The Government's Floodplain Management Program supports this policy and since 2011-12 has provided a combined total of more than $1 million per annum in funding to councils in Tweed, Richmond, Clarence, Hastings and Manning river valleys.

This amount does not include programs managed by other agencies as that data is not held by the Department of Planning, Industry and Environment.

I am advised:

Since the introduction of the Decade of Decentralisation initiative, around 5,245 jobs have been relocated from the Sydney CBD to metropolitan areas including Western Sydney and Regional New South Wales.

- (1) Why has the Government reduced capital expenditure funding to the Aboriginal Housing Office (AHO) by more than 30 per cent in the NSW Budget 2019-20, in light of the record numbers of Indigenous families waiting for housing?

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Friday 13 September 2019

(2) Why has the Government underspent the AHO budget by $16.3 million in 2018-19 (as at 20 June 2019)?

Answer—

I am advised:

(1) The AHO Capital expenditure budget for 2018/19 contained the remaining components of the National Partnership Remote Indigenous Housing (NPARIH). The NPARIH has now ended, and the ongoing capital budget is returning to pre NPARIH levels.

The 2019-20 budget does contain some carryover funding for the completion of projects currently in construction across remote locations such as Moree, Coonamble and Goolooga and these are expected to be complete by the end of calendar 2019.

(2) Part of the exit from the NPARIH agreement was a mandate that $15 million be dedicated for the Murdi Paaki region in far western New South Wales. An amount of $10.5 million of this $15 million was allocated as capital expenditure.

Under the Local Decision Making Accord signed with the Murdi Paaki Regional Assembly, these funds were placed under the control of the Regional Aboriginal Housing Leadership Assembly (known as RAHLA), a joint Government and community body that will determine how these funds are invested. This RAHLA is administered by FACSJ, and, as a result, the $10.5 million was transferred from the AHO capital budget into the 2019-20 FACSJ's budget.

The other $5.8 million difference between budget and the projected spend is a budget carry forward for the aforementioned projects currently under construction in remote locations that will be complete by the end of calendar 2019.

*0745 WATER QUALITY INVESTIGATIONS NSW BUDGET 2019-20—Mr David Mehan asked the Minister for Energy and Environment—

(a) What arrangements have been put in place to meet the commitment?

- $500,000 to investigate water quality issues at Terrigal Beach and Central Coast lagoons; and,
- $200,000 to establish an expert panel to investigate water quality issues at Tuggerah Lakes.

*0746 HOUSING IN GRIFFITH—Mrs Helen Dalton asked the Minister for Families, Communities and Disability Services—

Considering that there are up to 2,175 homeless people living in Griffith in any given year, and another 2,796 people live in marginal housing and struggling as they have to pay as much as 50 per cent of their weekly income on rent, how is the Government addressing housing in Griffith?

Answer—

I am advised that New South Wales now has the largest social housing building program of any state or territory across the country. The Government is also providing more support to vulnerable people and households who are living in the private rental market. Products are being offered to assist in accessing, improving and maintaining a tenancy.

The Department of Communities and Justice funds and undertakes a range of activities to support people experiencing rental stress, homelessness or at risk of homelessness in Griffith and the broader Riverina.  - (a) How will these funds be spent?
- (4) When will the program commence and conclude in the Illawarra?
- (5) Will the Government consult with Wollongong Council in the design and implementation of this program?

Answer—

- (1) The project will be delivered from July 2019 to June 2027.
- (2) Yes. It is a research project that will be led by the National Parks and Wildlife Service, in collaboration with private landholders, the South East Local Land Services and university researchers, to develop and improve deer control techniques.
- (3) The project will be conducted in the south-eastern part of Kosciuszko National Park and adjoining private properties.
 - (a) The first phase will focus on establishing a rigorous deer monitoring methodology to identify changes in deer numbers using available control methods, including new control techniques that are developed. The second phase will trial and evaluate different combinations of control techniques to determine which are cost-effective in maintaining low numbers of deer over time, and which options are suitable for use across a broader cross-tenure landscape.

