

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 26 August, 1891.* }

F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

An Act to declare that the Act of the Imperial Legislature, sixth George IV, chapter 129, intituled "An Act to repeal the Laws relating to the Combination of Workmen, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," does not extend to, and is not in force in, New South Wales.

WHEREAS the Act of the Imperial Legislature passed in the Preamble. sixth year of King George the Fourth, and intituled "An Act to repeal the Laws relating to the Combination of Workmen, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," was wholly repealed by the
5 Act of the same Legislature passed in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and intituled "An Act to amend the Criminal Law relating to Violence, Threats, and Molestation:"
And whereas doubts are entertained whether it might not be held that notwithstanding such repeal the said Act so repealed as aforesaid
10 extends to and is in force in New South Wales, and it is expedient to remove any such doubts, and to declare that the said Act does not extend to and is not in force in New South Wales: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly
15 of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. It is hereby declared and enacted that from and after the 6 Geo. IV., c. 129 passing of this Act (which may be cited as the "Workmen's Com- declared not to be in force in New South Wales.
combination Laws Declaration Act"), the Act of the Imperial Legislature
20 passed in the sixth year of King George the Fourth, and intituled "An Act to repeal the Laws relating to the Combination of Workmen, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," does not extend to, and is not in force in, New South Wales.

The British Government has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 14th inst. in relation to the proposed extension of the railway from the station at ...

1870

1870

VICTORIA REGINA

In accordance with the provisions of the Act of the 14th Victoria, Chapter 17, the Government has the honor to inform you that the proposed extension of the railway from the station at ...

It is the duty of the Government to ensure that the proposed extension of the railway is carried out in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the 14th Victoria, Chapter 17, and that the public interest is protected.

The Government has the honor to inform you that the proposed extension of the railway is subject to the approval of the Board of Trade, and that the public interest is protected.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 26 August, 1891.* }

F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

An Act to declare that the Act of the Imperial Legislature, sixth George IV, chapter 129, intituled "An Act to repeal the Laws relating to the Combination of Workmen, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," does not extend to, and is not in force in, New South Wales.

WHEREAS the Act of the Imperial Legislature passed in the Preamble. sixth year of King George the Fourth, and intituled "An Act to repeal the Laws relating to the Combination of Workmen, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," was wholly repealed by the
5 Act of the same Legislature passed in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and intituled "An Act to amend the Criminal Law relating to Violence, Threats, and Molestation:"
And whereas doubts are entertained whether it might not be held that notwithstanding such repeal the said Act so repealed as aforesaid
10 extends to and is in force in New South Wales, and it is expedient to remove any such doubts, and to declare that the said Act does not extend to and is not in force in New South Wales: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly
15 of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. It is hereby declared and enacted that from and after the 6 Geo. IV., c. 129 passing of this Act (which may be cited as the "Workmen's Com- declared not to be in force in New South Wales.
combination Laws Declaration Act"), the Act of the Imperial Legislature
20 passed in the sixth year of King George the Fourth, and intituled "An Act to repeal the Laws relating to the Combination of Workmen, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," does not extend to, and is not in force in, New South Wales.

The House of Commons have resolved to send the following Resolution to the House of Lords for their consideration.

Resolved, That the sum of £100,000 be granted to the House of Commons for the purchase of the said land.

New South Wales

BY APPOINTMENT TO HIS MAJESTY THE KING

VICTORIA REGINA.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Imperial Parliament, bearing date the 30th day of August in the 39th year of the said Majesty King Victoria, it was enacted that the said Act should extend to the Colony of New South Wales, and that the said Act should have effect as if it had been made in and for that Colony, and as if the said Majesty King Victoria had been at that time the King of that Colony; and whereas the said Act is now in force in and for the said Colony; and whereas it is expedient that the said Act should have effect as if it had been made in and for that Colony, and as if the said Majesty King Victoria had been at that time the King of that Colony; and whereas it is expedient that the said Act should have effect as if it had been made in and for that Colony, and as if the said Majesty King Victoria had been at that time the King of that Colony;

And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should have effect as if it had been made in and for that Colony, and as if the said Majesty King Victoria had been at that time the King of that Colony; and whereas it is expedient that the said Act should have effect as if it had been made in and for that Colony, and as if the said Majesty King Victoria had been at that time the King of that Colony;

WHEREAS the Act of the Imperial Parliament, bearing date the 30th day of August in the 39th year of the said Majesty King Victoria, is now in force in and for the said Colony; and whereas it is expedient that the said Act should have effect as if it had been made in and for that Colony, and as if the said Majesty King Victoria had been at that time the King of that Colony; and whereas it is expedient that the said Act should have effect as if it had been made in and for that Colony, and as if the said Majesty King Victoria had been at that time the King of that Colony;

And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should have effect as if it had been made in and for that Colony, and as if the said Majesty King Victoria had been at that time the King of that Colony; and whereas it is expedient that the said Act should have effect as if it had been made in and for that Colony, and as if the said Majesty King Victoria had been at that time the King of that Colony;

[14.]