ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SEPTIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

An Act to restrict the power of Judges in certain respects and to facilitate the transaction of business in certain Courts.

WHEREAS the practice of apportioning certain periods of time Preamble.
as vacations in the Supreme Court of the Colony of New South Wales and in the District Court holden at Sydney in the said Colony has the effect of obstructing the progress of business in the said Courts, and is productive of much delay and vexation to suitors in the said Courts: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

10 1. From and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for the Judges, or any Judge of any Court, to make any rule or order setting apart any day as a holiday, or any period of time as a vacation, or restricting the filing or delivery of any pleading, or stopping time running either at law or in equity: Provided always that this section shall not be deemed to apply to any Judge's order or order or rule of Court which may be made in any particular action, cause, suit, matter, or thing pending in any Court. Judges deprived of power to appoint holidays and vacations and of stopping time running at law and in equity. Proviso.

20 2. The offices of the said Supreme Court and the said District Court shall be open for the transaction of public business on every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday from ten of the clock in the forenoon until four of the clock in the afternoon, and on every Saturday from ten of the clock in the forenoon until noon: Provided always that this section shall not be deemed to apply to any holiday under the "Bank Holidays Act, 1875." Time during which offices of Supreme Court and Sydney District Court shall be open for transaction of public business. Proviso.

25 3. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the "Law Vacations Abolition Act of 1893." Short title.
