An Act to consolidate and amend the Saint James' Parsonage Land Leasing Act, and the Saint James' Parsonage Lands Amending Act, 1909. [Assented to, 3rd December, 1912.]

WHEREAS by a deed of grant dated the fourteenth day of June, ^{Preamble.} one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, certain lands were granted to trustees upon trust for the appropriation thereof as a dwelling-house for the clergyman duly appointed to officiate in the Church of Saint James in the city of Sydney: And whereas a dwelling-house was afterwards erected on the said lands in pursuance of the said trust: And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, entitled the Saint James' Parsonage Land Leasing Act, the trustees for the time being of the said lands which are fully described in the said Act were authorised to grant leases of the said lands as therein mentioned, and to apply the rents and profits arising from any such leases in and towards the maintenance, repair, and improvement of

Saint James' Parsonage.

the then existing parsonage in the parish of Saint James, in the city of Sydney, and in such manner as the trustees for the time being might deem advisable, and in payment of the rent or purchase money of a dwelling-house for the clergyman for the time being licensed to officiate in the said Church of Saint James upon some other site, and in the enlargement, maintenance, repair, and improvement of the said church: And whereas in pursuance of the said Act the said lands were let on building lease, and the parsonage or dwelling-house then existing on the said lands was demolished: And whereas the trustees for the time being of the said lands expended portion of the said rents and profits arising from the said lands (hereinafter called "the old parsonage site") upon the maintenance, repair, and improvement of the said church, and also in paying the rent of a dwelling-house upon another site for the clergyman for the time being licensed to officiate in the said church and accumulated the unexpended balance of the said rents and profits from time to time: And whereas it became expedient that a new site should be acquired and a suitable parsonage should be erected thereon for the clergyman licensed as aforesaid, but the accumulations of the said rents and profits were insufficient for that purpose: And whereas power was given to the trustees for the time being of the said lands, by the Saint James' Parsonage Lands Amending Act, 1909, to borrow a sum not exceeding four thousand pounds upon mortgage for the purpose of purchasing in whole or in part a new site for a parsonage within the said parish and for building and completing on such site a parsonage in all respects suitable as a residence for the said clergyman, and to apply the rents and profits of the old parsonage site partly in providing a sinking fund for repayment of the said mortgage and partly for certain purposes connected with the parish of Saint James: And whereas the Most Reverend John Charles Wright, Lord Archbishop of Sydney, Sidney Herbert Young, Cyril Ernest Corlette, The Reverend Wentworth Francis Wentworth-Sheilds, and Thomas Lewthwaite Grainger are the present trustees of the old parsonage site and of the site next hereinafter referred to: And whereas the said trustees acquired a new site as aforesaid and let a contract for the erection of a parsonage thereon, and for such purposes borrowed the sum of four thousand pounds upon mortgage of the site so acquired (hereinafter called "the new parsonage site"): And whereas the said sum of four thousand pounds, together with other moneys, being rents and profits of the old parsonage site, have been expended upon the new parsonage site and the erection thereon of the new parsonage, and further moneys are required for such purposes: And whereas it is expedient that the said trustees should for the last mentioned purposes have power to raise a further sum of not exceeding three thousand pounds by mortgage of the old parsonage site and the new parsonage site: And whereas doubts have arisen as

to whether or not the powers conferred upon the said trustees by the said Saint James' Parsonage Lands Amending Act, 1909, authorised the said trustees to mortgage the new parsonage site as security for the said sum of four thousand pounds: And whereas it is expedient that the trustees for the time being of the new parsonage site should have power if and when the necessity so to do should arise to sell the same and the buildings thereon with the approval of the Archbishop of Sydney for the time being, and to apply the net proceeds of sale with the like approval in manner hereinafter mentioned: And whereas it is expedient that the trustees for the time being of the old parsonage site should have the power to expend the rents and profits thereof for such purposes and in such manner as is hereinafter mentioned: And whereas the said purposes or some of them cannot be carried out without the authority of an Act of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient to amend and also to consolidate the said Saint James' Parsonage Land Leasing Act and the said Saint James' Parsonage Lands Amending Act, 1909: And whereas the provisions of this Act have been approved of by or on behalf of the Synod of the Diocese of Sydney: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Saint James' Parsonage Land Leasing Act and the Saint James' Parsonage Lands Amending Act, 1909, are hereby repealed, but such repeal shall not prejudice, affect, or invalidate any matter or thing lawfully done or contracted to be done under the said Acts or either of them before the commencement of this Act. Repeal.

