

(Improvement Leases Cancellation (Declaratory))

Notwithstanding any Act and notwithstanding any decision which has been given by any court the revocation in pursuance of the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act 1906 of any reservation or lease shall be deemed to have taken effect on the date of the notification setting such reservation; and any setting apart under the Crown Lands Acts of any such land for sale or lease lands Acts for the purpose of sixty years shall not affect the name of the same

New South Wales.

ANNO NONO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. 3, 1909.

An Act to declare the law with respect to the revocation of reservations and with respect to preferential occupation licenses under the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906; to validate the setting apart of and applications for certain land under the Crown Lands Acts, and the confirmation of the same; and for purposes consequent thereon or incidental thereto. [Assented to, 1st October, 1909.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Improvement Leases Short title. Cancellation (Declaratory) Act, 1909."

2.

Improvement Leases Cancellation (Declaratory).

Validation of certain applications.

2. Notwithstanding any Acts, and notwithstanding any decision which has been given by any court, the revocation in pursuance of the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906, of any reservation of land from sale or lease shall be deemed to have taken effect on the date of the notification revoking such reservation; and any setting apart under the Crown Lands Acts of any such land for sale or lease shall be deemed to have been and to be valid.

The fact that applications under the Crown Lands Acts for the sale or lease of any such land were made before the expiration of sixty days after any such notification of revocation shall not affect the validity of any such applications, and any confirmation of the same shall be deemed to have been and to be valid.

Saving of claims for unlawful occupation.

3. Nothing in this Act shall affect any claim which may be made against the Crown by any holder of a preferential occupation license under the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906, in respect of any occupation prior to the expiration of sixty days after the revoking of any such reservation as aforesaid of any land the subject of the decision of the High Court of Australia in the matter of the appeals of the Minister for Lands and others against the Bank of New South Wales and Scott and others; such occupation being such as would have been wrongful but for the passing of this Act:

Provided that such claim is made in writing by such holder, addressed to the Minister for Lands, within two months after the commencement of this Act.

Application of Crown Lands Acts to preferential occupation licenses.

4. The provisions of the Crown Lands Acts relating to preferential occupation licenses shall be deemed to have applied and shall apply to any preferential occupation licenses created by section three of the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906.

I Certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 29 September, 1909.*

RICHD. A. ARNOLD,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO NONO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. 3, 1909.

An Act to declare the law with respect to the revocation of reservations and with respect to preferential occupation licenses under the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906; to validate the setting apart of and applications for certain land under the Crown Lands Acts, and the confirmation of the same; and for purposes consequent thereon or incidental thereto. [Assented to, 1st October, 1909.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Improvement Leases Short title. Cancellation (Declaratory) Act, 1909."

2.

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

JOHN J. COHEN,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Improvement Leases Cancellation (Declaratory).

Validation of certain applications.

2. Notwithstanding any Acts, and notwithstanding any decision which has been given by any court, the revocation in pursuance of the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906, of any reservation of land from sale or lease shall be deemed to have taken effect on the date of the notification revoking such reservation; and any setting apart under the Crown Lands Acts of any such land for sale or lease shall be deemed to have been and to be valid.

The fact that applications under the Crown Lands Acts for the sale or lease of any such land were made before the expiration of sixty days after any such notification of revocation shall not affect the validity of any such applications, and any confirmation of the same shall be deemed to have been and to be valid.

Saving of claims for unlawful occupation.

3. Nothing in this Act shall affect any claim which may be made against the Crown by any holder of a preferential occupation license under the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906, in respect of any occupation prior to the expiration of sixty days after the revoking of any such reservation as aforesaid of any land the subject of the decision of the High Court of Australia in the matter of the appeals of the Minister for Lands and others against the Bank of New South Wales and Scott and others; such occupation being such as would have been wrongful but for the passing of this Act:

Provided that such claim is made in writing by such holder, addressed to the Minister for Lands, within two months after the commencement of this Act.

Application of Crown Lands Acts to preferential occupation licenses.

4. The provisions of the Crown Lands Acts relating to preferential occupation licenses shall be deemed to have applied and shall apply to any preferential occupation licenses created by section three of the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty I assent to this Act.

*State Government House,
Sydney, 1st October, 1909.*

CHELMSFORD,
Governor.

IMPROVEMENT LEASES CANCELLATION (DECLARATORY) BILL.

SCHEDULE of the Amendment referred to in Message of 29th September, 1909.

Page 2, clause 2, line 2. Omit “or may be”

EMPLOYMENT LEASES (REGISTRATION) (1917)

NOTICE OF the Amendment referred to in Article 1 of the

Page 2, Article 2, Line 2. (Date of issue)

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 8 September, 1909.* }

*RICHD. A. ARNOLD,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.*

The LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL has this day agreed to this Bill with an Amendment.

*Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, 29th September, 1909.* }

*JOHN J. CALVERT,
Clerk of the Parliaments.*

New South Wales.

ANNO NONO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. , 1909.

An Act to declare the law with respect to the revocation of reservations and with respect to preferential occupation licenses under the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906; to validate the setting apart of and applications for certain land under the Crown Lands Acts, and the confirmation of the same; and for purposes consequent thereon or incidental thereto.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 5 1. This Act may be cited as the "Improvement Leases Short title. Cancellation (Declaratory) Act, 1909."

Improvement Leases Cancellation (Declaratory).

