

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SEPTIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

An Act to enable the Council of the Borough of Parramatta to establish and levy a special rate for Street Watering purposes within certain portions of the Borough of Parramatta in addition to the rates authorised by the "Municipalities Act of 1867"; and for the other purposes herein set forth. [Assented to, 11th June, 1894.]

WHEREAS the special and general rates now established and levied within the borough of Parramatta have reached the maximum limit of two shillings in the pound of the assessment of the ratable property within the said borough, fixed by the "Municipalities Act of 1867": And whereas certain portions of certain of the streets of the said borough require to be watered, and it is expedient that the Council of the said borough should, so far as concerns such localities, have power to establish and levy such additional special rate for street watering purposes as is hereinafter mentioned upon or in respect of the ratable properties in such localities respectively: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Preamble.

1. Notwithstanding the provision contained in the one hundred and sixty-eighth section of the "Municipalities Act of 1867," limiting the maximum amount of general and special rates to be levied by the Council

Special rate for street watering purposes may be levied.

Parramatta Street Watering.

Council of any municipality at the sum of two shillings in the pound of the assessment of the ratable property in such municipality, it shall be lawful for the council of the borough of Parramatta at any time upon receipt of a petition purporting to be signed by a two-thirds majority of the ratepayers of the ratable properties situate in any street or portion of any street within the said borough, and attested by some respectable person to the satisfaction of the said council, praying that the street or portion of street adjacent to the premises occupied by the petitioners may be watered, to proceed to establish and levy upon or in respect of the ratable properties in the streets proposed to be watered a special rate not exceeding twopence in the pound of such assessment as aforesaid, in addition to such maximum of two shillings in the pound as aforesaid, limited by the "Municipalities Act of 1867," and to apply and expend the moneys so raised in and about the watering of the street or portions of street respectively in respect of which such petition shall have been so presented.

Enforcement of special rate.

2. The provisions of the "Municipalities Act of 1867," and of the "Municipalities Act Amendment Act of 1892," and of all and every other Act or Acts hereafter passed or in force relating to the establishment, levy, and enforcement of municipal rates shall extend and apply to all special rates which shall be established or levied under or by virtue of this Act as fully and effectually as if such special rates had been established or levied under or by virtue of the said "Municipalities Act of 1867," and as if that Act had authorised the establishment and levy of rates in the said localities to the amount of two shillings and twopence in the pound in place of two shillings in the pound of such assessment as before mentioned.

Short title.

3. The Act may be cited for all purposes as the "Parramatta Street Watering Act of 1894."

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SEPTIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

An Act to enable the Council of the Borough of Parramatta to establish and levy a special rate for Street Watering purposes within certain portions of the Borough of Parramatta in addition to the rates authorised by the "Municipalities Act of 1867"; and for the other purposes herein set forth. [Assented to, 11th June, 1894.]

WHEREAS the special and general rates now established and levied within the borough of Parramatta have reached the maximum limit of two shillings in the pound of the assessment of the ratable property within the said borough, fixed by the "Municipalities Act of 1867": And whereas certain portions of certain of the streets of the said borough require to be watered, and it is expedient that the Council of the said borough should, so far as concerns such localities, have power to establish and levy such additional special rate for street watering purposes as is hereinafter mentioned upon or in respect of the ratable properties in such localities respectively: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. Notwithstanding the provision contained in the one hundred and sixty-eighth section of the "Municipalities Act of 1867," limiting the maximum amount of general and special rates to be levied by the Council

Preamble.

Special rate for street watering purposes may be levied.

Parramatta Street Watering.

Council of any municipality at the sum of two shillings in the pound of the assessment of the ratable property in such municipality, it shall be lawful for the council of the borough of Parramatta at any time upon receipt of a petition purporting to be signed by a two-thirds majority of the ratepayers of the ratable properties situate in any street or portion of any street within the said borough, and attested by some respectable person to the satisfaction of the said council, praying that the street or portion of street adjacent to the premises occupied by the petitioners may be watered, to proceed to establish and levy upon or in respect of the ratable properties in the streets proposed to be watered a special rate not exceeding twopence in the pound of such assessment as aforesaid, in addition to such maximum of two shillings in the pound as aforesaid, limited by the "Municipalities Act of 1867," and to apply and expend the moneys so raised in and about the watering of the street or portions of street respectively in respect of which such petition shall have been so presented.

