counties of Argyle and Camden, in the State (then Colony) of New South Wales, known as the Arthursleigh Estate: And whereas by an indenture dated the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, it was witnessed that the said Thomas Holt, for the considerations therein mentioned, did demise and lease unto one Alfred William Holt a piece or parcel of land forming part of the said Arthursleigh Estate, containing eleven thousand acres more or less, in the said indenture more particularly described, and being the lands referred to in the memorandum of lease hereinafter mentioned as containing thirteen thousand four hundred and three acres two roods, to hold the same unto the said Alfred William Holt for the term of ninety-nine years from the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, at the yearly rental of four hundred and twelve pounds: And whereas the said Thomas Holt, on the sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, duly made and executed his last will and testament, whereby, subject to the payment of an annuity of five hundred pounds charged thereon in favour of his wife Sophia Johanna Charlotte Holt, and to all powers and remedies for the recovery thereof, he devised his estates known as "Arthursleigh," "Detley," "Wingello Park," and "Kerrawarra," in the counties of Argyle and Camden, in the State (then Colony) of New South Wales, together with the land of which he was seised and possessed near the Marulan railway station, and any other land he might be seised or possessed of or entitled to dispose by will of at the time of his decease, in the immediate neighbourhood or within twenty miles of Arthursleigh (all of which lands were therein described as thereafter referred to as the Arthursleigh Estate), unto his Australian trustees and their heirs, to the use of his son the said Alfred William Holt for his life without impeachment of waste, with remainder to the use of Claude Alfred Wallis Holt, the first son of the said Alfred William Holt, for his life without impeachment of waste, with remainder to the use of the first and other sons of the said Claude Alfred Wallis Holt successively according to their seniorities

in tail male, with remainder to the use of the first and other daughters of the said Claude Alfred Wallis Holt successively according to their seniorities in tail male, with successive remainders in tail male to the use of the second and other sons and first and other daughters of the said Alfred William Holt, with further successive remainders over in favour of the testator's sons and daughters and their respective issues as therein particularly set forth, with remainder to the use of the testator's own right heirs: Provided always, and the said Thomas Holt thereby declared, that if any person to whom any estate in tail male or in tail general by purchase was thereinbefore limited was born in his lifetime, such respective estates should not take effect, and in lieu of such estate in tail male he devised the said premises to the use of such person for his or her life without impeachment of waste, with remainder to the use of the first and every other son of such person successively according to their seniorities in tail male, with remainder to the use of the first and other daughters of such person successively according to their seniorities in tail male, with provision also in lieu of such estate in tail general; and the said Thomas Holt devised the Arthursleigh Estate, in every case where the same was devised to the use of any person during his or her life, from and after the determination of that estate, by any means in his or her lifetime, to the use of his Australian trustees and their heirs during the life of the tenant for life, whose estate should so determine in trust for him or her, and by the usual ways and means to preserve the contingent remainders expectant or dependent thereon; and the said Thomas Holt devised and bequeathed all his real and personal estate in the Southern Hemisphere, not otherwise disposed of in his said will, or any codicil thereto, unto and to the use of his Australian trustees and their heirs upon trust, to convert the same into money and to stand possessed of the proceeds of such conversion, and to pay thereout certain debts, legacies, and annuities, and subject thereto the said Thomas Holt bequeathed the said residue to his three sons, Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, Walter Henry Holt

Holt, and the said Alfred William Holt, equally as tenants in common; and the said Thomas Holt appointed his wife, the said Sophia Johanna Charlotte Holt, and his sons, the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, Alfred William Holt, and Walter Henry Holt, and one Samuel Cook, to be his Australian trustees and executrix and executors of his said will as regards all property in the Southern Hemisphere thereinbefore bequeathed to them: And whereas the said Thomas Holt, on the thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, duly made and executed a codicil to his said last will and testament: And whereas the said devise of the said Arthursleigh Estate was not affected by the said codicil: And whereas the said Thomas Holt died on the fifth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, without having altered or revoked his said will, save by the said codicil: And whereas the said Alfred William Holt did not accept the devise to him for life of so much of the said Arthursleigh Estate as was contained in the hereinbefore recited indenture of lease: And whereas by a deed poll made on the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, the said Alfred William Holt did renounce and disclaim, inter alia, so much of the said freehold lands and hereditaments devised to him for life by the said will as were contained in the said hereinbefore recited indenture of lease: And whereas by an indenture dated the fifth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt and Walter Henry Holt, in consideration of the natural love and affection which they bore towards the said Alfred William Holt, did release, assign, and set over unto him all their respective interests in the rents reserved by the hereinbefore recited indenture of lease: And whereas the said indenture of lease, dated the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, by inadvertence, was not drawn up in the form authorised by the said Real Property Act, and the said Alfred William Holt was therefore unable to obtain the registration of the same under the provisions of the

and eighty, and that the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt should execute a proper memorandum of lease of the said lands for the said term under the provisions of the Real Property Act: And whereas in pursuance of the said decree the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, on the twenty-third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, by a memorandum of lease under the provisions of the Real Property Act, registered number one hundred and eighty thousand five hundred and twenty-nine, did lease unto the said Alfred William Holt the said piece or parcel of land forming a portion of the said Arthursleigh Estate, containing eleven thousand acres, more or less, but described by more recent survey as containing thirteen thousand four hundred and three acres two roods, for the term of ninety-nine years from the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, at the yearly rent of four hundred and twelve pounds, payable to the person or persons for the time being entitled to the reversion expectant on the determination of the said lease (thereinafter referred to by the expression "the reversioner or reversioners"), and the said Alfred William Holt, for himself, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, did thereby covenant with the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, his executors and administrators, and also as a separate covenant with the reversioner or reversioners, that the said Alfred William Holt, his executors, administrators, or assigns, should and would at all times during the said term pay unto the reversioner or reversioners the said rent of four hundred and twelve pounds, and also should and would pay all rates, taxes, assessments, impositions, outgoings, or payments—parliamentary, municipal, civic, or parochial, which should be chargeable upon or might affect or be imposed on the said premises during the existence of the tenancy, and at the end or sooner determination thereof should and would peaceably deliver the said premises and the appurtenances unto the reversioner or reversioners in good tenantable condition: And also that it should be lawful for the reversioner or reversioners or his or their

