- (i) provide for the regulation of the owners and drivers of motor vehicles ; 40
- (j)

- 5 (j) provide that motor vehicles shall be registered, that certificates of registration be issued for the same, and that the drivers of such vehicles shall be licensed, and appoint district registries where such vehicles may be registered and such drivers licensed either provisionally or otherwise ;
- (k) provide that motor vehicles shall have separate distinguishing numbers, regulate the form of such numbers, the manner of placing them upon such vehicles, and the issue and return of such numbers ;
- 10 (l) prohibit the use, upon public streets, of motor vehicles that are unregistered, or have not the registered number upon them, or have a number that is in any way obscured or not easily distinguishable ;
- 15 (m) regulate the manner and duration of registration of motor vehicles and of the transfer and renewal of such registration, and the granting, duration, renewing, suspension, cancellation, and return of drivers' licenses, the payment of fees for the same in accordance with the Schedule to this Act, and, subject to the provisions of this Act, the application of such fees :
- 20 Provided that there shall be an appeal to a court of petty sessions, whose order shall be final, in any case where—
- (i) registration is refused or cancelled ; or
- (ii) its renewal or transfer is refused ; or
- (iii) a license is refused, suspended, or cancelled ;
- 25 (n) prescribe the qualifications and ages of drivers of motor vehicles :
- Provided that paragraphs (j), (k), (l), (m), and (n) shall not apply to motor vehicles licensed as public vehicles whilst plying within the district for which they are licensed, or to persons driving such vehicles whilst so plying, and that paragraphs (a), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), (k), (l), (m), and (n) shall not apply to motor omnibuses owned by the Railway Commissioners ;
- 30 (o) provide that any regulations under this section may be of a local nature and limited in their application to a particular area, and may be restricted in their operation to any specified class of motor vehicle ;
- 35 (p) provide for the erection of signs and notices for the guidance of drivers of motor vehicles ;
- 40 (q) provide for any other purpose the Governor may consider necessary for the safety of the public and for protection of property, and generally for carrying this Act into effect ;
- (r) impose any penalty not exceeding ten pounds for any breach of any regulation made under this section.

PART III.

OFFENCES.

Negligent, furious,
or reckless driving.
cf. 3 Edw. VII,
c. 36, s. 1.

4. (1) Any person who drives a motor vehicle upon a public street, negligently, furiously, or recklessly, or at a speed or in a manner which is dangerous to the public, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act. 5

(2) In considering whether an offence has been committed under this section, the court shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case, including the nature, condition, and use of the street upon which such offence is alleged to have been committed, and to the amount of traffic which actually is at the time upon such street. 10

(3) No person shall be convicted of an offence under this section unless notice of the intended prosecution is given or sent to him or to the owner of the car, as entered on the register, within such time after the offence is committed, not exceeding twenty-eight days, as the court thinks reasonable. 15

Duties of police.
Ibid.

5. (1) It shall be the duty of a member of the police force who finds a person committing a breach of this Act, or of the regulations, to demand from such person his license and his name and place of abode. 20

May be arrested if name and place of abode not stated.
Ibid.

(2) Any person who, upon demand as aforesaid,—
(a) refuses to produce his license and state his name or place of abode, or wilfully states a false name or place of abode, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act;
(b) states a name and place of abode which, in the opinion of the member of the police force making such demand, is false, may, without any other warrant than this Act, be apprehended and taken before any court of summary jurisdiction, there to be dealt with according to law. 25

Owner to give information to identify driver.
Ibid.

(3) Any owner of a motor vehicle shall, if required by a member of the police force, give any information which it is in his power to give, which may lead to the identification of any person who was driving such vehicle when an offence under this Act, or any regulation, is alleged to have been committed, and if such owner fails to do so he shall be guilty of an offence under this Act. 30 35

Driver must be licensed, and vehicle numbered.
Ibid. ss. 2 and 3.

6. Any person who, contrary to any regulation,—
(a) drives a motor vehicle upon any public street without being licensed for that purpose; or
(b) employs or permits any person not so licensed to drive a motor vehicle upon any public street; or
(c) drives, or causes or permits to be driven, upon any public street a motor vehicle not having the prescribed number-plate properly affixed thereto, or having such number-plate obliterated or obscured, 40

shall be guilty of an offence under this Act:

Provided 45

Motor Traffic.

Provided that no person shall be liable to a penalty for any breach of this section if he proves to the satisfaction of the court hearing the case that such breach was the result of an accident or that the motor vehicle was being driven for the purpose of being registered.

5 7. Any person who—

- (a) by any false statement or misrepresentation obtains or attempts to obtain a license under this Act or the regulations; or
- 10 (b) without lawful excuse has in his possession a license, number-plate, issued under this Act or the regulations, or any article resembling a license, number-plate, and calculated to deceive; or
- (c) forges or fraudulently alters or uses, or fraudulently lends or allows to be used by any other person, any license, or any number-plate or mark for identifying a motor vehicle under
- 15 this Act, or the regulations; or
- (d) owns or drives upon a public street any unregistered motor vehicle having upon it any numbers or number-plate of a description prescribed to be fixed to registered motor vehicles, and calculated to deceive,

Unlawfully obtaining or possessing licenses, &c.

20 shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

8. (1) Any person driving a motor vehicle shall, in any case, if an accident occurs to any person, or to any animal or vehicle in charge of any person, caused by such motor vehicle, or owing to the presence of the motor vehicle upon the road, stop, and, if required, produce his

25 license and give his name and place of abode, and also the name and place of abode of the owner and the registration number of the car.

