Trustees to have power of sale, lease, and mortgage.

2. The powers of sale, lease, and mortgage hereby conferred shall not be exercised unless a resolution to the effect that it is desirable to exercise such powers has been duly passed and carried by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the members of the Institute, School of Arts, or other institution as in the first section described, present at a meeting specially convened for the purpose, of which fourteen days' notice has been given by advertisement in two separate issues of a newspaper circulating in the district in which the lands

Consent of the Minister may be general or particular, except in case of mortgage.

The Minister may in any case give his consent, either as to the whole, or as to part of any lands in respect of which any application is made, and may at any time withdraw his consent, either wholly or partially, or vary the terms and conditions thereof, if he can do so without prejudice to the rights of third parties.

Minister may appoint person to execute conveyance.

6. In any case in which trustees desire to exercise the powers conferred by this Act the Minister may appoint some person who shall have power to execute all conveyances and instruments and do all things necessary to the due exercise of such powers. lands are situated, and confirmed by a resolution duly passed and carried by a like majority of such members as may be present at a subsequent meeting specially convened for the purpose, after fourteen days' notice given as aforesaid, and held not less than one calendar month from the date of holding the meeting first above-mentioned; and unless the consent of the Minister has been obtained in writing after full statement to him of the facts relating to the proposed exercise of such powers.

3. In the case of an application for leave to sell or lease the Minister may give his consent either generally by authorising the sale or lease of the lands subject to such conditions, restrictions, reservations, and covenants, and in such manner and within such time, as he may think desirable, or by approving of particular contracts of sale or lease. In the case of an application for leave to mortgage such general authority shall not be given, but the terms of the proposed mortgage shall in each case be submitted to the Minister for approval, and his consent shall not, unless under circumstances which in the minute of approval he certifies to be exceptional, be given to a mortgage of any lands for more than one half of their estimated value. A mortgage under this Act may contain a power of sale.

Consent of the Minister may be general or particular, except in case of mortgage. No mortgage to be for more than one half the value.

4. Where the Minister has given his consent generally as in the last section provided, no lands shall be sold or leased in pursuance of such consent, unless in each case the price agreed upon or rent reserved has been submitted to and approved by him.

Price agreed upon and rent reserved to be submitted to the Minister in each case.

5. The Minister may in any case give his consent, either as to the whole, or as to part of any lands in respect of which any application is made, and may at any time withdraw his consent, either wholly or partially, or vary the terms and conditions thereof, if he can do so without prejudice to the rights of third parties.

Consent may be given as to part or whole and may be withdrawn or modified.

6. In any case in which trustees desire to exercise the powers conferred by this Act the Minister may appoint some person who shall have power to execute all conveyances and instruments and do all things necessary to the due exercise of such powers. The receipt of the person so appointed shall be a sufficient discharge to any purchaser, lessee, or mortgagee bond fide paying money in respect of any sale, lease, or mortgage under this Act.

Minister may appoint person to execute conveyance.

7. No purchaser, lessee, or mortgagee dealing bond fide with a person appointed under section six shall be prejudiced or affected by any omission or irregularity in respect of any of the matters prescribed by this Act.

Bond fide purchaser protected.

8. The proceeds of any sale, lease, or mortgage under this Act shall be held by the trustees, after payment of costs, and expenses, and encumbrances, for the general purposes of the trust, and shall be invested or applied as the Minister may direct. The Minister may direct that any portion of the income or revenue of the trustees shall be set apart for payment of interest on or the gradual extinction of any mortgage debt, and the portion so set apart shall be invested as the Minister may direct.

Proceeds to be held on trust and invested.

9. Lands conveyed to any person under the provisions of this Act shall vest in him free from all trusts which affected them in the hands of the persons by whom or on whose behalf they were conveyed.

Conveyance to vest lands free from trust.

10. If any such trustee as aforesaid, or any trustee appointed as hereinafter provided resigns (which he is hereby empowered to do by written notice to the Minister) or dies, or becomes bankrupt or insane, or if for any other reason it is not desirable that any trustee should continue in the administration of the trust, it shall be lawful for the members of the Institute, or School of Arts, or other institution as in the first section described, by a resolution duly passed and carried at a meeting specially convened for the purpose,
