

New South Wales.

ANNO QUARTO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. 36, 1904.

An Act to provide for the lighting by electricity of municipalities ; to apply the provisions of the Municipalities Act, 1897, relating to municipal gasworks and gas to municipal electric light works and electricity ; and for other purposes. [Assented to, 29th December, 1904.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Municipalities Electric Light Act, 1904." Short title.

2. In this Act the expression—
"Electric light works" means and includes transformers, fittings, and apparatus for the supply of electricity, also any buildings, machinery, engines, matters or things of whatever description required to generate or supply electricity, and to carry into effect the purpose of this Act.

Definition.

"Electricity" means electricity, electric current, or any like agency.

3.

Municipalities Electric Light.

Municipalities Act to apply to electric light.

3. The provisions of the Municipalities Act, 1897, relating to municipal gasworks and gas shall, as far as they are applicable, apply mutatis mutandis to municipal electric light works and electricity.

Vote of ratepayers to be taken.

4. No council shall enter into any contract for, or undertake the erection or purchase of, electric light works until a vote of the ratepayers on the question whether the municipality should be lighted by electricity shall have been taken, and unless the vote shall have been in the affirmative. The council may make by-laws regulating the taking of the vote of the ratepayers.

Saving.

5. This Act shall in no way affect any other Act, public or private, passed before the commencement of this Act, and dealing with the electric lighting of any municipality.

By Authority: WILLIAM APPEGATE GULLICK, Government Printer, Sydney, 1905.

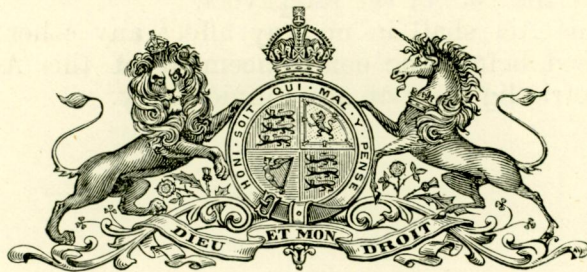

[3d.]

I Certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

*Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, 20th December, 1904.* }

JOHN J. CALVERT,
Clerk of the Parliaments.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUARTO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. 36, 1904.

An Act to provide for the lighting by electricity of municipalities ; to apply the provisions of the Municipalities Act, 1897, relating to municipal gasworks and gas to municipal electric light works and electricity ; and for other purposes. [Assented to, 29th December, 1904.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Municipalities Electric Light Act, 1904." Short title.

2. In this Act the expression—

Definition.

"Electric light works" means and includes transformers, fittings, and apparatus for the supply of electricity, also any buildings, machinery, engines, matters or things of whatever description required to generate or supply electricity, and to carry into effect the purpose of this Act.

"Electricity" means electricity, electric current, or any like agency.

Municipalities Electric Light.

Municipalities Act to apply to electric light.

3. The provisions of the Municipalities Act, 1897, relating to municipal gasworks and gas shall, as far as they are applicable, apply mutatis mutandis to municipal electric light works and electricity.

Vote of ratepayers to be taken.

4. No council shall enter into any contract for, or undertake the erection or purchase of, electric light works until a vote of the ratepayers on the question whether the municipality should be lighted by electricity shall have been taken, and unless the vote shall have been in the affirmative. The council may make by-laws regulating the taking of the vote of the ratepayers.

Saving.

5. This Act shall in no way affect any other Act, public or private, passed before the commencement of this Act, and dealing with the electric lighting of any municipality.

In the name and on the behalf of His Majesty I assent to this Act.

*State Government House,
Sydney, 29th December, 1904.*

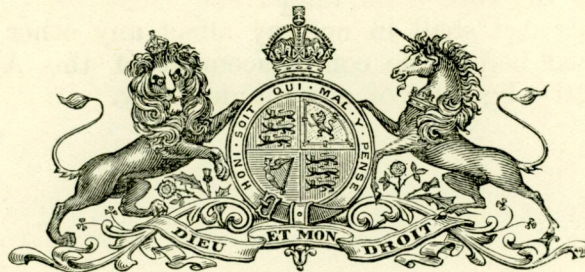

HARRY H. RAWSON,
Governor.

I Certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

*Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, 20th December, 1904. }*

JOHN J. CALVERT,
Clerk of the Parliaments.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUARTO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. 36, 1904.

An Act to provide for the lighting by electricity of municipalities ; to apply the provisions of the Municipalities Act, 1897, relating to municipal gasworks and gas to municipal electric light works and electricity ; and for other purposes. [Assented to, 29th December, 1904.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Municipalities Electric Light Act, 1904." Short title.

