Ibid. s. 4.

16 Vic. No. 21.

Clerks of petty sessions to cause previous notice of licensing meeting to be given.

11 Vic. No. 16, s. 5.

5. Every person who is desirous of obtaining an auctioneer's license shall (in order that his character may be ascertained), on or before the first Tuesday in November in each year, deliver to the clerk or the person officiating as clerk of the petty sessions for the city, town, place, or police district within which such person resides a notice in writing of his intention to apply for the same, which notice shall be in the form or to the effect of the form in the Fourth Schedule hereto.

6. The clerk of every such petty sessions, or the person officiating as such, shall cause a list of the names and places of abode of all such applicants to be posted up on or before the third Tuesday in November in every year in some conspicuous place inside, and also outside, every police office at which such petty sessions are held, and the same shall be kept so posted up until after the day of the annual licensing meeting hereinafter mentioned.

7. The clerk of petty sessions acting for each licensing district shall cause a notice of each annual licensing meeting to be inserted at least one month before the holding thereof in the Gazette, and also to be affixed to the door of the court-house in which the same is appointed to be holden, but no omission or irregularity in any such notice shall affect the authority vested in any annual licensing meeting held conformably in other respects to the provisions of this Act.

Auctioneers' Licensing.

8. A general meeting (to be called the annual meeting for the licensing of auctioneers) of the justices for or usually residing in each police district of New South Wales in which petty sessions are held shall be holden in their respective court-houses or usual places of meeting on the fourth Tuesday in November in every year for the special purpose of taking into consideration applications for such licenses as aforesaid, and any two justices shall be sufficient to constitute such meeting:

Annual licensing meeting.

11 Vic. No. 16, s. 6.

Provided always that whenever there are not two justices resident in any police district where such meeting is held, then one justice so resident shall be sufficient to constitute such meeting.

9. The justices attending such meeting may adjourn the consideration of all or any of the applications before them from the day of such annual licensing meeting to such other day or days as the said justices shall from time to time agree upon:

Power to adjourn licensing meetings.

Ibid. s. 7.

Provided always that such adjournments do not in the whole exceed one month from the day appointed for the said annual licensing meeting.

10. Whenever at any such annual licensing meeting, or any adjournment thereof, two justices usually residing in such district are not present by one of the clock of that day at the court-house or other place appointed for the meeting, any one justice resident in such district being present may adjourn or further adjourn the said meeting for one week (any limitation hereinbefore prescribed to the contrary notwithstanding), and may give notice of such adjournment to all other justices resident in such district, and if at such adjourned meeting there are not present by one of the clock of the day fixed for the adjourned meeting two justices usually resident in such district one such justice may do all such acts as an annual licensing meeting is by this Act empowered to do.

In certain cases one justice invested with powers of an annual licensing meeting.

Ibid. s. 8.

11. Every such annual licensing meeting and every adjournment thereof shall be held in open court, and every consideration of any application thereat shall be deemed and taken to be a judicial proceeding, and it shall be the duty of the justices attending such meeting to refuse a license to any applicant of bad or doubtful character.

Annual licensing meetings to be held in open court.

Ibid. s. 9.

12. The justices assembled at and forming such annual licensing meetings may grant to such persons as are approved by such justices, or the majority of them, certificates authorising such licenses as aforesaid in the form in the Fifth Schedule hereto.

Certificates to be granted.

12 Vic. No. 7, s. 11.

14. Every such certificate shall be null and void unless the same and the sum required to be paid for the license thereby authorised are lodged in the office of the Colonial Treasurer or of such other person on or before the thirty-first day of December next ensuing each annual licensing meeting, and the said Colonial Treasurer or other person shall forthwith, upon the receipt of every such certificate and sum, issue the license thereby authorised and register the same in his office.

15. Notwithstanding default in lodging any such certificate or sum whereby such certificate shall become void, the Governor may, upon representation to him made of the circumstances occasioning such default, and on payment on or before the thirty-first day of January of not more than five pounds in addition to the sum payable for the license, direct the issue of the license authorised by such certificate.

