ANNO SECUNDO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. 90, 1902.

An Act to validate certain loans made to the Borough of Burwood. [Assented to, 19th November, 1902.]

WHEREAS the council of the Borough of Burwood, on the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, borrowed the sum of five thousand pounds for the purposes of the borough, and on the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, borrowed a like amount for the purpose of repaying the first-mentioned loan: And whereas the said council desire to borrow a sum of five thousand pounds for the purpose of repaying the last-mentioned loan, and difficulties have arisen in borrowing the said sum by reason of the alleged invalidity of the loans firstly and secondly mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Burwood Municipal Loan Validation Act, 1902."

2. The loans above mentioned and made on the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, respectively, are hereby declared to have been and to be good and valid loans, and the securities given for such loans are declared to have been and to be good and valid securities for the said loans, notwithstanding any informality or any contravention of or failure to observe the requirements of any statute in relation to the said loans and securities respectively.

By Authority: WILLIAM APPLGATE GULLICK, Government Printer, Sydney, 1902.