2. In this Act the expression—

Definition.

"Electric light works" means and includes transformers, fittings, and apparatus for the supply of electricity, also any buildings, machinery, engines, matters or things of whatever description required to generate or supply electricity, and to carry into effect the purpose of this Act.

"Electricity" means electricity, electric current, or any like agency.

Municipalities Electric Light.

Municipalities Act to apply to electric light.

3. The provisions of the Municipalities Act, 1897, relating to municipal gasworks and gas shall, as far as they are applicable, apply mutatis mutandis to municipal electric light works and electricity.

Vote of ratepayers to be taken.

4. No council shall enter into any contract for, or undertake the erection or purchase of, electric light works until a vote of the ratepayers on the question whether the municipality should be lighted by electricity shall have been taken, and unless the vote shall have been in the affirmative. The council may make by-laws regulating the taking of the vote of the ratepayers.

Saving.

5. This Act shall in no way affect any other Act, public or private, passed before the commencement of this Act, and dealing with the electric lighting of any municipality.

In the name and on the behalf of His Majesty I assent to this Act.

HARRY H. RAWSON,
State Government House, Governor.
Sydney, 29th December, 1904.

MUNICIPALITIES ELECTRIC LIGHT BILL.

SCHEDULE of Amendments referred to in Message of December, 1904.

Page 2, clause 4. Omit clause 4.

Page 2, clause 5, line 8. After "erection" insert "or purchase"

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY for its concurrence.

*Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, 24th November, 1904. }*

JOHN J. CALVERT,
Clerk of the Parliaments.

The LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY has this day agreed to this Bill with Amendments.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, December, 1904. }*

Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUARTO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. , 1904.

An Act to provide for the lighting by electricity of municipalities ; to apply the provisions of the Municipalities Act, 1897, relating to municipal gasworks and gas to municipal electric light works and electricity ; and for other purposes.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

5 1. This Act may be cited as the "Municipalities Electric Light Short title. Act, 1904."

2. In this Act the expression—

Definition.

10 "Electric light works" means and includes transformers, fittings, and apparatus for the supply of electricity, also any buildings, machinery, engines, matters or things of whatever description required to generate or supply electricity, and to carry into effect the purpose of this Act.

 "Electricity" means electricity, electric current, or any like agency.

48100

c 98—

3.

NOTE.—The words to be omitted are ruled through ; those to be inserted are printed in black letter.

Municipalities Electric Light.

3. The provisions of the Municipalities Act, 1897, relating to municipal gasworks and gas shall, as far as they are applicable, apply mutatis mutandis to municipal electric light works and electricity. Municipalities Act to apply to electric light.

4. Any council may contract with any person for the erection of electric light works within, the supply of electricity to, or the lighting by electricity of, a municipality. Power to contract.

5. No council shall enter into any contract for, or undertake the erection or purchase of, electric light works until a vote of the ratepayers on the question whether the municipality should be lighted by electricity shall have been taken, and unless the vote shall have been in the affirmative. The council may make by-laws regulating the taking of the vote of the ratepayers. Vote of ratepayers to be taken.

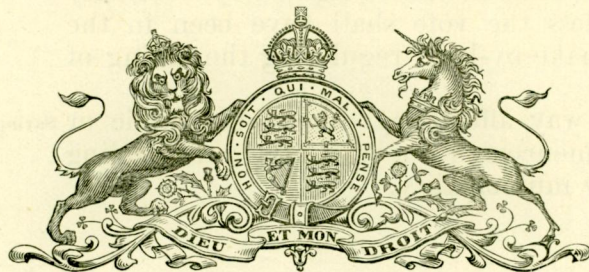

6. This Act shall in no way affect any other Act, public or private, passed before the commencement of this Act, and dealing with the electric lighting of any municipality. Saving.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY for its concurrence.

*Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, 24th November, 1904.* }

JOHN J. CALVERT,
Clerk of the Parliaments.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUARTO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. , 1904.

An Act to provide for the lighting by electricity of municipalities ;
to apply the provisions of the Municipalities Act, 1897,
relating to municipal gasworks and gas to municipal electric light works and electricity ; and for other purposes.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

5 1. This Act may be cited as the " Municipalities Electric Light Short title.
Act, 1904."

10 2. In this Act the expression— Definition.
" Electric light works " means and includes transformers, fittings,
and apparatus for the supply of electricity, also any buildings,
machinery, engines, matters or things of whatever description required to generate or supply electricity, and to carry into effect the purpose of this Act.

" Electricity " means electricity, electric current, or any like agency.

Municipalities Electric Light.