16. Whenever it appears to a majority of the entire number of justices residing within any city, town, or police district in petty sessions assembled, or any three of them if such majority is more than three, that any injustice or material injury of a public nature will be occasioned by delay in the granting of any license under this Act until the next annual meeting for the licensing of auctioneers, such justices may, if they in their discretion think fit, grant at any period of the year the certificate required under this Act, signed by such justices, authorising the issue of a license, and the Colonial Treasurer or such other person shall issue the license applied for, to continue in force until the first day of January next ensuing, unless sooner forfeited.

17. The Colonial Treasurer or such other person shall cause a list of the names and places of abode of all persons duly licensed under this Act, with the description of license granted to each, and in the case of district licenses the police districts for which such licenses have been granted, to be published in the Gazette within one month after such person is so duly licensed as aforesaid.

18. No auctioneer shall deal in, sell, or put up to sale or resale any estate, goods, or effects whatsoever by public sale, or by way of auction as aforesaid, after sunset or before sunrise of any day throughout the year, and every such auctioneer or seller by commission, or person acting in such capacity, who offends against this section shall for every such offence forfeit and pay a penalty of not less than two pounds nor more than fifty pounds.

19. If any person sells, or offers to sell by way of auction as aforesaid, without having obtained an auctioneer's license, such person shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of two hundred pounds.

Provided that—

(a) the sheriff of New South Wales, by himself or his deputy, shall have power and authority to sell by public auction all goods and other property, of whatsoever kind, taken by him in execution, without taking out any license under this Act.

(b)

- (b) the bailiffs of the Courts of Petty Sessions in New South Wales, ^{13 Vic. No. 73, s. 1.} and the registrars and bailiffs of District Courts and their ^{22 Vic. No. 78, s. 82.} assistants, may sell by public auction all property of whatever kind, taken by them in execution by virtue of process issued from the said Courts, without taking out any license under this Act ;
- (c) all leases of Crown lands, or any property within New South ^{13 Vic. No. 73, s. 2.} Wales belonging to the Crown, or to intestate estates, may be sold by public auction by any clerk of the bench, chief constable, or other person duly authorised in that behalf by the Governor, without taking out any license under this Act ;
- (d) Every poundkeeper appointed under the "Impounding Act, ^{Poundkeepers.} 189," may sell any animal, as defined by the said Act, im- ^{29 Vic. No. 2, s. 20.} pounded in the public pound of which he is the keeper, without taking out any license under this Act ; and
- (e) this Act shall not apply to any person who is authorised by any Act heretofore or hereafter passed, to sell by auction without an auctioneer's license.

20. (1) All fines, penalties, and forfeitures imposed by this ^{Recovery of} Act which exceed the sum of twenty pounds shall be recovered by ^{penalties, &c.} action of debt, statement of claim, or information in the Supreme ^{11 Vic. No. 16, s. 26.} Court of New South Wales, and all fines, penalties, and forfeitures imposed by this Act which do not exceed the sum of twenty pounds shall be recovered before any two or more justices of the peace in a summary manner, and every such fine, penalty, and forfeiture respectively shall, if not paid within six days after judgment or conviction, be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, and for want of sufficient distress by imprisonment of such offender for any time not exceeding six months, or until such fine be paid.

(2) The money arising from all such fines, penalties, and ^{Appropriation of} forfeitures shall be paid, the one moiety thereof to Her Majesty for ^{penalties.} the public uses of the said Colony and in support of the Government thereof, as may be appointed by any Act, and the other moiety to and for the use of such persons as shall inform or sue for the same :

But nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to prevent Her Majesty from pardoning the offender, and from remitting the whole or any part of any such fine, penalty, or forfeiture as to Her Majesty shall seem meet.

THIS Bill consolidates the following Acts :—

- 11 Vic. No. 16;
- 12 Vic. No. 7, s. 11;
- 13 Vic. No. 13;
- 16 Vic. No. 21;
- 22 Vic. No. 18, s. 82.

Clause 8. The word "one" has been inserted before "such justice" to supply what was apparently an omission.