- (1) Considering you recently announced 20 brand new, purpose-built social and affordable homes in the electorate of Wagga Wagga, when will you address the critical need for social and affordable housing in the electorate of Murray, particularly given that Murray has experienced a 37.9 per cent increase in homelessness during the 2011-16 period while Wagga Wagga has experienced an 18.4 per cent decrease in the same period?

Considering that Wyangala Dam is at 25.8 per cent capacity (as at 22 July 2019), and that New South Wales is currently experiencing drought conditions that are the worst on record, can you explain why the Merrowie Creek near Hillston is being flooded?

Answer—

I am advised:

Environmental water managers recently delivered a volume of held general security water for the environment through Merrowie Creek. There was no flooding as the environmental flow remained wholly within the channel.

*0766 INCENTIVES FOR REGIONAL BUSINESSES—Mrs Helen Dalton asked the Treasurer—

Considering regional businesses across New South Wales are struggling as a result of the ongoing drought, will the Government consider implementing payroll tax incentives and assistance for regional businesses in New South Wales, similar to that which operates in Victoria wherein businesses only pay half the payroll tax rate if they pay at least 85 per cent of their payroll to regional employees?

Answer—

As part of the 2018-19 Budget, the Government committed to increasing the payroll tax threshold progressively to $1 million by 2021-22. New South Wales businesses with annual payrolls of less than $900,000 do not currently pay payroll tax. The payroll tax threshold will increase to $950,000 from July 2020, and to $1 million from July 2021. The higher threshold will provide savings of up to $13,625 per year by 2021-22 for New South Wales businesses, and exemption from payroll tax for increasing numbers of small businesses.

The Government recognises the economic importance of the regions and the different challenges faced by businesses there.

- (3) How many Inner West establishments are currently operating under a micro-breweries and small distilleries licence?
- (4) How is the trial being monitored?
- (5) What benchmarks must be achieved in order for the trial to be made permanent?

Answer—

On 1 September 2018 the Government commenced a 12 month trial of a special micro-breweries and small distilleries licence for small scale producers of beer, cider and spirits. The trial sites are Sydney's Inner West and Newcastle Local Government Areas. The licence allows eligible micro-breweries and small distilleries to sell their own products to the public for consumption on their premises, not just as tastings.

The trial was a proof of concept, with a view to establishing a state-wide licensing option suited to the micro-brewery and small distillery model. This will support the craft brewery and small distillery sector and promote greater venue diversity across New South Wales.

The Government is extending the trial for an additional 12 months. In addition, businesses that rely on the special micro-brewery licence authorisation will continue to be able to do so after the trial ends, ensuring business continuity.

The Government is looking at ways to improve take up of the new licence type. In addition to expanding state-wide, this includes working with local councils to more closely align planning and liquor approval processes. Liquor & Gaming NSW will work with industry and local government stakeholders to ensure that this new licence type continues to support businesses do what they do best.

 - (c) Rebadging the departments with new names?
 - (d) Moving offices?
 - (e) New stationery for all departments and staff?
 - (f) New websites?

Answer—

Government agencies are structured to be agile and flexible to respond to the Government's strategic direction, deliver reforms and service the changing needs and priorities of the people of New South Wales.

In April 2019, the Government announced Machinery of Government (MOG) changes, with ten clusters reduced to eight clusters from 1 July 2019. The MOG changes streamline how clusters operate and collaborate to effectively service the new Ministry and achieve Government priorities.

NSW Treasury coordinated the process to ensure budgets were transferred between agencies in a way that reflected the Government's Administrative Orders, and with directions that the changes should be budget neutral as such, no additional funding was provided to implement the changes.

Clusters are responsible for implementation of the Machinery of Government changes, this process is underway.

A Sydney Water technician visited the site and attempted to contact the registered owner or tenant for each household to advise that a private plumber should be contacted to rectify the water leak. This question should be referred to the Treasurer.

Answer—

I am advised:

 - (a) If so, by what date can after-school care providers and preschools expect this change to be made?

