and diligently served as such clerk, and who after the expiration of the said term of ten years has been bound by and has duly served to the like satisfaction of a Judge of the said Supreme Court under articles of clerkship to a practising attorney, solicitor, or proctor for the term
 5 of one year, and who has passed the intermediate and final examinations prescribed by the examiners under the rules of the said Supreme Court for the time being, and who has given one month's notice in writing to the said Supreme Court of his intention to apply for
 10 admission to practise as an attorney, solicitor, or proctor, shall be admitted and enrolled an attorney, solicitor, and proctor of the said Supreme Court of New South Wales: Provided nevertheless that it shall not be necessary for any such person as aforesaid, who, on the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, is enrolled in the Supreme Court of New South Wales as a certificated
 15 conveyancer, to serve the year's articles above provided.

2. Every person who shall pursuant to this Act, apply to be admitted an attorney, solicitor, or proctor, shall before he be admitted and enrolled as aforesaid, take and subscribe the oath or affirmation following:—

Person applying to be admitted to take and subscribe the oath or affirmation.

20 "I, _____, do swear (or solemnly affirm) that I will duly and honestly demean myself in the practice of an attorney, solicitor, and proctor, according to the best of my knowledge and ability. So help me God."

3. Before any person shall be entitled to be examined under 25 this Act, he shall pay to the Prothonotary of the said Supreme Court, the sum of five guineas in respect of the intermediate examination, and ten guineas in respect of the final examination.

Examination fees to be paid to the Prothonotary of the Supreme Court.

4. If any person after having been examined as provided by 30 this Act, shall pass such examination to the satisfaction of the examiners or a majority thereof, such examiners or majority shall issue to such person a certificate under their hands stating that such person has successfully passed such examination, and such certificate shall be filed with the Prothonotary of the said Supreme Court not later than one month after its issue.

Certificate to issue after passing examination.

5. The rules of the said Supreme Court nor any of them
 35 relating to articled clerks, and their admission as attorneys, solicitors, and proctors of the said Court shall not, except so far as the same are expressly adopted by this Act, affect any person applying under this Act to be admitted an attorney, solicitor, and proctor in the said Court,
 40 but nothing in this Act shall otherwise be deemed to affect the said rules.

Rules of Supreme Court shall not affect any person applying under this Act.

6. The said Supreme Court shall have and may exercise over a
 45 person admitted an attorney, solicitor, and proctor, pursuant to this Act, all such powers as it now has and has heretofore exercised over an attorney, solicitor, or proctor admitted before the passing of this Act.

Supreme Court to exercise certain powers.

7. This Act may be cited as the "Attorneys Admission Act." Short title.
