In the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.

HAMPDEN, Governor.

Government House, Sydney, 27th July, 1898.

Memo. and Certificate to accompany the Stamp Duties Bill.

THIS Bill consolidates six statutes:-

20 Vie. No. 23; 36 Vie. No. 15; 44 Vie. No. 3; 50 Vie. No. 10; 54 Vie. No. 15; 57 Vie. No. 20.

- 1. The Act 20 Vic. No. 23, which now appears as clause 16 of this Bill, was passed at a time when there were no Stamp Acts in New South Wales. The passing of Stamp Acts since in New South Wales has rendered it advisable to make a slight change in the wording of the clause, which, it is considered, does not alter its meaning, but prevents a possible difficulty.
- 2. It has been thought safest to preserve in the Bill, in most cases, the dates of the Acts consolidated where these Acts caused liabilities and duties to arise "after the commencement of this Act," and in other ways made that date material, as e.g., under clause 52, subsection (1). It would have been neater to use again the expression "after the commencement of this Act," and to rely upon the saving clause in the Interpretation Act, or upon a special saving clause to be inserted in this Bill, to keep alive all previous liabilities; but in a taxing measure, where large interests may be at stake, the safest course has been thought the best.
- 3. In clause 54, subsection (2), the term "Registrar of the Probate Jurisdiction" has been substituted for "Prothonotary," the duties therein mentioned of the latter having, by section 7 of the Probate Act, been conferred on the former.
- 4. In clause 55 the word "estate" has been substituted for the words "goods, chattels. and effects," in consequence of the Probate Act, sections 26 and 27.
- 5. In section 50 of the 44 Vic. No. 3 the order to collect was said to be granted "under the Act 11 Vic. No. 24, and any Act repealing the same." This has been altered to "to the Curator of Intestate Estates," he being the only person to whom an order to collect can be granted, and also in pursuance of a system of avoiding, as far as possible, references to other statutes, soon to be repealed and consolidated.

None of the alterations above explained are changes or amendments of the law, and I certify that the Bill now forwarded solely consolidates and in no way alters, amends, or adds to the law contained in the Acts therein consolidated.

Commissioner for Consolidation of the Statute Law.

Memo. and Certificate to accompany the Stamp Duties Bill.

THIS Bill consolidates six statutes :-

20 Vic. No. 23; 36 Vic. No. 15; 44 Vic. No. 3; 50 Vic. No. 10; 54 Vic. No. 15; 57 Vic. No. 20.

- 1. The Act 20 Vic. No. 23, which now appears as clause 16 of this Bill, was passed at a time when there were no Stamp Acts in New South Wa'es. The passing of Stamp Acts since in New South Wales has rendered it advisable to make a slight change in the wording of the clause, which, it is considered, does not alter it; meaning, but prevents a possible difficulty.
- 2. It has been thought safest to preserve in the Bill, in most cases, the dates of the Acts consolidated where these Acts caused liabilities and duties to arise "after the commencement of this Act," and in other ways made that date material, as e.g., under clause 52, subsection (1). It would have been neater to use again the expression "after the commencement of this Act," and to rely upon the saving clause in the Interpretation Act, or upon a special saving clause to be inserted in this Bill, to keep alive all previous liabilities; but in a taxing measure, where large interests may be at stake, the safest course has been thought the best.
- 3. In clause 54, subsection (2), the term "Registrar of the Probate Jurisdiction" has been substituted for "Prothonotary," the duties therein mentioned of the latter having, by section 7 of the Probate Act, been conferred on the former.
- 4. In clause 55 the word "estate" has been substituted for the words "goods, chattels. and effects," in consequence of the Probate Act, sections 26 and 27.
- 5. In section 50 of the 44 Vic. No. 3 the order to collect was said to be granted "under the Act 11 Vic. No. 24, and any Act repealing the same." This has been altered to "to the Curator of Intestate Estates," he being the only person to whom an order to collect can be granted, and also in pursuance of a system of avoiding, as far as possible, references to other statutes, soon to be repealed and consolidated.

None of the alterations above explained are changes or amendments of the law, and I certify that the Bill now forwarded solely consolidates and in no way alters, amends, or adds to the law contained in the Acts therein consolidated.
