

New South Wales.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO QUARTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

*****

Act No. 4, 1900.

An Act to amend the Art Unions Act of 1850. [Assented to,
3rd August, 1900.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The provisions of the Act fourteenth Victoria number thirteen for legalising art unions shall apply and be extended to include all voluntary associations formed for the purchase of any articles of use or ornament to be afterwards allotted and distributed by chance or otherwise among the several members, subscribers, or contributors forming part of such associations, and shall apply and be extended to include such members, subscribers, and contributors, and all persons acting under their authority for the purposes aforesaid, so as to free and discharge

Application of Art
Unions Act to other
voluntary associations.

Art Unions Act Amendment.

discharge such members, subscribers, contributors, and persons from all pains and penalties, suits, prosecutions, and liabilities to which by law they would be liable but for the passing of this Act as being concerned in illegal lotteries, little-goes, or unlawful games by reason of anything done by them or any of them in furtherance of the allotment or distribution by scheme or otherwise of articles of use or ornament; and the proviso to section one of the said Act shall be incorporated with and read as a proviso to this section: Provided that the conditions of this Act shall only apply to associations who seek to obtain funds for the aid or support of any charitable, eleemosynary, or public institution or object which shall in the opinion of the Attorney-General effect that purpose, and on terms to be approved by him.

Words "articles of use or ornament" not to include money prizes.
Selling tickets in street illegal.
Short title.

2. The words "articles of use or ornament" shall not be interpreted to include money prizes, either directly or indirectly, and the selling of tickets in any lottery under this Act in any street shall be illegal.

3. This Act may be cited as the "Art Unions Act Amendment Act, 1900."

By Authority: WILLIAM APPELATE GULLICK, Government Printer, Sydney, 1900.

[3d.]

I Certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

*Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, 26th July, 1900. }*

JOHN J. CALVERT.
Clerk of the Parliaments.

New South Wales.

ANNO SEXAGESIMO QUARTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

*****

Act No. 4, 1900.

An Act to amend the Art Unions Act of 1850. [Assented to,
3rd August, 1900.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The provisions of the Act fourteenth Victoria number thirteen for legalising art unions shall apply and be extended to include all voluntary associations formed for the purchase of any articles of use or ornament to be afterwards allotted and distributed by chance or otherwise among the several members, subscribers, or contributors forming part of such associations, and shall apply and be extended to include such members, subscribers, and contributors, and all persons acting under their authority for the purposes aforesaid, so as to free and discharge

Application of Art
Unions Act to other
voluntary associations.

Art Unions Act Amendment.

discharge such members, subscribers, contributors, and persons from all pains and penalties, suits, prosecutions, and liabilities to which by law they would be liable but for the passing of this Act as being concerned in illegal lotteries, little-goes, or unlawful games by reason of anything done by them or any of them in furtherance of the allotment or distribution by scheme or otherwise of articles of use or ornament; and the proviso to section one of the said Act shall be incorporated with and read as a proviso to this section: Provided that the conditions of this Act shall only apply to associations who seek to obtain funds for the aid or support of any charitable, eleemosynary, or public institution or object which shall in the opinion of the Attorney-General effect that purpose, and on terms to be approved by him.

Words "articles of use or ornament" not to include money prizes.
Selling tickets in street illegal.
Short title.

2. The words "articles of use or ornament" shall not be interpreted to include money prizes, either directly or indirectly, and the selling of tickets in any lottery under this Act in any street shall be illegal.

3. This Act may be cited as the "Art Unions Act Amendment Act, 1900."

In the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty I assent to this Act.

Government House,
Sydney, 3rd August, 1900.

BEAUCHAMP,
Governor.