and it shall also be lawful for the said trustees with the like consent to accept a surrender of any lease so granted : Provided that if at any time there shall be no Bishop of Newcastle or such Bishop shall be incapacitated from acting any consent required by this or either of the two sections next following may be given by the diocesan council of the said diocese, certified under the hand of their secretary, and no lessee or intending lessee shall be called upon to inquire whether the said diocesan council has been lawfully constituted or whether any person so certifying as their secretary is lawfully entitled to act as such.

2. The trustees of Church property for the diocese of Newcastle with the consent aforesaid may appropriate, dedicate, lay out, or set apart any part of the lands described in the said Schedule as and for roads, streets, lanes, or ways, sewers, drains, or other such places or easements for the use of the public, or for the use of the occupiers of any of the said lands, without receiving any consideration therefor, and may allow, authorise, or make generally any such arrangements or dispositions of any part of the said lands as may be deemed expedient for the purpose of letting the said lands, or inducing or promoting the erection of any buildings or other improvements thereon.

Power to set apart
land for roads, &c.

3. It shall be lawful for the trustees of Church property for the diocese of Newcastle, with the consent aforesaid, to lease all or any of the mines, ores, minerals, coals, quarries, stone, clay, sand, and substances, in, under, or upon the said lands and hereditaments for any term of years, with all such liberties, licenses, powers, and privileges for searching for and working the same, and disposing of the products, as may be deemed reasonable, upon such terms and for such rents, royalties, premiums, and payments, as they may think fit.

Power to lease
minerals.

4. The rents, income, and payments from the said lands shall be received by the trustees of Church property for the diocese of Newcastle, and after payment thereof of all necessary expenses in connection therewith, shall be held by them upon trust for the purpose of providing by lease or purchase and any other expenditure that may be required, and of maintaining and supporting an episcopal residence for the Bishop of Newcastle and his successors, and upon further trust if the Bishop of Newcastle shall so direct to apply any money so directed towards the erection, purchase, and maintenance of such buildings for educational purposes as the said Bishop may think fit, or towards the Cathedral revenue of Christ Church Cathedral, Newcastle : Provided that the said trustees shall only lease, purchase, or provide any such episcopal residence as aforesaid with the consent and by the direction of the Bishop of Newcastle : Provided also, that all expenditure upon the maintenance and support of such residence shall
