VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Act No. 61, 1900.

An Act to further amend the Parliamentary Electoral Law.
[Assented to, 5th December, 1900.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Preliminary.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Parliamentary Elections Short title. (Amendment) Act, 1900," and shall be construed with the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act of 1893 and any Act amending the same.

New lists and rolls.

2. The electoral lists made by the police shall be printed by the Government Printer in the form of a general list for each district, Making out lists for divisions. and

and of general lists for the divisions of each district, and the Chief Electoral Officer shall, within thirty days after the commencement of this Act, cause a sufficient number of copies of the general list for each district and two copies of the general lists for the divisions of such district to be forwarded to the registrar for such district.

Transmission of lists for publication and revision.

3. The registrar shall forthwith on receipt of such copies transmit one copy of the general list for the district to each court-house, police station, public school, and post-office within the district, to be exhibited for public inspection until the lists for the divisions of such district are revised, and shall transmit two copies of the list for each such division to the clerk of the revision court for the division at least five clear days before the holding of such court. The registrar shall, on receipt of such copies, also transmit a copy of the general lists for the district to every police officer stationed in such district if such district is outside the Metropolitan area.

Claims to insert names in list.

4. (1) Before or on the prescribed day, any person whose name is not on any such list, but who claims to be entitled to have his name inserted therein, may, by notice in the form of Schedule Two sent by post to the clerk of the revision court for the division, claim to have his name so inserted, and any person who wilfully certifies to any particular in any such claim which he knows to be untrue shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

Objections.

(2) Before or on the prescribed day, any person whose name is on the list may, by notice in the prescribed form sent by post to the clerk of the revision court for the division, object to the name of any other person being retained on such list.

Publication of claims and objections.

(3) Public notices of such claims and objections shall be exhibited at all courts of petty sessions, police stations, public schools, and post offices within the district, and shall be kept so exhibited until the list is revised.

Appointment of revision courts.

5. (1) The list for each division shall be revised by a revision court to be held at such place and by such stipendiary or police magistrate as may be notified by the Governor in the Gazette. And the clerk of the revision court shall notify in some newspaper circulating in the division the time and place for the holding of the court and shall produce the list and any claims and objections sent to him.

(2) The provisions of subsections (v) and (vi) of section forty-seven and of subsections (II) and (III) of section forty-eight and subsections (I), (III), and (IV) of section forty-nine of the Principal Act (so far as those provisions are applicable and consistent with this Act) shall apply to any such list, and the revision, signing, and certifying of the same.

(3) Where a claim has been duly made in the form of Schedule Two to insert the name of any person in any such list, and such claim is certified as true in accordance with the certificate in that Schedule,

Parliamentary Elections (Amendment).

Schedule, such name may be placed by the revision court on such list although the said person does not attend the court, and no evidence other than the certificate is produced to the court in support of such claim.

6. (1) The list for a division, on being so signed and certified, shall be forthwith delivered to the registrar of the district of which such division forms part, and such registrar upon receiving the revised lists for the several divisions of his district shall forthwith transmit them to the chief electoral officer, who shall from such lists cause the general roll for the district to be prepared and printed, and dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act. Preparation of rolls.

(2) On the general roll being prepared for any district, all lists and rolls and electors' rights for such district, or any divisions of such district, except the lists and rolls prepared in pursuance of this Act, shall be deemed to be cancelled and of no effect. Cancellation of previous lists and rolls.

7. (1) Such members of the police force as may be instructed by the Inspector-General of Police to collect the names of persons resident within any division who are entitled to be enrolled but who are not enrolled for such division, shall in the month of April of each year make out a list of such names and sign the same, and make a declaration before a justice of the peace in the form of Schedule One, and transmit such list and declaration to the registrar. Police to make yearly lists.

(2) Every registrar in making out, under subsection two of section forty-one of the Principal Act, a general list, shall include in such list the names aforesaid, and shall issue an elector's right to each person whose name has been passed by the revision court. Registrar to include names.

Electors' rights.

8. After the commencement of this Act all electors' rights shall be printed in blue ink, and shall with the butt be in the form of Schedule Three except that where such right is issued under this Act— Form of electors' rights.

- (a) in place of the questions on the butt, there shall be printed a receipt for such right in the form of Schedule Four; and
- (b) such right shall be authenticated in the prescribed manner, but it shall not be necessary that the right should be signed by the registrar.

