Chapter 3

Speaker, Deputy Speaker, Assistant Speaker, Temporary Speakers and Officers

Chapter outline

This chapter concerns:

- procedures for the election of the Speaker, Deputy Speaker and Assistant Speaker,
- procedures for the nomination of Temporary Speakers,
- procedures in the absence of, or vacancies in, the offices of the Speaker, Deputy Speaker, Assistant Speaker and Temporary Speakers, and
- procedures in the absence of or vacancy in the office of the Clerk.

9.	Speaker – Role	(1)	Following election, the Speaker, when not presiding in accordance with section 31 of the Constitution Act 1902 , is not precluded from participating in debate or discussion or from voting on any question.
	3 July 2009	(2)	The Speaker may, from time to time, issue guidelines in relation to matters not provided for in the Standing Orders.

When an election for Speaker takes place

10.	When an election for Speaker takes place	(1)	An election for Speaker shall take place at: (a) the opening of a new Parliament after the Members have been sworn or made an affirmation; or (b) any time when the office of Speaker is vacant. (See SO 16 regarding the conduct of business when a vacancy in the office of Speaker occurs when the House is sitting.)
	20 February 2023	(2)	The election shall be conducted by the Clerk acting as Chair in the manner provided below in standing orders 10A and 10B.

The nomination process for the election of the Speaker

10A.	The nomination process for the election of the Speaker	The nomination process for the election of the Speaker must be in accordance with section 31B of the Constitution Act 1902 . In addition, the following procedures must apply:
	20 February 2023	(1)	In the case of the election of the Speaker following a General Election, at least one week before the scheduled sitting all Members will be notified by the Clerk that nominations for the office of Speaker will be called for at the prescribed time (immediately after Members have taken the pledge or oath). A sample copy of the nomination form will be attached to the notification.
		(2)	In the case of the election of the Speaker due to a vacancy arising in the office of the Speaker, the Clerk will notify all Members as soon as practicable that nominations for the office of Speaker will be called for at the start of the next sitting day. A sample copy of the nomination form will be attached to the notification.
		(3)	Nominations must be seconded.

- (4) The Member nominated must accept the nomination by endorsement on the instrument of nomination.
 - (5) At the prescribed time of the first day of sitting or in the case of a vacancy in the office of the Speaker at the commencement of the next sitting day, nominations are to be delivered to the Clerk at the Table in a sealed envelope by the person nominated or by any other Member.
 - (6) The identity of the nominator and seconder are not to be disclosed by the Clerk.
 - (7) The Clerk will ask the House if it is satisfied that reasonable opportunity has been given for the receipt of nominations, and advise that further nominations may not be made between ballots.
 - (8) The Clerk will then declare nominations to be closed.

Procedures for the election of the Speaker

10B. Procedures for the election of the Speaker

20 February 2023

The process for the election of the Speaker must be in accordance with section 31B of the Constitution Act 1902. In addition, the following procedures apply:

- (1) Until a Speaker is elected, the Clerk shall preside and, in any debate, shall decide any point of order and determine which Member is entitled to address the House.
 - (2) In conducting the election, the Clerk will:
 - (i) announce the number of nominations received.
 - (ii) if there is one valid nomination, declare that Member to be elected.
 - (iii) if there is more than one valid nomination, announce the fact that a ballot will be required.
 - (iv) inquire if any Member wishes to speak to the nominations; any Member may speak for no more than ten minutes each. During debate, a Minister may move at any time without notice 'That the ballot be taken now'. The question is put immediately and without amendment or debate. If the votes are equal, the question is negatived. If the question is carried, or when debate ends, the House proceeds to a ballot.
 - (v) have ballot papers prepared and initialled.
 - (vi) order that the bells be rung as prescribed for the taking of a ballot.
 - (vii) call each Member by order of electorate, with Members proceeding to the Table to collect a ballot paper. The names of Members issued with ballot papers will be crossed off a list.
 - (3) After collecting a ballot paper, Members will cast their vote in secret at the Table. Members will place their ballot paper in the locked ballot box on the Table, before returning to their seat.
 - (4) When all Members present have been called, received a ballot paper, voted and placed a ballot paper in the ballot box the Clerk will ask if any Member has not voted and desires to do so. The Clerk will then ask the House if there is any objection to declaring the ballot closed.
 - (5) The Clerk will then declare the ballot closed.
 - (6) The votes will be counted by the Clerks.
 - (7) The Clerk will report the result of the ballot and declare a Member to be elected or the House will proceed to further ballots or, if necessary, the Clerk will determine the question by lot, in accordance with s. 31B of the Constitution Act.

