Stock may be sold in London or Sydney.

4. The Loans so authorised as aforesaid may be negotiated wholly or in part in the form of Debentures or Inscribed Stock in New South Wales or in London at such times and for such amounts and for such periods as may be directed by the Governor.

Creation of Stock.

5. Any Stock issued in New South Wales under this Act shall be styled "New South Wales Funded Stock," and shall, if sold otherwise than by tender, be purchasable at the Treasury upon any lawful day.

Application of Funded Stock Act, 1892, to stock sold in New South Wales.

6. (1) The provisions of the Funded Stock Act of 1892, relating to the method of inscription and transfer of Stock, and the regulations under such Act, and the forms prescribed in the said regulations, are hereby declared to be applicable to, and shall be followed and used, mutatis mutandis, in connection with, Stock issued within New South Wales under this Act.

Regulations in respect of Stock sold in London.

(2) In respect of any Stock issued in London under the provisions of this Act, the Governor may make regulations, not being inconsistent with the provisions of the Inscribed Stock Act, 1902, for carrying this Act into effect; and such regulations shall be published in the Gazette and laid before Parliament within fourteen days of the publication thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not sitting, then within fourteen days of the commencement of the next session thereof.

Issue of Treasury Bills.

7. (1) Pending the issue of Debentures or Inscribed Stock under the authority of this Act, the Governor may, by the issue of Treasury Bills, raise such sums of money not exceeding in the whole the amount of moneys authorised to be raised under this Act.

Interest and currency.

(2) Such Treasury Bills shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum, and shall have such currency, not exceeding five years, as the Governor may direct.

Charging of principal moneys and interest.

8. The principal moneys for which such Treasury Bills may be made out shall be chargeable on and payable out of the General Loan Account, and, so far as funds are not on the maturing of such Bills available for such payment out of the said Account, such moneys shall be chargeable on and payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund. The interest on such Treasury Bills shall be chargeable on and payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Application of provisions of Treasury Bills Act, 1902.

9. The provisions of the Treasury Bills Act, 1902, relating to the making out, signing, numbering, dating, and to the amounts of the Treasury Bills authorised by that Act to be issued, and to the cancellation of defaced Treasury Bills and the issue of new Bills in lieu of such Bills and also of such Bills as are lost, burned, or otherwise destroyed, and to the cancellation of discharged Bills shall apply to Treasury Bills issued under this Act.

Sums borrowed, how to be accounted for and appropriated.

10. All moneys borrowed under this Act shall be paid to the Treasurer and shall be by him carried to and form part of the General Loan Account, and be appropriated and applied, as required, to the works and services hereinbefore specified, or to any other duly authorised Loan Service, in terms of the Audit Act, 1902.

Loan.

11. Debentures, Stock, or Treasury Bills sold or issued under this Act are hereby declared to be for all purposes Government Securities; and all corporations and other persons whatsoever shall have power to invest in the purchase of such Debentures, Stock, and Treasury Bills any property held by them, whether as trustees or otherwise, which they are not expressly forbidden to invest in Government Stock or Securities, without on that account being liable for a breach of trust and without incurring any liability whatsoever, provided that such investment is in other respects reasonable and proper.

- Issue of Treasury Bills. 7. (1) Pending the issue of Debentures or Inscribed Stock under the authority of this Act, the Governor may, by the issue of Treasury Bills, raise such sums of money not exceeding in the whole the amount of moneys authorised to be raised under this Act.
- Interest and currency. (2) Such Treasury Bills shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum, and shall have such currency, not exceeding five years, as the Governor may direct.
- Charging of principal moneys and interest. 8. The principal moneys for which such Treasury Bills may be made out shall be chargeable on and payable out of the General Loan Account, and, so far as funds are not on the maturing of such Bills available for such payment out of the said Account, such moneys shall be chargeable on and payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund. The interest on such Treasury Bills shall be chargeable on and payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.
- Application of provisions of Treasury Bills Act, 1902. 9. The provisions of the Treasury Bills Act, 1902, relating to the making out, signing, numbering, dating, and to the amounts of the Treasury Bills authorised by that Act to be issued, and to the cancellation of defaced Treasury Bills and the issue of new Bills in lieu of such Bills and also of such Bills as are lost, burned, or otherwise destroyed, and to the cancellation of discharged Bills shall apply to Treasury Bills issued under this Act.
- Sums borrowed, how to be accounted for and appropriated. 10. All moneys borrowed under this Act shall be paid to the Treasurer and shall be by him carried to and form part of the General Loan Account, and be appropriated and applied, as required, to the works and services hereinbefore specified, or to any other duly authorised Loan Service, in terms of the Audit Act, 1902.

