Peacock, George Smith, and John Von Mungerhousen Weiss, therein described of the third part; and Samuel Moore Munce, therein described of the fourth part, was duly enrolled in the Supreme Court of New South Wales, in pursuance of the provisions of the said recited Act, as the model deed of the said society, denominated Wesleyan Methodists, and the hereditaments and premises therein comprised were thereby conveyed (inter alia) upon trust to permit such persons only to preach and perform the usual acts of religious worship therein, as should be duly appointed by or under the authority of the English Conference, and such model deed is hereinafter referred to as the "Model Deed for the Wesleyans of New South Wales." And whereas most of the Church lands in New South Wales have been conveyed or settled upon the trusts of such model deed, as to those not under the operation of the "Real Property Act," by means of conveyances referring to such trusts, and as to those under the operation of such Act by the trustees as the registered proprietors thereof executing separate declarations of trusts. And whereas the said society denominated Wesleyan Methodists (hereinafter called the Wesleyan Methodist Church in New South Wales) has always formed an integral portion of the Australasian Wesleyan Methodist Church as constituted from time to time by the English Conference. And whereas such Australasian Wesleyan Methodist Church has now a separate and independent constitution approved of by the said English Conference, and is now divided into four Annual Conferences, respectively called "The New South Wales and Queensland Conference," "The Victoria and Tasmania Conference," "The South Australian Conference" and "The New Zealand Conference," such annual Conferences being comprised in and governed by a General Conference assembling once every three years, or at such other intervals, more or less, as it may deem expedient, each Annual Conference having among other things, the power of appointing its own Ministers—a copy of which constitution and also a copy of a certain deed poll of John Wesley, hereinafter referred to, are set forth in the Schedule to "The Wesleyan Methodist Model Deed of New South Wales, 1888," also hereinafter particularly mentioned. And whereas, by the authority of the General Conference held in November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and with the sanction and approval of the said English Conference a new model deed has been prepared and adopted by the New South Wales and Queensland Conference, containing trusts and provisions adapted and assimilated to the present constitution of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in New South Wales, to the end and intent that all lands belonging to, or held on behalf of such Church, may hereafter be held upon such trusts and provisions and discharged from all previous trusts. And the said New South Wales and Queensland Conference has also been duly invested by the said General Conference, with the approval of the English Conference, with full authority to obtain an Act of the Legislature of New South Wales to attain that object. And whereas such new model deed is dated the ninth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and is made or expressed to be made between Ellen Schofield, of Waverley, near Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, widow, of the first part; the Reverend George Lane, the Reverend Jabez Bunting Waterhouse, the Reverend Joseph Horner Fletcher, the Reverend Joseph Oram, the Reverend William Kelynack, D.D., the Reverend William Clarke, the Reverend George Martin, the Reverend William George Richards Stephenson, the Reverend Richard Caldwell, the Reverend George Brown, the Reverend Richard Sellors, D.D., the Reverend Charles Stead, the Reverend John Gardiner, the

Ebenezer Vickery, M.L.C., George Hurst, Peter Miller, Walter William Joseph O'Reilly, Thomas Parker Reeve, George William Barker, Walter Hamilton McClelland, William Robson, Robert William Conway, Benjamin James, John Corbett, and Thomas Cummins (all therein respectively described) of the second part; and Arthur Wigram Allen (also therein described) of the third part; and whereas such model deed has been duly attested, executed, and registered in the office of the Registrar for Deeds as number seven hundred and fifteen, book three hundred and ninety-six, and such deed is herein referred to as "The Wesleyan Methodist Model Deed of New South Wales, 1888." And whereas it is necessary to obtain power for carrying some of the trusts and provisions contained in such last-mentioned deed into effect, and for establishing a trustee register, whereby the due succession of trustees for Church lands may be maintained without conveyance or transfer, and for creating facilities for proof. And whereas the said society denominated Wesleyan Methodists (hereinafter called the Wesleyan Methodist Church in New South Wales) has always formed an integral portion of the Australasian Wesleyan Methodist Church as constituted from time to time by the English Conference. And whereas such Australasian Wesleyan Methodist Church has now a separate and independent constitution approved of by the said English Conference, and is now divided into four Annual Conferences, respectively called "The New South Wales and Queensland Conference," "The Victoria and Tasmania Conference," "The South Australian Conference" and "The New Zealand Conference," such annual Conferences being comprised in and governed by a General Conference assembling once every three years, or at such other intervals, more or less, as it may deem expedient, each Annual Conference having among other things, the power of appointing its own Ministers—a copy of which constitution and also a copy of a certain deed poll of John Wesley, hereinafter referred to, are set forth in the Schedule to "The Wesleyan Methodist Model Deed of New South Wales, 1888," also hereinafter particularly mentioned. And whereas, by the authority of the General Conference held in November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and with the sanction and approval of the said English Conference a new model deed has been prepared and adopted by the New South Wales and Queensland Conference, containing trusts and provisions adapted and assimilated to the present constitution of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in New South Wales, to the end and intent that all lands belonging to, or held on behalf of such Church, may hereafter be held upon such trusts and provisions and discharged from all previous trusts. And the said New South Wales and Queensland Conference has also been duly invested by the said General Conference, with the approval of the English Conference, with full authority to obtain an Act of the Legislature of New South Wales to attain that object. And whereas such new model deed is dated the ninth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and is made or expressed to be made between Ellen Schofield, of Waverley, near Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, widow, of the first part; the Reverend George Lane, the Reverend Jabez Bunting Waterhouse, the Reverend Joseph Horner Fletcher, the Reverend Joseph Oram, the Reverend William Kelynack, D.D., the Reverend William Clarke, the Reverend George Martin, the Reverend William George Richards Stephenson, the Reverend Richard Caldwell, the Reverend George Brown, the Reverend Richard Sellors, D.D., the Reverend Charles Stead, the Reverend John Gardiner, the Reverend