To stop in case of accident.
cf. 3 Edwd. VII, c. 36, s. 6.

(2) Any person knowingly acting in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

9. Whenever a licensed driver is charged with any breach of this Act, or the regulations, he shall produce his license to the court at the time of hearing, and if such driver does not produce his license as aforesaid, he shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

Production of license at court.
cf. Ibid. s. 4, subs (2).

35 10. (1) Any court before whom a person is convicted of an offence under this Act may—

- (a) impose a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds for every such offence; and
- 40 (b) if the person convicted holds any license under this Act, suspend that license for such time as the court thinks fit, and may also declare the person convicted disqualified for obtaining a license for such further time after the expiration of the license as the court thinks fit; and
- (c) if the person convicted does not hold any license under this Act, declare him disqualified for obtaining a license for
- 45 such time as the court thinks fit.

Court may impose penalty and suspend license upon conviction, &c.
Ibid. s. 4, subs. (1).

3 Edw. VII, c. 36,
s. 4, subs. (1), (c).

(2) If the person convicted holds any license under this Act, the court shall cause particulars of the conviction, and of any order made under this section, to be endorsed upon his license.

Suspended license of no effect, &c.
Ibid. s. 4, subs. (3).

(3) A license so suspended shall, during the term of suspension, be of no effect, and a person whose license is suspended, or who is declared by the court to be disqualified for obtaining a license, shall, during the period of suspension or disqualification, be disqualified for obtaining a license.

Particulars of convictions to be sent to superintendent.

(4) The court shall cause particulars of each conviction or order under this Act or the regulations to be forwarded to the superintendent.

PART IV.

GENERAL AND SUPPLEMENTAL.

Inconsistency of regulation or by-law.

11. When any regulation or by-law or ordinance made by any municipal or shire council or other local authority is inconsistent with a regulation made under this Act, the latter shall prevail, and the former, to the extent of the inconsistency, be invalid.

Recrd of registration and licenses.

12. The particulars of the registration of motor vehicles and the licenses of drivers shall be recorded in books kept for the purpose at the office of the superintendent and of the district registry, if any, where such registration was effected or such license was issued, and an extract from, or copy of, any such entry contained in any such books, certified under the hand of the officer in charge thereof, shall, in all courts, and upon all occasions whatsoever, be received as evidence, and deemed sufficient proof of all particulars contained in such entry without requiring the production of such books, or any license, requisition, notice, or other document upon which any entry may be founded.

Publication of regulations.

13. (1) All regulations made under this Act shall be published in the Gazette, and shall from the date of such publication (subject as hereinafter mentioned) be of the same effect as if they were contained in this Act, and shall be judicially noticed.

(2) Any such regulations shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament if Parliament be in session at the time of making thereof, or, if not, then as soon as practicable after the beginning of the next session of Parliament.

(3) If either House of Parliament within the next forty days after any regulations have been so laid before such House resolve that such regulations, or any of them, ought to be annulled, the same shall, after the date of such resolution be of no effect, without prejudice to the validity of anything done in the meantime under such regulations.

14. In any conviction under this Act, or the regulations, the court may order such payment as compensation for loss of time or expense incurred in consequence of the offence of which the defendant was convicted, as it thinks fit.

Court may order compensation for damages, &c.

5 15. If an information or complaint is laid or made by any person other than a member of the police force for any offence punishable in pursuance of this Act or the regulations, and the proceedings are dismissed or withdrawn, the court may, if it thinks fit, order that the said person pay to the defendant, in addition to any costs, such 10 compensation for loss of time or otherwise as seems reasonable; and the court of appeal shall have like power in respect of any proceedings taken before such court.

Compensation for loss of time.

15 16. Any owner of a motor vehicle taken into custody for an offence under this Act, or for a breach of any of the regulations hereunder, shall be forthwith taken before a court, there to have his case dealt with. If this cannot be done, he may be released from custody on his giving his personal undertaking to appear at such time and place as may be indicated by the senior police officer in charge of the nearest police station, and on his depositing with such officer a sum 20 equal to the maximum fine for the offence with which he is charged, or, in lieu of such deposit, on his leaving the motor vehicle in the charge of such officer to answer any penalty, costs, damage, or expenses which may be awarded against him.

Owner when arrested to have his case at once heard, or be released on giving security for appearance.

25 The said officer shall give a receipt for such sum or motor vehicle.

17. It is hereby declared that this Act and the regulations apply to persons in the Public Service of the Crown.

Persons in service of the Crown.

18. Nothing in this Act shall affect any liability of any person by virtue of any statute or at common law.

Common law or statute liability.

30 19. In any proceedings under this Act or the regulations—

Facilitation of proof.

(a) proof that a motor vehicle has not upon it a distinguishing number as prescribed by the regulations, shall be prima facie evidence that such vehicle is not registered;

35 (b) proof that a person registered a motor vehicle shall be prima facie evidence that such person is the owner of such vehicle;

(c) the production of a copy of a certificate of registration of a motor vehicle, signed by the person to whom the certificate purports to have been issued, shall be prima facie evidence that the vehicle is registered, and that such person applied for and obtained the certificate of registration for such 40 vehicle.

(d) the production of a copy of a license of any person, signed by such person, shall be prima facie evidence that such person is licensed.
