

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY for its concurrence.

*Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, 8th November, 1905. }*

JOHN J. CALVERT,
Clerk of the Parliaments.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINTO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. , 1905.

An Act to amend the Dentists Act, 1900, and the Jury Act, 1901; and for other purposes connected therewith or consequent thereon.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

5 1. This Act may be cited as the "Dentists Amendment Act, Short title. 1905," and shall be read and construed as one with the Dentists Act, 1900, hereinafter called the Principal Act.

2. Sections nine, eleven, twelve, thirteen, and fifteen of the Repeal. Principal Act are hereby repealed.

Dentists Amendment.

3. Any person above the age of twenty-one years and of good character, who proves to the satisfaction of the board that he—

Qualification
necessary for registration.

- 5 (a) has passed the entrance examination in the dental curriculum of the University of Sydney, or some examination which in the opinion of the Senate of the University of Sydney is equivalent to the present standard of such entrance examination, and such other examinations before the examiners appointed by the board as prescribed, or any equivalent examinations approved by the board in lieu thereof, and has
- 10 been engaged during four years in the acquirement of professional knowledge with a dentist practising in New South Wales under articles of apprenticeship or an agreement to study registered in accordance with the regulations made under the Principal or this Act; or
- 15 (b) has obtained a diploma or degree in dentistry from the University of Sydney; or
- 20 (c) has obtained a diploma, certificate, or degree in dentistry from a university, college, or public institution in the Commonwealth of Australia or elsewhere which permits him to practise in the place in which it was granted and has shown to the satisfaction of the board that his diploma, certificate, or degree in dentistry was obtained after passing a preliminary examination in general education equivalent to the entrance examination in the dental curriculum of the
- 25 University of Sydney and after a period of four years of professional study; or
- 30 (d) holds a certificate of registration to practise as a dentist in such other State of the Commonwealth of Australia or place in which an authoritative body has a reciprocal arrangement with the board of mutual recognition of certificates to so practise,

shall be entitled to be registered as a dentist under the Principal Act: Provided that the repeal of sections eleven and twelve of the Principal Act shall not, nor shall anything in this section contained, be deemed

35 to apply to any student or apprentice engaged in the study of dentistry who, prior to the passing of this Act, had entered upon such study either in this State or in some University, College, or other public institution in a British possession or foreign country to become, or who has become, the holder of some recognised certificate, as defined in the

40 Principal Act, and who proves to the satisfaction of the Board that he is of good character. All rights of such students, apprentices, or holders of recognised certificates as aforesaid, are hereby reserved.

Dentists Amendment.

4. (1) The board may refuse to register as a dentist, or may remove from the register the name of any person if it appears to the satisfaction of the board that such person,—

Refusal to place names on, and removal from, register.

- 5 (a) does not possess the qualifications in respect of which he was registered; or
- (b) has been convicted of an offence which, if committed in New South Wales, would be a felony or misdemeanour; or
- (c) has been guilty of infamous conduct in any professional respect, misconduct, or of malpractice, either ignorantly, 10 negligently, or wilfully; or
- (d) assumes any name, title, word, letters, addition, or description implying or lending to the belief that he is other than as described in the register, or as is permitted by the regulations made under the Principal Act; or
- 15 (e) practises or has practised since the passing of this Act under the name or style of any company, institution, hospital, college, school, or association.

(2) No such refusal or removal shall be made except after inquiry by the board sitting as an open court, and the person whose 20 name is proposed to be refused registration or removed from the register as aforesaid shall, on every inquiry, have the right to be heard either in person or by counsel, and shall have the right of appeal to the District Court; such appeal shall be in the nature of a rehearing.

5. (1) After the passing of this Act, no person other than a 25 legally-qualified medical practitioner, unless registered under this Act or the Principal Act, shall—

Unregistered persons not to assume name of dentists, &c.

- 30 (a) take, use, or adopt the name, title, or description of "dentist," or "dental practitioner," or "dental surgeon," or "surgeon dentist," either alone or in conjunction with any name, title, word, letters, addition, or description implying or tending to the belief that he is registered under this or the Principal Act, or that he is qualified or entitled to practise dentistry, or is carrying on the practice of dentistry or dental surgery; or
- 35 (b) practise dentistry or dental surgery for reward; or
- (c) act without the sanction of the board as a surgical or operative assistant to a dentist duly registered, unless he be an apprentice in the third or fourth year of his apprenticeship, and under the immediate direction of the dentist to whom he 40 is apprenticed.

(2) Any person offending against this section shall be liable 45 to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds for every such offence, and to a further penalty of five pounds for every day during which such offence is continued.