Peacock, George Smith, and John Von Mungerhousen Weiss, therein described of the third part; and Samuel Moore Munce, therein described of the fourth part, was duly enrolled in the Supreme Court of New South Wales, in pursuance of the provisions of the said recited Act, as the model deed of the said society, denominated Wesleyan Methodists, and the hereditaments and premises therein comprised were thereby conveyed (inter alia) upon trust to permit such persons only to preach and perform the usual acts of religious worship therein, as should be duly appointed by or under the authority of the English Conference, and such model deed is hereinafter referred to as the "Model Deed for the Wesleyans of New South Wales." And whereas most of the Church lands in New South Wales have been conveyed or settled upon the trusts of such model deed, as to those not under the operation of the "Real Property Act," by means of conveyances referring to such trusts, and as to those under the operation of such Act by the trustees as the registered proprietors thereof executing separate declarations of trusts. And whereas the said society denominated Wesleyan Methodists (hereinafter called the Wesleyan Methodist Church in New South Wales) has always formed an integral portion of the Australasian Wesleyan Methodist Church as constituted from time to time by the English Conference. And whereas such Australasian Wesleyan Methodist Church has now a separate and independent constitution approved of by the said English Conference, and is now divided into four Annual Conferences, respectively called "The New South Wales and Queensland Conference," "The Victoria and Tasmania Conference," "The South Australian Conference" and "The New Zealand Conference," such annual Conferences being comprised in and governed by a General Conference assembling once every three years, or at such other intervals, more or less, as it may deem expedient, each Annual Conference having among other things, the power of appointing its own Ministers—a copy of which constitution and also a copy of a certain deed poll of John Wesley, hereinafter referred to, are set forth in the Schedule to "The Wesleyan Methodist Model Deed of New South Wales, 1888," also hereinafter particularly mentioned. And whereas, by the authority of the General Conference held in November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and with the sanction and approval of the said English Conference a new model deed has been prepared and adopted by the New South Wales and Queensland Conference, containing trusts and provisions adapted and assimilated to the present constitution of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in New South Wales, to the end and intent that all lands belonging to, or held on behalf of such Church, may hereafter be held upon such trusts and provisions and discharged from all previous trusts. And the said New South Wales and Queensland Conference has also been duly invested by the said General Conference, with the approval of the English Conference, with full authority to obtain an Act of the Legislature of New South Wales to attain that object. And whereas such new model deed is dated the ninth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and is made or expressed to be made between Ellen Schofield, of Waverley, near Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, widow, of the first part; the Reverend George Lane, the Reverend Jabez Bunting Waterhouse, the Reverend Joseph Horner Fletcher, the Reverend Joseph Oram, the Reverend William Kelynack, D.D., the Reverend William Clarke, the Reverend George Martin, the Reverend William George Richards Stephinson, the Reverend Richard Caldwell, the Reverend George Brown, the Reverend Richard Sellors, D.D., the Reverend Charles Stead, the Reverend John Gardiner, the

Wesleyan Methodist Church Property Trust.

Reverend Adin Parsons, the Reverend James Woolnough, Peter Percival Fletcher, George Crawshaw, Benjamin Herbert Chapman, the Hon. Ebenezer Vickery, M.L.C., George Hurst, Peter Miller, Walter William Joseph O'Reilly, Thomas Parker Reeve, George William Barker, Walter Hamilton McClelland, William Robson, Robert William Conway, Benjamin James, John Corbett, and Thomas Cummins (all therein respectively described) of the second part; and Arthur Wigram Allen (also therein described) of the third part; and whereas such model deed has been duly attested, executed, and registered in the office of the Registrar for Deeds as number seven hundred and fifteen, book three hundred and ninety-six, and such deed is herein referred to as "The Wesleyan Methodist Model Deed of New South Wales, 1888." And whereas it is necessary to obtain power for carrying some of the trusts and provisions contained in such last-mentioned deed into effect, and for establishing a trustee register, whereby the due succession of trustees for Church lands may be maintained without conveyance or transfer, and for creating facilities for proof. Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same as follows:—
