No. XXVI.

An Act to fix the time of commencement of the title of certain Homestead Selections and Settlement Leases in order that the applicants may take immediate possession of the land. [Assented to, 15th June, 1896.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that applicants for homestead selections and settlement leases should be enabled to take possession of the land applied for by them without delay: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Crown Lands (Homestead Selections and Settlement Leases) Act, 1896," and shall be read with the Crown Lands Act of 1895, and the Acts specified in the first section thereof.

2. The title to any homestead selection or settlement lease applied for after the commencement of this Act shall commence from the date of application therefor, if valid, and any such application shall withdraw such of the land therein described as may be available for the purpose from any annual lease or occupation license