Penalty.

Dentists Amendment.

6. (1) The board may, with the approval of the Governor, Regulations, make, alter, and repeal regulations—

- (a) for generally carrying into effect the objects of this Act;
- 5 (b) for fixing the time and regulating the election of members of the board ;
- (c) for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the board and the conduct of the business of the board ;
- (d) for regulating the registration of all articles of apprenticeship under which apprentices to dentists are now or may hereafter
- 10 be serving ;
- (e) for regulating the examination of persons claiming to be registered as dentists, and for determining the qualifications to be held and the evidence to be produced by any such persons, and the form of certificates to be given by the board ;
- 15 (f) for regulating the recognition of diplomas, certificates, and degrees under section three of this Act ;
- (g) for determining what name, title, word, letters, addition, or description may be used by dentists in conjunction with their names ;
- 20 (h) for determining the fees payable in respect of any proceeding or registration under this Act ;

(2) All such regulations shall, upon being published in the Government Gazette, be good and valid in law, provided that a copy of all such regulations be laid before both Houses of Parliament within

25 fourteen days from publication thereof, if Parliament be then in session, otherwise within fourteen days after the commencement of the next ensuing session.

7. No person registered under the Principal Act, and in the Exemption from active practice of his profession, shall be required to serve on any serving on jury.

30 jury whatsoever, and his name shall not be inserted in the lists prepared by virtue of the Jury Act, 1901, or any Act amending the same.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY for its concurrence.

*Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, November, 1905. }*

Clerk of the Parliaments.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUINTO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. , 1905.

An Act to amend the Dentists Act, 1900, and the Jury Act, 1901; and for other purposes connected therewith or consequent thereon.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

5 1. This Act may be cited as the “Dentists Amendment Act, Short title. 1905,” and shall be read and construed as one with the Dentists Act, 1900, hereinafter called the Principal Act.

2. Sections nine, eleven, twelve, thirteen, and fifteen of the Repeal. Principal Act are hereby repealed.

Dentists Amendment.

3. Any person above the age of twenty-one years and of good character, who proves to the satisfaction of the board that he—

Qualification
necessary for
registration.

- 5 (a) has passed the entrance examination in the dental curriculum of the University of Sydney, or some examination which in the opinion of the Senate of the University of Sydney is equivalent to the present standard of such entrance examination, and such other examinations before the examiners appointed by the board as prescribed, or any equivalent examinations approved by the board in lieu thereof, and has
10 been engaged during four years in the acquirement of professional knowledge with a dentist practising in New South Wales under articles of apprenticeship or an agreement to study registered in accordance with the regulations made under the Principal or this Act; or
- 15 (b) has obtained a diploma or degree in dentistry from the University of Sydney; or
- 20 (c) has obtained a diploma, certificate, or degree in dentistry from a university, college, or public institution in the Commonwealth of Australia or elsewhere which permits him to practise in the place in which it was granted and has shown to the satisfaction of the board that his diploma, certificate, or degree in dentistry was obtained after passing 25 a preliminary examination in general education equivalent to the entrance examination in the dental curriculum of the University of Sydney and after a period of four years of professional study; or
- 30 (d) holds a certificate of registration to practise as a dentist in such other State of the Commonwealth of Australia or place in which an authoritative body has a reciprocal arrangement with the board of mutual recognition of certificates to so practise,

shall be entitled to be registered as a dentist under the Principal Act: Provided that the repeal of sections eleven and twelve of the Principal Act shall not, nor shall anything in this section contained, be deemed
35 to apply to any student or apprentice engaged in the study of dentistry who, prior to the passing of this Act, had entered upon such study either in this State or in some University, College, or other public institution in a British possession or foreign country to become, or who has become, the holder of some recognised certificate, as defined in the
40 Principal Act, and who proves to the satisfaction of the Board that he is of good character. All rights of such students, apprentices, or holders of recognised certificates as aforesaid, are hereby reserved.

Dentists Amendment.

4. (1) The board may refuse to register as a dentist, or may remove from the register the name of any person if it appears to the satisfaction of the board that such person,—

Refusal to place names on, and removal from, register.

- 5 (a) does not possess the qualifications in respect of which he was registered; or
- (b) has been convicted of an offence which, if committed in New South Wales, would be a felony or misdemeanour; or
- 10 (c) has been guilty of infamous conduct in any professional respect, misconduct, or of malpractice, either ignorantly, negligently, or wilfully; or
- (d) assumes any name, title, word, letters, addition, or description implying or lending to the belief that he is other than as described in the register, or as is permitted by the regulations made under the Principal Act; or
- 15 (e) practises or has practised since the passing of this Act under the name or style of any company, institution, hospital, college, school, or association.