agent or agents, from time to time and at all reasonable times in the daytime, during the said term to enter into and upon the said demised premises or any part thereof to view and examine the same: And also should and would keep the said premises in good tenantable repair during the lease: And it was provided that if the said rent or any part thereof should be behind or unpaid by the space of twenty-one days next over or after any of the days on which the same was reserved and appointed to be paid, or if the said Alfred William Holt, his executors, administrators, or assigns should not in all things well and truly observe, perform, fulfil, and keep all and singular, the covenants, clauses, and agreements according to the true intent and meaning of the said lease, then and in either of the said cases it should and might be lawful for the reversioner or reversioners, into and upon the said demised premises or any part thereof, in the name of the whole, to re-enter, and the said Alfred William Holt, his executors, or administrators, or assigns, and all other occupiers of the said demised premises or any part thereof, thereout from thenceforth utterly to expel and remove: And whereas it has recently been ascertained that the true area of the lands comprised in the said memorandum of lease, number one hundred and eighty thousand five hundred and twenty-nine, is thirteen thousand two hundred and eighty-two acres two roods: And whereas on the twenty-eighth day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, the said Alfred William Holt transferred the lands comprised in the said memorandum of lease number one hundred and eighty thousand five hundred and twenty-nine for the residue then unexpired of the said term to one Hugh Campbell, junior: And whereas on the same day the said Hugh Campbell, junior, by a memorandum of mortgage mortgaged the said lands for the residue then unexpired of the said term to the said Alfred William Holt: And whereas on the same day the said Alfred William Holt transferred the said mortgage to the Perpetual Trustee Company (Limited): And whereas the said Sophia Johanna Charlotte Holt is now deceased; And whereas the said Alfred William Holt has had

lawful issue, three children and no more, namely, Claude Alfred Wallis Holt, Sophia Arthursleigh Holt, and Silva May Holt, who are all alive and above the age of twenty-one years: And whereas the said Claude Alfred Wallis Holt is married, and has lawful issue—one child and no more, namely, Eric Thomas Wallis Holt, who is an infant, and is still alive: And whereas the said Eric Thomas Wallis Holt was not born in the lifetime of the said Thomas Holt: And whereas the Perpetual Trustee Company (Limited) is now the sole Australian trustee of the will of the said Thomas Holt: And whereas it is desired by the said Hugh Campbell, junior, with the consent of the said Alfred William Holt and Claude Alfred Wallis Holt, that the said area of thirteen thousand two hundred and eighty-two acres two roods should be subdivided and the several parcels thereof assigned and transferred for the residue unexpired of the said term in areas suitable for cultivation by farmers: And whereas by reason inter alia of the provision for re-entry in the said memorandum of lease contained, and of the right of distress incident to the rent thereby reserved, it is impossible to give security of tenure to transferees of such several parcels: And whereas it is expedient that provision should be made whereby upon a transfer of part of the land comprised in the said memorandum of lease for the residue for the time being unexpired thereof, the amount of rent for which the transferor and transferee shall be respectively liable to the reversioner may be determined, and the liability of such transferor and transferee to distress and re-entry may be restricted: And whereas by reason of the infancy of the said Eric Thomas Wallis Holt it is impossible to make such provision without the assistance of Parliament: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

of Kent, England, was the registered proprietor for an 5 estate in fee-simple in possession under the provisions of the Real Property Act of certain lands situate in the counties of Argyle and Camden, in the State (then Colony) of New South Wales, known as the Arthursleigh Estate: And whereas by an indenture dated the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred 5 and eighty, it was witnessed that the said Thomas Holt, for the considerations therein mentioned, did demise and lease unto one Alfred William Holt a piece or parcel of land forming part of the said Arthursleigh Estate, containing eleven thousand acres more or less, in the 10 said indenture more particularly described, and being the lands referred to in the memorandum of lease hereinafter mentioned as containing thirteen thousand four hundred and three acres two roods, to hold the same unto the said Alfred William Holt for the term of 15 ninety-nine years from the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, at the yearly rental of four hundred and twelve pounds: And whereas the said Thomas Holt, on the sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, duly made 20 and executed his last will and testament, whereby, subject to the payment of an annuity of five hundred pounds charged thereon in favour of his wife Sophia Johanna Charlotte Holt, and to all powers and remedies for the recovery thereof, he devised his estates known as "Arthurs-25 leigh," "Detley," "Wingello Park," and "Kerrawarra," in the counties of Argyle and Camden, in the State (then Colony) of New South Wales, together with the land of which he was seised and possessed near the Marulan railway station, and any other land he might be seised 30 or possessed of or entitled to dispose by will of at the time of his decease, in the immediate neighbourhood or within twenty miles of Arthursleigh (all of which lands were therein described as thereafter referred to as the Arthursleigh Estate), unto his Australian trustees and 35 their heirs, to the use of his son the said Alfred William Holt for his life without impeachment of waste, with remainder to the use of Claude Alfred Wallis Holt, the first son of the said Alfred William Holt, for his life without impeachment of waste, with remainder to the 40 use of the first and other sons of the said Claude Alfred Wallis Holt successively according to their seniorities

in tail male, with remainder to the use of the first and other daughters of the said Claude Alfred Wallis Holt successively according to their seniorities in tail male, with successive remainders in tail male to the use of the 5 second and other sons and first and other daughters of the said Alfred William Holt, with further successive remainders over in favour of the testator's sons and daughters and their respective issues as therein particularly set forth, with remainder to the use of the 10 testator's own right heirs: Provided always, and the said Thomas Holt thereby declared, that if any person to whom any estate in tail male or in tail general by purchase was thereinbefore limited was born in his lifetime, such respective estates should not take effect, and 15 in lieu of such estate in tail male he devised the said premises to the use of such person for his or her life without impeachment of waste, with remainder to the use of the first and every other son of such person successively according to their seniorities in tail male,
20 with remainder to the use of the first and other daughters of such person successively according to their seniorities in tail male, with provision also in lieu of such estate in tail general; and the said Thomas Holt devised the Arthursleigh Estate, in every case where the same
25 was devised to the use of any person during his or her life, from and after the determination of that estate, by any means in his or her lifetime, to the use of his Australian trustees and their heirs during the life of the tenant for life, whose estate should so determine in trust
30 for him or her, and by the usual ways and means to preserve the contingent remainders expectant or dependent thereon; and the said Thomas Holt devised and bequeathed all his real and personal estate in the Southern Hemisphere, not otherwise disposed of in his said
35 will, or any codicil thereto, unto and to the use of his Australian trustees and their heirs upon trust, to convert the same into money and to stand possessed of the proceeds of such conversion, and to pay thereout certain debts, legacies, and annuities, and subject thereto the
40 said Thomas Holt bequeathed the said residue to his three sons, Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, Walter Henry Holt