Clause 14. The words "by all such justices as aforesaid" which appeared in section 14 of 11 Vic. No. 16, have been changed to "by such justices." The former phrase, if strictly read, was inconsistent with the wording of Schedule D of the same Act, and would make the issue of a license depend on the concurrence of the dissenting minority, as well as the assenting majority, of justices—an absurdity.

The specific repeal (by 16 Vic. No. 21) of section 19 of 11 Vic. No. 16, appears clearly to carry with it the incidental repeal of section 23, which is now omitted.

I certify that, except as hereinbefore mentioned, this Bill solely consolidates and in no way alters, adds to, or amends the law contained in the Acts therein consolidated.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Act No. , 1898.

An Act to consolidate the Acts relating to the Licensing of Auctioneers.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Auctioneers' Licensing Act, 1898." Short title and repeals.

(2) The Acts mentioned in the First Schedule hereto are, First Schedule. to the extent therein mentioned, hereby repealed.

2. In this Act, unless the context or subject matter otherwise indicates or requires, "auctioneer" means any person who exercises the trade or business of an auctioneer or seller by commission at any sale of any estate, goods, or effects whatsoever, by outcry, knocking Interpretation. 11 Vic. No. 16, s. 2.

Auctioneers' Licensing.

down of hammer, candle, lot, parcel, or any other mode of sale by auction, or whereby the highest bidder is deemed to be the purchaser, or who acts in the capacity of an auctioneer or seller by commission as aforesaid.

3. No person shall deal in, sell, or put up to sale or re-sale any estate, goods, or effects whatsoever by public sale or by way of auction as aforesaid without having taken out an auctioneer's license. No person to act as auctioneer without taking out an auctioneer's license.

4. (1) Every such license shall set forth the name and place of abode of the person taking out the same, and shall be either— 11 Vic. No. 16, s. 2.

(a) a general license in the form contained in the Second Schedule hereto, which shall be in force for all parts of New South Wales, and for which the sum of fifteen pounds shall be paid; or Form of license. Ibid. s. 2. Second Schedule.

(b) a district license in the form contained in the Third Schedule hereto which shall be in force for the police district only for which the same is taken out, and for which the sum of two pounds shall be paid: Third Schedule.

Provided that no person shall be allowed to act as auctioneer in the police district of Sydney who has not taken out a general license.

(2) All such auctioneers' licenses shall be in force until the first day of January next after the time the same were taken out, unless sooner forfeited, and no greater sum shall be payable upon such licenses than for the proportionate period of the year the same may have to run, calculating for the whole of the year at the respective rates hereinbefore mentioned.

5. Every person who is desirous of obtaining an auctioneer's license shall (in order that his character may be ascertained), on or before the first Tuesday in November in each year, deliver to the clerk or the person officiating as clerk of the petty sessions for the city, town, place, or police district within which such person resides a notice in writing of his intention to apply for the same, which notice shall be in the form or to the effect of the form in the Fourth Schedule hereto. Manner of applying for license. 11 Vic. No. 16, s. 3. Fourth Schedule.

6. The clerk of every such petty sessions, or the person officiating as such, shall cause a list of the names and places of abode of all such applicants to be posted up on or before the third Tuesday in November in every year in some conspicuous place inside, and also outside, every police office at which such petty sessions are held, and the same shall be kept so posted up until after the day of the annual licensing meeting hereinafter mentioned. Clerks of petty sessions to cause lists of applicants to be posted up. Ibid. s. 4. 16 Vic. No. 21.

7. The clerk of petty sessions acting for each licensing district shall cause a notice of each annual licensing meeting to be inserted at least one month before the holding thereof in the Gazette, and also to be affixed to the door of the court-house in which the same is appointed to be holden, but no omission or irregularity in any such notice shall affect the authority vested in any annual licensing meeting held conformably in other respects to the provisions of this Act. Clerks of petty sessions to cause previous notice of licensing meeting to be given. 11 Vic. No. 16, s. 5.

Auctioneers' Licensing.