(2) No such refusal or removal shall be made except after inquiry by the board sitting as an open court, and the person whose name is proposed to be refused registration or removed from the register as aforesaid shall, on every inquiry, have the right to be heard either in person or by counsel, and shall have the right of appeal to the District Court; such appeal shall be in the nature of a rehearing.

5. (1) After the passing of this Act, no person other than a legally-qualified medical practitioner, unless registered under this Act or the Principal Act, shall—

Unregistered persons not to assume name of dentists, &c.

- 30 (a) take, use, or adopt the name, title, or description of "dentist," or "dental practitioner," or "dental surgeon," or "surgeon dentist," either alone or in conjunction with any name, title, word, letters, addition, or description implying or tending to the belief that he is registered under this or the Principal Act, or that he is qualified or entitled to practise dentistry, or is carrying on the practice of dentistry or dental surgery; or
- 35 (b) practise dentistry or dental surgery for reward; or
- (c) act without the sanction of the board as a surgical or operative assistant to a dentist duly registered, unless he be an apprentice in the third or fourth year of his apprenticeship, and under the immediate direction of the dentist to whom he
- 40 is apprenticed.

(2) Any person offending against this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds for every such offence, and to a further penalty of five pounds for every day during which such offence is continued.

Penalty.

Dentists Amendment.

6. (1) The board may, with the approval of the Governor, Regulations, make, alter, and repeal regulations—

- (a) for generally carrying into effect the objects of this Act;
- 5 (b) for fixing the time and regulating the election of members of the board ;
- (c) for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the board and the conduct of the business of the board ;
- 10 (d) for regulating the registration of all articles of apprenticeship under which apprentices to dentists are now or may hereafter be serving ;
- (e) for regulating the examination of persons claiming to be registered as dentists, and for determining the qualifications to be held and the evidence to be produced by any such persons, and the form of certificates to be given by the board ;
- 15 (f) for regulating the recognition of diplomas, certificates, and degrees under section three of this Act ;
- (g) for determining what name, title, word, letters, addition, or description may be used by dentists in conjunction with their names ;
- 20 (h) for determining the fees payable in respect of any proceeding or registration under this Act ;

(2) All such regulations shall, upon being published in the Government Gazette, be good and valid in law, provided that a copy of all such regulations be laid before both Houses of Parliament within
25 fourteen days from publication thereof, if Parliament be then in session, otherwise within fourteen days after the commencement of the next ensuing session.

7. No person registered under the Principal Act, and in the active practice of his profession, shall be required to serve on any
30 jury whatsoever, and his name shall not be inserted in the lists prepared by virtue of the Jury Act, 1901, or any Act amending the same. Exemption from serving on jury.

1905.

Legislative Council.

DENTISTS AMENDMENT BILL.

(Amendments to be proposed in Committee of the Whole by SIR ARTHUR RENWICK.)

Clause 2, line 8. Omit "and"

Clause 2, line 8. After "thirteen" insert "and fifteen"

Clause 3, section (a), line 5. Omit "thereto" insert "to the "present standard of such entrance examination"

Clause 3, section (d), line 22. Omit "entered into"

Clause 3, line 25. After "Principal Act" add "Provided that "nothing in this clause contained shall be deemed to apply
"to any student or apprentice engaged in the study of "dentistry who, prior to the passing of this Act, had entered "upon such study either in this State or in some University, "College, or other public institution in a British possession or "foreign country to become, or who has become, the holder
"of some recognised certificate, as defined in the Principal
"Act, and who proves to the satisfaction of the Board that "he is of good character. All rights of such students,
"apprentices, or holders of recognised certificates as afore-
"said, are hereby reserved"

Clause 4, section (e), line 40. After "practises" insert "or has "practised since the passing of this Act"

Clause 5, section (c), line 16. Before "Act" insert "without the "sanction of the Board"

Clause 5, section (c), line 17. After "student" insert "or apprentice"

After clause 5 insert the following new clause:—

6. (1) The Board may, with the approval of the Governor, Regulations, make, alter, and repeal regulations—

- (a) for generally carrying into effect the objects of this Act;
- (b) for fixing the time and regulating the election of members of the Board;
- (c) for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Board and the conduct of the business of the Board;

c 90—

(d)

- (d) for regulating the registration of all articles of apprenticeship and agreements to study, under which apprentices or students to dentists are now or may hereafter be serving ;
- (e) for regulating the examination of persons claiming to be registered as dentists, and for determining the qualifications to be held and the evidence to be produced by any such persons, and the form of certificates to be given by the Board ;
- (f) for regulating the recognition of diplomas, certificates, and degrees under section three of this Act ;
- (g) for determining what name, title, word, letters, addition, or description may be used by dentists in conjunction with their names ;
- (h) for determining the fees payable in respect of any proceeding or registration under this Act ;
- (i) for imposing penalties and fines in respect of any such regulation, provided that no such penalty or fine shall exceed ten pounds.

