- (6) he shall at all times have free access to all theatres and other buildings within his district used for purposes of public entertainment or of public concourse, in order to report to the Board whether the proper or prescribed regulations or precautions against fire are being duly observed.

Police officers to assist Superintendent.
Ibid. s. 11.

18. The authority of the Superintendent shall be recognised by all officers and members of the police force and all other persons, and the officer commanding the police force present at any fire shall support and assist such Superintendent in the maintenance of his authority and in enforcing due obedience by all persons to his orders in the due execution of his duties.

Volunteer fire brigades to be subject to inspection
by Superintendent.
Ibid. s. 19.

19. All volunteer fire brigades established within the Metropolitan District shall be subject to inspection by the Superintendent, and shall at all fires be subject to his orders.

Fire Brigades.

PART IV.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO BOARD.

20. (1) Towards the annual outlay, as estimated by the Board, in maintaining the Brigade and for other purposes authorised by this Act, a sum equal to the whole of such outlay shall be contributed annually in equal portions, and be paid to the Board by—

Contributions to expenditure of Board.
47 Vic. No. 3, s. 13.

- (a) the fire insurance companies insuring property within the Metropolitan District;
 - (b) the municipal councils of the City of Sydney and of the several municipalities enumerated in the Schedule hereto;
 - (c) the Colonial Treasurer out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund;
- the said companies contributing one-third of such annual outlay, the said municipal councils one-third, and the Colonial Treasurer one-third thereof.

Schedule.

(2) The amount of such contributions shall in all cases be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first days of January, April, July, and October in each year.

21. The contribution of the said fire insurance companies shall be made by each of such companies providing a sum of money calculated on a percentage on the amount appearing by the return hereinafter mentioned to be held at risk by such company on property situated within the Metropolitan District.

Contributions of insurance companies how ascertained.
Ibid. s. 14.

22. (1) For the purpose of ascertaining the amounts of such contributions every such fire insurance company shall annually, in the month of January or at such other time as the Board directs, transmit to the Board a return showing the amount held at risk by such company on the preceding thirty-first day of December less the sums reinsured with other contributory companies under this Act.

Returns by insurance companies.
Ibid. s. 15.

(2) There shall be annexed to each such return a statutory declaration by the manager, secretary, or agent of such company that, according to the books thereof and to the best of his knowledge and belief, the said return contains a true account and statement of the amount so held at risk by such company.

23. If any such company makes default in transmitting such return and declaration such company shall be liable to a penalty of not less than five pounds for every day during which such default is made or continued.

Penalty for default in transmitting returns.
Ibid.

24. (1) The secretary or other officer having the custody of the books and papers of any such contributory insurance company shall allow any officer appointed by the Board to inspect during the hours of business any books and papers of such company and to make extracts therefrom in order to verify any return or declaration made in pursuance of this Act.

Insurance company to permit books to be inspected.
Ibid. s. 16.

(2)

Fire Brigades.

(2) Any such secretary or officer failing to comply with the requirements of this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every such offence.

Municipal contributions how ascertained.
47 Vic. No. 3, s. 17.

25. The contribution of the municipal councils of the City of Sydney, and of the several municipalities enumerated in the Schedule hereto, shall be ascertained and provided by a pro rata apportionment thereof according to the assessed value of ratable property situate in the said city and municipalities respectively as shown by the then last preceding assessment.

Penalty for default in payment of contribution.
Ibid. s. 18.

26. If the municipal council of the City of Sydney, or if the council of any municipality, or if any such contributory insurance company fails to pay the quarterly payment prescribed by this Act within thirty days after it becomes due, such council or company shall be liable to a penalty of fifty pounds.

Municipal contributions under this Act to form part of rate.
Ibid. s. 22.

27. (1) The amount of any contribution payable under this Act by the municipal council of the City of Sydney or the council of any municipality to which this Act applies, or is hereafter extended, may be raised by such council, if necessary (and notwithstanding any statutory limit of such rate), by increasing the city or municipal rate for the year next following the payment of such contribution by such a sum in the pound as is sufficient to provide the amount thereof.

