F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SEPTIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

An Act to amend the "Municipalities Act of 1867."

WHEREAS it is desirable to amend and extend the provisions of Preamble.
the "Municipalities Act of 1867" in certain particulars: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative 5 Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Municipalities Act of 1867" Short title, &c.
Amendment Act of 1893," and shall be read with and as forming part of the "Municipalities Act of 1867," hereinafter termed the 10 Principal Act.

2. Section fifty-two, and Schedules C, D, E, G, and I of the Section and Schedules repealed.
Principal Act are hereby repealed, and section three, and Schedules A, B, C, D, and E of this Act substituted for, and are to be read in place of the said repealed section and Schedules.

15 3. Every person of the full age of twenty-one years who on Ratepayer electors.
the seventh day of January in any year shall be the occupier, lessee, or owner of any ratable property within any Municipality, and having paid rates for the same for the current half-year (hereinafter styled the

Municipalities Act of 1867 Amendment.

the "Ratepayer"), shall be entitled to be enrolled, according to the provisions of this Act and of the Principal Act, upon the municipal roll of the Municipality for the ensuing municipal year, and being so enrolled shall be an elector thereof, and shall be entitled, subject as hereinafter mentioned, to vote in all elections of Aldermen and Auditors for the Municipality occurring whilst such municipal roll shall be in force, in the manner following:—

- (I) If the occupier, lessee, or owner of property assessed at an annual value not exceeding twenty-five pounds, he shall be entitled to one vote. Cumulative votes.
- (II) If the occupier, lessee, or owner of property assessed at an annual value over twenty-five and not exceeding seventy-five pounds, he shall be entitled to two votes.
- (III) If the occupier, lessee, or owner of property assessed at an annual value over seventy-five and not exceeding one hundred and fifty pounds, he shall be entitled to three votes.
- (IV) If the occupier, lessee, or owner of property assessed at an annual value over one hundred and fifty pounds he shall be entitled to four votes.

Provided that no ratepayer who shall, at the time of claiming to vote, be in arrear on account of any rates due by him shall be entitled to vote in respect of the property rated at any election in such Municipality: And provided also that no person shall be allowed to vote without first making and subscribing a declaration in the form contained in Schedule A hereto: And provided further that where any ratable property is jointly occupied, jointly leased, or jointly owned by more persons than one, only one of such joint occupiers, joint lessees, or joint owners shall be a "ratepayer" elector as aforesaid, unless the assessed annual value of such ratable property so jointly occupied, leased, or owned as aforesaid shall exceed twenty-five pounds, in which case a second joint occupier, joint lessee, or joint owner shall be admissible as a "ratepayer" elector; and if the assessed annual value of such ratable property shall exceed seventy-five pounds, then a third joint occupier, joint lessee, or joint owner, if there be one, shall be admissible as a "ratepayer" elector; and if the assessed annual value exceed one hundred and fifty pounds, then a fourth joint occupier, joint lessee, or owner, if there be one, shall be admissible as a "ratepayer" elector. And the person or persons so admissible as aforesaid in cases of joint occupancy, joint lease, or joint ownership shall be the person or persons first named in the ratebook; and the giving of any joint or cumulative vote by such person or persons shall render any other person claiming to vote in respect to the same ratable property incapable of giving a vote in that election; but this provision shall not affect the right of any non-ratepayer elector, as hereafter defined, to vote in respect of the same property.

4. Every person of the full age of twenty-one years, who on the seventh day of January in any year shall be the occupier, lessee, or owner (other than the actual "ratepayer") of any ratable property within any Municipality (for the purposes of this Act styled the "non-ratepayer") shall be entitled to one vote, in addition to the vote or votes to which the "ratepayer" is entitled: Provided that no lessee shall be entitled to a vote as a "non-ratepayer" in respect of any property, the lease of which has a currency of less than five years, nor shall any owner be entitled to a vote in respect of any property for which he has granted or contracted to grant a lease having a currency of fifty years and upwards, nor shall any "non-ratepayer" be entitled to votes in respect of more than four properties. Non-ratepayer electors.