Holt, and the said Alfred William Holt, equally as tenants in common; and the said Thomas Holt appointed his wife, the said Sophia Johanna Charlotte Holt, and his sons, the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, Alfred 5 William Holt, and Walter Henry Holt, and one Samuel Cook, to be his Australian trustees and executrix and executors of his said will as regards all property in the Southern Hemisphere thereinbefore bequeathed to them: And whereas the said Thomas Holt, on the thirteenth 10 day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, duly made and executed a codicil to his said last will and testament: And whereas the said devise of the said Arthursleigh Estate was not affected by the said codicil: And whereas the said Thomas Holt 15 died on the fifth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, without having altered or revoked his said will, save by the said codicil: And whereas the said Alfred William Holt did not accept the devise to him for life of so much of the 20 said Arthursleigh Estate as was contained in the hereinbefore recited indenture of lease: And whereas by a deed poll made on the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, the said Alfred William Holt did renounce and dis-25 claim, inter alia, so much of the said freehold lands and hereditaments devised to him for life by the said will as were contained in the said hereinbefore recited indenture of lease: And whereas by an indenture dated the fifth day of March, in the year one thousand eight 30 hundred and eighty-nine, the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt and Walter Henry Holt, in consideration of the natural love and affection which they bore towards the said Alfred William Holt, did release, assign, and set over unto him all their respective interests in the rents 35 reserved by the hereinbefore recited indenture of lease: And whereas the said indenture of lease, dated the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, by inadvertence, was not drawn up in the form authorised by the said Real Property Act, and the 40 said Alfred William Holt was therefore unable to obtain the registration of the same under the provisions of the said

Campbell's Arthursleigh Subdivision.

said Act: And whereas a suit was instituted in the Supreme Court of New South Wales in its equitable jurisdiction by the said Alfred William Holt as plaintiff, against the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, Samuel
5 Cook, Sophia Johanna Charlotte Holt, Alice Sophia Ellen Holt, Annie Isabella Holt, Emmeline Augusta Holt, the said Walter Henry Holt, and Claude Alfred Wallace Holt, Sophia Arthursleigh Holt, Silva May Holt, Thomas Samuel Holt, Frederick Charles Sydney
10 Holt, Sophia Lucy Holt, Ruth Endora Holt and Owen Howard Holt infants, as defendants, by a statement of claim number five thousand two hundred and eighty-nine, filed on the thirteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, whereby the said Alfred 15 William Holt submitted that the said indenture of lease was a valid and binding agreement between the parties thereto for a lease of the land therein comprised for the term and upon the conditions mentioned in the said indenture, and that the said agreement ought to be 20 specifically performed: And whereas by a decree made in the said suit on the nineteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety, it was declared that the said Alfred William Holt was entitled to a specific performance of 25 the agreement embodied in the said indenture of lease dated the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and it was further declared that the defendants in the said suit were respectively trustees for the said Alfred William Holt of their respective 30 estates or interests of the lands comprised in the said indenture for the term of ninety-nine years from the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and that all persons unborn who might thereafter become entitled under the said will of the said Thomas
35 Holt to any estate or interest in the said lands would, on becoming so entitled, become trustees for the said Alfred William Holt of their respective estates and interests, and it was accordingly ordered and decreed that the said lands should vest in the said Frederick Samuel

and eighty, and that the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt should execute a proper memorandum of lease of the said lands for the said term under the provisions of the Real Property Act: And whereas in pursuance of
5 the said decree the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, on the twenty-third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, by a memorandum of lease under the provisions of the Real Property Act, registered number one hundred and eighty thousand five
10 hundred and twenty-nine, did lease unto the said Alfred William Holt the said piece or parcel of land forming a portion of the said Arthursleigh Estate, containing eleven thousand acres, more or less, but described by more recent survey as containing thirteen thousand 15 four hundred and three acres two roods, for the term of ninety-nine years from the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, at the yearly rent of four hundred and twelve pounds, payable to the person or persons for the time being entitled to 20 the reversion expectant on the determination of the said lease (thereinafter referred to by the expression "the reversioner or reversioners"), and the said Alfred William Holt, for himself, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, did thereby covenant
25 with the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, his executors and administrators, and also as a separate covenant with the reversioner or reversioners, that the said Alfred William Holt, his executors, administrators, or assigns, should and would at all times during the
30 said term pay unto the reversioner or reversioners the said rent of four hundred and twelve pounds, and also should and would pay all rates, taxes, assessments, impositions, outgoings, or payments—parliamentary, municipal, civic, or parochial, which should be charge-35 able upon or might affect or be imposed on the said premises during the existence of the tenancy, and at the end or sooner determination thereof should and would peaceably deliver the said premises and the appurtenances unto the reversioner or reversioners in 40 good tenantable condition: And also that it should be lawful for the reversioner or reversioners or his or their