8. A general meeting (to be called the annual meeting for the licensing of auctioneers) of the justices for or usually residing in each police district of New South Wales in which petty sessions are held shall be holden in their respective court-houses or usual places of meeting on the fourth Tuesday in November in every year for the special purpose of taking into consideration applications for such licenses as aforesaid, and any two justices shall be sufficient to constitute such meeting:

Annual licensing meeting.

11 Vic. No. 16, s. 6.

Provided always that whenever there are not two justices resident in any police district where such meeting is held, then one justice so resident shall be sufficient to constitute such meeting.

9. The justices attending such meeting may adjourn the consideration of all or any of the applications before them from the day of such annual licensing meeting to such other day or days as the said justices shall from time to time agree upon:

Power to adjourn licensing meetings.

Ibid. s. 7.

Provided always that such adjournments do not in the whole exceed one month from the day appointed for the said annual licensing meeting.

10. Whenever at any such annual licensing meeting, or any adjournment thereof, two justices usually residing in such district are not present by one of the clock of that day at the court-house or other place appointed for the meeting, any one justice resident in such district being present may adjourn or further adjourn the said meeting for one week (any limitation hereinbefore prescribed to the contrary notwithstanding), and may give notice of such adjournment to all other justices resident in such district, and if at such adjourned meeting there are not present by one of the clock of the day fixed for the adjourned meeting two justices usually resident in such district one such justice may do all such acts as an annual licensing meeting is by this Act empowered to do.

In certain cases one justice invested with powers of an annual licensing meeting.

Ibid. s. 8.

11. Every such annual licensing meeting and every adjournment thereof shall be held in open court, and every consideration of any application thereat shall be deemed and taken to be a judicial proceeding, and it shall be the duty of the justices attending such meeting to refuse a license to any applicant of bad or doubtful character.

Annual licensing meetings to be held in open court.

Ibid. s. 9.

12. The justices assembled at and forming such annual licensing meetings may grant to such persons as are approved by such justices, or the majority of them, certificates authorising such licenses as aforesaid in the form in the Fifth Schedule hereto.

Certificates to be granted.

Ibid. s. 10.

16 Vic. No. 21.

Fifth Schedule.

13. The justices by whom any such certificates are granted shall, within fourteen days after the granting thereof, transmit to the Colonial Treasurer, or to such other person as may be appointed by the Governor for the purpose of issuing licenses under this Act, a list signed by such justices specifying the names and residences of all the persons to whom they have granted such certificates.

List of certificates to be sent to the Colonial Treasurer.

16 Vic. No. 21.

Auctioneers' Licensing.

14. Every such certificate shall be null and void unless the same and the sum required to be paid for the license thereby authorised are lodged in the office of the Colonial Treasurer or of such other person on or before the thirty-first day of December next ensuing each annual licensing meeting, and the said Colonial Treasurer or other person shall forthwith, upon the receipt of every such certificate and sum, issue the license thereby authorised and register the same in his office.

Certificates to be void unless lodged and money paid thereon as herein provided.

11 Vic. No. 16, s. 12.

15. Notwithstanding default in lodging any such certificate or sum whereby such certificate shall become void, the Governor may, upon representation to him made of the circumstances occasioning such default, and on payment on or before the thirty-first day of January of not more than five pounds in addition to the sum payable for the license, direct the issue of the license authorised by such certificate.

Governor may authorise a license for a defaulter upon an additional payment.

Ibid. s. 13.

16. Whenever it appears to a majority of the entire number of justices residing within any city, town, or police district in petty sessions assembled, or any three of them if such majority is more than three, that any injustice or material injury of a public nature will be occasioned by delay in the granting of any license under this Act until the next annual meeting for the licensing of auctioneers, such justices may, if they in their discretion think fit, grant at any period of the year the certificate required under this Act, signed by such justices, authorising the issue of a license, and the Colonial Treasurer or such other person shall issue the license applied for, to continue in force until the first day of January next ensuing, unless sooner forfeited.

Majority of resident justices may specially recommend licenses at any time.

Ibid. s. 14.

16 Vic. No. 21.

17. The Colonial Treasurer or such other person shall cause a list of the names and places of abode of all persons duly licensed under this Act, with the description of license granted to each, and in the case of district licenses the police districts for which such licenses have been granted, to be published in the Gazette within one month after such person is so duly licensed as aforesaid.