3. The provisions of the Municipalities Act, 1897, relating to municipal gasworks and gas shall, as far as they are applicable, apply mutatis mutandis to municipal electric light works and electricity. Municipalities Act to apply to electric light.

4. Any council may contract with any person for the erection of electric light works within, the supply of electricity to, or the lighting by electricity of, a municipality. Power to contract.

5. No council shall enter into any contract for, or undertake the erection of, electric light works until a vote of the ratepayers on the question whether the municipality should be lighted by electricity shall have been taken, and unless the vote shall have been in the affirmative. The council may make by-laws regulating the taking of the vote of the ratepayers. Vote of ratepayers to be taken.

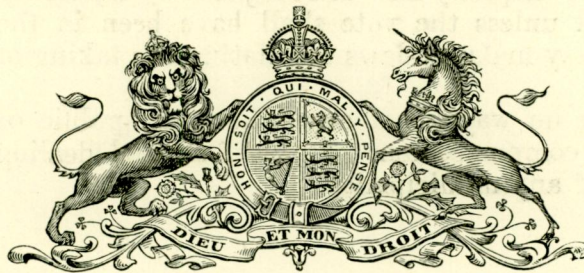

6. This Act shall in no way affect any other Act, public or private, passed before the commencement of this Act, and dealing with the electric lighting of any municipality. Saving.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY for its concurrence.

*Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, November, 1904. }*

Clerk of the Parliaments.

New South Wales.

ANNO QUARTO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. , 1904.

An Act to provide for the lighting by electricity of municipalities ;
to apply the provisions of the Municipalities Act, 1897,
relating to municipal gasworks and gas to municipal
electric light works and electricity ; and for other purposes.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

5 1. This Act may be cited as the " Municipalities Electric Light Short title.
Act, 1904."

2. In this Act the expression—

Definition.

10 " Electric light works " means and includes transformers, fittings,
and apparatus for the supply of electricity, also any buildings,
machinery, engines, matters or things of whatever description
required to generate or supply electricity, and to carry into effect the purpose of this Act.

" Electricity " means electricity, electric current, or any like agency.

Municipalities Electric Light.

3. The provisions of the Municipalities Act, 1897, relating to municipal gasworks and gas shall, as far as they are applicable, apply mutatis mutandis to municipal electric light works and electricity. Municipalities Act to apply to electric light.

4. Any council may contract with any person for the erection of electric light works within, the supply of electricity to, or the lighting by electricity of, a municipality. Power to contract.

5. No council shall enter into any contract for, or undertake the erection of, electric light works until a vote of the ratepayers on the question whether the municipality should be lighted by electricity shall have been taken, and unless the vote shall have been in the affirmative. The council may make by-laws regulating the taking of the vote of the ratepayers. Vote of ratepayers to be taken.

6. This Act shall in no way affect any other Act, public or private, passed before the commencement of this Act, and dealing with the electric lighting of any municipality. Saving.

A BILL

To provide for the lighting by electricity of municipalities ;
to apply the provisions of the Municipalities Act, 1897,
relating to municipal gasworks and gas to municipal
electric light works and electricity ; and for other purposes.

[MR. HUGHES ;—16 November, 1904.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

5 1. This Act may be cited as the "Municipalities Electric Light Short title.
Act, 1904."

2. In this Act the expression—
"Electric light works" means and includes transformers, fittings, Definition.
and apparatus for the supply of electricity, also any buildings,
10 machinery, engines, matters or things of whatever description
required to generate or supply electricity, and to carry into effect the purpose of this Act.

"Electricity" means electricity, electric current, or any like agency.

15 3. The provisions of the Municipalities Act, 1897, relating to Municipalities Act municipal gasworks and gas shall, as far as they are applicable, apply to apply to electric mutatis mutandis to municipal electric light works and electricity. light.

20 4. This Act shall in no way affect any other Act, public or Saving. private, passed before the commencement of this Act, and dealing with the electric lighting of any municipality.

A BILL

to amend the law relating to the powers of the Municipal Councils in relation to the management of the municipal assets and to provide for the better management of the municipal assets and to provide for the better management of the municipal assets.

Enacted at Wellington on this 10th day of December 1900.

By Command of His Majesty the King, I, the Governor-General, have signed this Bill, and I have caused the Seal of the Governor-General to be hereunto set.

Attest: My Commission and the Great Seal of the Governor-General.

Done at Wellington, this 10th day of December 1900.

W. G. REEVE, Secretary to the Government.

W. G. REEVE, Secretary to the Government.

W. G. REEVE, Secretary to the Government.

W. G. REEVE, Secretary to the Government.

W. G. REEVE, Secretary to the Government.