agent or agents, from time to time and at all reasonable times in the daytime, during the said term to enter into and upon the said demised premises or any part thereof to view and examine the same: And also should and 5 would keep the said premises in good tenantable repair during the lease: And it was provided that if the said rent or any part thereof should be behind or unpaid by the space of twenty-one days next over or after any of the days on which the same was reserved and appointed
10 to be paid, or if the said Alfred William Holt, his executors, administrators, or assigns should not in all things well and truly observe, perform, fulfil, and keep all and singular, the covenants, clauses, and agreements according to the true intent and meaning of the said
15 lease, then and in either of the said cases it should and might be lawful for the reversioner or reversioners, into and upon the said demised premises or any part thereof, in the name of the whole, to re-enter, and the said Alfred William Holt, his executors, or administrators,
20 or assigns, and all other occupiers of the said demised premises or any part thereof, thereout from thenceforth utterly to expel and remove: And whereas it has recently been ascertained that the true area of the lands comprised in the said memorandum of lease, 25 number one hundred and eighty thousand five hundred and twenty-nine, is thirteen thousand two hundred and eighty-two acres two roods: And whereas on the twenty-eighth day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, the said Alfred 30 William Holt transferred the lands comprised in the said memorandum of lease number one hundred and eighty thousand five hundred and twenty-nine for the residue then unexpired of the said term to one Hugh Campbell, junior: And whereas on the same day the
35 said Hugh Campbell, junior, by a memorandum of mortgage mortgaged the said lands for the residue then unexpired of the said term to the said Alfred William Holt: And whereas on the same day the said Alfred William Holt transferred the said mortgage to the

lawful issue, three children and no more, namely, Claude Alfred Wallis Holt, Sophia Arthursleigh Holt, and Silva May Holt, who are all alive and above the age of twenty-one years: And whereas the said Claude Alfred

5 Wallis Holt is married, and has lawful issue—one child and no more, namely, Eric Thomas Wallis Holt, who is an infant, and is still alive: And whereas the said Eric Thomas Wallis Holt was not born in the lifetime of the said Thomas Holt: And whereas the Perpetual Trustee

10 Company (Limited) is now the sole Australian trustee of the will of the said Thomas Holt: And whereas it is desired by the said Hugh Campbell, junior, with the consent of the said Alfred William Holt and Claude Alfred Wallis Holt, that the said area of thirteen

15 thousand two hundred and eighty-two acres two roods should be subdivided and the several parcels thereof assigned and transferred for the residue unexpired of the said term in areas suitable for cultivation by farmers: And whereas by reason inter alia of the

20 provision for re-entry in the said memorandum of lease contained, and of the right of distress incident to the rent thereby reserved, it is impossible to give security of tenure to transferees of such several parcels: And whereas it is expedient that provision should be made whereby

25 upon a transfer of part of the land comprised in the said memorandum of lease for the residue for the time being unexpired thereof, the amount of rent for which the transferor and transferee shall be respectively liable to the reversioner may be determined, and the liability

30 of such transferor and transferee to distress and re-entry may be restricted: And whereas by reason of the infancy of the said Eric Thomas Wallis Holt it is impossible to make such provision without the assistance of Parliament: Be it therefore enacted by the King's 35 Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. Until the reversion of the term of ninety-nine said Act: And whereas a suit was instituted in the Supreme Court of New South Wales in its equitable jurisdiction by the said Alfred William Holt as plaintiff, against the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, Samuel

5 Cook, Sophia Johanna Charlotte Holt, Alice Sophia Ellen Holt, Annie Isabella Holt, Emmeline Augusta Holt, the said Walter Henry Holt, and Claude Alfred Wallace Holt, Sophia Arthursleigh Holt, Silva May Holt, Thomas Samuel Holt, Frederick Charles Sydney
10 Holt, Sophia Lucy Holt, Ruth Endora Holt and Owen Howard Holt infants, as defendants, by a statement of claim number five thousand two hundred and eighty-nine, filed on the thirteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, whereby the said Alfred
15 William Holt submitted that the said indenture of lease was a valid and binding agreement between the parties thereto for a lease of the land therein comprised for the term and upon the conditions mentioned in the said indenture, and that the said agreement ought to be 20 specifically performed: And whereas by a decree made in the said suit on the nineteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety, it was declared that the said Alfred William Holt was entitled to a specific performance of 25 the agreement embodied in the said indenture of lease dated the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and it was further declared that the defendants in the said suit were respectively trustees for the said Alfred William Holt of their respective
30 estates or interests of the lands comprised in the said indenture for the term of ninety-nine years from the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and that all persons unborn who might thereafter become entitled under the said will of the said Thomas
35 Holt to any estate or interest in the said lands would, on becoming so entitled, become trustees for the said Alfred William Holt of their respective estates and interests, and it was accordingly ordered and decreed that the said lands should vest in the said Frederick Samuel

and eighty, and that the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt should execute a proper memorandum of lease of the said lands for the said term under the provisions of the Real Property Act: And whereas in pursuance of
5 the said decree the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, on the twenty-third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, by a memorandum of lease under the provisions of the Real Property Act, registered number one hundred and eighty thousand five
10 hundred and twenty-nine, did lease unto the said Alfred William Holt the said piece or parcel of land forming a portion of the said Arthursleigh Estate, containing eleven thousand acres, more or less, but described by more recent survey as containing thirteen thousand
15 four hundred and three acres two roods, for the term of ninety-nine years from the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, at the yearly rent of four hundred and twelve pounds, payable to the person or persons for the time being entitled to
20 the reversion expectant on the determination of the said lease (thereinafter referred to by the expression "the reversioner or reversioners"), and the said Alfred William Holt, for himself, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, did thereby covenant
25 with the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, his executors and administrators, and also as a separate covenant with the reversioner or reversioners, that the said Alfred William Holt, his executors, administrators, or assigns, should and would at all times during the
30 said term pay unto the reversioner or reversioners the said rent of four hundred and twelve pounds, and also should and would pay all rates, taxes, assessments, impositions, outgoings, or payments—parliamentary, municipal, civic, or parochial, which should be charge-