2. The said mortgage for four thousand pounds upon the new parsonage site, being the lands comprised in certificate of title registered volume one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one, folio forty-seven, is hereby declared to have been authorised under the Saint James' Parsonage Lands Amending Act, 1909. Declaration of validity of mortgage over new parsonage site.

3. It shall be lawful for the trustees for the time being of the old and new parsonage sites, at any time, and from time to time, to borrow and raise at interest, by way of mortgage, any sum or sums of money not exceeding three thousand pounds in addition to the said sum of four thousand pounds, with power to pay off the said mortgages, including the said mortgage for four thousand pounds, and to re-borrow the amount of any principal sum or sums for the time being thereby secured, or any less sum or sums for the purpose of paying for the parsonage erected or now in course of erection on the new parsonage site, and to execute any mortgage or mortgages, with or without power of sale, of the old and new parsonage sites, or either of them, for securing payment of the sum or sums Power to mortgage.

the then existing parsonage in the parish of Saint James, in the city of Sydney, and in such manner as the trustees for the time being might deem advisable, and in payment of the rent or purchase money of a dwelling-house for the clergyman for the time being licensed to 5 officiate in the said Church of Saint James upon some other site, and in the enlargement, maintenance, repair, and improvement of the said church: And whereas in pursuance of the said Act the said lands were let on building lease, and the parsonage or dwelling-house then existing on the said lands was demolished: And whereas the trustees
10 for the time being of the said lands expended portion of the said rents and profits arising from the said lands (hereinafter called "the old parsonage site") upon the maintenance, repair, and improvement of the said church, and also in paying the rent of a dwelling-house upon another site for the clergyman for the time being licensed to officiate
15 in the said church and accumulated the unexpended balance of the said rents and profits from time to time: And whereas it became expedient that a new site should be acquired and a suitable parsonage should be erected thereon for the clergyman licensed as aforesaid, but the accumulations of the said rents and profits were insufficient for that
20 purpose: And whereas power was given to the trustees for the time being of the said lands, by the Saint James' Parsonage Lands Amending Act, 1909, to borrow a sum not exceeding four thousand pounds upon mortgage for the purpose of purchasing in whole or in part a new site for a parsonage within the said parish and for building and completing 25 on such site a parsonage in all respects suitable as a residence for the said clergyman, and to apply the rents and profits of the old parsonage site partly in providing a sinking fund for repayment of the said mortgage and partly for certain purposes connected with the parish of Saint James: And whereas the Most Reverend John Charles Wright,
30 Lord Archbishop of Sydney, Sidney Herbert Young, Cyril Ernest Corlette, The Reverend Wentworth Francis Wentworth-Sheilds, and Thomas Lewthwaite Grainger are the present trustees of the old parsonage site and of the site next hereinafter referred to: And whereas the said trustees acquired a new site as aforesaid and let a 35 contract for the erection of a parsonage thereon, and for such purposes borrowed the sum of four thousand pounds upon mortgage of the site so acquired (hereinafter called "the new parsonage site"): And whereas the said sum of four thousand pounds, together with other moneys, being rents and profits of the old parsonage site, have been
40 expended upon the new parsonage site and the erection thereon of the new parsonage, and further moneys are required for such purposes: And whereas it is expedient that the said trustees should for the last mentioned purposes have power to raise a further sum of not exceeding three thousand pounds by mortgage of the old parsonage 45 site and the new parsonage site: And whereas doubts have arisen as

to whether or not the powers conferred upon the said trustees by the said Saint James' Parsonage Lands Amending Act, 1909, authorised the said trustees to mortgage the new parsonage site as security for the said sum of four thousand pounds: And whereas it is expedient
 5 that the trustees for the time being of the new parsonage site should have power if and when the necessity so to do should arise to sell the same and the buildings thereon with the approval of the Archbishop of Sydney for the time being, and to apply the net proceeds of sale with the like approval in manner hereinafter mentioned:
 10 And whereas it is expedient that the trustees for the time being of the old parsonage site should have the power to expend the rents and profits thereof for such purposes and in such manner as is hereinafter mentioned: And whereas the said purposes or some of them cannot be carried out without the authority of an Act of 15 Parliament: And whereas it is expedient to amend and also to consolidate the said Saint James' Parsonage Land Leasing Act and the said Saint James' Parsonage Lands Amending Act, 1909: And whereas the provisions of this Act have been approved of by or on behalf of the Synod of the Diocese of Sydney: Be it therefore

ANNO TERTIO

GEORGII V REGIS.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Saint James' Parsonage Land Leasing Act, and the Saint James' Parsonage Lands Amending Act, 1909.