Colonial Treasurer to publish lists of licensed auctioneers.

11 Vic. No. 16, s. 15.

18. No auctioneer shall deal in, sell, or put up to sale or resale any estate, goods, or effects whatsoever by public sale, or by way of auction as aforesaid, after sunset or before sunrise of any day throughout the year, and every such auctioneer or seller by commission, or person acting in such capacity, who offends against this section shall for every such offence forfeit and pay a penalty of not less than two pounds nor more than fifty pounds.

Auctions after sunset or before sunrise prohibited.

Ibid. s. 24.

19. If any person sells, or offers to sell by way of auction as aforesaid, without having obtained an auctioneer's license, such person shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of two hundred pounds.

Penalty for selling by auction without license.

Memo. and Certificate to accompany the Auctioneers' Licensing Bill.

THIS Bill consolidates the following Acts:—

- 11 Vic. No. 16;
- 12 Vic. No. 7, s. 11;
- 13 Vic. No. 13;
- 16 Vic. No. 21;
- 22 Vic. No. 18, s. 82.

Clause 8. The word "one" has been inserted before "such justice" to supply what was apparently an omission.

Clause 14. The words "by all such justices as aforesaid" which appeared in section 14 of 11 Vic. No. 16, have been changed to "by such justices." The former phrase, if strictly read, was inconsistent with the wording of Schedule D of the same Act, and would make the issue of a license depend on the concurrence of the dissenting minority, as well as the assenting majority, of justices—an absurdity.

The specific repeal (by 16 Vic. No. 21) of section 19 of 11 Vic. No. 16, appears clearly to carry with it the incidental repeal of section 23, which is now omitted.

I certify that, except as hereinbefore mentioned, this Bill solely consolidates and in no way alters, adds to, or amends the law contained in the Acts therein consolidated.

Commissioner for the Consolidation of the Statute Law.

Legislative Council.

No. , 1898.

A BILL

To consolidate the Acts relating to the Licensing of Auctioneers.

[MR. WANT ;—30 Jure, 1893.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the "Auctioneers' Licensing Act, 1898." Short title and repeals.

(2) The Acts mentioned in the First Schedule hereto are, First Schedule. to the extent therein mentioned, hereby repealed.

2. In this Act, unless the context or subject matter otherwise Interpretation. indicates or requires, "auctioneer" means any person who exercises 11 Vic. No. 16, s. 2. the trade or business of an auctioneer or seller by commission at any sale of any estate, goods, or effects whatsoever, by outcry, knocking down down of hammer, candle, lot, parcel, or any other mode of sale by auction, or whereby the highest bidder is deemed to be the purchaser, or who acts in the capacity of an auctioneer or seller by commission as aforesaid.

No person to act as auctioneer without taking out an auctioneer's license.

11 Vic. No. 16, s. 2.

Form of license.

Ibid. s. 2.

Second Schedule.

Third Schedule.

3. No person shall deal in, sell, or put up to sale or re-sale any estate, goods, or effects whatsoever by public sale or by way of auction as aforesaid without having taken out an auctioneer's license.

4. (1) Every such license shall set forth the name and place of abode of the person taking out the same, and shall be either—

(a) a general license in the form contained in the Second Schedule hereto, which shall be in force for all parts of New South Wales, and for which the sum of fifteen pounds shall be paid; or

(b) a district license in the form contained in the Third Schedule hereto which shall be in force for the police district only for which the same is taken out, and for which the sum of two pounds shall be paid :

Provided that no person shall be allowed to act as auctioneer in the police district of Sydney who has not taken out a general license.

(2) All such auctioneers' licenses shall be in force until the first day of January next after the time the same were taken out, unless sooner forfeited, and no greater sum shall be payable upon such licenses than for the proportionate period of the year the same may have to run, calculating for the whole of the year at the respective rates hereinbefore mentioned.

Manner of applying for license.

11 Vic. No. 16, s. 3.

Fourth Schedule.

Clerks of petty sessions to cause lists of applicants to be posted up.