10 to be paid, or if the said Alfred William Holt, his executors, administrators, or assigns should not in all things well and truly observe, perform, fulfil, and keep all and singular, the covenants, clauses, and agreements according to the true intent and meaning of the said
15 lease, then and in either of the said cases it should and might be lawful for the reversioner or reversioners, into and upon the said demised premises or any part thereof, in the name of the whole, to re-enter, and the said Alfred William Holt, his executors, or administrators,
20 or assigns, and all other occupiers of the said demised premises or any part thereof, thereout from thenceforth utterly to expel and remove : And whereas it has recently been ascertained that the true area of the lands comprised in the said memorandum of lease,
25 number one hundred and eighty thousand five hundred and twenty-nine, is thirteen thousand two hundred and eighty-two acres two roods : And whereas on the twenty-eighth day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, the said Alfred
30 William Holt transferred the lands comprised in the said memorandum of lease number one hundred and eighty thousand five hundred and twenty-nine for the residue then unexpired of the said term to one Hugh Campbell, junior : And whereas on the same day the
35 said Hugh Campbell, junior, by a memorandum of mortgage mortgaged the said lands for the residue then unexpired of the said term to the said Alfred William Holt : And whereas on the same day the said Alfred William Holt transferred the said mortgage to the

lawful issue, three children and no more, namely, Claude Alfred Wallis Holt, Sophia Arthursleigh Holt, and Silva May Holt, who are all alive and above the age of twenty-one years: And whereas the said Claude Alfred Wallis Holt is married, and has lawful issue—one child and no more, namely, Eric Thomas Wallis Holt, who is an infant, and is still alive: And whereas the said Eric Thomas Wallis Holt was not born in the lifetime of the said Thomas Holt: And whereas the Perpetual Trustee Company (Limited) is now the sole Australian trustee of the will of the said Thomas Holt: And whereas it is desired by the said Hugh Campbell, junior, with the consent of the said Alfred William Holt and Claude Alfred Wallis Holt, that the said area of thirteen thousand two hundred and eighty-two acres two roods should be subdivided and the several parcels thereof assigned and transferred for the residue unexpired of the said term in areas suitable for cultivation by farmers: And whereas by reason inter alia of the provision for re-entry in the said memorandum of lease contained, and of the right of distress incident to the rent thereby reserved, it is impossible to give security of tenure to transferees of such several parcels: And whereas it is expedient that provision should be made whereby upon a transfer of part of the land comprised in the said memorandum of lease for the residue for the time being unexpired thereof, the amount of rent for which the transferor and transferee shall be respectively liable to the reversioner may be determined, and the liability of such transferor and transferee to distress and re-entry may be restricted: And whereas by reason of the infancy of the said Eric Thomas Wallis Holt it is impossible to make such provision without the assistance of Parliament: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

counties of Argyle and Camden, in the State (then Colony) of New South Wales, known as the Arthursleigh Estate: And whereas by an indenture dated the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, it was witnessed that the said Thomas Holt, 5
for the considerations therein mentioned, did demise and lease unto one Alfred William Holt a piece or parcel of land forming part of the said Arthursleigh Estate, containing eleven thousand acres more or less, in the said indenture more particularly described, and being 10
the lands referred to in the memorandum of lease hereinafter mentioned as containing thirteen thousand four hundred and three acres two roods, to hold the same unto the said Alfred William Holt for the term of ninety-nine years from the first day of July, one 15
thousand eight hundred and eighty, at the yearly rental of four hundred and twelve pounds: And whereas the said Thomas Holt, on the sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, duly made and executed his last will and testament, whereby, subject 20
to the payment of an annuity of five hundred pounds charged thereon in favour of his wife Sophia Johanna Charlotte Holt, and to all powers and remedies for the recovery thereof, he devised his estates known as "Arthursleigh," "Detley," "Wingello Park," and "Kerrawarra," 25
in the counties of Argyle and Camden, in the State (then Colony) of New South Wales, together with the land of which he was seised and possessed near the Marulan railway station, and any other land he might be seised or possessed of or entitled to dispose by will of at the 30
time of his decease, in the immediate neighbourhood or within twenty miles of Arthursleigh (all of which lands were therein described as thereafter referred to as the Arthursleigh Estate), unto his Australian trustees and their heirs, to the use of his son the said Alfred William 35
Holt for his life without impeachment of waste, with remainder to the use of Claude Alfred Wallis Holt, the first son of the said Alfred William Holt, for his life without impeachment of waste, with remainder to the use of the first and other sons of the said Claude Alfred 40

in tail male, with remainder to the use of the first and other daughters of the said Claude Alfred Wallis Holt successively according to their seniorities in tail male, with successive remainders in tail male to the use of the 5 second and other sons and first and other daughters of the said Alfred William Holt, with further successive remainders over in favour of the testator's sons and daughters and their respective issues as therein particularly set forth, with remainder to the use of the 10 testator's own right heirs: Provided always, and the said Thomas Holt thereby declared, that if any person to whom any estate in tail male or in tail general by purchase was thereinbefore limited was born in his lifetime, such respective estates should not take effect, and
15 in lieu of such estate in tail male he devised the said premises to the use of such person for his or her life without impeachment of waste, with remainder to the use of the first and every other son of such person successively according to their seniorities in tail male,
20 with remainder to the use of the first and other daughters of such person successively according to their seniorities in tail male, with provision also in lieu of such estate in tail general; and the said Thomas Holt devised the Arthursleigh Estate, in every case where the same
25 was devised to the use of any person during his or her life, from and after the determination of that estate, by any means in his or her lifetime, to the use of his Australian trustees and their heirs during the life of the tenant for life, whose estate should so determine in trust
30 for him or her, and by the usual ways and means to preserve the contingent remainders expectant or dependent thereon; and the said Thomas Holt devised and bequeathed all his real and personal estate in the Southern Hemisphere, not otherwise disposed of in his said
35 will, or any codicil thereto, unto and to the use of his Australian trustees and their heirs upon trust, to convert the same into money and to stand possessed of the proceeds of such conversion, and to pay thereout certain debts, legacies, and annuities, and subject thereto the
40 said Thomas Holt bequeathed the said residue to his three sons, Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, Walter Henry Holt

