date the sixth day of April, in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, under the hand of His Excellency Sir John Young, then Captain-General

east boundary of portion thirty-eight aforesaid, being a line bearing south forty chains and four links to a road one chain wide; on the south by that road dividing it from part of D. Reid's portion thirty-six of one hundred and seventy acres, bearing east thirty-five chains and
 5 twenty-three links to the first-mentioned road; and on the east by that road dividing it from E. Mitchell's portion ninety-nine and E. Mitchell's portion one hundred, and from part of W. Wise's portion one hundred and one bearing north forty chains and four links to the point of commencement, with all the rights and appurtenances thereto
 10 belonging, was granted unto James Layton, Robert Brown, William Huon, Samuel Charles Valentine North, and George Day, upon trust, in their discretion to permit and suffer the said land or any part thereof to be used by such persons, clubs, or associations, at such times, and upon such terms and conditions, as the said James Layton,
 15 Robert Brown, William Huon, Samuel Charles Valentine North, and George Day, or any other trustees of the said land appointed as thereinafter provided, should think fit and proper for any of the purposes thereafter described (that is to say)—

20 Firstly—As a racecourse, upon which horse-races might be run, under the direction of any club or association then existing, or which might thereafter be founded for the purpose of horse racing.

Secondly—As a training ground for the purpose of training horses intending to race.

25 Thirdly—As a cricket ground, or place at and upon which the game of cricket might be played.

30 Fourthly—And for any other public amusement or purpose which his Excellency the Governor for the time being of the said Colony, with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, may from time to time declare to be a public amusement or purpose for which the said land or any part thereof should or might be used.

Provided always, and it was thereby declared that it should or might be lawful for the trustees for the time being of the said lands, for any
 35 of the purposes aforesaid, to make all or any such rules and regulations for the use of the said land, or any part thereof, and to vary or alter the same, from time to time, as they might deem fit, for any of the purposes aforesaid. Provided always, and it was thereby declared, when and so often as the said James Layton, Robert Brown, William
 40 Huon, Samuel Charles Valentine North, and George Day, or any trustees or trustee to be appointed by virtue thereof, should die, resign, cease to reside in the Colony of New South Wales, or become incapable to act in the trust thereby created, it should be lawful for the Governor for the time being of the said Colony, with the advice of the
 45 Executive Council thereof, from time to time, by writing under his hand, to name and appoint a new trustee or trustees in the place and stead of any trustee or trustees so dying, resigning, ceasing to reside in the said Colony of New South Wales, or becoming incapable of acting in the said trust, and thereupon the said lands should be con-
 50 veyed and assured by the surviving or continuing trustee or trustees, or by the heirs of the last surviving trustee, their or his heirs or assigns, upon the trusts and for the interests and purposes hereinbefore created, and declared of and concerning the said lands. And whereas the said trustees have for many years past permitted the
 55 members of the Albury Racing Club to have the use and enjoyment of the said lands, for the purpose of horse-racing, and the said Albury Racing Club has expended large sums of money in making, forming, and improving a course for horses to run on, and a tan gallop for horses to train on, and in erecting fences, stands, and other buildings

The committee, or an absolute majority in number of such committee present at any meeting, may from time to time, subject to the special provisions of this Act, make such by-laws as they may think fit for regulating all matters concerned or connected with the lands comprised in the hereinbefore recited grant, or any lands which may hereafter be vested in the chairman, and for the protection of the shrubs, trees, and herbage growing upon the said lands, and for regulating the use and enjoyment thereof, and the admission thereto, or to any buildings or enclosures thereon, and the expulsion therefrom of members of the club, or any other person or persons whomsoever, causing annoyance or inconvenience, and the rates or charges to be paid for such admission, and all other necessary by-laws for the general management of the said racecourse, and may impose penalties on the breach of any such by-law, not in any case to exceed the sum of ten pounds; and may from time to time, by any other by-laws, alter or repeal any such by-laws, provided that no such by-laws be repugnant to the laws for the time being in force in New South Wales, and every such by-law shall be reduced into writing, and shall be signed by the chairman.