	(8) At no time during these proceedings will the Chamber be locked or the sitting suspended.
11. Procedure after election of Speaker	After election: <ol style="list-style-type: none">(1) The elected Member shall be conducted to the Speaker's rostrum by two Members.(2) Having been so conducted the Member elected makes acknowledgement to the House for the honour conferred and takes the Chair as Speaker. The Mace shall be taken from under the Table, and placed on the Table.(3) After the House congratulates the Speaker, a Minister shall inform the House where and at what time the Governor will receive the House for the purpose of presenting the Speaker.(4) At the stated time the sitting may be adjourned or suspended and the House shall proceed, with any Members then present, to be received by the Governor. If the election occurs at the meeting of a new Parliament after a General Election <ol style="list-style-type: none">(5) At such presentation the Speaker shall, in the name and on behalf of the House, lay claim to its undoubted rights and privileges.(6) On return the Speaker shall report the making of the claim. If the election occurs during the parliamentary term <ol style="list-style-type: none">(7) A new Speaker filling a vacancy occurring during the currency of a Parliament does not lay claim to the privileges of the House.

Election of Deputy Speaker and Assistant Speaker

12. When Deputy Speaker and Assistant Speaker elected	The Deputy Speaker and an Assistant Speaker shall be elected on the first sitting day of a new Parliament or whenever either office becomes vacant.
13. Procedure for election of Deputy Speaker	The procedure for the election of the Deputy Speaker shall be as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none">(1) A motion shall be moved and seconded without notice that a Member be appointed Deputy Speaker.(2) The Speaker shall then ask if there is any further nomination, and if there is not, shall say that the time for motions has expired.(3) The Speaker shall, without motion put, declare the Member named in the motion to have been appointed Deputy Speaker.(4) If more than one motion for appointment is moved and seconded, the Speaker shall, after each subsequent motion, ask if there is any further motion, and if there is not, shall say that the time for motions has expired.(5) When there are no further motions debate may ensue.(6) No Member may speak for more than 5 minutes.(7) The closure may be moved on this question.

	(8) Before putting the question on the closure the Speaker shall ask whether there are any further motions. Such motions will be received, no debate being allowed.
	(9) If the question on the closure is carried the necessary questions shall be put in the order in which they have been moved.
14.	The procedure for the election of the Assistant Speaker shall be the same as the procedure for the election of the Deputy Speaker.

Absence of or vacancy in the Offices of Speaker, Deputy Speaker, Assistant Speaker and Temporary Speakers

15.	Absence of the Speaker, Deputy Speaker and Assistant Speaker	(1) In the absence of the Speaker on a day when the House is sitting the Deputy Speaker shall perform the duties of the Speaker. (2) In the absence of both the Speaker and the Deputy Speaker on a day when the House is sitting the Assistant Speaker shall perform the duties of the Speaker. (3) In the absence of the Speaker, Deputy Speaker and Assistant Speaker on a day when the House is sitting, a Temporary Speaker shall perform the duties of the Speaker.
	8 October 2015
16.	Vacancy in the Speakership	If a vacancy occurs in the office of the Speaker: (1) When the House is sitting the Clerk shall inform the House and the Deputy Speaker shall perform the duties of the Speaker until the election of a new Speaker which shall take precedence of all other business on the next sitting day. (2) When the House is not sitting a new Speaker shall be elected on the next sitting day and such election shall take precedence of all other business.
17.	Vacancy in the office of Deputy Speaker or Assistant Speaker	If a vacancy occurs in the office of Deputy Speaker or Assistant Speaker, the House, on being informed by the Speaker, shall proceed to the election of a new Deputy Speaker or Assistant Speaker.
18.	Absence of Speaker, Deputy Speaker, Assistant Speaker and Temporary Speakers during session	If the Speaker, Deputy Speaker, Assistant Speaker and Temporary Speakers are all absent on a day when the House is sitting, the Clerk shall inform the House which shall, upon motion without notice, before any further business is conducted, proceed to the election of an Acting Speaker and: (1) The Clerk shall preside for the election of an Acting Speaker in the same manner as for the election of Deputy Speaker. (2) The Members present, if a quorum, may elect an Acting Speaker who shall perform the duties of the Speaker. (3) If the House does not proceed to an election the matter shall stand adjourned until the next sitting day or if a sitting day has not been set, a date set by the Government, when the election of an Acting Speaker, if still necessary, shall take precedence of all other business.
	3 July 2009