Holt, and the said Alfred William Holt, equally as tenants in common; and the said Thomas Holt appointed his wife, the said Sophia Johanna Charlotte Holt, and his sons, the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, Alfred William Holt, and Walter Henry Holt, and one Samuel 5 Cook, to be his Australian trustees and executrix and executors of his said will as regards all property in the Southern Hemisphere thereinbefore bequeathed to them: And whereas the said Thomas Holt, on the thirteenth 10 day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, duly made and executed a codicil to his said last will and testament: And whereas the said devise of the said Arthursleigh Estate was not affected by the said codicil: And whereas the said Thomas Holt died on the fifth day of September, in the year one 15 thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, without having altered or revoked his said will, save by the said codicil: And whereas the said Alfred William Holt did not accept the devise to him for life of so much of the said Arthursleigh Estate as was contained in the herein- 20 before recited indenture of lease: And whereas by a deed poll made on the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, the said Alfred William Holt did ~~denounce~~ renounce and disclaim, inter alia, so much of the said freehold lands and 25 hereditaments devised to him for life by the said will as were contained in the said hereinbefore recited indenture of lease: And whereas by an indenture dated the fifth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, the said Frederick Samuel 30 Ellis Holt and Walter Henry Holt, in consideration of the natural love and affection which they bore towards the said Alfred William Holt, did release, assign, and set over unto him all their respective interests in the rents reserved by the hereinbefore recited indenture of lease: 35 And whereas the said indenture of lease, dated the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, by inadvertence, was not drawn up in the form authorised by the said Real Property Act, and the said Alfred William Holt was therefore unable to obtain 40 the registration of the same under the provisions of the said

said Act: And whereas a suit was instituted in the Supreme Court of New South Wales in its equitable jurisdiction by the said Alfred William Holt as plaintiff, against the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, Samuel
5 Cook, Sophia Johanna Charlotte Holt, Alice Sophia Ellen Holt, Annie Isabella Holt, Emmeline Augusta Holt, the said Walter Henry Holt, and Claude Alfred Wallace Holt, Sophia Arthursleigh Holt, Silva May Holt, Thomas Samuel Holt, Frederick Charles Sydney
10 Holt, Sophia Lucy Holt, Ruth Endora Holt and Owen Howard Holt infants, as defendants, by a statement of claim number five thousand two hundred and eighty-nine, filed on the thirteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, whereby the said Alfred
15 William Holt submitted that the said indenture of lease was a valid and binding agreement between the parties thereto for a lease of the land therein comprised for the term and upon the conditions mentioned in the said indenture, and that the said agreement ought to be 20 specifically performed: And whereas by a decree made in the said suit on the nineteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety, it was declared that the said Alfred William Holt was entitled to a specific performance of 25 the agreement embodied in the said indenture of lease dated the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and it was further declared that the defendants in the said suit were respectively trustees for the said Alfred William Holt of their respective
30 estates or interests of the lands comprised in the said indenture for the term of ninety-nine years from the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and that all persons unborn who might thereafter become entitled under the said will of the said Thomas
35 Holt to any estate or interest in the said lands would, on becoming so entitled, become trustees for the said Alfred William Holt of their respective estates and interests, and it was accordingly ordered and decreed that the said lands should vest in the said Frederick Samuel

and eighty, and that the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt should execute a proper memorandum of lease of the said lands for the said term under the provisions of the Real Property Act: And whereas in pursuance of the said decree the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, on 5 the twenty-third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, by a memorandum of lease under the provisions of the Real Property Act, registered number one hundred and eighty thousand five hundred and twenty-nine, did lease unto the said Alfred 10 William Holt the said piece or parcel of land forming a portion of the said Arthursleigh Estate, containing eleven thousand acres, more or less, but described by more recent survey as containing thirteen thousand four hundred and three acres two roods, for the 15 term of ninety-nine years from the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, at the yearly rent of four hundred and twelve pounds, payable to the person or persons for the time being entitled to the reversion expectant on the determination of the 20 said lease (thereinafter referred to by the expression "the reversioner or reversioners"), and the said Alfred William Holt, for himself, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, did thereby covenant with the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, his 25 executors and administrators, and also as a separate covenant with the reversioner or reversioners, that the said Alfred William Holt, his executors, administrators, or assigns, should and would at all times during the said term pay unto the reversioner or reversioners the 30 said rent of four hundred and twelve pounds, and also should and would pay all rates, taxes, assessments, impositions, outgoings, or payments—parliamentary, municipal, civic, or parochial, which should be chargeable upon or might affect or be imposed on the said 35 premises during the existence of the tenancy, and at the end or sooner determination thereof should and would peaceably deliver the said premises and the appurtenances unto the reversioner or reversioners in good tenantable condition: And also that it should be 40 lawful for the reversioner or reversioners or his or their agent

agent or agents, from time to time and at all reasonable times in the daytime, during the said term to enter into and upon the said demised premises or any part thereof to view and examine the same: And also should and 5 would keep the said premises in good tenantable repair during the lease: And it was provided that if the said rent or any part thereof should be behind or unpaid by the space of twenty-one days next over or after any of the days on which the same was reserved and appointed
15 lease, then and in either of the said cases it should and might be lawful for the reversioner or reversioners, into and upon the said demised premises or any part thereof, in the name of the whole, to re-enter, and the said Alfred William Holt, his executors, or administrators,
20 or assigns, and all other occupiers of the said demised premises or any part thereof, thereout from thenceforth utterly to expel and remove: And whereas it has recently been ascertained that the true area of the lands comprised in the said memorandum of lease,
25 number one hundred and eighty thousand five hundred and twenty-nine, is thirteen thousand two hundred and eighty-two acres two roods: And whereas on the twenty-eighth day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, the said Alfred
30 William Holt transferred the lands comprised in the said memorandum of lease number one hundred and eighty thousand five hundred and twenty-nine for the residue then unexpired of the said term to one Hugh Campbell, junior: And whereas on the same day the
35 said Hugh Campbell, junior, by a memorandum of mortgage mortgaged the said lands for the residue then unexpired of the said term to the said Alfred William Holt: And whereas on the same day the said Alfred William Holt transferred the said mortgage to the