9. (1) As soon as practicable an elector's right shall be prepared for each person enrolled in pursuance of this Act, and the Colonial Secretary shall cause such right to be delivered personally to the elector entitled thereto. Delivery of electors' rights.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, every such elector's right shall be prepared in accordance with, and in all other respects shall follow, the requirements of Part III of the Principal Act, as amended by any Acts heretofore passed, so far as such requirements relate to electors' rights. Form of electors' rights.

Parliamentary Elections (Amendment).

Butts.

(3) The person delivering an elector's right in pursuance of this section shall detach all butts from the electors' rights when the receipts thereon have been signed or marked by the elector, and shall transmit the same to the registrar for the district to which they relate, who shall retain the same in his custody for the prescribed time.

Amendment of
s. 37 of Principal Act.

10. Section thirty-seven of the Principal Act shall not apply to the case where the elector's right previously issued is an elector's right deemed by this Act to be cancelled and of no effect.

Currency of electors' rights.

11. Any elector's right lawfully issued after the commencement of this Act shall be in force until duly cancelled.

*Alteration of forms and times.*Forms and times prescribed may be altered.

12. In order to give due effect to the above provisions of this Act, the Governor may, by regulations, provide for any proceeding, matter, or thing for which express provision has not been herein made, or where any alteration of any form may be found necessary, or where it is found that the time allowed to do any act is clearly insufficient, and an alteration or extension of such time, and any alteration of dates consequent thereon is shown to be necessary, he may declare, either by regulation or notification in the Gazette, that such alteration shall be made, and thereupon the same shall be made and take effect accordingly: Provided that no alteration of time shall be made which shall delay the completion of the rolls beyond four months from the commencement of this Act.

Miscellaneous.

Purification of rolls.

13. It shall be the duty of members of the police force during the month of July of every year to make a scrutiny of the general rolls for the districts of the Colony, and to mark thereon the names of all persons who have died or have permanently left any district for which they are enrolled, and shall transmit such rolls so marked to the registrars for the respective districts, who shall take the necessary action to have such names expunged from the next general lists.

Appointment and powers of assistant registrars.

14. The Governor may appoint by notice in the Gazette an assistant registrar or assistant registrars for any district, who, within the district or within any specified part of the district, as the Governor may think fit and may notify as aforesaid, shall have the powers of the registrar for the district.

No signature-book required.

15. It shall not be necessary hereafter for any applicant for an elector's right to sign his name or make his distinguishing mark in a signature-book as required by the Principal Act.

Amendment of section 8 of Act of 1896.

16. (1) The solemn declaration referred to in section eight of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act Amendment Act, 1896, may be subscribed before a justice of the peace, or any clerk of petty sessions, sessions, officer of the police force, postmaster, public school teacher, or any officer appointed under the Principal Act or any Act amending the same.

Parliamentary Elections (Amendment).

(2) Any person who wilfully and knowingly makes a false statement in any such declaration shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, or not exceeding six months' imprisonment.

17. Notwithstanding section six of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act Amendment Act, 1896, a revision court for the revision of the provisional list may be held at any place within or without the district to which the list relates.

Revision of provisional list may be made by court sitting outside district.

The registrar shall, on receipt of such copies, also transmit a copy of the general lists for the district to every police officer stationed in districts such district if such district is outside the Metropolitan area.

Transmission of lists for publication and revision.

4. (1) Before or on the prescribed day, any person whose name is not on any such list, but who claims to be entitled to have his name inserted therein, may, by notice in the form of Schedule Two sent by post to the clerk of the revision court for the division, claim to have his name so inserted, and any person who wilfully certifies to any particular in any such claim which he knows to be untrue shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

Claims to insert names in list.

(2) Before or on the prescribed day, any person whose name is on the list may, by notice in the prescribed form sent by post to the clerk of the revision court for the division, object to the name of any other person being retained on such list.

Objections.

(3) Public notices of such claims and objections shall be exhibited at all courts of petty sessions, police stations, public schools, and post offices within the district, and shall be kept so exhibited until the list is revised.

Publication of claims and objections.

