

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

2015-16

FIRST SESSION OF THE FIFTY-SIXTH PARLIAMENT

---

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

No. 72

THURSDAY 2 JUNE 2016

---

The Questions and Answers Paper is published at the end of each sitting day and will contain, by number and title, all unanswered questions, together with questions to which answers have been received on that sitting day and any new questions. Consequently the full text of any question will be printed only twice: when notice is given; and, when answered. During any adjournment of two weeks or more a Questions and Answers Paper will be published from time to time containing answers received.

3358 LAND TITLING AND REGISTRATION—Mr Clayton Barr to ask the Treasurer, and Minister for Industrial Relations—

- (1) Did the Scoping Study to outsource the functions of the Department of Land and Property Information in New South Wales, which considered likely sale structures, go out to Public Tender and if so what were the significant dates of that process?
- (2) How much was JP Morgan paid to conduct the Scoping Study of the likely sale structure?
- (3) Was there a Public Tender process for interested parties to assist the Government with engaging with potential bidders for the right to operate Land and Titling Services?
- (4) How much will JP Morgan be paid to assist the Government with engaging with potential bidders and parties who may be interested in making a bid to operate the Land and Titling Services in NSW?
- (5) Did the task, role and responsibility to assist the Government with engaging with bidders, as per parts 3 and 4 above, form part of the original tender process referred to in parts 1 and 2 above?
- (6) Who will the Government meet with as part of what the media refer to as the "marketing roadshow" to present the opportunities and possibilities under a privately run Titling and Registration business and will any of these meetings occur outside of the Sydney basin?
- (7) Will the proceeds of the purchased right to operate Land Titling and Registration in NSW go directly into Restart NSW funds?
- (8) How many full time equivalent persons will be employed in the proposed Titling and Registration Regulator business unit and what is the proposed cost per annum to run and operate this unit?
- (9) Will the Regulator Unit have the power and authority to impose fines and/or terminate the contract of the new operator if terms and conditions are breached?

3359 STRATA RENEWAL—Ms Yasmin Catley to ask the Minister for Innovation and Better Regulation—

- (1) Did the ability already exist in the Strata Schemes (Freehold Development) Act 1973 and/or Strata Schemes (Leasehold Development) Act 1986 to terminate a strata scheme through the Supreme Court?
- (2) Why did the Government establish mechanisms in the new Strata Schemes Development Act 2015 that allow the Land and Environment Court to terminate a strata scheme which included dissenting owners?

- (3) What are the Government's "six fairness tests" (Sydney Morning Herald, 30 May 2016) that the Land and Environment Court will need to consider when deciding on whether to terminate a strata scheme and what are their legislative underpinnings?
- (4) Do the six fairness tests correspond to the provisions within section 182 (1) of the Strata Schemes Development Act 2015?
- (5) Does section 182(1)(d) of the Strata Schemes Development Act 2015 apply to a collective sale which does not consider the forced sale of a home within a strata scheme?
- (6) Is section 182(1)(g) of the Strata Schemes Development Act 2015 definitive?
- (7) Is there provisions in the draft regulations that further define any other matter that the Land and Environment Court must consider when giving effect to a strata renewal plan pursuant to section 182 (1)(g) of the Strata Schemes Development Act 2015?
- (8) Will the Minister provide more objective guidelines to the Land and Environment Court when considering whether the termination of a scheme and the forced sale of someone's home is "just and equitable in all circumstances"?
- (9) Is the forced sale of a home within a strata scheme, without the consent of the owner, considered 'just' in any circumstance?
- (10) Does the ability of the Land and Environment Court to terminate a strata scheme and force the sale of someone's home within a strata scheme establish a lower form of property ownership compared to non-strata property rights?
  - (a) If not why not?
- (11) Can the termination of property rights within a strata renewal proposal including a dissenting owner (as contemplated by the Government's legislation), contrasted with the existing property rights of nonstrata property owners, be considered "equitable" in any circumstance?
  - (a) If not, why not?
- (12) What are the avenues of appeal for a homeowner that does not agree with a decision of the Land and Environment Court to terminate a strata scheme and force the sale of their home?
- (13) Would the subsequent appeal offer a cheap and affordable option for a homeowner, particularly someone on low and/or low-fixed income?
- (14) Did the previous legislation, which required the agreement of all owners within a strata scheme before it could be terminated, offer the highest form of protection of property rights?
  - (a) If not, why not?
- (15) If the compensation value owing to an owner forced to sell as part of a termination of a strata scheme must be "an amount more than the market value of the lot" (page 11 of Regulatory Impact Statement- Strata Scheme Development Regulation 2016) and the market value is determined as the "amount for which the building and site would be sold for in an arm's length transaction between a buyer and seller who both act, knowledgeably, prudently and without compulsion" (page 12 of RIS), should then any compensation value paid to an owner forced to sell their home must be for an amount no less than that which they would willingly sell their home?
  - (a) If not, why not?
- (16) If an owner was not prepared to sell their home and no price placed on any theoretical sale, does that the definition of compensation value and market value contained within the legislation and regulation prevent any strata renewal scheme proposal where a dissenting owner did not wish to sell at any price from by considered at all?
  - (a) If not, why not?
- (17) Why did the Government not include a public interest test in considering any termination of a strata scheme?
- (18) Could the proposed legislation and accompanying regulations give rise to a situation where there is a net decrease in the number of residential units as part of a strata renewal proposal?
  - (a) If not, why not?
- (19) Could the proposed legislation and accompanying regulation give rise to a situation where a strata scheme is terminated and no residential units built in its place?
  - (a) If not, why not?
- (20) Why was a public interest test, or whether a proposal increases or decreases the number of residential dwellings, not included within the legislation and/or the draft regulations for the Land and Environment court to consider?
