	(6) The identity of the nominator and seconder are not to be disclosed by the Clerk. (7) The Clerk will ask the House if it is satisfied that reasonable opportunity has been given for the receipt of nominations, and advise that further nominations may not be made between ballots. (8) The Clerk will then declare nominations to be closed.	20 February 2023
Procedures for the election of the Speaker	Procedures for the election of the Speaker 10B. The process for the election of the Speaker must be in accordance with section 31B of the Constitution Act 1902. In addition, the following procedures apply: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) Until a Speaker is elected, the Clerk shall preside and, in any debate, shall decide any point of order and determine which Member is entitled to address the House. (2) In conducting the election, the Clerk will: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (i) announce the number of nominations received. (ii) if there is one valid nomination, declare that Member to be elected. (iii) if there is more than one valid nomination, announce the fact that a ballot will be required. (iv) inquire if any Member wishes to speak to the nominations; any Member may speak for no more than ten minutes each. During debate, a Minister may move at any time without notice 'That the ballot be taken now'. The question is put immediately and without amendment or debate. If the votes are equal, the question is negatived. If the question is carried, or when debate ends, the House proceeds to a ballot. (v) have ballot papers prepared and initialled. (vi) order that the bells be rung as prescribed for the taking of a ballot. (vii) call each Member by order of electorate, with Members proceeding to the Table to collect a ballot paper. The names of Members issued with ballot papers will be crossed off a list. (3) After collecting a ballot paper, Members will cast their vote in secret at the Table. Members will place their ballot paper in the locked ballot box on the Table, before returning to their seat. (4) When all Members present have been called, received a ballot paper, voted and placed a ballot paper in the ballot box the Clerk will ask if any Member has not voted and desires to do so. The Clerk will then ask the House if there is any objection to declaring the ballot closed. (5) The Clerk will then declare the ballot closed. (6) The votes will be counted by the Clerks. (7) The Clerk will report the result of the ballot and declare a Member to be elected or the House will proceed to further ballots or, if necessary, the Clerk will determine the question by lot, in accordance with s.31B of the Constitution Act. (8) At no time during these proceedings will the Chamber be locked or the sitting suspended. 	20 February 2023

Procedures after election of the Speaker	11. After election: (1) The elected Member shall be conducted to the Speaker’s rostrum by two Members. (2) Having been so conducted the Member elected makes acknowledgement to the House for the honour conferred and takes the Chair as Speaker. The Mace shall be taken from under the Table, and placed on the Table. (3) After the House congratulates the Speaker, a Minister shall inform the House where and at what time the Governor will receive the House for the purpose of presenting the Speaker. (4) At the stated time the sitting may be adjourned or suspended and the House shall proceed, with any Members then present, to be received by the Governor. If the election occurs at the meeting of a new Parliament after a General Election (5) At such presentation the Speaker shall, in the name and on behalf of the House, lay claim to its undoubted rights and privileges. (6) On return the Speaker shall report the making of the claim. If the election occurs during the parliamentary term (7) A new Speaker filling a vacancy occurring during the currency of a Parliament does not lay claim to the privileges of the House.	20 February 2023
