ANNO QUINTO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

An Act to enable the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Goulburn, as trustee of certain parcels of land situate in the county of Argyle, held upon certain trusts connected with the Church of England in the Diocese of Goulburn, to sell the said lands, to provide for the application of the proceeds thereof, and for other purposes in connection therewith. [Assented to, 30th October, 1905.]

WHEREAS, by indenture dated the thirtieth June, one thousand Preamble.
eight hundred and sixty-five, made between the Honorable John Campbell and William Robert Campbell of the one part, and the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Goulburn of the other part, after reciting, inter alia, that Her Majesty Queen Victoria did, by certain Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date the fourteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, found, ordain, and constitute all those portions of the Colony of New South Wales mentioned in the said Letters Patent to be a Bishop's See and Diocese, and to be called the Bishopric of Goulburn, and did thereby name and appoint the Right Reverend Mesac Thomas, Doctor of Divinity, to be the first Bishop thereof, it was witnessed that, in pursuance of a promise and agreement more particularly recited in the said deed, the said John Campbell and William Robert Campbell, in exercise and execution of every power whatsoever in anywise enabling them in this behalf, did direct, limit, and appoint and also grant and release to the said Lord Bishop of Goulburn and his successors, the several parcels of land mentioned and described in the First Schedule hereunder written, together with all buildings and appurtenances to the said land respectively belonging or appertaining, to hold the said lands and hereditaments unto and to the use of the said Bishop of Goulburn and his successors for the purposes of the endowment of the said Bishop's See and Diocese for ever. And whereas an indenture dated the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, made between Joseph Bull of the one part and the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Goulburn of the other part, after reciting that in pursuance of a promise and agreement made by the said Joseph Bull some time previously to convey the lands and hereditaments mentioned in the said deed to the said Bishop of Goulburn and his successors as and by way of an endowment for the See or Diocese of Goulburn, it was witnessed that, in pursuance of the promise and of the agreement aforesaid, the said Joseph Bull did by the said indenture grant, release, and assure unto the said Bishop of Goulburn and his successors the land mentioned in the Second Schedule hereunder written, together with all rights, members, and appurtenances thereunto belonging; to hold the same unto and to the use of the said Lord Bishop of Goulburn and his successors for the purposes of the endowment of the said Bishop's See and Diocese for ever: And whereas, by a resolution of the Synod of the Diocese of Goulburn, passed by the unanimous vote of the clerical and lay members assembled in Synod at Goulburn, on the twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and four, it was resolved—"That, in the opinion of the Synod, it is desirable that the Lord Bishop of Goulburn should take whatever step may be necessary for the purpose of obtaining legal sanction and authority to sell and dispose of the lands known as 'The Taradale Estate,' and also one hundred acres or thereabouts of land at Collector, such lands being at present held by the said Bishop in trust for the See Endowment Fund of the Diocese": And whereas for divers good causes it is considered expedient that the said lands and hereditaments described in the said several Schedules hereto, should be sold, and that the proceeds to arise from the sale of the said land should be applied in or towards the purposes hereinafter appearing: And whereas the said several parcels of land described in the said Schedule are now duly vested in the Right Reverend Christopher Barlow, as the present Lord Bishop of Goulburn, as sole trustee thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

successors or other trustees or trustee for the time being of the said lands and hereditaments described in the said several Schedules hereto, to sell and dispose of the said lands and hereditaments described in the said several Schedules hereto by public auction or private contract, and either in one lot or several lots, as he shall deem expedient, and for such price or prices as can reasonably be obtained for the same, and upon such terms and conditions of sale as the said Bishop or other the trustees or trustee for the time being may deem expedient, and to buy in the said lands and hereditaments, or any part or parts thereof, at any auction sale, or to rescind or vary the terms of any contract for the sale of the said lands and hereditaments, or any part or parts thereof, and when sold to convey and assure the same, or any part or parts thereof, to the purchaser or purchasers thereof in fee-simple, freed and discharged from all trusts affecting the same, and to receive the purchase money thereof. And the receipt in writing of the said Bishop, his or other the trustees or trustee for the time being of the said lands and hereditaments, for the purchase money arising from such sale or sales, shall be effectual, absolute, and sufficient discharge to the purchaser or purchasers of the said lands and hereditaments, or any part or parts thereof, and shall exonerate him or them from seeing to the application of the said moneys, and from all liability in respect of the misapplication or non-application thereof.

2. The said Bishop, as such trustee, or his successor or the trustee for the time being, shall stand possessed of the moneys arising from any sale or sales of the said lands and hereditaments, or of any part thereof, after payment thereof of all cost, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the passing of this Bill, upon trust, at his discretion, to invest the said moneys at interest, either on real securities, or in debentures or stock of the Government of New South Wales, or in the purchase of other lands and hereditaments in New South Wales as the said Bishop or the trustee for the time being shall think fit, and upon further trust to pay the income from time to time to be derived from the said investments to the Bishop of Goulburn and his successors in like manner as other moneys or interest received in respect of the Bishopric Endowment Fund of the said Diocese are paid and applied.

3. It shall be lawful for the said Bishop of Goulburn, as such sole trustee as aforesaid, or other the Bishop or trustee for the time being, to allow to any purchaser or purchasers of the said lands, or any part or parts thereof, time for payment of his or her purchase money, or any part thereof, for any number of years not exceeding seven, upon such terms as to interest or otherwise as to the said Bishop for the time being may be deemed proper: Provided that any moneys, for the payment of which time is given as aforesaid, shall be secured by duly registered mortgage over the property in respect of which the said balance
