ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SEPTIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. XXIV.

An Act to amend the "Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act of 1893." [Assented to, 2nd June, 1894.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. If any person proves to the satisfaction of the Chief Electoral Officer that a mistake has been made in his enrolment on any Roll in respect of his name, occupation, or residence, or in any other particular, the Chief Electoral Officer may amend such Roll or cause it to be amended accordingly, and on receiving the Elector's Right originally issued may issue an Elector's Right in accordance therewith. Mistakes in any Roll may be amended.

2. Section thirty-eight of the Principal Act is amended by the substitution of the words "section thirty-six" for the words "the next preceding section." Secs. 38 and 82 of Principal Act amended.

Section eighty-two, subsection (i), is amended by the substitution of the word "for" for the word "within."

Section eighty-two, subsection (ii), question (i), is amended by the substitution of the words "the District for which the Elector's Right now exhibited by you was issued" for the words "this District."

3. Any person tendering his vote under section eighty-two of the Principal Act if still a resident in the District for a Division of which he obtained his Elector's Right shall be entitled to vote for such District notwithstanding that he shall have changed his place of residence from such Division to another in the same District, and the term "qualification" in the prescribed question (iii) in the aforesaid section shall be held to mean residence in the District for a Division in which he acquired his Right. Elector moving from one Division to another may still vote for his District.

4. In each District the Electoral Registrar shall make out and, on the seventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, complete, according to the Form in Schedule B of the Principal Additional List.

Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act of 1893 Further Amendment (No. 2).

Principal Act, and sign a List to be called the Additional List, arranged in the alphabetical order of the surnames, of the names of all persons to whom, according to the butts in the possession of such Registrar and of the Deputy Registrars for such District, Electors' Rights and substituted Electors' Rights have been issued under sections thirty-six, thirty-eight, and thirty-nine of the Principal Act, which Rights are still in force for such District, and which names have not been included in the First General Roll for such District; and shall enter in every such List from the said butts the prescribed particulars.

Additional List to be exhibited.

5. Each such Registrar after completing such Additional List for the District shall on the same or the next day sign and transmit two copies of such List to one of the Clerks of Petty Sessions in such District, and one copy to the person in charge of each post office within the District, which person shall cause the same to be exhibited in some conspicuous position within or outside of such office, until the twentieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

Notice of the holding of the Revision Court to be given.

6. Such Clerk of Petty Sessions shall, between the seventh day of June and the eighteenth day of June, by advertisements in two issues of a newspaper published or circulating in the District, give notice that a Revision Court will be held as hereinafter provided, and that copies of the Additional List may be inspected at the post offices within the District, and he shall act as Revision Clerk at such Court.

Revision Court to be held in each District on 20th June.

7. Each additional List shall be revised on the twentieth, and if necessary also on the twenty-first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, by a Revision Court, to be held for each District at a place to be appointed by the Governor, before such Stipendiary or Police Magistrate as may be named by the Governor by notice in the Gazette.

Additional Roll.

8. It shall be the duty of such Court to inquire whether Electors' Rights for such District have been duly issued under sections thirty-six, thirty-eight, and thirty-nine of the Principal Act to persons duly entitled thereto but not enrolled, and in each case in which the said Court shall be satisfied that an Elector's Right for such District has been so duly issued to a person still entitled thereto, and that such person has not yet been enrolled for such District, the said Court shall insert such person's name on a Roll to be called the Additional Roll for the District. Immediately on the completion of the Additional Roll a copy thereof, certified as correct under the hand of the Presiding Magistrate, shall be sent by the Revision Clerk to the Chief Electoral Officer, who shall cause the same to be at once printed, and shall forthwith forward a sufficient number of copies thereof to the proper Returning Officer. The Additional Roll shall for all purposes be deemed part of the General Roll.

Governor may make regulations.

9. The Governor may make regulations prescribing the form of the said Rolls, the manner in which they shall be kept, the particulars which shall be entered therein, and all other matters concerning the same, and generally for carrying the provisions of this Act into full effect; and section one hundred and forty-one of the Principal Act shall apply to all such regulations.

Issue of writs for a General Election when Legislative Assembly expires by effluxion of time.

10. The provisions in the Principal Act compelling and regulating the issue of writs for a General Election upon the dissolution of the Legislative Assembly shall apply equally to the case of a Legislative Assembly allowed to expire by effluxion of time.

Short title.

11. This Act shall be cited as the "Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act of 1893 Further Amendment Act of 1894," and shall be construed as one with the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act of 1893 herein referred to as the Principal Act.

No. .

An Act to amend the “Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act of 1893.”

BE it enacted by the Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 5 1. When, under section thirty-eight of the Principal Act, an Elector’s Right is issued to any person on change of residence, the Registrar of the District for which such Right is issued shall forthwith enter the name of such person in full, his place of residence, and the date of the issue of such Right in a Roll to be kept by him and
10 called “The Roll of Transferred Electors,” and thereupon such person shall be for all purposes deemed to be enrolled on the General Roll for such District until the sitting of the Revision Court first holden after the date of the issue of such Right for the Division in which such person at the date aforesaid resided or had his principal place of abode,
15 or in cases where the District for which such Right was issued contains no Divisions, then until the sitting of the Revision Court so holden as aforesaid
- 354—

NOTE.—The words to be omitted are ruled through; those to be inserted are printed in black letter.
