature which he may sustain by reason of their so taking possession of their lands; and they shall also from time to time during their occupation of the said lands pay half-yearly to such occupier or to the owner of the lands,

30 as the case may require, a rent to be fixed by two Justices in case the parties differ, and shall also within six months after the completion of the railway, pay to such owner and occupier a deposit in the bank for the benefit of all parties interested, as the case may require, compensation of all permanent or other loss, damage, or injury that may have

35 been sustained by them by reason of the exercise as regards the said lands of the powers hereby granted, including the full value of all clay, stone, gravel, sand, and other things taken from such lands.

34. It shall be lawful for the Secretary for Public Works on Power for Governbehalf of the Government, at any time by notice in writing, to require railway. 40 the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns to sell, and thereupon the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall sell to the Government, as the case may be, the said railway upon the terms of paying the then value (exclusive of any allowance for past or future profits of the said railway or any

45 compensation for compulsory sale or other consideration whatsoever) of the said railway, and all lands, buildings, works, materials, and plant of the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, suitable to and used by them for the purposes of the said railway, such value in case of difference to be ascertained by arbitration in the

50 manner provided by the "Public Works Act of 1888," fifty-first Victoria number thirty-seven, for settling cases of disputed compensation, and subject to the terms and conditions therein contained. when any such sale shall have been made to the said Government, the said railway, lands, buildings, works, materials, plant, and premises shall

55 vest in the Commissioners for Railways, who shall have all the rights, powers, and authorities of the said promoters, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns in respect of the said railway so sold.

35. For the purpose of regulating the conduct of the officers Company may make and servants of the promoters, and for providing for the due manage-by-laws. 60 ment of the affairs of the promoters in all respects, it shall be lawful for the promoters, subject to the provisions herein mentioned, from time to time to make such by-laws and regulations as they shall think fit. Provided that such by-laws be not repugnant to the laws of the Colony, or to the provisions of this Act; and such by-laws shall be 5 reduced into writing, and shall have affixed thereto the names of the promoters, and a copy of such by-laws shall be given to every officer and servant of the promoters affected thereby, and such by-laws may specify a maximum and minimum penalty for any breach thereof, such penalty to be proceeded for and recovered under the provisions 10 of the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, chapter forty-three. Provided always that any by-laws of the said promoters relating to penalties must be first approved of by the Attorney-General of the Colony for the time being.

36. The production of a printed or written copy of the by-laws Evidence of by-laws. 15 of the promoters, shall be sufficient evidence of such by-laws in all

proceedings under the same.

37. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to authorize the said Lands belonging to promoters to take or enter upon any lands belonging to the Commis-Railways not to be sioners for Railways, or to alter or to interfere with the Great Northern taken.

20 Railway, or any of the works thereof, further or otherwise than is necessary for making the junction and inter-communication between the Railways, without the previous consent in writing in every instance of the Commissioners for Railways.

38. The Commissioners shall from time to time erect such Commissioners may 25 signals and conveniences incident to the junction, either upon their appoint watchmen own lands or on the lands of the promoters, and may from time to and switchmen. time appoint and remove such watchmen, switchmen, and other persons, as may be necessary for the prevention of danger to or interference with the traffic at or near the junction, and in all cases at the 30 expense of the promoters.

39. The working and management of such signals and con-Working of signals veniences, wherever situate, shall be under the exclusive regulation to be under regulations of Commisof the Commissioners for Railways.

40. Nothing herein contained shall alter, repeal, or otherwise Public Works and Government Railways affect the "Public Works Act of 1888," or the "Government Railways Acts of 1888 not altered or repealed.

41. In this Act the said "Justices" shall mean Justices of the Interpretation Peace in and for the territory of New South Wales; and when any clause. matter shall be authorized or required to be done by two Justices, the 40 expression "two Justices" shall mean two Justices assembled and acting together in Petty Sessions; the word "Owner" shall mean any person or corporation who under the provisions of this Act would be able to sell land to the promoters; and the word "promoters" shall mean and include the said Richard Tilden Smith and John Thomas Mance, 45 and the survivor of them, and the heirs, executors, or administrators of such survivor, their or his assigns.

42. This Act shall be deemed and taken to be a public Act, Short title. and the same whenever cited shall be sufficiently described as the "Silkstone Coal-mine Railway Act of 1889."

SCHEDULE.

SCHEDULE.

50 From a point inside the boundary of their property, situate in the parish of Stanford, county of Northumberland, and from thence crossing the eastern boundary in a north-easterly direction through properties held by S. Hebblewhite, James Weston, H. J. Adams, J. Callaghan, Samuel Clift, W. Turnbull, and J. H. Swan, and through land believed to be owned by Miss Nine, Mrs. Harrington, J. Hickey, the East Greta Coal Company, J. Leonard, H. H. Capper, E. P. Capper, Mrs. Pilcher, J. Woolf, J. Callaghan, E. Hungerford, C. Simpson, and others, and being portions of a parcel of land formerly owned by E. Hungerford, containing two thousand acres, the line running generally in a north-easterly direction through the said properties; thence crossing the Telarah Road to and through property held by Peter Green, and terminating at a point on the 60 Great Northern Railway at twenty miles sixty-five chains seventy-two links from Newcastle.

La VIOTORIAE.

La vilestore Cool-mine Railcow.

Rie such br-lairs and regulations are they shall think the month by-lairs and regulations are the laws of the grovisions of the laws and there is the laws shall be convot such by-laws shall be given to every officer as promoters at order thanks and such by-laws shall be given to every officer as promoters at order thanks and such by-laws may a grounders at the laws and such by-laws may be given to every officer.

in the most find a language of the characters of the contract of the characters of the contract of the contrac

processary to take or exter upon any lamis belonging to the Commissional Services of the Solidary Services of the Commissional Services and the Solidary of th

25 signals and conveniences incident to the junction, father upon their manner of the function, father upon their manner of the junction, father upon their manner of the convenience of the promoters, and may from time to be successed their matchiness switchmen, said other persons are not be accessed for the provention of dames to or interpretation of the convenience with the treather at convenience and in all cases at the convenience of the excess at the excess

Str. 1 be werely send management of spoin signals and constitution of the send constitution of the send constitution of the send of the send constitution of the Const

40. A selection obtains beauty and leading that little the selection of th

Percent and for the sant percent of Acre Acath many a harrow has an object of the expension of expression that are also as a factor of the expension of the exp

42. The Act stall be despired and taken to be a public Act significant and the same whenever circle shall be sufficiently described as the control of the co

ALL HURLING

Interest to an interest of the country of the count

Egilicy : Charles Posters Constructed Painter.

TTO