NOTE.—The words to be omitted are ruled through; those to be inserted are printed in black letter.

Sydney Corporation Act Amendment.

3. On and after the first day of December next, the Municipal Council of the City of Sydney (hereinafter termed the Council) shall consist of the Mayor and Aldermen elected as hereinafter provided. There shall be three Aldermen for each ward. Any citizen capable of voting for the election of Aldermen, and not disqualified under the provisions of the Sydney Corporation Act of 1879, shall be eligible for election as Alderman.

4. At noon on the ~~ninth day of December in each year~~ the Aldermen shall assemble at the Town Hall for the purpose of electing a Mayor of the City for the forthcoming year. The Mayor shall be a fit person elected from the Aldermen or persons qualified to be such. The Mayor shall enter into office on the first day of January next following his election, and shall hold office until the thirty-first day of December following, and shall be eligible for re-election if still qualified. ~~first day of December in each year~~ the citizens shall elect one of their number to be Mayor of the City for the following year. The Mayor shall enter into office on the first day of January next following the election, and shall hold office until the thirty-first day of December following, and shall be eligible for re-election if still qualified. The provisions and qualifications contained in the Sydney Corporation Act of 1879 relating to the nomination and election of Auditors shall be applicable to the nomination and election of Mayor.

5. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Sydney Corporation Act of 1879, the whole of the present Aldermen of the City of Sydney shall retire from the Council on the thirtieth day of November next, but shall be eligible for re-election.

6. The Aldermen shall be elected for a term of ~~three~~ two years and shall then retire together, and their places shall be filled by a new election. The retiring Aldermen shall be eligible for re-election if still qualified in other respects.

7. The first general election of Aldermen under this Act shall be held on the first day of December next, and subsequent general elections every ~~third~~ second year thereafter. The Mayor, or if he be a candidate for election, the Town Clerk or other citizen as the Council may appoint shall be Returning Officer at all elections.

8. Every election for Mayor or Aldermen shall be held before such citizens as Presiding Officers as the Returning Officer shall in writing under his hand appoint. If any such officer be prevented from attending by unavoidable accident a substitute, with like powers, may be appointed in his place.

9. At every election of Aldermen every voter shall vote for the full number of Aldermen to be elected for the ward, otherwise the vote shall be rejected as informal.