Answer—

I am advised:

Access to before and after school care in rural, remote and smaller schools is a priority for the Government. Research is being undertaken into the needs of parents, schools and care providers to help develop suitable services.

Under the current School Student Transport Scheme, free travel is provided between the home and the school only. Travel to before and after school care programs is not covered under free travel as generally service providers require children participating in these programs to be signed in and out by their parent or guardian.

Safety concerns prevent the School Student Transport Scheme being extended to include pre-schoolers. The Government is considering an extension of the School Drive Subsidy to mitigate the cost burden of driving a child to preschool in remote and isolated areas.

- (4) Ongoing consultation has meant that finalising train design has taken longer than planned. The resulting fleet will be state-of-the-art, with improved accessibility and comfort, enhanced safety, and modern features.
- (5) The contract value for these works is around $75 million, which is within the $2.8 billion budget for the New Intercity Fleet project.

- (2) The NSW Food Authority's local government unit assists council environmental health officers with training and advice on ensuring hygiene standards are maintained in food premises, including by ensuring adequate rodent control is undertaken. Although rodent control is a landholder responsibility, councils in New South Wales are very experienced in managing rodent infestations on their land and have not requested specific support from the government for this task.

 - (a) Considering that this can cause difficulties for families and children, does the Attorney General agree that the current arrangements are not in the best interests of a child in this circumstance?

Answer—

I am advised:

In New South Wales, government-issued identification records a person's biological sex and not their gender.

Section 20 of the Act provides that an application can be made to alter registrable information on the Births Register. At present, registrable information does not include information about change of sex and therefore it is not presently possible to amend a child's birth certificate where a parent legally changes their biological sex or identifies as a different gender.

The Department of Communities and Justice will monitor developments of other states and territories on these matters, including the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Amendment Bill 2019 (Vic).

- (3) How many fines have been issued for violating this rule since the regulation was introduced?

Answer—

I am advised:

(1) If a person provides police with video or photos alleging motorists passing bicycle riders at an unsafe distance, police will evaluate whether it could be used to commence proceedings.

Any dashcam footage or personal recording which meet the tests of admissibility in the Evidence Act 1995 may be used as evidence. However, police cannot lay charges against an alleged offender unless there is sufficient admissible evidence for the prosecution to prove to the satisfaction of the court, beyond a reasonable doubt, every element of the charge.

(2) Police have a number of options in enforcing Rule 144-1 of the Road Rules 2014, including charges, infringement notices and cautions.

(3) What has been the total cost of replacement buses during maintenance periods on the line in each of the past three financial years?

Answer—

Sydney Trains operates and maintains the largest and most complex rail network in Australia. The network is 165 years old and requires regular renewal and maintenance to ensure its continued reliable operation. To minimise impacts on customers, this work is scheduled when patronage is lowest, such as at night, on weekends and during public holidays.

Sydney Trains has an annual maintenance program of approximately $1.5 billion, ensuring the safety and reliability of railway services across the Sydney Trains and NSW Trains Intercity networks.

Total maintenance expenditure and cost of planned rail replacement trackwork bussing are publicly available in Sydney Trains' Annual reports.

The strategy is supported by $65 million of funding provided through the Waste Less, Recycle More initiative.

I am advised:

As you may be aware, a new timetable was introduced on 26 November 2017 as part of Stage 1 of the $4.3 billion More Trains, More Services program. The new timetable delivers up to 1,500 new train services across the network. These extra services are needed to address significant patronage growth on public transport and particularly on the Sydney Trains network. The program represents the single largest increase in capacity on the network.

The new timetable has been developed using a combination of Opal card data and customer feedback, ensuring that services reflect demand across the broader network. The timetable was designed to benefit the majority of customers, but may not satisfy every preference. I am pleased to advise there are plans for a four-kilometre crossing loop for the South Coast Line at Toolijooa to create capacity for a regular 30-minute service in peak periods. The timetable will be reviewed as part of these improvements.