2. Notwithstanding any Acts, and notwithstanding any decision which has been ~~or may be~~ given by any court, the revocation in pursuance of the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906, of any reservation of land from sale or lease shall be deemed to have taken effect on the date of the notification revoking such reservation; and any setting apart under the Crown Lands Acts of any such land for sale or lease shall be deemed to have been and to be valid. Validation of certain applications.

The fact that applications under the Crown Lands Acts for the sale or lease of any such land were made before the expiration of sixty days after any such notification of revocation shall not affect the validity of any such applications, and any confirmation of the same shall be deemed to have been and to be valid.

3. Nothing in this Act shall affect any claim which may be made against the Crown by any holder of a preferential occupation license under the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906, in respect of any occupation prior to the expiration of sixty days after the revoking of any such reservation as aforesaid of any land the subject of the decision of the High Court of Australia in the matter of the appeals of the Minister for Lands and others against the Bank of New South Wales and Scott and others; such occupation being such as would have been wrongful but for the passing of this Act: Saving of claims for unlawful occupation.

Provided that such claim is made in writing by such holder, addressed to the Minister for Lands, within two months after the commencement of this Act.

4. The provisions of the Crown Lands Acts relating to preferential occupation licenses shall be deemed to have applied and shall apply to any preferential occupation licenses created by section three of the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906. Application of Crown Lands Acts to preferential occupation licenses.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 8 September, 1909.* }

*RICHD. A. ARNOLD,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.*

The LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL has this day agreed to this Bill with an Amendment.

*Legislative Council Chamber,
Sydney, September, 1909.* }

Clerk of the Parliaments.

New South Wales.

ANNO NONO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. , 1909.

An Act to declare the law with respect to the revocation of reservations and with respect to preferential occupation licenses under the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906; to validate the setting apart of and applications for certain land under the Crown Lands Acts, and the confirmation of the same; and for purposes consequent thereon or incidental thereto.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 5 1. This Act may be cited as the "Improvement Leases Short title. Cancellation (Declaratory) Act, 1909."

Improvement Leases Cancellation (Declaratory).

2. Notwithstanding any Acts, and notwithstanding any decision which has been ~~or may be~~ given by any court, the revocation in pursuance of the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906, of any reservation of land from sale or lease shall be deemed to have taken effect on the date of the notification revoking such reservation; and any setting apart under the Crown Lands Acts of any such land for sale or lease shall be deemed to have been and to be valid.

The fact that applications under the Crown Lands Acts for the sale or lease of any such land were made before the expiration of sixty days after any such notification of revocation shall not affect the validity of any such applications, and any confirmation of the same shall be deemed to have been and to be valid.

3. Nothing in this Act shall affect any claim which may be made against the Crown by any holder of a preferential occupation license under the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906, in respect of any occupation prior to the expiration of sixty days after the revoking of any such reservation as aforesaid of any land the subject of the decision of the High Court of Australia in the matter of the appeals of the Minister for Lands and others against the Bank of New South Wales and Scott and others; such occupation being such as would have been wrongful but for the passing of this Act:

Provided that such claim is made in writing by such holder, addressed to the Minister for Lands, within two months after the commencement of this Act.

4. The provisions of the Crown Lands Acts relating to preferential occupation licenses shall be deemed to have applied and shall apply to any preferential occupation licenses created by section three of the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906.

This PUBLIC BILL originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL for its concurrence.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 8 September, 1909.* }

RICHD. A. ARNOLD,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

New South Wales.

ANNO NONO

EDWARDI VII REGIS.

Act No. , 1909.

An Act to declare the law with respect to the revocation of reservations and with respect to preferential occupation licenses under the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906; to validate the setting apart of and applications for certain land under the Crown Lands Acts, and the confirmation of the same; and for purposes consequent thereon or incidental thereto.

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

5 1. This Act may be cited as the "Improvement Leases Short title. Cancellation (Declaratory) Act, 1909."

Improvement Leases Cancellation (Declaratory).

2. Notwithstanding any Acts, and notwithstanding any decision which has been or may be given by any court, the revocation in pursuance of the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906, of any reservation of land from sale or lease shall be deemed to have taken effect on the date of the notification revoking such reservation; and
 5 any setting apart under the Crown Lands Acts of any such land for sale or lease shall be deemed to have been and to be valid.

Validation of certain applications.

The fact that applications under the Crown Lands Acts for the sale or lease of any such land were made before the expiration of sixty days after any such notification of revocation shall not affect the 10 validity of any such applications, and any confirmation of the same shall be deemed to have been and to be valid.

3. Nothing in this Act shall affect any claim which may be made against the Crown by any holder of a preferential occupation license under the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906, in
 15 respect of any occupation prior to the expiration of sixty days after the revoking of any such reservation as aforesaid of any land the subject of the decision of the High Court of Australia in the matter of the appeals of the Minister for Lands and others against the Bank of New South Wales and Scott and others; such occupation being
 20 such as would have been wrongful but for the passing of this Act:

Saving of claims for unlawful occupation.

Provided that such claim is made in writing by such holder, addressed to the Minister for Lands, within two months after the commencement of this Act.

4. The provisions of the Crown Lands Acts relating to
 25 preferential occupation licenses shall be deemed to have applied and shall apply to any preferential occupation licenses created by section three of the Improvement Leases Cancellation Act, 1906.

Application of Crown Lands Acts to preferential occupation licenses.