Temporary Speakers

19.	Nomination by Speaker	The Speaker shall nominate, at the commencement of each Parliament, not more than 5 Members as Temporary Speakers who, in the absence of the Deputy Speaker and Assistant Speaker, may exercise the powers and duties of the Speaker, and who shall be referred to whilst in the Chair as Temporary Speaker.
8 October 2015

Closure

86. Motion “That the question be put”	A motion may be made by any Member, “ That the question be now put ”. Such motion:
17 January 2022	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) May be moved whilst another Member is addressing the House; (2) Shall be put forthwith and decided without amendment or debate; (3) Must be carried by at least 30 Members in the affirmative; and (4) May not be moved before 10.00 a.m. on any day when the House meets at an earlier time.
87. Closure – right of reply	Whenever the closure is carried on a motion, the mover of the original motion, if entitled to a reply, shall be permitted to speak for up to 30 minutes or a lesser time if specified.
88. Limitation of application	The carrying of the closure only affects the last question proposed to the House.
89. Closure – consequential divisions	When the House has carried the question “ That the question be now put ” and any reply has been made, the Speaker shall then put any questions that are consequential on the carriage of the closure motion.

Allocation of time for debate (guillotine)

90. Closure – allocation of time for discussion	The Premier, or a Minister acting on the Premier’s behalf, may at any time state in the House the intention of the Government to deal with any business to a certain stage at a specified time at the next or a subsequent sitting.
17 January 2022	Written notification must subsequently be given to the Speaker and the Party Leaders and the notice shall be published in the Business Paper.
	To give effect to the notification a Member shall move at the specified time on the date given or at a later time at the same sitting the motion “That the question be now put”.
	The carrying of this question is an instruction to the Speaker to put to the vote every question necessary to give effect to the notification. No further debate, amendment or reply is permitted.
	After the carrying of the closure, the Speaker shall put to the vote any amendments proposed by a Minister provided that the amendments were lodged with the Clerk and printed and circulated by the Clerk at least 2 hours before the specified time.
	The closure may not be moved on any question contained in a notification of allocation of time under this Standing Order.
	If the closure under this Standing Order is agreed to during the second reading stage and there have been no Minister’s amendments circulated, the Speaker shall forthwith put to the vote the third reading of the Bill.

Privilege or contempt suddenly arising in the House

91. Speaking to privilege	A Member may rise on a matter of contempt or a breach of privilege suddenly arising relating to the proceedings then before the House. In order to move a substantive motion immediately or to request the Speaker to have a notice placed on the Business Paper with precedence, the Member must satisfy the Speaker (in a statement limited to 10 minutes) that:
8 October 2015	<ol style="list-style-type: none">(1) The matter is one suddenly arising, relates to a matter then before the House and should be dealt with at the earliest opportunity;(2) There is a prima facie case; and(3) The Member has prepared a notice of motion and the matter should proceed forthwith or have precedence for the next sitting day.
92. Matters of privilege not suddenly arising	Except as provided in Standing Order 91 and in paragraph (5) of this Standing Order, a matter of privilege or contempt shall be brought before the House as follows:
17 January 2022	<ol style="list-style-type: none">(1) A Member desiring to raise a matter of privilege or contempt must inform the Speaker of the details in writing.(2) The Speaker must consider the matter within 14 days and decide whether a motion to refer the matter to the Standing Committee on Parliamentary Privilege and Ethics (the Committee) is to take precedence under the Standing Orders. The Speaker must notify this decision in writing to the Member.(3) While a matter is being considered by the Speaker, a Member must not take any action or refer to the matter in the House.(4) If the Speaker decides that a motion for referral should take precedence, the Member may, at any time when there is no business before the House, give notice of a motion to refer the matter to the Committee. The notice must take precedence under Standing Order 118 on the next sitting day.(5) If the Speaker decides that the matter should not be the subject of a notice of referral, a Member is not prevented from giving a notice of motion in relation to the matter. Such notice shall not have precedence.(6) If notice of a motion is given under paragraph (4), but the House is not expected to meet on the day following the giving of the notice, with the leave of the House, the motion may be moved at a later hour of the sitting at which the notice is given.

