This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

Legislative Assembly Chamber, Sydney, 17 August, 1897.

F. W. WEBB. Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO PRIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. . (A.D. 1897.)

An Act to regulate the admission of persons to practise in Courts of Law.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :-

1. The Act of Council eleventh Victoria number fifty-seven, Acts repealed. 5 the Act twentieth Victoria number fourteen, the Act twenty-second Victoria number twenty-three, and the Act thirty-ninth Victoria

- number thirty-two are hereby repealed. 2. From and after the first day of January, one thousand eight Admission to 10 hundred and ninety-nine, every person, being a British subject, of practise. the full age of twenty-one years, and whose good reputation and harming in here held here with the second secon learning in law shall be certified to as hereinafter provided shall be entitled to be, and shall, upon motion made either in Court or in chambers, before any Judge of the Supreme Court of this Colony, be
- 15 admitted and enrolled without fee as a barrister or solicitor of the said Court; and no restriction whatever shall be placed upon the applicant with regard to his employment during the time he is studying for the examination.
- 3. There shall be elected, as hereinafter provided, annually in Examining barristers 20 the month of December for the year next ensuing, by the practising and certificate of barristers of the said Court, certain of their number, being not less than
 - six nor more than twelve, for the examination, in the laws and the 233 -Court

Law Practitioners.

Court practice of this Colony, of candidates for admission as barristers of the said Court, and the certificate of any two of such examining barristers that any candidate has passed a satisfactory examination in such subjects of law applicable to the Colony as may be prescribed 5 from time to time by any general rule of the Supreme Court, and

- that the applicant is a person of good fame and character shall, for the purposes of this Act, be sufficient proof of the good reputation and learning in law of any candidate as aforesaid.
- 4. The mode of election of such examining barristers shall be as Election of 10 follows :-- Nominations signed by one or more of such practising examining barristers. barristers shall be sent in to the Attorney-General not later than the seventh day of December in each year; and in the event of there being more than the requisite number of nominations, the Attorney-General shall cause ballot-papers, containing the names of all candidates
- 15 nominated, to be sent, not later than the fourteenth day of December, to each practising barrister upon the roll for the said Colony, and the name or names of the candidate or candidates objected to by each, and every barrister voting shall be struck out by him, and the ballotpapers shall be returned, not later than the twenty-first day of
- 20 December, to the Attorney-General, who, together with the Crown Solicitor and the Prothonotary of the said Court shall examine the same, and the candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared by the Attorney-General duly elected.
- 5. There shall likewise be elected, and in the same manner, by Examining solicitors 25 the practising solicitors of the said Court, certain of their number, being and certificate of same. not less than six nor more than twelve, for the examination, in the laws and the Court practice of this Colony, of candidates for admission as solicitors of the said Court, and the certificate of any two of such examining solicitors that any candidate has passed a satisfactory 30 examination in such subjects of law applicable to the Colony as may
- be prescribed from time to time by any general rule of the Supreme Court, and that the applicant is a person of good fame and character shall, for the purposes of this Act, be sufficient proof of the good reputation and learning in law of any candidate as aforesaid.
- 6. The mode of election of such examining solicitors shall be the Election of examin-35 same as that hereinbefore provided for the election of examining ing solicitors. barristers, except that nominations shall be made and votes given by practising solicitors upon the roll for the said Colony.
- 7. Should no nomination and election of examiners, or an Proceedings in event 40 insufficient number thereof be made, as provided by this Act, the of non-election of examiners. necessary number of examiners shall be appointed by the Attorney-General and Crown Solicitor respectively.

8. The fees payable to each of the two barristers examining a can- Fees to examiners. didate and certifying to his fitness for admission to practise as a barrister

45 as aforesaid shall be ten guineas, and the fees payable to each of the two solicitors likewise examining and certifying in respect of a candidate for admission to practise as a solicitor as aforesaid shall be seven guineas.

9. Nothing in this Act shall affect the admission as barristers Act not to affect or solicitors of the Supreme Court of this Colony of barristers and admission of barristers and 50 solicitors of the British Courts, and of Colonial Courts, between which solicitors of other and the Supreme Court of this Colony reciprocity exists now or hereafter in respect of such admissions. 10. This Act shall be styled and may be cited as the "Law short title. Practitioners Act of 1897."

Sydney : William Applegate Gullick, Government Printer .- 1897.

9

[3d.]