ANNO QUINTO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

An Act to authorise the construction, maintenance, and regulation of cattle sale-yards by the council of the municipal district of Moss Vale. [Assented to, 26th September, 1905.]

WHEREAS certain land, containing by admeasurement one acre Preamble.
three roods eight perches, more or less, situate within the municipal district of Moss Vale, and more particularly described in the Schedule hereto, was purchased by the council of the said municipal district for the purpose of erecting public cattle sale-yards thereon: And whereas it is expedient that yards for the sale of cattle should be established on the said land, and it is necessary for such purpose that full power should be given to the said council to erect, construct, and maintain suitable buildings and yards and such other works as may be deemed expedient on such land or portion thereof, and for such purpose to appoint officers, and make by-laws for the maintenance, regulation,

Moss Vale Cattle Sale-yards.

regulation, and management of such sale-yards, and for other purposes in connection therewith, and to levy fees and charges in respect of cattle sold, or offered, or brought for sale at or to the said sale-yards or other sale-yards within or adjacent to the said municipal district: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Interpretation of the word "cattle."

1. In this Act the word "cattle" includes horses, mares, geldings, foals, bulls, bullocks, cows, steers, heifers, calves, pigs, sheep, lambs, goats, and all other live stock.

Council may erect yards, &c.

2. The council of the municipal district of Moss Vale may erect, construct, and maintain suitable buildings, yards, and such other works as may be deemed expedient (hereinafter called the said sale-yards) upon the land in the Schedule hereto set forth for the purpose of making provision for the sale of cattle therein.

Disposal of profits.

3. (1) The proceeds arising from the fees and charges to be levied as herein provided, and all profits accruing from the use of the said sale-yards, received by the said council, shall be placed to an account to be called "The Cattle Sale-yards Fund," and be appropriated in the first instance towards the payment of all expenses incident to the maintenance of the said sale-yards.

(2) After such expenses are provided for, all moneys standing at the end of each half year to the credit of such fund shall be passed to the credit of the general revenue of the said council.

Power to appoint officers.

4. The said council may from time to time appoint officers and servants for the maintenance, regulation, and management of the said sale-yards, and generally for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

By-laws.

5. (1) The said council may make by-laws for—
- (a) the maintenance, regulation, and management of the said sale-yards;
 - (b) the guidance of persons buying and selling therein or resorting thereto;
 - (c) levying fees and charges as hereinafter mentioned;
 - (d) generally carrying out the purposes of this Act.

Penalties.

(2) Such by-laws shall clearly set forth what pecuniary or other penalty or forfeiture shall be incurred by any breach thereof respectively. No such pecuniary penalty or forfeiture shall in any case exceed the sum of five pounds.

Approval and proof of by-laws.

(3) All such by-laws shall, after approval by the Governor, be published in the Gazette and in one local newspaper. The production of the Gazette containing a copy of any such by-laws shall be sufficient evidence that such by-laws have been duly made and approved in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Moss Vale Cattle Sale-yards.

6. So soon as any such sale-yards are established and by-laws approved and published, the said council may demand and take, in respect of any cattle intended for sale by public auction or private contract, and yarded in or brought to or sold or offered for sale at such sale-yards, or any other sale-yards within the said municipal district, the fees or charges mentioned in the said by-laws: Provided that the fees or charges levied by the said council upon cattle yarded in or brought to or sold or offered for sale at any such other sale-yards shall not exceed those levied upon cattle yarded in or brought to or sold or offered for sale at the said sale-yards established under this Act. Power to demand and take fees.

7. All fees or charges payable, and all penalties and forfeitures incurred under this Act, or any by-laws hereunder, may be recovered in a summary manner at the suit of the said council, or the council clerk of the said municipal district, under the provisions of the Act or Acts for the time being in force regulating summary proceedings before justices. Recovery of penalties.

8. This Act may be cited as the "Moss Vale Cattle Sale-yards Act of 1905." Short title.

SCHEDULE.