Enforcement of
special rate.

2. The provisions of the "Municipalities Act of 1867," and of the "Municipalities Act Amendment Act of 1892," and of all and every other Act or Acts hereafter passed or in force relating to the establishment, levy, and enforcement of municipal rates shall extend and apply to all special rates which shall be established or levied under or by virtue of this Act as fully and effectually as if such special rates had been established or levied under or by virtue of the said "Municipalities Act of 1867," and as if that Act had authorised the establishment and levy of rates in the said localities to the amount of two shillings and twopence in the pound in place of two shillings in the pound of such assessment as before mentioned.

Short title.

3. The Act may be cited for all purposes as the "Parramatta Street Watering Act of 1894."

By Authority : CHARLES POTTER, Government Printer, Sydney, 1894.

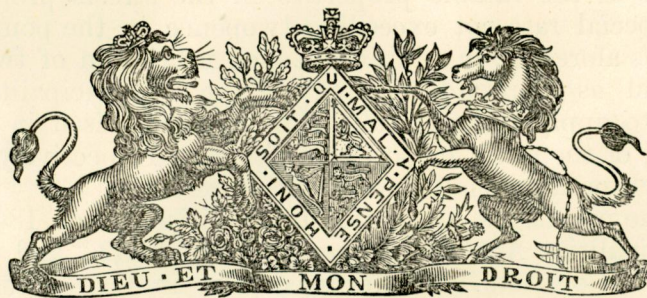

[3d.]

I Certify that this PRIVATE BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 5 June, 1894.* }

F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SEPTIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

An Act to enable the Council of the Borough of Parramatta to establish and levy a special rate for Street Watering purposes within certain portions of the Borough of Parramatta in addition to the rates authorised by the "Municipalities Act of 1867"; and for the other purposes herein set forth. [Assented to, 11th June, 1894.]

WHEREAS the special and general rates now established and levied within the borough of Parramatta have reached the maximum limit of two shillings in the pound of the assessment of the ratable property within the said borough, fixed by the "Municipalities Act of 1867": And whereas certain portions of certain of the streets of the said borough require to be watered, and it is expedient that the Council of the said borough should, so far as concerns such localities, have power to establish and levy such additional special rate for street watering purposes as is hereinafter mentioned upon or in respect of the ratable properties in such localities respectively: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. Notwithstanding the provision contained in the one hundred and sixty-eighth section of the "Municipalities Act of 1867," limiting the maximum amount of general and special rates to be levied by the Council

Preamble.

Special rate for street watering purposes may be levied.

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

NINIAN MELVILLE,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Parramatta Street Watering.

Council of any municipality at the sum of two shillings in the pound of the assessment of the ratable property in such municipality, it shall be lawful for the council of the borough of Parramatta at any time upon receipt of a petition purporting to be signed by a two-thirds majority of the ratepayers of the ratable properties situate in any street or portion of any street within the said borough, and attested by some respectable person to the satisfaction of the said council, praying that the street or portion of street adjacent to the premises occupied by the petitioners may be watered, to proceed to establish and levy upon or in respect of the ratable properties in the streets proposed to be watered a special rate not exceeding twopence in the pound of such assessment as aforesaid, in addition to such maximum of two shillings in the pound as aforesaid, limited by the "Municipalities Act of 1867," and to apply and expend the moneys so raised in and about the watering of the street or portions of street respectively in respect of which such petition shall have been so presented.

Enforcement of
special rate.

