Act No. , 1898.

An Act to vest certain land at Broken Hill in Trustees on trust for the erection of a Trades Hall.

WHEREAS it is expedient that certain land described in the Preamble.
Schedule to this Act should be vested in trustees on trust for the erection of a trades hall: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the 5 Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. All the estate, right, title, and interest to the land described in Schedule hereto, is hereby vested in John Henry Cann, Richard Sleath, William James Wise, Francis Harrington, Hugh Martian Land vested in trustees for the erection thereon of a trades hall.

McKerdy, Jabez Wright, Charles Clarke Bannerman, and William Grosse, their executors, administrators, and assigns, but subject to the conditions hereinafter expressed, and on trust for the erection thereon of a hall for the use of Trade Unions registered under the Trade Union Act, 1881.

2. The trustees in the next preceding section mentioned shall hold the said land subject to the conditions following, that is to say:—

- (1) They, the said trustees, shall within three years from the time of the passing of this Act, erect the hall mentioned in the next preceding section.
- (2) They shall within the time aforesaid expend on the erection of the said hall and the buildings connected therewith a sum of not less than five hundred pounds.

And upon the breach of any of the said conditions the said land shall revert in the Crown as of their former estate.

3. The trustees may make rules for regulating the use of the said hall, but such rules shall have no effect until approved by the Colonial Secretary or the Minister for the time being charged with the administration of the Trade Union Act, 1881.

4. This Act may be cited as the "Broken Hill Trades Hall Site Act of 1898."