Ibid. s. 4.

16 Vic. No. 21.

5. Every person who is desirous of obtaining an auctioneer's license shall (in order that his character may be ascertained), on or before the first Tuesday in November in each year, deliver to the clerk or the person officiating as clerk of the petty sessions for the city, town, place, or police district within which such person resides a notice in writing of his intention to apply for the same, which notice shall be in the form or to the effect of the form in the Fourth Schedule hereto.

6. The clerk of every such petty sessions, or the person officiating as such, shall cause a list of the names and places of abode of all such applicants to be posted up on or before the third Tuesday in November in every year in some conspicuous place inside, and also outside, every police office at which such petty sessions are held, and the same shall be kept so posted up until after the day of the annual licensing meeting hereinafter mentioned.

Clerks of petty sessions to cause previous notice of licensing meeting to be given.

11 Vic. No. 16, s. 5.

7. The clerk of petty sessions acting for each licensing district shall cause a notice of each annual licensing meeting to be inserted at least one month before the holding thereof in the Gazette, and also to be affixed to the door of the court-house in which the same is appointed to be holden, but no omission or irregularity in any such notice shall affect the authority vested in any annual licensing meeting held conformably in other respects to the provisions of this Act.

8. A general meeting (to be called the annual meeting for the licensing of auctioneers) of the justices for or usually residing in each police district of New South Wales in which petty sessions are held shall be holden in their respective court-houses or usual places of meeting on the fourth Tuesday in November in every year for the special purpose of taking into consideration applications for such licenses as aforesaid, and any two justices shall be sufficient to constitute such meeting:

Annual licensing meeting.

11 Vic No. 16, s. 6.

Provided always that whenever there are not two justices resident in any police district where such meeting is held, then one justice so resident shall be sufficient to constitute such meeting.

9. The justices attending such meeting may adjourn the consideration of all or any of the applications before them from the day of such annual licensing meeting to such other day or days as the said justices shall from time to time agree upon:

Power to adjourn licensing meetings.

Ibid. s. 7.

Provided always that such adjournments do not in the whole exceed one month from the day appointed for the said annual licensing meeting.

10. Whenever at any such annual licensing meeting, or any adjournment thereof, two justices usually residing in such district are not present by one of the clock of that day at the court-house or other place appointed for the meeting, any one justice resident in such district being present may adjourn or further adjourn the said meeting for one week (any limitation hereinbefore prescribed to the contrary notwithstanding), and may give notice of such adjournment to all other justices resident in such district, and if at such adjourned meeting there are not present by one of the clock of the day fixed for the adjourned meeting two justices usually resident in such district one such justice may do all such acts as an annual licensing meeting is by this Act empowered to do.

In certain cases one justice invested with powers of an annual licensing meeting.

Ibid. s. 8.

11. Every such annual licensing meeting and every adjournment thereof shall be held in open court, and every consideration of any application thereat shall be deemed and taken to be a judicial proceeding, and it shall be the duty of the justices attending such meeting to refuse a license to any applicant of bad or doubtful character.

Annual licensing meetings to be held in open court.

Ibid. s. 9.

12. The justices assembled at and forming such annual licensing meetings may grant to such persons as are approved by such justices, or the majority of them, certificates authorising such licenses as aforesaid in the form in the Fifth Schedule hereto.

Certificates to be granted.

Ibid. s. 10.

16 Vic. No. 21.

Fifth Schedule.

13. The justices by whom any such certificates are granted shall, within fourteen days after the granting thereof, transmit to the Colonial Treasurer, or to such other person as may be appointed by the Governor for the purpose of issuing licenses under this Act, a list signed by such justices specifying the names and residences of all the persons to whom they have granted such certificates.

11 Vic. No. 16, s. 25.
13 Vic. No. 13, ss. 1, 2.

Exemptions.
12 Vic. No. 7, s. 11.

14. Every such certificate shall be null and void unless the same and the sum required to be paid for the license thereby authorised are lodged in the office of the Colonial Treasurer or of such other person on or before the thirty-first day of December next ensuing each annual licensing meeting, and the said Colonial Treasurer or other person shall forthwith, upon the receipt of every such certificate and sum, issue the license thereby authorised and register the same in his office.

