

New South Wales.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO PRIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. X. (A.D. 1897.)

An Act to enable the Councils of Municipalities constituted by the division of a municipality to borrow for the repayment of their respective proportions of the debts and liabilities of the divided municipality. [Assented to, 28th July, 1897.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) Where under the Municipalities Act of 1867 any municipality has been divided and the two divisions have, before or after the commencement of this Act, been constituted separate municipalities within the meaning of the said Act (the debts and other liabilities attaching to the divided municipality having been previously duly adjusted in accordance with the said Act), it shall be lawful for the council of a municipality, constituted as aforesaid, to borrow moneys—

On division separate municipalities may borrow to repay their respective proportions of the debt.

- (a) for the purpose of repaying its proportion of the debts and other liabilities appearing upon the adjustment aforesaid to be due by or attaching to that municipality; or
- (b) for the purpose of repaying moneys advanced to the council and used for repaying the said proportion of the said debts and other liabilities:

Provided

Municipal Loans.

Provided that any borrowing as aforesaid shall be subject to such of the provisions of the Acts under which the said proportion of the debts or other liabilities was incurred by the council of the divided municipality as are applicable in the circumstances.

(II) A council borrowing under the provisions of this Act may give the security and do the things which might have been given and done by the council of the divided municipality under the Acts in virtue of which the said proportion of the debts or other liabilities was incurred by the council of the last-mentioned municipality :

Provided that the security so given shall be subject to any charge or security given by the council of the divided municipality in respect of a loan to the said council which has not been paid or discharged, and any rights thereunder :

Incorporation of
Acts and short title.

2. This Act shall be construed as one with the Municipalities Act of 1867 and any Acts amending the same, the Municipal Gas Act of 1884, the Municipal Gas Act Amendment Act of 1886, the Municipal Loans Act of 1888, and the Municipal Loans Extension Act of 1893, and may be cited as the "Municipal Loans Act, 1897."

By Authority : WILLIAM APPELEGATE GULLICK, Government Printer, Sydney, 1897.

[3d.]

I Certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 21 July, 1897. }*

F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO PRIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. X. (A.D. 1897.)

An Act to enable the Councils of Municipalities constituted by the division of a municipality to borrow for the repayment of their respective proportions of the debts and liabilities of the divided municipality. [Assented to, 28th July, 1897.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) Where under the Municipalities Act of 1867 any municipality has been divided and the two divisions have, before or after the commencement of this Act, been constituted separate municipalities within the meaning of the said Act (the debts and other liabilities attaching to the divided municipality having been previously duly adjusted in accordance with the said Act), it shall be lawful for the council of a municipality, constituted as aforesaid, to borrow moneys—

(a) for the purpose of repaying its proportion of the debts and other liabilities appearing upon the adjustment aforesaid to be due by or attaching to that municipality; or

(b) for the purpose of repaying moneys advanced to the council and used for repaying the said proportion of the said debts and other liabilities:

On division separate municipalities may borrow to repay their respective proportions of the debt.

Provided

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

WILLIAM McCOURT,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Municipal Loans.

Provided that any borrowing as aforesaid shall be subject to such of the provisions of the Acts under which the said proportion of the debts or other liabilities was incurred by the council of the divided municipality as are applicable in the circumstances.

(II) A council borrowing under the provisions of this Act may give the security and do the things which might have been given and done by the council of the divided municipality under the Acts in virtue of which the said proportion of the debts or other liabilities was incurred by the council of the last-mentioned municipality :

Provided that the security so given shall be subject to any charge or security given by the council of the divided municipality in respect of a loan to the said council which has not been paid or discharged, and any rights thereunder :

Incorporation of
Acts and short title.

2. This Act shall be construed as one with the Municipalities Act of 1867 and any Acts amending the same, the Municipal Gas Act of 1884, the Municipal Gas Act Amendment Act of 1886, the Municipal Loans Act of 1888, and the Municipal Loans Extension Act of 1893, and may be cited as the "Municipal Loans Act, 1897."

In the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.

*Government House,
Sydney, 28th July, 1897.*

HAMPDEN,
Governor.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 7 July, 1897.* }

F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO PRIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. .

An Act to enable the Councils of Municipalities constituted by the division of a municipality to borrow for the repayment of their respective proportions of the debts and liabilities of the divided municipality.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 5 1. (1) Where under the Municipalities Act of 1867 any municipality has been divided and the two divisions have, before or after the commencement of this Act, been constituted separate municipalities within the meaning of the said Act (the debts and other liabilities attaching to the divided municipality having been previously duly
- 10 adjusted in accordance with the said Act), it shall be lawful for the council of a municipality, constituted as aforesaid, to borrow moneys—
- (a) for the purpose of repaying its proportion of the debts and other liabilities appearing upon the adjustment aforesaid to be due by or attaching to that municipality; or
- 15 (b) for the purpose of repaying moneys advanced to the council and used for repaying the said proportion of the said debts and other liabilities:

On division separate municipalities may borrow to repay their respective proportions of the debt.

Municipal Loans.

Provided that any borrowing as aforesaid shall be subject to such of the provisions of the Acts under which the said proportion of the debts or other liabilities was incurred by the council of the divided municipality as are applicable in the circumstances.

5 (11) A council borrowing under the provisions of this Act may give the security and do the things which might have been given and done by the council of the divided municipality under the Acts in virtue of which the said proportion of the debts or other liabilities was incurred by the council of the last-mentioned municipality :

10 Provided that the security so given shall be subject to any charge or security given by the council of the divided municipality in respect of a loan to the said council which has not been paid or discharged, and any rights thereunder :

2. This Act shall be construed as one with the Municipalities ^{Incorporation of} Acts and short title. 15 Act of 1867 and any Acts amending the same, the Municipal Gas Act of 1884, the Municipal Gas Act Amendment Act of 1886, the Municipal Loans Act of 1888, and the Municipal Loans Extension Act of 1893, and may be cited as the "Municipal Loans Act, 1897."

Sydney : William Applegate Gullick, Government Printer.—1897.

[3d.]