---

Totalizator.

---

“Racecourse” means racecourse licensed under the provisions of the Gaming and Betting Act, 1912.

“Race-meeting” means meeting for the purpose of horse-racing, trotting racing, or pony-racing.

“Racing club” means club, association, or other body of persons (whether incorporated or unincorporated, proprietary, syndicate, company, or individual ownership) established for the purpose of promoting, conducting, or controlling the sport of horse-racing, trotting-racing, or pony-racing.

“The regulations” means the regulations made under this Act.

“The totalizator” means the instrument or contrivance known as “the totalizator,” and includes any other machine or instrument of a like nature, and conducted on the like principles.

Use of the totalizator.

Power of Governor to direct use of totalizator.

3. Notwithstanding anything contained in any Act relating to gaming, betting, or wagering, the Governor, by notification in the Gazette, may direct that any racing club therein mentioned shall establish a totalizator on all or any racecourse at which it holds race meetings, and shall on and after any day therein named use the totalizator so established on every day on which a race meeting is held on such racecourses, and may amend or revoke any such notification.

If any racing club fails to use the totalizator when so directed as aforesaid it shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds for every day on which such failure has occurred.

Approval

4. Before any totalizator is used by any racing club the totalizator shall be approved by the Governor.

Use of totalizator to be lawful.

5. The use of the totalizator on a racecourse pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be lawful to all intents and purposes, and a totalizator when used in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and every person engaged or concerned in the use of such instrument, and every house, office, room, or place upon such racecourse

racecourse used for the purposes of such instrument, and every placard or advertisement referring thereto, shall be exempt from the provisions of any Act prohibiting gaming, betting, or wagering.

6. Any person conducting or assisting in the conduct or working of a totalizator unless it is used pursuant to the provisions of this Act, shall, upon conviction for the first offence, be liable to a penalty of not less than one hundred and not more than five hundred pounds, and for any subsequent offence to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

Penalty on person unlawfully conducting totalizator.

7. Every totalizator used by a club under the provisions of this Act shall, subject to the inspection hereinafter provided for, be under the care and management of some competent person appointed by the club, and under the direct supervision of the stewards or committee of the club.

Management of totalizator.

Commission.

8. (1) Every club using the totalizator under the provisions of this Act shall deduct as commission out of the moneys paid into the totalizator in respect of any race ten per centum of the money so paid into the totalizator.

Commission.

(2) Every such club shall, within fourteen days after the holding of any race-meeting, pay seven-tenths of the amount deducted by such club as aforesaid to the Colonial Treasurer, or some person appointed by him, to be paid by him into the Treasury and carried to the Consolidated Revenue Fund. Any such amount may be recovered from such club as a Crown debt in any courts of competent jurisdiction.

Payment of portion of commission to Colonial Treasurer.

The residue of three-tenths may be retained by the club, and shall be expended by it in prizes for horse-racing, trotting racing, or pony-racing, and in the upkeep of the totalizator to the satisfaction of the Minister, and the sums not so expended shall be paid to the Colonial Treasurer in accordance with this section.

(3) Every such club may, in addition, deduct out of the moneys paid into the totalizator in respect of any race one per centum of the money so paid into the totalizator, as a sinking fund to pay off the cost of the installation

Deduction for sinking fund.

installation of the totalizator, and of the construction of the necessary buildings to be used in relation thereto by the club :

Provided that the amount of such cost shall be determined as prescribed by the regulations, and that such deduction shall cease to be made when the cost of the installation and construction as aforesaid has been repaid out of the sinking fund.

Distribution of dividends.

9. (1) Every club using the totalizator shall pay (after making deductions as aforesaid) by way of dividends all moneys received from investments on the totalizator: Provided that it shall not be necessary to pay any fraction of a shilling unless such fraction amounts to or exceeds sixpence, in which case sixpence shall be paid :

Provided further that the amount so retained, together with dividends unclaimed for a period of one month, shall, in the case of clubs which carry on racing for the sake of profit to their shareholders, be paid to the Colonial Treasurer in accordance with the preceding section.

Penalty.

(2) If any member, officer, agent, or servant of any such club makes, authorises, or permits the payment to any person of any dividend which is not calculated in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the regulations thereunder, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds; and any club by which any such dividend is paid in contravention of this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds for each offence.

Application for permission to establish totalizator.

(3) It shall be lawful for any club or licensed racecourse to apply to the Minister for permission to establish or use the totalizator under the provisions of this Act.

Amalgamation of clubs or racecourses.

And further, it shall be lawful for any two or more clubs or licensed racecourses to apply to the Minister for permission to amalgamate and use only one licensed racecourse for the meetings which they each have the right to hold, and upon such permission being given all the rights and privileges of the clubs or racecourses so amalgamating shall apply to the racecourse and club approved in the said permit.

And

Totalizator.

And the provisions of this Act in respect of the totalizator relating to each such club or licensed race-course shall apply to such last-mentioned club or race-course.

General provisions.

10. (1) The Governor may, on the recommendation of the Colonial Treasurer, assume control of and use any totalizator established under this Act and which, in the opinion of the Colonial Treasurer, is being mismanaged or misused, on such terms as the Governor thinks just. Power of Governor to establish and use totalizator.

(2) Where a totalizator is used by the Governor in pursuance of this section he may deduct from the moneys paid into the totalizator in respect of any race a sum of money not exceeding ten per centum of the money so paid into the totalizator, and shall pay the amount so deducted, less all necessary expenses, into the Treasury, to be carried to the Consolidated Revenue Fund. Deductions.

(3) Where the Governor uses a totalizator under this section he shall (after making deduction as aforesaid) pay by way of dividends all moneys received from investments on the totalizator: Provided that it shall not be necessary so to pay any fraction of a shilling unless such fraction amounts to or exceeds sixpence, in which case sixpence shall be paid. Distribution of dividends.

11. Within fourteen days after the holding of any race-meeting whereat any totalizator is used by a club, the committee or executive body of the club shall deposit with the Colonial Treasurer a full and true account, under the hand of the secretary of the club, or the hands of two members of such committee or executive body, of the sums received by such club through the totalizator on the occasion of the use thereof, with such details as may be prescribed by regulation, and of the commission retained as aforesaid, and of the details of the expenses of conducting such totalizator. If such committee or executive body fails to comply with the provisions of this section each member thereof shall be liable to a penalty of not more than fifty pounds.