Point of order

93. Point of order	A Member may, at any time, raise a point of order relating to a breach of the Standing Orders or the practice of the House which shall, until disposed of, suspend the consideration and decision of every other question.
94. Consideration of point of order	When a Member rises on a point of order: <ol style="list-style-type: none">(1) The Member who was speaking shall be seated.(2) The question only of order shall be stated to the Speaker.(3) The Speaker shall give a decision or hear further argument.

Dissent from Speaker's ruling

95. Dissent from Speaker's ruling or decision

Chapter 18

Financial procedures

Chapter outline

This chapter concerns:

- the necessary requirements for the passing of amendments or bills which include financial measures,
- rules for the consideration in detail of an Appropriation Bill, and
- Estimates Committees.

243. Message from Governor

The House shall not pass any vote, resolution or bill for the appropriation of any part of the Consolidated Fund, or for any other tax or impost to any purpose which has not been first recommended by message of the Governor during the session in which such vote, resolution or bill shall be passed. This provision does not apply to a bill introduced by a Minister or to a vote or resolution proposed by a Minister.

244. Message accompanying Estimates

Messages from the Governor, together with the accompanying Estimates and Statements, recommending bills for Loan or Appropriation shall be considered in detail and the Estimates shall be deemed to form part of the bill for the purposes of debate.

245. Consideration of Appropriation Bill in detail

The procedure for consideration in detail of a bill for Loan or Appropriation, other than Bills referred to an Estimates Committee is:

- (1) When a clause is under discussion the debate shall be confined to the estimate of expenditure relevant to that clause.
 - (2) When a motion is made to omit or reduce any vote or item of a vote, a question shall be proposed by the Speaker for omitting or reducing that vote or item and until it is disposed of Members shall only speak to that question.
 - (3) After a question for omitting or reducing any vote or item has been disposed of, no motion shall be made or debate allowed upon any preceding vote or item.
 - (4) Where it has been proposed to omit or reduce a vote or items in a vote, the question will then be put on the original vote, or upon the reduced vote, as the case may be, without amendment.
 - (5) After a question has been put for a reduction of the whole vote, no motion shall be made for omitting or reducing any part of such vote.
 - (6) When a general reduction of the amount of the vote comprising many items is proposed, the question shall be put for the reduction of such vote or item. If such a motion is negatived it shall not be in order to then propose a reduction by a greater sum.

Estimates Committees

246. Estimates Committees

17 January 2022

- (1) On a motion of a Minister, during the second reading debate on the Appropriation Bill, the House may appoint Estimates Committees.
 - (2) The Estimates Committees shall examine and report on proposed expenditures from the Consolidated Fund for each organisational unit for each Minister listed in the Tabled Estimates, and the corresponding clauses and schedules in the Appropriation Bill and the Parliamentary Appropriation Bill which shall stand referred to the appropriate committee.
 - (3) The report of each Estimates Committee shall state whether the votes of each organisational unit in the Estimates and the corresponding clauses and schedules in the Appropriation Bill are recommended or otherwise. The failure of an Estimates Committee to report on any part of the votes shall be deemed to be a report recommending the proposed expenditure.
 - (4) The Chair of each Committee or a Member deputed by the Chair shall, after the committee has concluded its deliberations and after the question on the second reading of the Appropriation Bill and the Parliamentary Appropriation Bill has been agreed to, present the Committee's report to the Speaker in the House. The Speaker shall set down consideration of the reports in detail with the Appropriation Bill and the Parliamentary Appropriation Bill respectively as an Order of the Day.
 - (5) Consideration of a report in detail shall be deemed to be consideration of those clauses and schedules of the Appropriation Bill and the Parliamentary Appropriation Bill referred to that Estimates Committee.
 - (6) When considering a report in detail:
 - (a) The Speaker shall put the question in respect of each Committee report, "That the report of the (name of the Committee) be adopted".
 - (b) A Member may speak for a maximum of 5 minutes and the Minister in reply may speak for a maximum of 15 minutes on each of the questions.
 - (c) Those clauses and schedules of the Appropriation Bill and the Parliamentary Appropriation Bill not referred to an Estimates Committee shall be considered as one question, "That the remaining clauses and schedules of the Bill be agreed to".

