BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Dower Abolition Act, 1906." Short title.
2. No widow shall be entitled, nor after the commencement of Dower abolished. the Probate Act of 1890 shall any widow be deemed to have been entitled, to dower out of any land or out of any estate or interest in the same.
3. Nothing in this Act shall affect any rights the subject of Saving. proceedings in any court of law or equity pending at the commencement of this Act, or any decision pronounced by a court of competent jurisdiction before the commencement of this Act.

By Authority : WILLIAM APPELATE GULLICK, Government Printer, Sydney, 1906.

The first part of the book is devoted to a general introduction of the subject, and to a description of the various forms of the disease, and the manner in which it is communicated. The second part contains a detailed account of the symptoms, and the progress of the disease, and the manner in which it is cured. The third part is devoted to a description of the various remedies which have been used in the treatment of the disease, and the manner in which they are administered. The fourth part contains a description of the various forms of the disease, and the manner in which they are cured. The fifth part is devoted to a description of the various remedies which have been used
 in the treatment of the disease, and the manner in which they are administered.

The author has endeavored to present a complete and accurate account of the disease, and the manner in which it is cured. He has also endeavored to present a complete and accurate account of the various remedies which have been used in the treatment of the disease, and the manner in which they are administered.
