NOTE.—The words to be omitted are ruled through.

Imported Stock Act Further Amendment.

2. For the purposes of the Imported Stock Act of 1871, and the Imported Stock Act Amendment Act of 1884:—

5 “Imported Stock” means stock arriving by sea ~~or by land~~ from any place whatsoever, and the carcasses, skins, wool, horns, hoofs, and bones of such stock as aforesaid.

Definitions of “Imported Stock” and “Infected Stock.”

10 “Infected Stock,” in addition to the meaning given to that expression in section one of the Imported Stock Act of 1871, includes stock—

(a) Which within the three months immediately preceding has been carried in or on a vessel trading to or from a port outside the Australian Colonies; or,

15 (b) Which is in or on a vessel which at any time during the three months immediately preceding has traded to or from any port in a Colony in respect of which a declaration under section one of this Act was then in force.

And the provisions of the said Acts relating to the stock above-mentioned shall apply to the stock so defined as aforesaid.

3. The provisions of the said Acts relating to fodder shall apply to the manure of any stock as if such manure as aforesaid were included in the definition of “fodder.”

Provisions of Acts
apply to “manure.”

4. All penalties imposed by regulations made under the Imported Stock Act of 1871 or the Imported Stock Act Amendment Act of 1884 may be recovered before a Police or Stipendiary Magistrate or any two justices of the peace in petty sessions.

Recovery of penalties imposed by regulations.

25 5. This Act may be cited as the “Imported Stock Act Further Amendment Act, 1895.”