The Government is delivering a new fleet of intercity trains. It will replace those used on the South Coast and other intercity lines and offer customers greater comfort, reliability and convenience. - (2) What evaluation of the Cycling Safety Action Plan 2014-16 was carried out and what outcomes were determined?
- (3) What action plan has the Government implemented since 2016?

- (4) What further action has been taken to address heavy vehicle safety issues and better protect vulnerable road users since LA Q9629?
- (5) What assessment has the Government made of the "Dehumanization of cyclists predicts self-reported aggressive behaviour toward them" research published in Science Direct?
- (a) What strategies are being used to ensure that all road users treat bike riders as legitimate road users?
- (6) What approvals are required before the City of Sydney can implement the missing links from the CBD cycle network to provide safe separated cycle routes in the city?
- (a) What outcomes have been identified with respect to the identified performance measures?
- (7) What further plans does the Government have for improving cyclist safety?

Answer—

I am advised:

- (1) This information is publicly available.

There have been significant reductions in the New South Wales road toll over the past four decades. After peaking at 1,384 in 1978, fatalities in New South Wales had fallen by almost 80 per cent in 2014 to 307, the lowest annual toll since 1923.

Similar trends have been experienced for other road user fatalities, including pedal cyclists. Pedal cyclist fatalities have remained low in recent years. Eight pedal cyclist were killed on New South Wales roads last year (provisional figure), the same number as in 2017 and three more than the result in 2016 (five). Notably, the 2016 result was the lowest since records began in 1935. Similarly, there was a long term decreasing trend in pedestrian fatalities until 2014 (with 41 fatalities), the lowest since records began in 1928. There have been pedestrian fatality increases in recent years, with 71 deaths recorded in 2016 and 67 in 2018 (provisional figure).

As at August 11 there have been 35 pedestrian fatalities in 2019. This is 11 fewer fatalities compared to the same period in 2018 (provisional data).

- (2) A review of the status of each action outlined in the Cycling Safety Action Plan 2014-16 has been undertaken. Of the 37 actions in the Plan, 34 are complete.

Bicycle rider trauma continues to be monitored annually as part of the annual statistical statements for road traffic crashes in New South Wales.

An evaluation of the Safer Roads Program is planned, including the cycling sub-program. However, five years of data is required to carry out this analysis.

- (3) The Road Safety Plan 2021 was launched in February 2018 to reset road safety priorities and to help work towards the State Priority target for reducing deaths and serious injuries on New South Wales roads.

(4) New South Wales is contributing to the Heavy Vehicle National Law Review, which is considering safety for heavy vehicles and their interactions with other road users. Five papers have been released so far, with the remaining three due in August 2019.

(5) Transport for NSW considers research evidence with robust methodologies in the development of policies. Transport for NSW has completed a preliminary review of the research on dehumanisation of bicycle riders published in Science Direct. The paper notes that the sample of people surveyed is "not representative" and the "findings should be viewed with caution as they may be over- or under-estimating the prevalence of dehumanizing beliefs among the population".

The Government promotes a 'share the road' culture. The Go Together campaign, which has been in place since 2016, encourages drivers, bicycle riders and pedestrians to respect each other's space and ensure that everyone stays safe.

- (6) Transport for NSW is working with the City of Sydney to develop and deliver new cycleways on Chalmers, Castlereagh and King streets in Sydney CBD.

Further approvals will be required through the Local Pedestrian Cycling and Traffic Calming Committee, together with the Central Sydney Traffic and Transport Committee. A Review of Environmental Factors will also be required. This work will also consider the CBD and South East Light Rail project construction and testing underway, given the competing demands and limited kerbside space, along with the need to balance the transport network for all users.

(a) The delivery of cycleway infrastructure needs to ensure that the road space for all users is considered, including cyclists, pedestrian, public transport, freight, servicing and vehicles.

- (7) The Government will continue to implement the priorities in the Road Safety Plan 2021 which will contribute to improving bicycle rider safety.

