PART V.

General.

14. The council may appoint all such officers and servants as they shall deem expedient for the proper administration of this Act and the by-laws to be made hereunder. Power to appoint officers and servants.

15. The council may make by-laws for the following matters— Power to make by-laws.
 providing for the construction, erection, maintenance, regulation, management, letting, occupation, and use of the said abattoirs, markets and sale-yard, and for regulating, restricting, and controlling the use of the same, and the conduct of all persons using the same or resorting thereto, or slaughtering, buying, selling, or dealing therein ;
 preventing and suppressing nuisances, and enforcing cleanliness in and in connection with such abattoirs, markets and sale-yards, and providing for and regulating the storage, removal, treatment, and disposal of garbage, manure, offal, refuse, waste slops, and sewage ;
 prescribing how, when, by whom, and under what terms, conditions, and restrictions such markets, abattoirs, and sale-yards, or any of them, or any part or parts thereof may and shall be used and occupied ;
 defining the duties and powers of all officers and servants appointed by the council to carry out the provisions of this Act or any by-laws hereunder ;
 providing for the inspection of all cattle, meat, articles of food and consumption, and for the seizure and destruction of diseased cattle, diseased or unwholesome meat, articles of food and consumption which shall be brought to, or be in, upon, or about, or be exposed, or offered for sale in such abattoirs, markets, or sale-yards, or any shops, buildings, or premises in connection therewith ;
 prescribing, fixing, levying, and collecting all rents, tolls, fees, and charges for the use of or in connection with such abattoirs, markets, and sale-yards, or any of them, or any part or parts thereof, and such other sale-yards as aforesaid ;
 generally for carrying into effect the purposes and provisions of this Act.

16. All by-laws made under the authority of this Act may prescribe some maximum and minimum penalty for any and every breach or neglect thereof respectively, and may also prescribe minimum penalties in case of two or more convictions in respect of the same offence : Provided that no such maximum penalty shall exceed twenty pounds. Maximum and minimum penalties.

Broken Hill Abattoirs, Markets, and Cattle Sale-yards.

17. Every person committing any breach of any provision of this Act or of any by-law hereunder by wilful act or refusal or neglect to act or otherwise shall, when no specific penalty has been provided for such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds. General penalty.
- 5 18. All by-laws made under this Act shall have the force of law when confirmed by the Governor and published in the Gazette. Confirmation of by-laws.
- 10 19. All sums of money which shall be imposed or made payable, and all fines, penalties, and forfeitures incurred under this Act, or any by-laws made hereunder, may, with costs of suit, be recovered in a summary way at the suit of the council or of the council clerk, or of any officer of the council authorised either generally or specially by resolution of the council, or under the hand of the mayor, before a police magistrate or any two justices in petty sessions according to the provisions of the Act or Acts for the time being in force regulating proceedings on summary convictions and orders. All sums of money ordered by any court or magistrate to be paid (whether by way of penalty, forfeiture, or otherwise), and all costs and expenses awarded by such court or magistrate may be recovered and enforced by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person ordered to pay the same, and in default of sufficient distress such person shall be liable to be imprisoned with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding three months, unless such money costs or expenses be sooner paid, subject, however, to appeal in the manner provided by the Act or Acts for the time being in force regulating appeals from justices of the peace. Legal procedure.
- 20 20. All sums of money, fines, penalties, and forfeitures imposed and recovered as aforesaid, shall be paid into the corporate fund of the municipality. Application of penalties.
- 30 21. In any legal proceeding, suit, or prosecution under this Act, or any by-law made hereunder, no proof shall be required of the incorporation of the municipality, or of the due election or appointment of any mayor, alderman, council clerk, officer, or servant, or of the authority of such council clerk or officer to institute such suit or prosecution. Proof in certain cases.
- 35 22. It shall be lawful for the Governor to grant to the municipality in fee simple such Crown lands within or in the vicinity of the municipality as may be necessary or convenient for all or any of the purposes of this Act, and the effect of such grant shall be to withdraw any lands so granted from any lease or license, or promise thereof, and to cancel to the extent of the lands so granted any dedication or reservation thereof however made. Governor may grant lands.