Loan.

11. Debentures, Stock, or Treasury Bills sold or issued under this Act are hereby declared to be for all purposes Government Securities; and all corporations and other persons whatsoever shall have power to invest in the purchase of such Debentures, Stock, and Treasury Bills any property held by them, whether as trustees or otherwise, which they are not expressly forbidden to invest in Government Stock or Securities, without on that account being liable for a breach of trust and without incurring any liability whatsoever, provided that such investment is in other respects reasonable and proper.

Power to trustees
and others to invest in Debentures or
Stock.

In the name and on the behalf of His Majesty I assent to this Act.

*State Government House,
Sydney, 2nd December, 1903.*

HARRY H. RAWSON,
Governor.

4. The Loans so authorised as aforesaid may be negotiated wholly or in part in the form of Debentures or Inscribed Stock in New South Wales or in London at such times and for such amounts and for such periods as may be directed by the Governor. Stock may be sold in London or Sydney.
5. Any Stock issued in New South Wales under this Act shall be styled "New South Wales Funded Stock," and shall, if sold otherwise than by tender, be purchasable at the Treasury upon any lawful day. Creation of Stock.
6. (1) The provisions of the Funded Stock Act of 1892, relating to the method of inscription and transfer of Stock, and the regulations under such Act, and the forms prescribed in the said regulations, are hereby declared to be applicable to, and shall be followed and used, mutatis mutandis, in connection with, Stock issued within New South Wales under this Act. Application of Funded Stock Act, 1892, to stock sold in New South Wales.
- (2) In respect of any Stock issued in London under the provisions of this Act, the Governor may make regulations, not being inconsistent with the provisions of the Inscribed Stock Act, 1902, for carrying this Act into effect; and such regulations shall be published in the Gazette and laid before Parliament within fourteen days of the publication thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not sitting, then within fourteen days of the commencement of the next session thereof. Regulations in respect of Stock sold in London.
7. (1) Pending the issue of Debentures or Inscribed Stock under the authority of this Act, the Governor may, by the issue of Treasury Bills, raise such sums of money not exceeding in the whole the amount of moneys authorised to be raised under this Act. Issue of Treasury Bills.
- (2) Such Treasury Bills shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum, and shall have such currency, not exceeding five years, as the Governor may direct. Interest and currency.
8. The principal moneys for which such Treasury Bills may be made out shall be chargeable on and payable out of the General Loan Account, and, so far as funds are not on the maturing of such Bills available for such payment out of the said Account, such moneys shall be chargeable on and payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund. The interest on such Treasury Bills shall be chargeable on and payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund. Charging of principal moneys and interest.
9. The provisions of the Treasury Bills Act, 1902, relating to the making out, signing, numbering, dating, and to the amounts of the Treasury Bills authorised by that Act to be issued, and to the cancellation of defaced Treasury Bills and the issue of new Bills in lieu of such Bills and also of such Bills as are lost, burned, or otherwise destroyed, and to the cancellation of discharged Bills shall apply to Treasury Bills issued under this Act. Application of provisions of Treasury Bills Act, 1902.
10. All moneys borrowed under this Act shall be paid to the Treasurer and shall be by him carried to and form part of the General Loan Account, and be appropriated and applied, as required, to the works and services hereinbefore specified, or to any other duly authorised Loan Service, in terms of the Audit Act, 1902. Sums borrowed, how to be accounted for and appropriated.

Loan.

11. Debentures, Stock, or Treasury Bills sold or issued under this Act are hereby declared to be for all purposes Government Securities; and all corporations and other persons whatsoever shall have power to invest in the purchase of such Debentures, Stock, and Treasury Bills any property held by them, whether as trustees or otherwise, which they are not expressly forbidden to invest in Government Stock or Securities, without on that account being liable for a breach of trust and without incurring any liability whatsoever, provided that such investment is in other respects reasonable and proper.

Power to trustees
and others to invest
in Debentures or Stock.

[6d.]

11. In the event of a default by the borrower, the lender shall have the right to demand immediate payment of the principal and interest due and to take any action which may be necessary to protect its interests. The lender shall also have the right to assign or sublet the loan to any other person or entity without notice to the borrower. The borrower shall be responsible for all taxes and charges in connection with the loan.