*0871 NEW SOUTH WALES NORTHERN BASIN OF THE MURRAY-DARLING SYSTEM—Mr Clayton Barr asked the Minister for Water, Property and Housing—

- (1) Considering the updating of meters in the New South Wales Northern Basin of the Murray-Darling system, what is the expected funding cost in total?
- (2) How much funding is committed by the Commonwealth Government?
 - (a) When does this funding become completely available?
- (3) How much funding is committed by the Government in each financial year from 2018-19 to 2020-21?
- (4) How much Commonwealth Government funding has been made available to fund cameras for the purpose of live monitoring of the river systems?
- (5) How many cameras have been installed as at 1 August 2019?
 - (a) Where are the cameras located?
 - (b) What plans are in place for additional cameras?

Answer—

I am advised:

Water users who are subject to New South Wales' non-urban metering rules will be responsible for buying, installing and maintaining compliant metering equipment. The costs will vary depending on a number of factors, including the size and location of the pump, and the condition of any existing metering equipment.

Details about Commonwealth programs are a matter for the Commonwealth Government.

The Government has not committed funding for the updating of meters in the New South Wales Northern Basin of the Murray-Darling system.

*0872 ROADS AND MARITIME SERVICES OFFICE IN NEWCASTLE—Mr Clayton Barr asked the Minister for Transport and Roads—

- (1) When did the Roads and Maritime Services (RMS) move to its current location at 266 King Street, Newcastle?
 - (a) What floor area does the RMS currently lease at this location?
 - (b) What was the monetary cost to fit-out the current location?
 - (c) When does the current lease expire?
 - (i) Is there an option to extend the current lease?
 - (i) What term is the extension for?

I am advised:

All matters relating to the fit-out and lease of office spaces occupied by agencies within the Transport Cluster are done in accordance with the whole-of-government office accommodation policies administered by the Department of Planning, Industry and Environment.

- (3) What is the composition of the cladding on the Australian Taxation Office building in Gosford?

*0874 SCHOOL BUS PASS APPLICATIONS FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN IN EAST LISMORE AND GOONELLABAH—Ms Janelle Saffin asked the Minister for Regional Transport and Roads—

- (1) Why did Transport NSW refuse free school bus pass applications for families of school children living in East Lismore and Goonellabah, considering they have concerns about the safety of crossing the Bruxner Highway?

- (2) Will Transport NSW reconsider its assessments and respond to the safety concerns raised by these families and provide them with the much needed free school bus passes?

Answer—

I am advised:

The School Student Transport Scheme provides free travel to and from school for around half a million New South Wales students. The School Student Transport Scheme is one of the most generously subsidised travel schemes in Australia.

Families who have had a School Student Transport Scheme application rejected where there are concerns regarding pedestrian access constraints are welcome to request a review into their application.

Transport for NSW has a review process in place and the families concerned are encouraged to lodge a review request. Transport will assess each request for review on an individual basis including the availability of a safe walking route.

- *0875 JOINT ORGANISATIONS IN NEW SOUTH WALES—Ms Janelle Saffin asked the Minister for Local Government—

- (1) Is the current $300,000 seed funding considered sufficient for the Northern Rivers Joint Organisation of Councils and 12 other Joint Organisations across the state to operate effectively?
(2) Will additional funding be provided to cover ongoing administrative costs?

Answer—

Joint organisations are at different stages in their ability to identify opportunities for ongoing sustainability. In recognition of this and as a demonstration of commitment to the Joint Organisation model, the Government has made available an additional $1.95 million ($150,000 for each of the 13 Joint Organisations) to provide further one-off support. This funding has been allocated for the purpose of funding one or more projects in each Joint Organisation to build capabilities based on the circumstances of each region.

- *0876 NON-RECURRENT INFRASTRUCTURE FUNDING FOR SCHOOLS IN THE WOLLONGONG ELECTORATE—Mr Paul Scully asked the Minister for Skills and Tertiary Education representing the Minister for Education and Early Childhood Learning—

(b) When are they now expected to be completed?
(3) Are there any works planned for Wollongong electorate schools for the 2019-20 financial year?
(a) If so:
(i) Where are these located?
(ii) When are they scheduled for completion?