Committee may make by-laws.

11. Disallowance of by-laws by Governor in Council.

12. Every by-law shall, immediately upon the expiration of one month after the same shall have been sent as aforesaid, if not disallowed as aforesaid, be published in the Government Gazette, together with a notice stating when such by-law was sent to the Colonial Secretary, and that such by-law has not been disallowed, and such by-law shall come into operation from the date of such publication.

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

An Act for the purpose of enabling the Trustees of the Albury Racecourse to grant leases thereof to any Club; and to enable the Members of the Club to sue and be sued in the name of the Chairman of the Committee for the time being of the Club; and for other purposes.

WHEREAS by deed-poll or grant from the Crown, bearing Preamble.
date the sixth day of April, in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, under 5 the hand of His Excellency Sir John Young, then Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Colony of New South Wales, and under the seal of the said Colony, all that piece or parcel of land in the said Colony containing by admeasurement one hundred and forty-one acres, be the same more or less, situated in the county of 10 Goulburn and parish of Albury, being portion number one hundred and sixty-seven: Commencing on the western side of a road three chains and eighty links wide at the south-eastern corner of T. Hatch's portion thirty-seven; and bounded thence on the north by the south boundary of that portion and its westerly prolongation, forming a 15 south boundary of portion thirty-eight, being in all a line bearing west thirty-five chains and twenty-three links; on the west by part of the east

east boundary of portion thirty-eight aforesaid, being a line bearing south forty chains and four links to a road one chain wide; on the south by that road dividing it from part of D. Reid's portion thirty-six of one hundred and seventy acres, bearing east thirty-five chains and twenty-three links to the first-mentioned road; and on the east by that road dividing it from E. Mitchell's portion ninety-nine and E. Mitchell's portion one hundred, and from part of W. Wise's portion one hundred and one bearing north forty chains and four links to the point of commencement, with all the rights and appurtenances thereto
 10 belonging, was granted unto James Layton, Robert Brown, William Huon, Samuel Charles Valentine North, and George Day, upon trust, in their discretion to permit and suffer the said land or any part thereof to be used by such persons, clubs, or associations, at such times, and upon such terms and conditions, as the said James Layton,
 15 Robert Brown, William Huon, Samuel Charles Valentine North, and George Day, or any other trustees of the said land appointed as thereinafter provided, should think fit and proper for any of the purposes thereinafter described (that is to say)—

20 Firstly—As a racecourse, upon which horse-races might be run, under the direction of any club or association then existing, or which might thereafter be founded for the purpose of horse racing.

Secondly—As a training ground for the purpose of training horses intending to race.

25 Thirdly—As a cricket ground, or place at and upon which the game of cricket might be played.

30 Fourthly—And for any other public amusement or purpose which his Excellency the Governor for the time being of the said Colony, with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, may from time to time declare to be a public amusement or purpose for which the said land or any part thereof should or might be used.

Provided always, and it was thereby declared that it should or might be lawful for the trustees for the time being of the said lands, for any
 35 of the purposes aforesaid, to make all or any such rules and regulations for the use of the said land, or any part thereof, and to vary or alter the same, from time to time, as they might deem fit, for any of the purposes aforesaid. Provided always, and it was thereby declared, when and so often as the said James Layton, Robert Brown, William
 40 Huon, Samuel Charles Valentine North, and George Day, or any trustees or trustee to be appointed by virtue thereof, should die, resign, cease to reside in the Colony of New South Wales, or become incapable to act in the trust thereby created, it should be lawful for the Governor for the time being of the said Colony, with the advice of the
 45 Executive Council thereof, from time to time, by writing under his hand, to name and appoint a new trustee or trustees in the place and stead of any trustee or trustees so dying, resigning, ceasing to reside in the said Colony of New South Wales, or becoming incapable of acting in the said trust, and thereupon the said lands should be con-
 50 veyed and assured by the surviving or continuing trustee or trustees, or by the heirs of the last surviving trustee, their or his heirs or assigns, upon the trusts and for the interests and purposes hereinbefore created, and declared of and concerning the said lands. And whereas the said trustees have for many years past permitted the
 55 members of the Albury Racing Club to have the use and enjoyment of the said lands, for the purpose of horse-racing, and the said Albury Racing Club has expended large sums of money in making, forming, and improving a course for horses to run on, and a tan gallop for horses to train on, and in erecting fences, stands, and other buildings on the said land in connection with horse-racing. And whereas it is desired to erect a new grand-stand, and also a lawn, and generally to permanently improve the said land, for the purposes of the said Albury Racing Club, but no funds to carry out such desire can be raised unless power to lease the said lands be granted by Parliament. And whereas it is expedient that power to lease the said lands be conferred on the said trustees, and that certain powers and privileges be granted to the members of the said Albury Racing Club, as hereinafter set forth: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of the Colony of New South Wales in the present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