15. Notwithstanding default in lodging any such certificate or sum whereby such certificate shall become void, the Governor may, upon representation to him made of the circumstances occasioning such default, and on payment on or before the thirty-first day of January of not more than five pounds in addition to the sum payable for the license, direct the issue of the license authorised by such certificate.

16. Whenever it appears to a majority of the entire number of justices residing within any city, town, or police district in petty sessions assembled, or any three of them if such majority is more than three, that any injustice or material injury of a public nature will be occasioned by delay in the granting of any license under this Act until the next annual meeting for the licensing of auctioneers, such justices may, if they in their discretion think fit, grant at any period of the year the certificate required under this Act, signed by such justices, authorising the issue of a license, and the Colonial Treasurer or such other person shall issue the license applied for, to continue in force until the first day of January next ensuing, unless sooner forfeited.

17. The Colonial Treasurer or such other person shall cause a list of the names and places of abode of all persons duly licensed under this Act, with the description of license granted to each, and in the case of district licenses the police districts for which such licenses have been granted, to be published in the Gazette within one month after such person is so duly licensed as aforesaid.

18. No auctioneer shall deal in, sell, or put up to sale or resale any estate, goods, or effects whatsoever by public sale, or by way of auction as aforesaid, after sunset or before sunrise of any day throughout the year, and every such auctioneer or seller by commission, or person acting in such capacity, who offends against this section shall for every such offence forfeit and pay a penalty of not less than two pounds nor more than fifty pounds.

19. If any person sells, or offers to sell by way of auction as aforesaid, without having obtained an auctioneer's license, such person shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of two hundred pounds.

Provided that—

- (a) the sheriff of New South Wales, by himself or his deputy, shall have power and authority to sell by public auction all goods and other property, of whatsoever kind, taken by him in execution, without taking out any license under this Act.

(b)

- (b) the bailiffs of the Courts of Petty Sessions in New South Wales, and the registrars and bailiffs of District Courts and their assistants, may sell by public auction all property of whatever kind, taken by them in execution by virtue of process issued from the said Courts, without taking out any license under this Act; ^{13 Vic. No. 73, s. 1.}
^{22 Vic. No. 73, s. 82.}
- (c) all leases of Crown lands, or any property within New South Wales belonging to the Crown, or to intestate estates, may be sold by public auction by any clerk of the bench, chief constable, or other person duly authorised in that behalf by the Governor, without taking out any license under this Act; ^{13 Vic. No. 73, s. 2.}
- (d) Every poundkeeper appointed under the "Impounding Act, 189," may sell any animal, as defined by the said Act, impounded in the public pound of which he is the keeper, without taking out any license under this Act; and ^{Poundkeepers.}
^{23 Vic. No. 2, s. 20.}
- (e) this Act shall not apply to any person who is authorised by any Act heretofore or hereafter passed, to sell by auction without an auctioneer's license.

20. (1) All fines, penalties, and forfeitures imposed by this Act which exceed the sum of twenty pounds shall be recovered by action of debt, statement of claim, or information in the Supreme Court of New South Wales, and all fines, penalties, and forfeitures imposed by this Act which do not exceed the sum of twenty pounds shall be recovered before any two or more justices of the peace in a summary manner, and every such fine, penalty, and forfeiture respectively shall, if not paid within six days after judgment or conviction, be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, and for want of sufficient distress by imprisonment of such offender for any time not exceeding six months, or until such fine be paid. ^{Recovery of penalties, &c.}
^{11 Vic. No. 16, s. 26.}

(2) The money arising from all such fines, penalties, and forfeitures shall be paid, the one moiety thereof to Her Majesty for the public uses of the said Colony and in support of the Government thereof, as may be appointed by any Act, and the other moiety to and for the use of such persons as shall inform or sue for the same: ^{Appropriation of penalties.}

But nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to prevent Her Majesty from pardoning the offender, and from remitting the whole or any part of any such fine, penalty, or forfeiture as to Her Majesty shall seem meet.