Chapter 19

Messages from the Governor

Chapter outline

This chapter concerns the reporting of and acting upon messages from the Governor.

Chapter 29

Private bills

Chapter outline

This chapter concerns procedures for private bills (being bills for the interest or benefit of a particular person, group of people or organisation, as distinct from private Members' bills).

358. Procedure

17 January 2022

The procedure for the passage of a private bill on petition is as follows:

- (1) At least 3 months prior to the presentation of the petition, a notice of intention to introduce a bill containing a true statement of the general objects of the bill shall be published once a week for 4 consecutive weeks in the Government Gazette, in at least one major newspaper published in Sydney and in the district affected by the bill.
- (2) The petition, with a printed copy of the proposed bill attached and signed by one or more of the parties applying for the bill shall be presented and received by the House.
- (3) The petition must contain:
 - (a) proof of the publication of the notice in the Government Gazette and the newspapers.
 - (b) a true statement of the general objects of the bill.
 - (c) a request to introduce the bill.
- (4) When the petition has been received, notice of motion for the introduction of the bill shall be given, and such bill shall be brought in within 30 days.
- (5) The motion for the introduction of the bill cannot be objected to and the motion cannot be amended or debated.
- (6) Before being introduced and read a first time, the bill shall be printed and sufficient copies shall be delivered to the Clerk.
- (7) Before being introduced and read a first time, and from time to time thereafter, the Clerk shall be entitled to claim such expenses from the promoters of the bill as the Clerk deems reasonable.
- (8) After the first reading, the bill by motion on notice shall be referred to a select committee.

359. General provisions apply

Unless otherwise ordered the general provisions relating to committees shall apply to select committee on private bills.

360. Special rules	In the select committee:
17 January 2022	<ol style="list-style-type: none">(1) The committee shall require proof of the allegations contained in the preamble.(2) The Chair shall have a deliberative and a casting vote.(3) Every petition in reference to the bill shall be deemed to be referred to the committee.(4) After taking evidence a question shall be put from the Chair – “That the preamble be agreed to”<ol style="list-style-type: none">(a) If the question passes in the negative, the committee shall not proceed further with the bill and report accordingly.(b) If the question is resolved in the affirmative the committee shall consider the clauses of the bill and any amendments may be proposed.(5) The committee having reported in favour of the bill, it shall be proceeded with as in the case of public bills, and a later time set down for the second reading.
361. From Council	A private bill coming to the Assembly from the Council if accompanied by printed copies of the reports and proceedings of its select committee shall be proceeded with as a public bill.
362. Not numbered	Private bills shall not be numbered after assent.
363. Lapsed bill	<ol style="list-style-type: none">(1) A private bill introduced in the Assembly which has lapsed because of prorogation may be proceeded with if a petition is lodged by the promoters within 10 clear sitting days of the new session of the same Parliament.(2) If the petition is received a motion may be moved without notice that the House proceed with the same bill, with any alterations which may have been made in the previous session.(3) The bill shall proceed from the point of interruption it had reached in the previous session if the bill is in the Assembly.(4) If the bill was in the Council at prorogation, a message may be sent to the Council requesting that the bill be restored to the Council’s business paper.(5) If already examined by a select committee, it shall not be necessary for another select committee to examine the bill.(6) If the bill had been referred to but not reported upon by a select committee in the previous session it shall be referred to another committee comprising as nearly as possible the same Members.(7) The committee shall be referred all minutes, papers and petitions in possession of the previous committee and previous requirements shall be deemed to have been satisfied.

Chapter 30

Standing and Sessional Orders

Chapter outline

This chapter concerns the adoption of Sessional Orders and suspension of Standing and Sessional Orders.

364. Sessional Orders – adoption

The House may from time to time adopt Sessional Orders which shall have effect for the duration of the session, unless otherwise ordered.

365. Suspension of Standing Orders
