*In the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.*HAMPDEN,
Governor.Government House,
Sydney, 27th July, 1898.

Memo. and Certificate to accompany the Weights and Measures Bill.

THIS Bill consolidates the whole of the following Acts :—

16 Vic. No. 34. Weights and Measures.

43 Vic. No. 18. Bushel Weight.

Clause 3 (2).—The words “it shall be deposited in the Treasury” are new.

Clause 4 (2).—The words “and put in the place of the copy or model so lost, destroyed, or injured” are new.

Clause 5 (1).—The words “a complete set” are new.

These additions do not alter the sense, but were evident omissions, and render clear what was before obscure.

Clauses 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7.—The wording of these has been altered considerably from the original sections, which were very badly drawn. Section 5 of the 16 Vic. No. 34 mixed up two totally distinct things (i.e., the standard weights and the copies or models thereof) in a very unintelligible way. The section has been split into two, and worded to express what was evidently the intention of the Legislature.

Clause 14.—This was most unsatisfactory, and has required re-wording and completing in some defective points. The word “contents” has been altered to “capacity.” The words “to provide such stamped vessel or measure” are new, and supply an omission in the original Act.

Clauses 8 and 9 (b).—The original Acts made the Inspector liable for the safety of the copies of the standard weights and measures committed to their charge, but there is nowhere any provision for supplying them with such copies. The words in clause 8, “and a complete set of marked copies and models” are new, and fill the gap.

Clause 18.—The word “alters” in the original Act has been altered to “utters” which would seem clearly to have been intended.

Clause 22.—The whole effect of the proviso to section 15 of the 16 Vic. No. 34 has been, it is considered, preserved by the words “or may be sold by weight” at the end of clause 22 (1).

Clause 22 (3).—The three sections of the Act 43 Vic. No. 18 have, by omitting useless verbiage, been compressed into this short subclause.

Clause 24.—It has been necessary to retain the long form of conviction given in this clause, because it contains special reference to the forfeiture of balances, and so assists in the interpretation of some doubtful sections.

Clause 25.—The provisions in section 22 of 16 Vic. No. 34 as to pleading the general issue and recovering costs, &c., have been omitted as sufficiently provided for by the Acts Shortening Act, 22 Vic. No. 12, section 9.

In several sections of the old Act it is stated that things must be done, but nothing is said as to who is to do them. It has been found impossible entirely to cure this defect.

The words hereinbefore and hereinafter have several times been used wrongly in the 16 Vic. No. 34. These slips have been corrected.

Throughout the original Act a puzzling variety of expressions has been used in speaking of convictions. Thus: “on conviction before any such petty sessions”; “upon conviction”; “upon conviction thereof before any two justices of the peace”; “on conviction before any two or more justices of the peace.”

The uniform phrase “shall on conviction forfeit” has been adopted throughout the Bill, and penalties have been made recoverable before “any two or more justices of the peace in petty sessions.”

Save as aforesaid, I certify that this Bill solely consolidates and in no way alters, adds to, or amends the law as contained in the Acts thereby consolidated.

Memo. and Certificate to accompany the Weights and Measures Bill.

THIS Bill consolidates the whole of the following Acts :—

16 Vic. No. 34. Weights and Measures.

43 Vic. No. 18. Bushel Weight.

Clause 3 (2).—The words “it shall be deposited in the Treasury” are new.

Clause 4 (2).—The words “and put in the place of the copy or model so lost, destroyed, or injured” are new.

Clause 5 (1).—The words “a complete set” are new.

These additions do not alter the sense, but were evident omissions, and render clear what was before obscure.

Clauses 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7.—The wording of these has been altered considerably from the original sections, which were very badly drawn. Section 5 of the 16 Vic. No. 34 mixed up two totally distinct things (i.e., the standard weights and the copies or models thereof) in a very unintelligible way. The section has been split into two, and worded to express what was evidently the intention of the Legislature.

Clause 14.—This was most unsatisfactory, and has required re-wording and completing in some defective points. The word “contents” has been altered to “capacity.” The words “to provide such stamped vessel or measure” are new, and supply an omission in the original Act.

Clauses 8 and 9 (b).—The original Acts made the Inspector liable for the safety of the copies of the standard weights and measures committed to their charge, but there is nowhere any provision for supplying them with such copies. The words in clause 8, “and a complete set of marked copies and models” are new, and fill the gap.

Clause 18.—The word “alters” in the original Act has been altered to “utters” which would seem clearly to have been intended.

Clause 22.—The whole effect of the proviso to section 15 of the 16 Vic. No. 34 has been, it is considered, preserved by the words “or may be sold by weight” at the end of clause 22 (1).

Clause 22 (3).—The three sections of the Act 43 Vic. No. 18 have, by omitting useless verbiage, been compressed into this short subclause.

Clause 24.—It has been necessary to retain the long form of conviction given in this clause, because it contains special reference to the forfeiture of balances, and so assists in the interpretation of some doubtful sections.

Clause 25.—The provisions in section 22 of 16 Vic. No. 34 as to pleading the general issue and recovering costs, &c., have been omitted as sufficiently provided for by the Acts Shortening Act, 22 Vic. No. 12, section 9.

In several sections of the old Act it is stated that things must be done, but nothing is said as to who is to do them. It has been found impossible entirely to cure this defect.

The words hereinbefore and hereinafter have several times been used wrongly in the 16 Vic. No. 34. These slips have been corrected.

Throughout the original Act a puzzling variety of expressions has been used in speaking of convictions. Thus: “on conviction before any such petty sessions”; “upon conviction”; “upon conviction thereof before any two justices of the peace”; “on conviction before any two or more justices of the peace.”

The uniform phrase “shall on conviction forfeit” has been adopted throughout the Bill, and penalties have been made recoverable before “any two or more justices of the peace in petty sessions.”

Save as aforesaid, I certify that this Bill solely consolidates and in no way alters, adds to, or amends the law as contained in the Acts thereby consolidated.

CHAS. G. HEYDON,
Commissioner for the Consolidation of the Statute Law.