date the sixth day of April, in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, under 5 the hand of His Excellency Sir John Young, then Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Colony of New South Wales, and under the seal of the said Colony, all that piece or parcel of land in the said Colony containing by admeasurement one hundred and forty-one acres, be the same more or less, situated in the county of

east boundary of portion thirty-eight aforesaid, being a line bearing south forty chains and four links to a road one chain wide; on the south by that road dividing it from part of D. Reid's portion thirty-six of one hundred and seventy acres, bearing east thirty-five chains and
 5 twenty-three links to the first-mentioned road; and on the east by that road dividing it from E. Mitchell's portion ninety-nine and E. Mitchell's portion one hundred, and from part of W. Wise's portion one hundred and one bearing north forty chains and four links to the point of commencement, with all the rights and appurtenances thereto
 10 belonging, was granted unto James Layton, Robert Brown, William Huon, Samuel Charles Valentine North, and George Day, upon trust, in their discretion to permit and suffer the said land or any part thereof to be used by such persons, clubs, or associations, at such times, and upon such terms and conditions, as the said James Layton,
 15 Robert Brown, William Huon, Samuel Charles Valentine North, and George Day, or any other trustees of the said land appointed as thereinafter provided, should think fit and proper for any of the purposes thereafter described (that is to say)—

20 Firstly—As a racecourse, upon which horse-races might be run, under the direction of any club or association then existing, or which might thereafter be founded for the purpose of horse racing.

Secondly—As a training ground for the purpose of training horses intending to race.

25 Thirdly—As a cricket ground, or place at and upon which the game of cricket might be played.

30 Fourthly—And for any other public amusement or purpose which his Excellency the Governor for the time being of the said Colony, with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, may from time to time declare to be a public amusement or purpose for which the said land or any part thereof should or might be used.

Provided always, and it was thereby declared that it should or might be lawful for the trustees for the time being of the said lands, for any
 35 of the purposes aforesaid, to make all or any such rules and regulations for the use of the said land, or any part thereof, and to vary or alter the same, from time to time, as they might deem fit, for any of the purposes aforesaid. Provided always, and it was thereby declared, when and so often as the said James Layton, Robert Brown, William
 40 Huon, Samuel Charles Valentine North, and George Day, or any trustees or trustee to be appointed by virtue thereof, should die, resign, cease to reside in the Colony of New South Wales, or become incapable to act in the trust thereby created, it should be lawful for the Governor for the time being of the said Colony, with the advice of the
 45 Executive Council thereof, from time to time, by writing under his hand, to name and appoint a new trustee or trustees in the place and stead of any trustee or trustees so dying, resigning, ceasing to reside in the said Colony of New South Wales, or becoming incapable of acting in the said trust, and thereupon the said lands should be con-
 50 veyed and assured by the surviving or continuing trustee or trustees, or by the heirs of the last surviving trustee, their or his heirs or assigns, upon the trusts and for the interests and purposes hereinbefore created, and declared of and concerning the said lands. And whereas the said trustees have for many years past permitted the
 55 members of the Albury Racing Club to have the use and enjoyment of the said lands, for the purpose of horse-racing, and the said Albury Racing Club has expended large sums of money in making, forming, and improving a course for horses to run on, and a tan gallop for horses to train on, and in erecting fences, stands, and other buildings

