

New South Wales.

ANNO SECUNDO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. 103, 1902.

An Act to validate certain municipal loans and securities, and to amend the Municipal Loans Further Validating Act of 1897. [Assented to, 20th December, 1902.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Municipal Loans Validating Act, 1902." Short title.

2. The provisions of the Municipal Loans Further Validating Act of 1897 are extended to any loan (whether original or for paying off a previous loan, or partly for the one purpose and partly for the other Extension of provisions of Validating Act of 1897.

Municipal Loans Validating.

other) made to the council of any municipality before the commencement of that Act, notwithstanding that at such commencement or at the time of the publication of a proclamation under that Act in respect of the loan—

(a) the loan had been paid off, satisfied, or otherwise determined; or

(b) the municipality had been divided into and constituted separate municipalities or had otherwise ceased to exist.

Validation of certain loans made since Validating Act of 1897.

3. No loan made to the council of a municipality after the commencement of the Municipal Loans Further Validating Act of 1897, and no security for any such loan shall be deemed invalid or in any way affected by reason only that in the notice of intention to borrow, advertised in pursuance of the Act then in force relating to municipalities, the council stated in general terms the purposes for which the money to be borrowed was intended to be applied, or that it was to be applied for the purpose of carrying out permanent improvements within the municipality, without further specifying the nature of the improvements or giving further information as to the said purpose.

By Authority : WILLIAM APPEGATE GULLICK, Government Printer, Sydney, 1902.

[3d.]

I Certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 13 December, 1902, A.M. }*

F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO SECUNDO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. 103, 1902.

An Act to validate certain municipal loans and securities, and to amend the Municipal Loans Further Validating Act of 1897. [Assented to, 20th December, 1902.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Municipal Loans Validating Act, 1902." Short title.

2. The provisions of the Municipal Loans Further Validating Act of 1897 are extended to any loan (whether original or for paying off a previous loan, or partly for the one purpose and partly for the other) Extension of provisions of Validating Act of 1897.

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

J. H. CANN,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Municipal Loans Validating.

other) made to the council of any municipality before the commencement of that Act, notwithstanding that at such commencement or at the time of the publication of a proclamation under that Act in respect of the loan—

- (a) the loan had been paid off, satisfied, or otherwise determined; or
- (b) the municipality had been divided into and constituted separate municipalities or had otherwise ceased to exist.

Validation of certain loans made since Validating Act of 1897.

3. No loan made to the council of a municipality after the commencement of the Municipal Loans Further Validating Act of 1897, and no security for any such loan shall be deemed invalid or in any way affected by reason only that in the notice of intention to borrow, advertised in pursuance of the Act then in force relating to municipalities, the council stated in general terms the purposes for which the money to be borrowed was intended to be applied, or that it was to be applied for the purpose of carrying out permanent improvements within the municipality, without further specifying the nature of the improvements or giving further information as to the said purpose.

In the name and on the behalf of His Majesty I assent to this Act.

HARRY H. RAWSON,
Governor.

State Government House,
Sydney, 20th December, 1902.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 9 December, 1902.*

F. W. WEBB,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO SECUNDO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. , 1902.

An Act to validate certain municipal loans and securities, and to amend the Municipal Loans Further Validating Act of 1897.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

5 1. This Act may be cited as the "Municipal Loans Validating Act, 1902." Short title.

2. The provisions of the Municipal Loans Further Validating Act of 1897 are extended to any loan (whether original or for paying off a previous loan, or partly for the one purpose and partly for the Extension of provisions of Validating Act of 1897.

Municipal Loans Validating.

other) made to the council of any municipality before the commencement of that Act, notwithstanding that at such commencement or at the time of the publication of a proclamation under that Act in respect of the loan—

- 5 (a) the loan had been paid off, satisfied, or otherwise determined; or
- (b) the municipality had been divided into and constituted separate municipalities or had otherwise ceased to exist.

10 3. No loan made to the council of a municipality after the commencement of the Municipal Loans Further Validating Act of 1897, and no security for any such loan shall be deemed invalid or in any way affected by reason only that in the notice of intention to borrow, advertised in pursuance of the Act then in force relating to municipalities, the council stated in general terms the purposes for 15 which the money to be borrowed was intended to be applied, or that it was to be applied for the purpose of carrying out permanent improvements within the municipality, without further specifying the nature of the improvements or giving further information as to the said purpose.

Validation of certain loans made since Validating Act of 1897.