No. XXIX. (A.D. 1897.)

An Act to consolidate the Acts for better securing the payment of Debts due to Workmen, Tradesmen, and others. [Assented to, 6th December, 1897.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Contractors' Debts Act of 1897." Short title.

2. The Acts mentioned in the First Schedule hereto are hereby repealed. Repeal. First Schedule.

3. If in any proceeding at law in any Court of competent jurisdiction, any sum is found due and payable by the defendant for work and labour, or for material, or for material and work and labour, done, supplied, or provided by the plaintiff, and the character of the work, or material, and the locality in which the same has been done, supplied, or provided appears from the evidence, the presiding Judge or justice of the peace shall upon the plaintiff's application sign and deliver to him a certificate of the cause of debts in the form in the Second Schedule, which for the purposes of this Act shall be conclusive. Workman or tradesman suing contractor may obtain a certificate of cause of debt. 42 Vic. No. 22, s. 2. 52 Vic. No. 3, ss. 2, 3. Second Schedule.

4. No such certificate shall be given for any sum due and payable for work and labour if the work appears to have been done upon a movable chattel of such a description that it would be practicable for a workman to have a lien thereon by retaining the same in his actual possession. Certificate not to be given if workman could have had a lien. 42 Vic. No. 22, s. 2.

Contractors' Debts.

Certificate to be for no more than sixty days' wages.
Ibid.

5. If the sum so found due for work and labour is in respect of daily, weekly, or monthly wages, and exceeds the amount of sixty days' wages, such certificate shall be given for the amount of sixty days' wages and no more.

Limit of action by tradesmen.
52 Vic. No. 3, s. 4.

6. All proceedings under this Act in respect of debts due for material or for material and work and labour shall be instituted within three months after any such debt accrues due.

Process for obtaining payment of debt out of moneys due to the contractor.
42 Vic. No. 22, s. 3.
52 Vic. No. 3, ss. 2, 3.
Third Schedule.

7. If the work done or material supplied be work or material or part of or incidental to work or material for the doing or supplying of which any moneys may be due or accruing due to the defendant in such proceeding (hereinafter referred to as the contractor) under any express or implied contract with any third person, the plaintiff in such proceeding (hereinafter referred to as the workman if the sum sued for and found to be due is on account of work done, or as the tradesman if the said sum is on account of material or material and work and labour) may obtain payment of the sum mentioned in the certificate out of such moneys by serving on such third person (hereinafter referred to as the contractee) a notice in the form in the Third Schedule, together with a copy of the certificate issued to him as aforesaid.

Service of notice to operate as an assignment of moneys due to the contractor.
42 Vic. No. 22, s. 4.

8. Upon service as aforesaid all moneys due or to accrue due as aforesaid from the contractee to the contractor to the amount of the workman's or tradesman's debt specified in the certificate shall be deemed to be effectually assigned by the contractor to such workman or tradesman, but subject to any prior assignment thereof under this Act binding upon the contractor and contractee at the time of service being effected on the contractee as aforesaid.

After service contractee to pay the workman's or tradesman's debt out of moneys due to contractor.
Ibid. s. 5.

Priority of assignments.
Ibid. s. 6.

10. The priority of assignments as aforesaid shall be determined by the order of service of notice on the contractee, but all notices served within seven days of the first notice served in respect of the same contractor shall be deemed to have been served at the same time for the purpose of securing the equal distribution of moneys due and accruing due to the contractor amongst all workmen and tradesmen serving notice within such period of seven days ratably in proportion to the amounts of their respective debts until payment of all in full, and until such period of seven days has expired the contractee shall not pay any such debt out of the moneys due and accruing due as aforesaid.

If contractee fail to pay, workman or tradesman may sue for the moneys assigned.
Ibid. s. 7.

11. If the contractee fails to pay as aforesaid, the workman or tradesman may sue for and recover in his own name the moneys assigned as aforesaid as if the assignment of the debt due to the contractor were valid at law, and by any proceeding which the contractor might have taken had there been no assignment under this Act, but subject to any defence which would have been available against the contractor in such proceeding, except a defence founded on the act of the contractee after service upon him of the notice and the copy of the certificate aforesaid.

Upon satisfaction of debt assignment to cease to operate.
Ibid. s. 8.

12. Upon satisfaction by any other means than as aforesaid of the whole or part of the debt mentioned in any certificate under this Act, or on the setting aside of the judgment or order in respect of which any such certificate was given, any assignment effected under this Act in respect of such debt shall in the whole or in part cease to be operative, but without prejudice to any bonâ fide payment or other dealing by the contractee on the footing of such assignment prior

Workman or tradesman upon payment to sign discharge.

Ibid. s. 9.
Fourth Schedule.

