

New South Wales.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Act No. 55, 1899.

An Act to amend the Civil Service Act of 1884 and the Public Service Act of 1895, and any Act amending the same, with regard to certain superannuation allowances and gratuities. [Assented to, 29th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. For the purpose of estimating the amount of any superannuation allowance or gratuity due to any person, service by that person whether continuous or not under the Council of Education constituted in pursuance of the Act thirtieth Victoria number twenty-two, Certain services to count in estimating allowances and gratuities.
or

Public Service (Superannuation).

or under the said Council of Education and under the Board of Commissioners incorporated by the Act eleventh Victoria number forty-eight under the name and style of the Board of National Education or the Denominational School Board created by the Governor in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, shall be deemed to have been and to be service by that person within the meaning of the Civil Service Act of 1884, and the Public Service Act of 1895, and any Act amending the same.

This section shall apply in respect of every person who, on or after the date of the passing of the Public Service Act of 1895, retired from the Public Service for any cause other than an offence, or whose services on or after the said date were dispensed with in consequence of the abolition of his office or who on or after the said date was compelled through infirmity of body or of mind to leave the Service as if the said provisions had been in force at the time he so retired or his services were so dispensed with or he was so compelled to leave the Service as the case may have been.

Superannuation allowance to persons dismissed in 1896.

2. Where the services of any officer employed in the Public Service, and a contributor to the Civil Service Superannuation Account, were, for any cause other than an offence, dispensed with under the provisions of the Public Service Act of 1895 within twelve months from the commencement of the said Act, and after he had served for fifteen years or more, he shall be and be deemed to have been entitled, on and after the date on which his services were so dispensed with, to receive the superannuation allowance to which he would have been entitled if he had retired from the Service under the provisions of section forty-three of the Civil Service Act of 1884, diminished by such amount as is certified by the actuaries appointed under that Act to be equivalent to the annuity terminable on his death, into which the total amount of any payments and gratuities and any refunds of contributions to the said account received by him on his retirement from the Service is convertible, assuming that such total amount was received at the date on which his services were so dispensed with.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as the "Public Service (Superannuation) Act, 1899."

I Certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 22 December, 1899. }*

*F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.*

New South Wales.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Act No. 55, 1899.

An Act to amend the Civil Service Act of 1884 and the Public Service Act of 1895, and any Act amending the same, with regard to certain superannuation allowances and gratuities. [Assented to, 29th December, 1899.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. For the purpose of estimating the amount of any superannuation allowance or gratuity due to any person, service by that person whether continuous or not under the Council of Education constituted in pursuance of the Act thirtieth Victoria number twenty-two, Certain services to count in estimating allowances and gratuities.

or

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

WILLIAM McCOURT,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Public Service (Superannuation).

or under the said Council of Education and under the Board of Commissioners incorporated by the Act eleventh Victoria number forty-eight under the name and style of the Board of National Education or the Denominational School Board created by the Governor in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, shall be deemed to have been and to be service by that person within the meaning of the Civil Service Act of 1884, and the Public Service Act of 1895, and any Act amending the same.

This section shall apply in respect of every person who, on or after the date of the passing of the Public Service Act of 1895, retired from the Public Service for any cause other than an offence, or whose services on or after the said date were dispensed with in consequence of the abolition of his office or who on or after the said date was compelled through infirmity of body or of mind to leave the Service as if the said provisions had been in force at the time he so retired or his services were so dispensed with or he was so compelled to leave the Service as the case may have been.

Superannuation allowance to persons dismissed in 1896.

2. Where the services of any officer employed in the Public Service, and a contributor to the Civil Service Superannuation Account, were, for any cause other than an offence, dispensed with under the provisions of the Public Service Act of 1895 within twelve months from the commencement of the said Act, and after he had served for fifteen years or more, he shall be and be deemed to have been entitled, on and after the date on which his services were so dispensed with, to receive the superannuation allowance to which he would have been entitled if he had retired from the Service under the provisions of section forty-three of the Civil Service Act of 1884, diminished by such amount as is certified by the actuaries appointed under that Act to be equivalent to the annuity terminable on his death, into which the total amount of any payments and gratuities and any refunds of contributions to the said account received by him on his retirement from the Service is convertible, assuming that such total amount was received at the date on which his services were so dispensed with.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as the "Public Service (Superannuation) Act, 1899."

In the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.

Government House,
Sydney, 29th December, 1899.

BEAUCHAMP,
Governor.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 22 December, 1899, A.M. }

F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Act No. , 1899.

An Act to amend the Civil Service Act of 1884 and the Public Service Act of 1895, and any Act amending the same, with regard to certain superannuation allowances and gratuities.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 5 1. For the purpose of estimating the amount of any superannuation allowance or gratuity due to any person, service by that person whether continuous or not under the Council of Education constituted in pursuance of the Act thirtieth Victoria number twenty-two,

Certain services to count in estimating allowances and gratuities.

Public Service (Superannuation).

or under the said Council of Education and under the Board of Commissioners incorporated by the Act eleventh Victoria number forty-eight under the name and style of the Board of National Education or the Denominational School Board created by the Governor in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, shall be deemed to have been and to be service by that person within the meaning of the Civil Service Act of 1884, and the Public Service Act of 1895, and any Act amending the same.

This section shall apply in respect of every person who, on or after the date of the passing of the Public Service Act of 1895, retired from the Public Service for any cause other than an offence, or whose services on or after the said date were dispensed with in consequence of the abolition of his office or who on or after the said date was compelled through infirmity of body or of mind to leave the Service as if the said provisions had been in force at the time he so retired or his services were so dispensed with or he was so compelled to leave the Service as the case may have been.

2. Where the services of any officer employed in the Public Service, and a contributor to the Civil Service Superannuation Account, were, for any cause other than an offence, dispensed with under the provisions of the Public Service Act of 1895 within twelve months from the commencement of the said Act, and after he had served for fifteen years or more, he shall be and be deemed to have been entitled, on and after the date on which his services were so dispensed with, to receive the superannuation allowance to which he would have been entitled if he had retired from the Service under the provisions of section forty-three of the Civil Service Act of 1884, diminished by such amount as is certified by the actuaries appointed under that Act to be equivalent to the annuity terminable on his death, into which the total amount of any payments and gratuities and any refunds of contributions to the said account received by him on his retirement from the Service is convertible, assuming that such total amount was received at the date on which his services were so dispensed with.

Superannuation allowance to persons dismissed in 1896.

3. This Act may be cited as the "Public Service (Superannuation) Act, 1899."

Short title.