ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO QUARTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

An Act to protect the purchasers of certain Books and other Publications, and to amend the law of Contracts in relation thereto.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 5 1. After the passing of this Act every agreement for the purchase of any books, or of engravings, lithographs, or pictures, or of any other ~~printed~~ like matter, whether illustrated or not, and hereinafter termed printed matter, shall be absolutely void in every case where such printed matter is not to be delivered to the purchaser at the date
- 10 of such agreement in a completed form, and so as to embrace the whole of the volumes or numbers of the printed matter, unless the purchaser of such books, engravings, lithographs, pictures, or other printed matter shall have first signed an agreement on a form, in which, in red capital letters, not less than great primer, the following
- 15 words and figures shall first have been printed, viz.: "The total liability
- c 33—

When agreements for purchase of books to be void.
