

I certify that this PUBLIC BILL, which originated in the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, has finally passed the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL and the LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY of NEW SOUTH WALES.

W. S. MOWLE,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

*Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Sydney, 14 December, 1916.*

New South Wales.

ANNO SEPTIMO

GEORGII V REGIS.

Act No. 77, 1916.

An Act to amend the Special Deposits (Industrial Undertakings) Act, 1912, the Constitution Act, 1902; to provide for the management and control of industrial undertakings; and for purposes consequent thereon or incidental thereto. [Assented to, 20th December, 1916.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Special Deposits Short title. (Industrial Undertakings) Amendment Act, 1916," and shall be read as one with the Special Deposits (Industrial Undertakings) Act, 1912, which is herein referred to as the Principal Act. 2.

I have examined this Bill, and find it to correspond in all respects with the Bill as finally passed by both Houses.

THOS. H. THROWER,
Chairman of Committees of the Legislative Assembly.

Special Deposits (Industrial Undertakings) Amendment.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires—

“Manager” means manager or officer in charge of the industrial undertaking in question.

“The Minister” means the Minister of the Crown under whose direction the industrial undertaking in question is carried on.

“Undertaking” or “industrial undertaking” means any of the industrial undertakings mentioned or referred to in the Principal Act, or specified by the Governor under that Act.

New s. 4.

3. The following new section is inserted after section four in the Principal Act:—

Reserve account in Treasury.

4A. After providing for expenditure in respect of any industrial undertaking, such amounts as may be determined by the Minister shall from time to time be carried to a Reserve Account to be opened in the Treasury under the heading of the undertaking.

Such account shall be kept in the Special Deposits Account division in the public accounts, and shall be credited with interest at such rates and under such conditions as the Colonial Treasurer may determine.

Moneys at credit of such account may be withdrawn by the manager for the purpose of meeting the cost of renewals, replacements, assurance, and liabilities for accidents, and such other liabilities properly incurred in relation to the undertaking as may be determined by the Minister, but for no other purpose, and thereupon the required amount may be issued under the authority of the said Treasurer.

Amendment of s. 7.

4. Section seven of the Principal Act is amended by substituting the word “September” for “August”.

New s. 8.

5. Section eight of the Principal Act is repealed, and the following is substituted for it:—

Application of profits.

8. The profits of an undertaking, after providing for the amounts carried to the Consolidated Revenue Fund and to the Reserve Account, in pursuance of sections 4 and 4A of this Act, may be applied in reduction of the capital cost of the undertaking.

In the name and on behalf of His Majesty I assent to this Act.

G. STRICKLAND,

Government House,

Governor.