(2) All such regulations shall, upon being published in the Government Gazette, be good and valid in law, provided that a copy of all such regulations be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days from publication thereof, if Parliament be then in session, otherwise within fourteen days after the commencement of the next ensuing session.

Legislative Council.

No. , 1905.

A BILL

To amend the Dentists Act, 1900, and the Jury Act, 1901; and for other purposes connected therewith or consequent thereon.

[SIR ARTHUR RENWICK;—4 October, 1905.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

5 1. This Act may be cited as the "Dentists Amendment Act, Short title. 1905," and shall be read and construed as one with the Dentists Act, 1900, hereinafter called the Principal Act.

2. Sections nine, eleven, twelve, and thirteen of the Principal Repeal. Act are hereby repealed.

63102

c 80—

3.

Qualification necessary for registration.

3. Any person above the age of twenty-one years and of good character, who proves to the satisfaction of the board that he—

- (a) has passed the entrance examination in the dental curriculum of the University of Sydney, or some examination in the opinion of the board equivalent thereto, and such other 5 examinations before the examiners appointed by the board as prescribed, or any equivalent examinations approved by the board in lieu thereof, and has been engaged during four years in the acquirement of professional knowledge with a dentist practising in New South Wales under articles of apprenticeship or an agreement to study registered in accordance with the regulations made under the Principal or this Act; or
- (b) has obtained a diploma or degree in dentistry from the University of Sydney; or
- (c) has obtained a diploma, certificate, or degree in dentistry 15 from a university, college, or public institution in the Commonwealth of Australia or elsewhere which permits him to practise in such place, and has passed a prescribed examination before the board; or
- (d) holds a certificate of registration to practise as a dentist in 20 such other State of the Commonwealth of Australia or place, in which an authoritative body has entered into a reciprocal arrangement with the board of mutual recognition of certificates to so practise, shall be entitled to be registered as a dentist under the Principal Act. 25

Refusal to place names on, and removal from, register.

4. (1) The board may refuse to register as a dentist, or may remove from the register the name of any person if it appears to the satisfaction of the board that such person,—

- (a) does not possess the qualifications in respect of which he was registered; or 30
- (b) has been convicted of an offence which, if committed in New South Wales, would be a felony or misdemeanour; or
- (c) has been guilty of infamous conduct in any professional respect, misconduct, or of malpractice, either ignorantly, negligently, or wilfully; or 35
- (d) assumes any name, title, word, letters, addition, or description implying or lending to the belief that he is other than as described in the register, or as is permitted by the regulations made under the Principal Act; or
- (e) practises under the name or style of any company, institution, 40 hospital, college, school, or association.

(2) No such refusal or removal shall be made except after inquiry by the board sitting as an open court, and the person whose name is proposed to be refused registration or removed from the register

register as aforesaid shall, on every inquiry, have the right to be heard either in person or by counsel, and shall have the right of appeal to the District Court; such appeal shall be in the nature of a rehearing.

5 5. (1) After the passing of this Act, no person other than a Unregistered persons not to assume name of dentists, &c. legally-qualified medical practitioner, unless registered under this Act or the Principal Act, shall—

- 10 (a) take, use, or adopt the name, title, or description of “dentist,” or “dental practitioner,” or “dental surgeon,” or “surgeon dentist,” either alone or in conjunction with any name, title, word, letters, addition, or description implying or tending to the belief that he is registered under this or the Principal Act, or that he is qualified or entitled to practise dentistry, or is carrying on the practice of dentistry or dental surgery; or
- 15 (b) practise dentistry or dental surgery for reward; or
- (c) act as a surgical or operative assistant to a dentist duly registered, unless he be a student in the third or fourth year of his engagement, and under the immediate direction of the dentist with whom he is studying or to whom he is
- 20 apprenticed.

(2) Any person offending against this section shall be liable Penalty. to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds for every such offence, and to a further penalty of five pounds for every day during which such offence is continued.

25 6. No person registered under the Principal Act, and in the Exemption from serving on jury. active practice of his profession, shall be required to serve on any jury whatsoever, and his name shall not be inserted in the lists prepared by virtue of the Jury Act, 1901, or any Act amending the same.