5. (1) The list for each division shall be revised by a revision court to be held at such place ~~within the division~~ and by such stipendiary or police magistrate as may be notified by the Governor in the Gazette. And the clerk of the revision court shall notify in some newspaper circulating in the division the time and place for the holding of the court and shall produce the list and any claims and objections sent to him.

Appointment of revision courts.

(2) The provisions of subsections (v) and (vi) of section forty-seven and of subsections (II) and (III) of section forty-eight and subsections (I), (III), and (IV) of section forty-nine of the Principal Act (so far as those provisions are applicable and consistent with this Act) shall apply to any such list, and the revision, signing, and certifying of the same.

Parliamentary Elections (Amendment).

(3) Where a claim has been duly made in the form of Schedule Two to insert the name of any person in any such list, and such claim is certified as true in accordance with the certificate in that Schedule, such name may be placed by the revision court on such list although the said person does not attend the court, and no evidence other than the certificate is produced to the court in support of such claim.

6. (1) The list for a division, on being so signed and certified, shall be forthwith delivered to the registrar of the district of which such division forms part, and such registrar upon receiving the revised lists for the several divisions of his district shall forthwith transmit them to the chief electoral officer, who shall from such lists cause the general roll for the district to be prepared and printed, and dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act.

(2) On the general roll being prepared for any district, all lists and rolls and electors' rights for such district, or any divisions of such district, except the lists and rolls prepared in pursuance of this Act, shall be deemed to be cancelled and of no effect.

7. (1) Such members of the police force as may be instructed by the Inspector-General of Police to collect the names of persons resident within any division ~~which do not appear on any roll~~ who are entitled to be enrolled but who are not enrolled for such division, ~~but which such persons are entitled to have enrolled~~ shall in the month of April of each year make out a list of such names and sign the same, and make a declaration before a justice of the peace in the form of Schedule One, and transmit such list and declaration to the registrar.

(2) Every registrar in making out, under subsection two of section forty-one of the Principal Act, a general list, shall include in such list the names aforesaid, and shall issue an elector's right to each person whose name has been passed by the revision court.

Electors' rights.

8. After the commencement of this Act all electors' rights shall be printed in blue ink, and shall with the butt be in the form of Schedule Three except that where such right is issued under this Act—

(a) in place of the questions on the butt, there shall be printed a receipt for such right in the form of Schedule Four; and

(b) such right shall be authenticated in the prescribed manner, but it shall not be necessary that the right should be signed by the registrar.

9. (1) As soon as practicable an elector's right shall be prepared for each person enrolled in pursuance of this Act, and the Colonial Secretary shall cause such right to be delivered personally to the elector entitled thereto.

Parliamentary Elections (Amendment).

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, every such elector's right shall be prepared in accordance with, and in all other respects shall follow, the requirements of Part III of the Principal Act, as amended by any Acts heretofore passed, so far as such requirements relate to electors' rights.

Form of electors' rights.

(3) The person delivering an elector's right in pursuance of this section shall detach all butts from the electors' rights when the receipts thereon have been signed or marked by the elector, and shall transmit the same to the registrar for the district to which they relate, who shall retain the same in his custody for the prescribed time.

Butts.

10. Section thirty-seven of the Principal Act shall not apply to the case where the elector's right previously issued is an elector's right deemed by this Act to be cancelled and of no effect.

Amendment of s. 37 of Principal Act.

11. Any elector's right lawfully issued after the commencement of this Act shall be in force until duly cancelled.

Currency of electors' rights.

Alteration of forms and times.

12. In order to give due effect to the above provisions of this Act, the Governor may, by regulations, provide for any proceeding, matter, or thing for which express provision has not been herein made, or where any alteration of any form may be found necessary, or where it is found that the time allowed to do any act is clearly insufficient, and an alteration or extension of such time, and any alteration of dates consequent thereon is shown to be necessary, he may declare, either by regulation or notification in the Gazette, that such alteration shall be made, and thereupon the same shall be made and take effect accordingly: Provided that no alteration of time shall be made which shall delay the completion of the rolls beyond four months from the commencement of this Act.

Forms and times prescribed may be altered.

Miscellaneous.

13. It shall be the duty of members of the police force during the month of July of every year to make a scrutiny of the general rolls for the districts of the Colony, and to mark thereon the names of all persons who have died or have permanently left any district for which they are enrolled, and shall transmit such rolls so marked to the registrars for the respective districts, who shall take the necessary action to have such names expunged from the next general lists.