And whereas it is desired to erect a new grand-stand, and also a lawn, and generally to permanently improve the said land, for the purposes of the said Albury Racing Club, but no funds to carry out such desire can be raised unless power to lease the said lands be granted by Parliament. And whereas it is expedient that power to lease the said lands be conferred on the said trustees, and that certain powers and privileges be granted to the members of the said Albury Racing Club, as hereinafter set forth: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of the Colony of New South Wales in the present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Mitchell's portion ninety-nine and E. Mitchell's portion one-hundred, and from part of W. Wise's portion one hundred and one bearing north forty chains and four links to the point of commencement, with all the rights and appurtenances thereto belonging, was granted unto James Layton, Robert Brown, William Huon, Samuel Charles Valentine North, and George Day, upon trust, in their discretion to permit and suffer the said land or any part thereof to be used by such persons, clubs, or associations, at such times, and upon such terms and conditions, as the said James Layton, Robert Brown, William Huon, Samuel Charles Valentine North, and George Day, or any other trustees of the said land appointed as thereinafter provided, should think fit and proper for any of the purposes thereafter described (that is to say)—

Firstly—As a racecourse, upon which horse-races might be run, under the direction of any club or association then existing, or which might thereafter be founded for the purpose of horse racing.

Secondly—As a training ground for the purpose of training horses intending to race.

east boundary of portion thirty-eight aforesaid, being a line bearing south forty chains and four links to a road one chain wide; on the south by that road dividing it from part of D. Reid's portion thirty-six of one hundred and seventy acres, bearing east thirty-five chains and twenty-three links to the first-mentioned road; and on the east by that 5 road dividing it from E. Mitchell's portion ninety-nine and E. Mitchell's portion one-hundred, and from part of W. Wise's portion one hundred and one bearing north forty chains and four links to the point of commencement, with all the rights and appurtenances thereto belonging, was granted unto James Layton, Robert Brown, William 10 Huon, Samuel Charles Valentine North, and George Day, upon trust, in their discretion to permit and suffer the said land or any part thereof to be used by such persons, clubs, or associations, at such times, and upon such terms and conditions, as the said James Layton, Robert Brown, William Huon, Samuel Charles Valentine North, and 15 George Day, or any other trustees of the said land appointed as thereinafter provided, should think fit and proper for any of the purposes thereafter described (that is to say)—

Firstly—As a racecourse, upon which horse-races might be run, under the direction of any club or association then existing, 20 or which might thereafter be founded for the purpose of horse racing.

Secondly—As a training ground for the purpose of training horses intending to race.

Fourthly—And for any other public amusement or purpose which his Excellency the Governor for the time being of the said Colony, with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, may from time to time declare to be a public amusement 30 or purpose for which the said land or any part thereof should or might be used.

Provided always, and it was thereby declared that it should or might be lawful for the trustees for the time being of the said lands, for any of the purposes aforesaid, to make all or any such rules and regulations 35 for the use of the said land, or any part thereof, and to vary or alter the same, from time to time, as they might deem fit, for any of the purposes aforesaid. Provided always, and it was thereby declared, when and so often as the said James Layton, Robert Brown, William Huon, Samuel Charles Valentine North, and George Day, or any 40 trustees or trustee to be appointed by virtue thereof, should die, resign, cease to reside in the Colony of New South Wales, or become incapable to act in the trust thereby created, it should be lawful for the Governor for the time being of the said Colony, with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, from time to time, by writing under his 45 hand, to name and appoint a new trustee or trustees in the place and stead of any trustee or trustees so dying, resigning, ceasing to reside in the said Colony of New South Wales, or becoming incapable of acting in the said trust, and thereupon the said lands should be conveyed and assured by the surviving or continuing trustee or trustees, 50 or by the heirs of the last surviving trustee, their or his heirs or assigns, upon the trusts and for the interests and purposes hereinbefore created, and declared of and concerning the said lands.