2. The provisions of the "Municipalities Act of 1867," and of the "Municipalities Act Amendment Act of 1892," and of all and every other Act or Acts hereafter passed or in force relating to the establishment, levy, and enforcement of municipal rates shall extend and apply to all special rates which shall be established or levied under or by virtue of this Act as fully and effectually as if such special rates had been established or levied under or by virtue of the said "Municipalities Act of 1867," and as if that Act had authorised the establishment and levy of rates in the said localities to the amount of two shillings and twopence in the pound in place of two shillings in the pound of such assessment as before mentioned.

Short title.

3. The Act may be cited for all purposes as the "Parramatta Street Watering Act of 1894."

In the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.

R. W. DUFF.

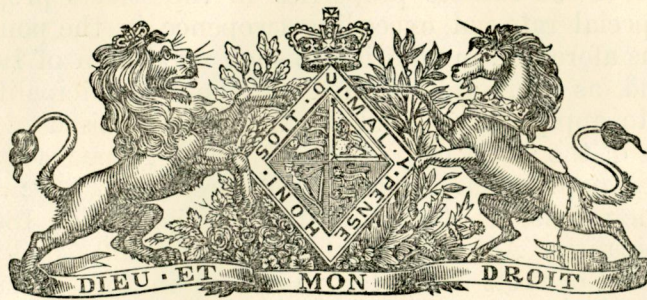

*Government House,
Sydney, 11 June, 1894.*

I Certify that this PRIVATE BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 5 June, 1894.* }

F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SEPTIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

An Act to enable the Council of the Borough of Parramatta to establish and levy a special rate for Street Watering purposes within certain portions of the Borough of Parramatta in addition to the rates authorised by the "Municipalities Act of 1867"; and for the other purposes herein set forth. [Assented to, 11th June, 1894.]

WHEREAS the special and general rates now established and ^{Preamble.} levied within the borough of Parramatta have reached the maximum limit of two shillings in the pound of the assessment of the ratable property within the said borough, fixed by the "Municipalities Act of 1867": And whereas certain portions of certain of the streets of the said borough require to be watered, and it is expedient that the Council of the said borough should, so far as concerns such localities, have power to establish and levy such additional special rate for street watering purposes as is hereinafter mentioned upon or in respect of the ratable properties in such localities respectively: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. Notwithstanding the provision contained in the one hundred and sixty-eighth section of the "Municipalities Act of 1867," limiting the maximum amount of general and special rates to be levied by the Council ^{Special rate for street watering purposes may be levied.}

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

NINIAN MELVILLE,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Parramatta Street Watering.

Council of any municipality at the sum of two shillings in the pound of the assessment of the ratable property in such municipality, it shall be lawful for the council of the borough of Parramatta at any time upon receipt of a petition purporting to be signed by a two-thirds majority of the ratepayers of the ratable properties situate in any street or portion of any street within the said borough, and attested by some respectable person to the satisfaction of the said council, praying that the street or portion of street adjacent to the premises occupied by the petitioners may be watered, to proceed to establish and levy upon or in respect of the ratable properties in the streets proposed to be watered a special rate not exceeding twopence in the pound of such assessment as aforesaid, in addition to such maximum of two shillings in the pound as aforesaid, limited by the "Municipalities Act of 1867," and to apply and expend the moneys so raised in and about the watering of the street or portions of street respectively in respect of which such petition shall have been so presented.

Enforcement of
special rate.

2. The provisions of the "Municipalities Act of 1867," and of the "Municipalities Act Amendment Act of 1892," and of all and every other Act or Acts hereafter passed or in force relating to the establishment, levy, and enforcement of municipal rates shall extend and apply to all special rates which shall be established or levied under or by virtue of this Act as fully and effectually as if such special rates had been established or levied under or by virtue of the said "Municipalities Act of 1867," and as if that Act had authorised the establishment and levy of rates in the said localities to the amount of two shillings and twopence in the pound in place of two shillings in the pound of such assessment as before mentioned.

Short title.

3. The Act may be cited for all purposes as the "Parramatta Street Watering Act of 1894."

In the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.

R. W. DUFF.

*Government House,
Sydney, 11 June, 1894.*