Answer—

(1) The following is a summary of the non-recurrent infrastructure spending in the Wollongong electorate undertaken by the Asset Management Unit. This is only a portion of the total maintenance spending at schools in the electorate.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Friday 13 September 2019

*0877 COVERED WALKWAYS AT RAILWAY STATIONS—Mr Paul Scully asked the Minister for Transport and Roads—

- (1) How many railway stations in New South Wales have lifts with covered walkways as at 1 August 2019?
- (2) How many railway stations do not have covered walkways as at 1 August 2019?

Answer—

I am advised:

Details about station upgrades, including facilities provided, are available on the Transport for NSW website.

*0878 SERVICE NSW ACCOUNTS IN THE WOLLONGONG ELECTORATE—Mr Paul Scully asked the Minister for Customer Service—

How many Service NSW accounts were there in the Wollongong electorate on the day before the My Community Project vote commenced?

Answer—

Customers who create a MyServiceNSW account are asked for their residential address, however the provision of these details is not mandatory. Many customers choose not to include their residential address.

It is therefore not possible to accurately determine how many MyServiceNSW accounts were active for people living in the Wollongong electorate on the day before the My Community Project vote commenced.

When MyServiceNSW account holders vote in the My Community Project their residential address is validated using the Medicare details that they are required to provide.

*0879 LAND AND HOUSING CORPORATION PROPERTIES IN THE WOLLONGONG LOCAL GOVERNMENT AREA—Mr Paul Scully asked the Minister for Water, Property and Housing—

- (1) As at 1 August 2019, how many Land and Housing Corporation properties in the Wollongong local government area are currently being considered for:
 - (a) Redevelopment
 - (b) Sale?

Answer—

(a) I am advised that information about new developments is available on the Land and Housing Corporation website at www.facs.nsw.gov.au/about/who%1ahc.

(b) I am advised that Land and Housing Corporation continually reviews the suitability of the properties it owns. Proceeds from the sale of assets are re-invested into the social housing system. Financial information on property disposals is contained in the Department of Communities and Justice Annual Report at www.facs.nsw.gov.au.

*0880 HIGHER SCHOOL CERTIFICATE COMPLETION RATE—Mr Paul Scully asked the Minister for Skills and Tertiary Education representing the Minister for Education and Early Childhood Learning—

What is the completion rate for the Higher School Certificate for each public school located in the Wollongong electorate for each calendar year since 2010 (to 1 August 2019)?

Answer—

Making the completion rates of each of the public schools located in the Wollongong electorate publicly available would potentially contravene Section 18A subsection 4(a) of the Education Act (1990), which refers to the publication and comparison of school results.

*0881 TEACHERS AT MURRUMBIDGEE REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL—Mrs Helen Dalton asked the Minister for Skills and Tertiary Education representing the Minister for Education and Early Childhood Learning—

- (1) Considering that there have been approximately 700 classes without a teacher during the first six months of operation of Murrumbidgee Regional High School, by what date will there be sufficient teaching staff in order to provide a teacher for all classes?

- (2) Will the Government be supporting incentivisation of Griffith to four-point transfer status in order to attract more teachers to Griffith and address this shortage of teachers at Murrumbidgee Regional High School?

Answer—

- (1) When teachers are absent, every class is covered by a trained teacher either through built-in relief, a casual teacher or minimal supervision. This has been the practice for a number of years and is common across all schools. To address the shortages of casual teachers at Murrumbidgee Regional High School, five teachers are being recruited on two year temporary contracts to cover teacher absences across both sites.
- (2) The question of incentives will be considered as part of the Department of Education staffing review that will occur in 2020. This enables a procedurally fair and equitable approach to all schools and their teaching staff across New South Wales.

*0882 VEHICLE REGISTRATION CONCESSIONS—Mrs Helen Dalton asked the Minister for Transport and Roads—

- (1) Will consideration be given to providing vehicle registration concessions to holders of the Commonwealth Centrelink issued Low Income Health Care Card, akin to what is offered in Victoria?
- (a) If so, when?

