Definitions.

University (Amendment).Definitions.

2. Section three of the University and University Colleges Act, 1900, is amended as follows:—

(a) After the definition of "Fellow" insert:—

5 "Leaving certificate" means the leaving certificate granted by the Department of Public Instruction, in pursuance of regulations under the Public Instruction Act of 1880, and the Acts amending it, to a student leaving a secondary or high school which he has attended.

10 (b) After the definition of "master" insert:—

"Minister" means Minister of Public Instruction.

"Scholarship" means public scholarship awarded to a student who intends to graduate in the University.

"Governor" means the Governor in Council.

The Senate.

3. Sections seven, eight, and nine of the University and University Colleges Act, 1900, are repealed, and the following sections are inserted:—

20 7. The body politic and corporate of the University of Sydney shall consist of a Senate, which shall be constituted by,— four Fellows appointed by the Governor;

one Fellow elected by the members of the Legislative Council as prescribed by regulations to be made in pursuance of the provisions of this Act;

25 one Fellow elected by the members of the Legislative Assembly as prescribed by regulations to be made in pursuance of the provisions of this Act;

30 five Fellows to be representative of the teaching staff of the University, as follows:—The Chairman of the Professional Board and four Fellows elected by the Faculties of the University voting together, provided that no two Fellows so elected shall belong to the one Faculty;

35 seven Fellows elected by the graduates of the University;
one Fellow elected by the municipal councils within the metropolitan area of Sydney as prescribed by regulations to be made in pursuance of the provisions of this Act;

40 one Fellow elected by the mayors and presidents of the councils of all municipalities and shires (other than the city of Sydney), which the Governor from time to time declares by proclamation in the Gazette to have a population of over six thousand persons; such Fellow to be elected as prescribed by regulations to be made in pursuance of the provisions of this Act. The University (Amendment).

The first of each such appointment and election shall be made or held within three months after the commencement of this Act; but if for any cause any such election is not held, or is void, the Governor may appoint to the office :

5 Provided that Sir Henry Normand MacLaurin and His Honor Judge Backhouse shall each, during his life, be fellows in addition to the seven Fellows elected by graduates as aforesaid.

8. Subject to the above proviso, the members of the Senate shall be appointed or elected for five years, or until their successors are appointed or elected, and shall then retire, but such retirement shall not prevent them from being subsequently appointed or elected as Fellows.

9. Any vacancy occurring by death or resignation of a Fellow so appointed or elected shall be filled by a like appointment or election, as the case may be, of a Fellow, who shall hold office during the residue of the term of the Fellow whose office he fills.

9A. Elections of Fellows representative of the Faculties Board and of the graduates shall be according to by-laws to be made by the Senate, or, if the Senate fails to make such by-laws before the expiration of two months from the commencement of this Act, shall be according to regulations which the Governor is hereby authorised to make: Provided that voting at such elections shall be by ballot or by letter posted to the Registrar.

25 Such by-laws may be made at any time after the passing of this Act.

9B. The appointment and election of the other Fellows shall be according to regulations to be made in that regard by the Governor.

9C. Any election of Fellows by the graduates of the University shall be by the following persons, namely—

- (a) fellows;
- (b) officials declared by this Act to have the same rights and privileges within the University as Masters and Doctors;
- (c) graduates keeping their names in accordance with any by-law in that behalf on the register of the University, who have taken within the University the degree of Master or Doctor;
- (d) Bachelors and all other persons who obtain any certificate which the Senate by by-law declares to be equivalent to the degree of Bachelor.

4. Subsection three of section thirteen of the University and University Colleges Act, 1900, is repealed, and the following is inserted in its place :—

- (3) At any such meeting eight Fellows shall form a quorum.