14. The workman or tradesman when or at any time after he takes out a summons or plaint against the defendant may by leave of the court in which the summons or plaint is taken out, or of the Judge or magistrate thereof, serve a notice of the action upon the contractee specifying the sum sued for. Such notice shall be in the form contained in the Fifth Schedule or to the effect thereof, and thereupon any moneys due or accruing due by the contractee to the defendant, or so much thereof as the Court, Judge, or magistrate shall order, shall be attached and shall remain in the hands of the contractee until judgment is given in the action, unless the said Court, Judge, or magistrate shall otherwise order on the application of the contractee, or of the defendant.

After notice of action served on contractee moneys may be attached.

Ibid. s. 10.

17. Every contractor against whom a certificate is granted shall on demand furnish to every workman employed by him, and to every tradesman to whom he is indebted for any material, or material and work and labour, a certificate in the form in the Sixth Schedule of this Act, and setting forth the name and addition of his contractee. And every contractor refusing or neglecting to furnish, or making any untrue statement in such certificate, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds, recoverable at the nearest court of petty sessions.

Contractor to furnish information as to contractee.

Ibid. s. 14.
Sixth Schedule.

18. A contractor who sublets any part of the work shall be responsible to the extent provided for by this Act for the wages of the workmen employed by, and for material, or material and work and labour supplied for the sub-contractor; and a workman employed by, or a tradesman supplying material, or material and work and labour for a sub-contractor, may proceed against the contractor, as in this Act provided, as if he had been directly employed by, or had directly contracted with him.

Contractor to be liable for wages or moneys due by sub-contractor.

Ibid. s. 13.

19. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prejudice any remedy which the workman or tradesman may have against the contractor in respect of the debt due to him, or save as expressly provided to affect any right subsisting under any contract as aforesaid, or otherwise between the contractor and contractee.

Memo. and Certificate to accompany the Contractors' Debts Bill.

THIS Bill consolidates two Acts, viz., Contractors' Debts Act, 42 Vic. No. 22, Contractors' Debts Amending Act, 52 Vic. No. 3.

The first Act enables a workman to recover from a contractee moneys due for work done under a contract; the Amending Act extends the same remedies to tradesmen who have supplied material for a contract.

A very difficult question arose on the point, whether a tradesman was entitled to the benefits of the Act if he could have asserted a lien on the materials supplied by him (see secs. 2 of the original Act and 3 of the Amending Act). The point has been decided in favour of the tradesman, and the Bill drafted accordingly, it appearing clear that in the great majority of cases, particularly of small tradesmen, the benefit of the Act would otherwise be lost to them, and it being considered that the limitation of time imposed upon the tradesman (see sec. 4 of Amending Act) was the only limitation intended to be imposed upon him by the Legislature.

In sec. 6 of the Principal Act, the words "in any one year" appeared to be absolutely meaningless, and have therefore been omitted.

In sec. 8 of the Principal Act, the word contractor was evidently a misprint for contractee, and has been altered accordingly.

In the 10th section of the Principal Act, the words "or of the defendant" have been added as a suggested amendment. He appears to be the only person really interested in the making of the application mentioned in the section, and it would seem unfair that he should not have the power to make it. The contractee, to whom the power is given, would have little or no interest in making it. It would almost seem indeed that the word contractee in the section was meant to be contractor.

I certify that with the above exceptions the Bill solely consolidates and in no way alters, adds to, or amends the law contained in the Acts consolidated.

CHAS. G. HEYDON,
Commissioner for the Consolidation of the Statute Law.

Memo. and Certificate to accompany the Contractors' Debts Bill.

THIS Bill consolidates two Acts, viz., Contractors' Debts Act, 42 Vic. No. 22, Contractors' Debts Amending Act, 52 Vic. No. 3.

The first Act enables a workman to recover from a contractee moneys due for work done under a contract; the Amending Act extends the same remedies to tradesmen who have supplied material for a contract.

A very difficult question arose on the point, whether a tradesman was entitled to the benefits of the Act if he could have asserted a lien on the materials supplied by him (see secs. 2 of the original Act and 3 of the Amending Act). The point has been decided in favour of the tradesman, and the Bill drafted accordingly, it appearing clear that in the great majority of cases, particularly of small tradesmen, the benefit of the Act would otherwise be lost to them, and it being considered that the limitation of time imposed upon the tradesman (see sec. 4 of Amending Act) was the only limitation intended to be imposed upon him by the Legislature.

In sec. 6 of the Principal Act, the words "in any one year" appeared to be absolutely meaningless, and have therefore been omitted.

In sec. 8 of the Principal Act, the word contractor was evidently a misprint for contractee, and has been altered accordingly.

In the 10th section of the Principal Act, the words "or of the defendant" have been added as a suggested amendment. He appears to be the only person really interested in the making of the application mentioned in the section, and it would seem unfair that he should not have the power to make it. The contractee, to whom the power is given, would have little or no interest in making it. It would almost seem indeed that the word contractee in the section was meant to be contractor.

I certify that with the above exceptions the Bill solely consolidates and in no way alters, adds to, or amends the law contained in the Acts consolidated.

CHAS. G. HEYDON,
Commissioner for the Consolidation of the Statute Law.