Purification of rolls.

14. The Governor may appoint by notice in the Gazette an assistant registrar or assistant registrars for any district, who, within the district or within any specified part of the district, as the Governor may think fit and may notify as aforesaid, shall have the powers of the registrar for the district.

Appointment and powers of assistant registrars.

15. It shall not be necessary hereafter for any applicant for an elector's right to sign his name or make his distinguishing mark in a signature-book as required by the Principal Act.

No signature-book required.

Parliamentary Elections (Amendment).

16. (1) The solemn declaration referred to in section eight of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act Amendment Act, 1896, may be subscribed before a justice of the peace, or any clerk of petty sessions, officer of the police force, postmaster, public school teacher, or any officer appointed under the Principal Act or any Act amending the same.

Amendment of section 8 of Act of 1896.

(2) Any person who wilfully and knowingly makes a false statement in any such declaration shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, or not exceeding six months' imprisonment.

17. Notwithstanding section six of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act Amendment Act, 1896, a revision court for the revision of the provisional list may be held at any place within or without the district to which the list relates.

Revision of provisional list may be made by court sitting outside district.

New South Wales.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO QUARTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Act No. , 1900.

An Act to further amend the Parliamentary Electoral Law.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Preliminary.

1. This Act may be cited as the "Parliamentary Elections (Amendment) Act, 1900," and shall be construed with the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act of 1893 and any Act amending the same.

10

New lists and rolls.

2. The electoral lists made by the police shall be printed by the Government Printer in the form of a general list for each district, and

262—A

Making out lists for divisions.

NOTE.—The words to be omitted are ruled through; those to be inserted are printed in black letter.

Parliamentary Elections (Amendment).

and of general lists for the divisions of each district, and the Chief Electoral Officer shall, within thirty days after the commencement of this Act, cause a sufficient number of copies of the general list for each district and two copies of the general lists for the divisions of such district to be forwarded to the registrar for such district.

Within thirty days after the commencement of this Act printed copies of the electoral rolls shall be forwarded to the registrar.

3. The registrar shall forthwith on receipt of such copies transmit one copy of the general list for the district to each court-house, police station, public school, and post-office within the district, to be exhibited for public inspection until the lists for the divisions of such district are revised, and shall transmit two copies of the list for each such division to the clerk of the revision court for the division at least five clear days before the holding of such court. The registrar shall, on receipt of such copies, also transmit a copy of the general lists for the district to every police officer stationed in such district if such district is outside the Metropolitan area.

4. (1) Before or on the prescribed day, any person whose name is not on any such list, but who claims to be entitled to have his name inserted therein, may, by notice in the form of Schedule Two sent by post to the clerk of the revision court for the division, claim to have his name so inserted, and any person who wilfully certifies to any particular in any such claim which he knows to be untrue shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

(2) Before or on the prescribed day, any person whose name is on the list may, by notice in the prescribed form sent by post to the clerk of the revision court for the division, object to the name of any other person being retained on such list.

(3) Public notices of such claims and objections shall be exhibited at all courts of petty sessions, police stations, public schools, and post offices within the district, and shall be kept so exhibited until the list is revised.

5. (1) The list for each division shall be revised by a revision court to be held at such place ~~within the division~~ and by such stipendiary or police magistrate as may be notified by the Governor in the Gazette. And the clerk of the revision court shall notify in some newspaper circulating in the division the time and place for the holding of the court and shall produce the list and any claims and objections sent to him.

(2) The provisions of subsections (v) and (vi) of section forty-seven and of subsections (II) and (III) of section forty-eight and subsections (I), (III), and (IV) of section forty-nine of the Principal Act (so far as those provisions are applicable and consistent with this Act) shall apply to any such list, and the revision, signing, and certifying of the same.

Parliamentary Elections (Amendment).

(3) Where a claim has been duly made in the form of Schedule Two to insert the name of any person in any such list, and such claim is certified as true in accordance with the certificate in that Schedule, such name may be placed by the revision court on such list although the said person does not attend the court, and no evidence other than the certificate is produced to the court in support of such claim.

6. (1) The list for a division, on being so signed and certified, shall be forthwith delivered to the registrar of the district of which such division forms part, and such registrar upon receiving the revised lists for the several divisions of his district shall forthwith transmit them to the chief electoral officer, who shall from such lists cause the general roll for the district to be prepared and printed, and dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act.