lawful issue, three children and no more, namely, Claude Alfred Wallis Holt, Sophia Arthursleigh Holt, and Silva May Holt, who are all alive and above the age of twenty-one years: And whereas the said Claude Alfred Wallis Holt is married, and has lawful issue—one child 5 and no more, namely, Eric Thomas Wallis Holt, who is an infant, and is still alive: And whereas the said Eric Thomas Wallis Holt was not born in the lifetime of the said Thomas Holt: And whereas the Perpetual Trustee Company (Limited) is now the sole Australian trustee of 10 the will of the said Thomas Holt: And whereas it is desired by the said Hugh Campbell, junior, with the consent of the said Alfred William Holt and Claude Alfred Wallis Holt, that the said area of thirteen thousand ~~four hundred and three~~ two hundred and eighty- 15 two acres two roods should be subdivided and the several parcels thereof assigned and transferred for the residue unexpired of the said term in areas suitable for cultivation by farmers: And whereas by reason inter alia of the provision for re-entry in the said memorandum of lease 20 contained, and of the right of distress incident to the rent thereby reserved, it is impossible to give security of tenure to transferees of such several parcels: And whereas it is expedient that provision should be made whereby upon a transfer of part of the land comprised in the 25 said memorandum of lease for the residue for the time being unexpired thereof, the amount of rent for which the transferor and transferee shall be respectively liable to the reversioner may be determined, and the liability of such transferor and transferee to distress and 30 re-entry may be restricted: And whereas by reason of the infancy of the said Eric Thomas Wallis Holt it is impossible to make such provision without the assistance of Parliament: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and 35 consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

43910 30—A counties

counties of Argyle and Camden, in the State (then Colony) of New South Wales, known as the Arthursleigh Estate: And whereas by an indenture dated the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, it was witnessed that the said Thomas Holt, 5
for the considerations therein mentioned, did demise and lease unto one Alfred William Holt a piece or parcel of land forming part of the said Arthursleigh Estate, containing eleven thousand acres more or less, in the said indenture more particularly described, and being 10
the lands referred to in the memorandum of lease hereinafter mentioned as containing thirteen thousand four hundred and three acres two roods, to hold the same unto the said Alfred William Holt for the term of ninety-nine years from the first day of July, one 15
thousand eight hundred and eighty, at the yearly rental of four hundred and twelve pounds: And whereas the said Thomas Holt, on the sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, duly made and executed his last will and testament, whereby, subject 20
to the payment of an annuity of five hundred pounds charged thereon in favour of his wife Sophia Johanna Charlotte Holt, and to all powers and remedies for the recovery thereof, he devised his estates known as "Arthursleigh," "Detley," "Wingello Park," and "Kerrawarra," 25
in the counties of Argyle and Camden, in the State (then Colony) of New South Wales, together with the land of which he was seised and possessed near the Marulan railway station, and any other land he might be seised or possessed of or entitled to dispose by will of at the 30
time of his decease, in the immediate neighbourhood or within twenty miles of Arthursleigh (all of which lands were therein described as thereafter referred to as the Arthursleigh Estate), unto his Australian trustees and their heirs, to the use of his son the said Alfred William 35
Holt for his life without impeachment of waste, with remainder to the use of Claude Alfred Wallis Holt, the first son of the said Alfred William Holt, for his life without impeachment of waste, with remainder to the use of the first and other sons of the said Claude Alfred 40

in tail male, with remainder to the use of the first and other daughters of the said Claude Alfred Wallis Holt successively according to their seniorities in tail male, with successive remainders in tail male to the use of the 5 second and other sons and first and other daughters of the said Alfred William Holt, with further successive remainders over in favour of the testator's sons and daughters and their respective issues as therein particularly set forth, with remainder to the use of the 10 testator's own right heirs: Provided always, and the said Thomas Holt thereby declared, that if any person to whom any estate in tail male or in tail general by purchase was thereinbefore limited was born in his lifetime, such respective estates should not take effect, and
15 in lieu of such estate in tail male he devised the said premises to the use of such person for his or her life without impeachment of waste, with remainder to the use of the first and every other son of such person successively according to their seniorities in tail male,
20 with remainder to the use of the first and other daughters of such person successively according to their seniorities in tail male, with provision also in lieu of such estate in tail general; and the said Thomas Holt devised the Arthursleigh Estate, in every case where the same
25 was devised to the use of any person during his or her life, from and after the determination of that estate, by any means in his or her lifetime, to the use of his Australian trustees and their heirs during the life of the tenant for life, whose estate should so determine in trust
30 for him or her, and by the usual ways and means to preserve the contingent remainders expectant or dependent thereon; and the said Thomas Holt devised and bequeathed all his real and personal estate in the Southern Hemisphere, not otherwise disposed of in his said
35 will, or any codicil thereto, unto and to the use of his Australian trustees and their heirs upon trust, to convert the same into money and to stand possessed of the proceeds of such conversion, and to pay thereout certain debts, legacies, and annuities, and subject thereto the
40 said Thomas Holt bequeathed the said residue to his three sons, Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, Walter Henry Holt
Holt

Holt, and the said Alfred William Holt, equally as tenants in common; and the said Thomas Holt appointed his wife, the said Sophia Johanna Charlotte Holt, and his sons, the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, Alfred William Holt, and Walter Henry Holt, and one Samuel Cook, to be his Australian trustees and executrix and executors of his said will as regards all property in the Southern Hemisphere thereinbefore bequeathed to them: And whereas the said Thomas Holt, on the thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, duly made and executed a codicil to his said last will and testament: And whereas the said devise of the said Arthursleigh Estate was not affected by the said codicil: And whereas the said Thomas Holt died on the fifth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, without having altered or revoked his said will, save by the said codicil: And whereas the said Alfred William Holt did not accept the devise to him for life of so much of the said Arthursleigh Estate as was contained in the hereinbefore recited indenture of lease: And whereas by a deed poll made on the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, the said Alfred William Holt did denounce and disclaim, inter alia, so much of the said freehold lands and hereditaments devised to him for life by the said will as were contained in the said hereinbefore recited indenture of lease: And whereas by an indenture dated the fifth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt and Walter Henry Holt, in consideration of the natural love and affection which they bore towards the said Alfred William Holt, did release, assign, and set over unto him all their respective interests in the rents reserved by the hereinbefore recited indenture of lease: And whereas the said indenture of lease, dated the thirty-first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, by inadvertence, was not drawn up in the form authorised by the said Real Property Act, and the said Alfred William Holt was therefore unable to obtain the registration of the same under the provisions of the said