WHEREAS by a deed of grant dated the fourteenth day of June, ^{Preamble.} one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, certain lands were granted to trustees upon trust for the appropriation thereof as a dwelling-house for the clergyman duly appointed to officiate in the 5 Church of Saint James in the city of Sydney: And whereas a dwelling-house was afterwards erected on the said lands in pursuance of the said trust: And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, entitled the Saint James' Parsonage Land Leasing Act, the trustees 10 for the time being of the said lands which are fully described in the said Act were authorised to grant leases of the said lands as therein mentioned, and to apply the rents and profits arising from any such leases in and towards the maintenance, repair, and improvement of

the then existing parsonage in the parish of Saint James, in the city of Sydney, and in such manner as the trustees for the time being might deem advisable, and in payment of the rent or purchase money of a dwelling-house for the clergyman for the time being licensed to 5 officiate in the said Church of Saint James upon some other site, and in the enlargement, maintenance, repair, and improvement of the said church: And whereas in pursuance of the said Act the said lands were let on building lease, and the parsonage or dwelling-house then existing on the said lands was demolished: And whereas the trustees
10 for the time being of the said lands expended portion of the said rents and profits arising from the said lands (hereinafter called "the old parsonage site") upon the maintenance, repair, and improvement of the said church, and also in paying the rent of a dwelling-house upon another site for the clergyman for the time being licensed to officiate
15 in the said church and accumulated the unexpended balance of the said rents and profits from time to time: And whereas it became expedient that a new site should be acquired and a suitable parsonage should be erected thereon for the clergyman licensed as aforesaid, but the accumulations of the said rents and profits were insufficient for that
20 purpose: And whereas power was given to the trustees for the time being of the said lands, by the Saint James' Parsonage Lands Amending Act, 1909, to borrow a sum not exceeding four thousand pounds upon mortgage for the purpose of purchasing in whole or in part a new site for a parsonage within the said parish and for building and completing 25 on such site a parsonage in all respects suitable as a residence for the said clergyman, and to apply the rents and profits of the old parsonage site partly in providing a sinking fund for repayment of the said mortgage and partly for certain purposes connected with the parish of Saint James: And whereas the Most Reverend John Charles Wright,
30 Lord Archbishop of Sydney, Sidney Herbert Young, Cyril Ernest Corlette, The Reverend Wentworth Francis Wentworth-Sheilds, and Thomas Lewthwaite Grainger are the present trustees of the old parsonage site and of the site next hereinafter referred to: And whereas the said trustees acquired a new site as aforesaid and let a
35 contract for the erection of a parsonage thereon, and for such purposes borrowed the sum of four thousand pounds upon mortgage of the site so acquired (hereinafter called "the new parsonage site"): And whereas the said sum of four thousand pounds, together with other moneys, being rents and profits of the old parsonage site, have been
40 expended upon the new parsonage site and the erection thereon of the new parsonage, and further moneys are required for such purposes: And whereas it is expedient that the said trustees should for the last mentioned purposes have power to raise a further sum of not exceeding three thousand pounds by mortgage of the old parsonage

to whether or not the powers conferred upon the said trustees by the said Saint James' Parsonage Lands Amending Act, 1909, authorised the said trustees to mortgage the new parsonage site as security for the said sum of four thousand pounds: And whereas it is expedient
 5 that the trustees for the time being of the new parsonage site should have power if and when the necessity so to do should arise to sell the same and the buildings thereon with the approval of the Archbishop of Sydney for the time being, and to apply the net proceeds of sale with the like approval in manner hereinafter mentioned:
 10 And whereas it is expedient that the trustees for the time being of the old parsonage site should have the power to expend the rents and profits thereof for such purposes and in such manner as is hereinafter mentioned: And whereas the said purposes or some of them cannot be carried out without the authority of an Act of 15 Parliament: And whereas it is expedient to amend and also to consolidate the said Saint James' Parsonage Land Leasing Act and the said Saint James' Parsonage Lands Amending Act, 1909: And whereas the provisions of this Act have been approved of by or on behalf of the Synod of the Diocese of Sydney: Be it therefore 20 enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Saint James' Parsonage Land Leasing Act and the 25 Saint James' Parsonage Lands Amending Act, 1909, are hereby repealed, but such repeal shall not prejudice, affect, or invalidate any matter or thing lawfully done or contracted to be done under the said Acts or either of them before the commencement of this Act. Repeal.

2. The said mortgage for four thousand pounds upon the new