15 (2) On the general roll being prepared for any district, all lists and rolls and electors' rights for such district, or any divisions of such district, except the lists and rolls prepared in pursuance of this Act, shall be deemed to be cancelled and of no effect.

20 7. (1) Such members of the police force as may be instructed by the Inspector-General of Police to collect the names of persons resident within any division ~~which do not appear on any roll~~ who are entitled to be enrolled but who are not enrolled for such division, ~~but which such persons are entitled to have enrolled~~ shall in the month of April of each year make out a list of such names and sign the same, and make a declaration before a justice of the peace in the form of Schedule One, and transmit such list and declaration to the registrar.

25 (2) Every registrar in making out, under subsection two of section forty-one of the Principal Act, a general list, shall include in such list the names aforesaid, and shall issue an elector's right to each person whose name has been passed by the revision court.

Electors' rights.

8. After the commencement of this Act all electors' rights shall be printed in blue ink, and shall ~~with the butt~~ be in the form of Schedule Three except that where such right is issued under this Act—

- 35 (a) in place of the questions on the butt, there shall be printed a receipt for such right in the form of Schedule Four; and
 (b) such right shall be authenticated in the prescribed manner, but it shall not be necessary that the right should be signed by the registrar.

40 9. (1) As soon as practicable an elector's right shall be prepared for each person enrolled in pursuance of this Act, and the Colonial Secretary shall cause such right to be delivered personally to the elector entitled thereto.

Parliamentary Elections (Amendment).

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, every such elector's right shall be prepared in accordance with, and in all other respects shall follow, the requirements of Part III of the Principal Act, as amended by any Acts heretofore passed, so far as such requirements relate to electors' rights.

(3) The person delivering an elector's right in pursuance of this section shall detach all butts from the electors' rights when the receipts thereon have been signed or marked by the elector, and shall transmit the same to the registrar for the district to which they relate, who shall retain the same in his custody for the prescribed time.

10. Section thirty-seven of the Principal Act shall not apply to the case where the elector's right previously issued is an elector's right deemed by this Act to be cancelled and of no effect.

11. Any elector's right lawfully issued after the commencement of this Act shall be in force until duly cancelled.

Alteration of forms and times.

12. In order to give due effect to the above provisions of this Act, the Governor may, by regulations, provide for any proceeding, matter, or thing for which express provision has not been herein made, or where any alteration of any form may be found necessary, or where it is found that the time allowed to do any act is clearly insufficient, and an alteration or extension of such time, and any alteration of dates consequent thereon is shown to be necessary, he may declare, either by regulation or notification in the Gazette, that such alteration shall be made, and thereupon the same shall be made and take effect accordingly: Provided that no alteration of time shall be made which shall delay the completion of the rolls beyond four months from the commencement of this Act.

Miscellaneous.

13. It shall be the duty of members of the police force during the month of July of every year to make a scrutiny of the general rolls for the districts of the Colony, and to mark thereon the names of all persons who have died or have permanently left any district for which they are enrolled, and shall transmit such rolls so marked to the registrars for the respective districts, who shall take the necessary action to have such names expunged from the next general lists.

14. The Governor may appoint by notice in the Gazette an assistant registrar or assistant registrars for any district, who, within the district or within any specified part of the district, as the Governor may think fit and may notify as aforesaid, shall have the powers of the registrar for the district.

15. It shall not be necessary hereafter for any applicant for an elector's right to sign his name or make his distinguishing mark in a signature-book as required by the Principal Act.

Parliamentary Elections (Amendment).

16. (1) The solemn declaration referred to in section eight of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act Amendment Act, 1896, may be subscribed before a justice of the peace, or any clerk of petty sessions, officer of the police force, postmaster, public school teacher, or any officer appointed under the Principal Act or any Act amending the same.

Amendment of section 8 of Act of 1896.

(2) Any person who wilfully and knowingly makes a false statement in any such declaration shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, or not exceeding six months' imprisonment.

17. Notwithstanding section six of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act Amendment Act, 1896, a revision court for the revision of the provisional list may be held at any place within or without the district to which the list relates.

Revision of provisional list may be made by court sitting outside district.