said Act: And whereas a suit was instituted in the Supreme Court of New South Wales in its equitable jurisdiction by the said Alfred William Holt as plaintiff, against the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, Samuel
5 Cook, Sophia Johanna Charlotte Holt, Alice Sophia Ellen Holt, Annie Isabella Holt, Emmeline Augusta Holt, the said Walter Henry Holt, and Claude Alfred Wallace Holt, Sophia Arthursleigh Holt, Silva May Holt, Thomas Samuel Holt, Frederick Charles Sydney
10 Holt, Sophia Lucy Holt, Ruth Endora Holt and Owen Howard Holt infants, as defendants, by a statement of claim number five thousand two hundred and eighty-nine, filed on the thirteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, whereby the said Alfred
15 William Holt submitted that the said indenture of lease was a valid and binding agreement between the parties thereto for a lease of the land therein comprised for the term and upon the conditions mentioned in the said indenture, and that the said agreement ought to be 20 specifically performed: And whereas by a decree made in the said suit on the nineteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety, it was declared that the said Alfred William Holt was entitled to a specific performance of 25 the agreement embodied in the said indenture of lease dated the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and it was further declared that the defendants in the said suit were respectively trustees for the said Alfred William Holt of their respective
30 estates or interests of the lands comprised in the said indenture for the term of ninety-nine years from the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and that all persons unborn who might thereafter become entitled under the said will of the said Thomas
35 Holt to any estate or interest in the said lands would, on becoming so entitled, become trustees for the said Alfred William Holt of their respective estates and interests, and it was accordingly ordered and decreed that the said lands should vest in the said Frederick Samuel

and eighty, and that the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt should execute a proper memorandum of lease of the said lands for the said term under the provisions of the Real Property Act: And whereas in pursuance of the said decree the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, on 5 the twenty-third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, by a memorandum of lease under the provisions of the Real Property Act, registered number one hundred and eighty thousand five hundred and twenty-nine, did lease unto the said Alfred 10 William Holt the said piece or parcel of land forming a portion of the said Arthursleigh Estate, containing eleven thousand acres, more or less, but described by more recent survey as containing thirteen thousand four hundred and three acres two roods, for the 15 term of ninety-nine years from the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, at the yearly rent of four hundred and twelve pounds, payable to the person or persons for the time being entitled to the reversion expectant on the determination of the 20 said lease (thereinafter referred to by the expression "the reversioner or reversioners"), and the said Alfred William Holt, for himself, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, did thereby covenant with the said Frederick Samuel Ellis Holt, his 25 executors and administrators, and also as a separate covenant with the reversioner or reversioners, that the said Alfred William Holt, his executors, administrators, or assigns, should and would at all times during the said term pay unto the reversioner or reversioners the 30 said rent of four hundred and twelve pounds, and also should and would pay all rates, taxes, assessments, impositions, outgoings, or payments—parliamentary, municipal, civic, or parochial, which should be chargeable upon or might affect or be imposed on the said 35 premises during the existence of the tenancy, and at the end or sooner determination thereof should and would peaceably deliver the said premises and the appurtenances unto the reversioner or reversioners in good tenantable condition: And also that it should be 40 lawful for the reversioner or reversioners or his or their agent

agent or agents, from time to time and at all reasonable times in the daytime, during the said term to enter into and upon the said demised premises or any part thereof to view and examine the same : And also should and 5 would keep the said premises in good tenantable repair during the lease : And it was provided that if the said rent or any part thereof should be behind or unpaid by the space of twenty-one days next over or after any of the days on which the same was reserved and appointed
15 lease, then and in either of the said cases it should and might be lawful for the reversioner or reversioners, into and upon the said demised premises or any part thereof, in the name of the whole, to re-enter, and the said Alfred William Holt, his executors, or administrators,
20 or assigns, and all other occupiers of the said demised premises or any part thereof, thereout from thenceforth utterly to expel and remove : And whereas on the twenty-eighth day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve, the said Alfred
25 William Holt transferred the lands comprised in the said memorandum of lease number one hundred and eighty thousand five hundred and twenty-nine for the residue then unexpired of the said term to one Hugh Campbell, junior : And whereas on the same day the
30 said Hugh Campbell, junior, by a memorandum of mortgage mortgaged the said lands for the residue then unexpired of the said term to the said Alfred William Holt : And whereas on the same day the said Alfred William Holt transferred the said mortgage to the 35 Perpetual Trustee Company (Limited) : And whereas the said Sophia Johanna Charlotte Holt is now deceased ; And whereas the said Alfred William Holt has had lawful issue, three children and no more, namely, Claude Alfred Wallis Holt, Sophia Arthursleigh Holt, and 40 Silva May Holt, who are all alive and above the age of twenty-one years : And whereas the said Claude Alfred Wallis

Wallis Holt is married, and has lawful issue—one child and no more, namely, Eric Thomas Wallis Holt, who is an infant, and is still alive: And whereas the said Eric Thomas Wallis Holt was not born in the lifetime of the said Thomas Holt: And whereas the Perpetual Trustee Company (Limited), is now the sole Australian trustee of the will of the said Thomas Holt: And whereas it is desired by the said Hugh Campbell, junior, with the consent of the said Alfred William Holt and Claude Alfred Wallis Holt, that the said area of thirteen thousand four hundred and three acres two roods should be subdivided and the several parcels thereof assigned and transferred for the residue unexpired of the said term in areas suitable for cultivation by farmers: And whereas by reason inter alia of the provision for re-entry in the said memorandum of lease contained, and of the right of distress incident to the rent thereby reserved, it is impossible to give security of tenure to transferees of such several parcels: And whereas it is expedient that provision should be made whereby upon a transfer of part of the land comprised in the said memorandum of lease for the residue for the time being unexpired thereof, the amount of rent for which the transferor and transferee shall be respectively liable to the reversioner may be determined, and the liability of such transferor and transferee to distress and re-entry may be restricted: And whereas by reason of the infancy of the said Eric Thomas Wallis Holt it is impossible to make such provision without the assistance of Parliament: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—