(2) Such increased rate shall for all purposes be deemed a city or municipal rate for that year, and be recoverable as such.

PART V.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Damage to property by Superintendent, &c., to be deemed loss by fire.
Ibid. s. 12.

28. Any damage to property caused by the Superintendent in the lawful execution of any power conferred by this Act, or by any member of a fire brigade acting under his orders, shall be deemed to be damage by fire within the meaning of any policy of insurance against fire covering the property so damaged.

Volunteer fire brigades to be registered.
Ibid. s. 19.

29. All volunteer fire brigades established within the Metropolitan District shall be registered at the office of the Board.

Bonus on Superintendent's certificate.
Ibid. s. 19.

30. On the Superintendent's certificate of the efficiency of any such brigade as mentioned in the next preceding section, or on proof that efficient and valuable service has been rendered by any member thereof at any fire, the Board may pay to such volunteer fire brigade, by way of bonus, such sum as the Board thinks fit, and may likewise reward such member.

Extension of Act within the County of Cumberland.
Ibid. Schedule.

31. The Governor may, by proclamation in the Gazette, declare that the provisions of this Act shall extend to any borough or municipal district situate within the County of Cumberland and not named named in the Schedule hereto, and thereupon the provisions of this Act shall extend to such borough or municipal district as if the same had originally been named in the said Schedule.

32. (1) The Governor may, by proclamation in the Gazette, extend this Act to any borough or municipal district in New South Wales situate outside the county of Cumberland, on application to that effect by such borough or municipal district. Extension of Act to country municipalities.
47 Vic. No. 3, s. 20.

(2) The Governor may, by such proclamation, give effect to such extension by the substitution of any local officer for the Superintendent under this Act.

(3) Upon such extension such provisions of this Act as meet the requirements of such borough or municipal district shall apply.

33. (1) Upon such extension of this Act to such borough or municipal district under the next preceding section, the mayor for the time being of such borough or district, together with two persons, one to be appointed by the Governor and one to be elected by the insurance companies, shall be the Fire Brigades Board for the purposes of such extension. Country boards.
Ibid. s. 20.

(2) The funds of such Board shall be provided in equal proportions by the fire insurance companies insuring property within such borough or district, the municipal council thereof, and the Colonial Treasurer, in the same proportions and under the same penalties mutatis mutandis as provided by this Act in respect of the Board hereby constituted and its expenditure. Contributions in country municipalities.

34. (1) The Governor may make regulations for the purpose of giving effect to this Act in all matters whatsoever, and may by such regulations fix the maximum penalty for every breach thereof. Regulations.
Ibid. s. 21.

(2) Such regulations when published in the Gazette shall have the force of law.

(3) A copy of such regulations shall be laid before Parliament within fourteen days after the publication thereof if Parliament is then in session, and if not, then within fourteen days after the commencement of its next ensuing session.

35. (1) Any penalty or contribution, or both, incurred or made payable under or pursuant to this Act, or any regulation made thereunder, may be recovered in a summary way before any stipendiary or police magistrate in the police district within which such penalty was incurred or such contribution became payable— Penalties and contributions how recovered.
Ibid. s. 23.

- (a) within the Metropolitan District on an information in the name of the Superintendent; and
- (b) elsewhere on an information in the name of any officer or person authorised in that behalf by the fire brigades board of the borough or municipal district within which the penalty or contribution was incurred or became payable.

Fire Brigades.

(2) Payment of any such contribution may be enforced by distress and sale of the defaulter's goods and chattels.

Application of penalties, &c.
47 Vic. No. 3, s. 23.

36. All penalties and contributions recovered under this Act shall be paid over to the board of the district or municipality within which the same were incurred or became payable.

Proceedings against unincorporated companies.
Ibid. s. 23.

37. Where a company is not incorporated, or has no public officer, the proceedings may be laid in the name of the manager, secretary, or agent of such company, in which case judgment against such manager, secretary, or agent shall bind the property of the company.