Answer—

I am advised:

Registration concessions are available to more than 800,000 eligible pensioners and carers in New South Wales. To be eligible for a pensioner registration concession, customers must hold a Pensioner Concession card issued by the Department of Human Services (Centrelink) or the Department of Veteran's Affairs. The concession is available for a single vehicle registered in New South Wales in the name of the eligible pensioner.

As the Government already provides a range of generous registration concessions and rebates to help motorists with cost of living pressures, there is no proposal to expand the eligibility for vehicle registration concessions.

*0883 MAITLAND PALLIATIVE CARE PHYSICIAN NUMBERS—Ms Jenny Aitchison asked the Minister for Health and Medical Research—

How many full-time equivalent palliative care physicians were employed by Hunter New England Health in Maitland in each year from 2011 to 2019 (as at 31 July 2019)?

Answer—

Approximately one full-time equivalent palliative care physician has been employed at Maitland Hospital since 2011 to lead palliative care services. This physician is supported by a team including a Senior Resident Medical Officer, Nurse Unit Manager, Clinical Nurse Specialist and other nursing, social work, and administration staff.

The Calvary Mater Newcastle Palliative Care Service is also available for 24 hour support.

*0884 HOUSING NSW MAINTENANCE CONTRACTORS—Ms Liesl Tesch asked the Minister for Families, Communities and Disability Services—

What training is provided to Housing NSW maintenance contractors to ensure compliance with asbestos management procedures and best practice?

Answer—

Land and Housing Corporation contractors are responsible for the control and decontamination of sites containing asbestos, and must comply with the requirements of WorkSafe New South Wales when they handle, remove, encapsulate and dispose of asbestos.

Information about asbestos management in public housing properties is available on the Department of Communities and Justice website at <https://www.facs.nsw.gov.au/housing/policies/manage-asbestos-policy>.

If a tenant is concerned about asbestos or any other maintenance matter, they should immediately call the Maintenance Line on 1800 422 322, which is available 24 hours a day seven days a week, all year round.

(b) Which Crown land is managed by a Crown land trust?
(c) Which Crown land is held under a lease?
(i) Which party holds the lease?
(ii) What is the purpose of the grant?

Answer—

I am advised:

A table of the relevant Crown land, its purpose, address and tenure details will be made available directly to the Member for The Entrance, and is summarised below.

As at 12 August 2019, in The Entrance state electoral district:

(1) There are 75 Crown reserves, and about 2500 hectares of Crown waterway, 73 hectares of Crown road, 13 hectares of Crown land with no property identification and three hectares of Crown land granted following Aboriginal land claim pending transfer.

(a) Under the Crown Land Management Act 2016 Central Coast Council is the appointed Crown land manager of 37 reserves. In addition, nine reserves devolve to Council under section 48 of the Local Government Act 1993.

Crown Lands maintains a 'Crown land manager reserves portal' via its website. This portal allows any person to view data on Crown reserves that are managed or controlled by councils. However, it does not include all Crown land (such as reserves not managed by councils, Crown roads or Crown waterways).

(b) In addition to Council managed Crown land, there are seven appointed corporate Crown land managers and one appointed statutory land manager.

Further, 23 Crown reserves default to the Minister administering the Crown Land Management Act 2016.

(c) There are 12 leases over Crown land.

(i) and (ii) – Refer to the table which will be provided to Member for The Entrance.

(1) How many parcels of land controlled by Property NSW have been sold over the last four years (as at 1 August 2019)?

(a) What land is currently for sale (as at 1 August 2019)?

Answer—

I am advised:

(1) As at 1 August 2019, 237 lots sold over the last four-year period.

(a) As at 1 August 2019, the following properties were on the market:

- (i) 38-40 Ridge Street, Nambucca Heads;

Answer—

I am advised:

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Friday 13 September 2019

Information on the NSW Police Force Youth Command is available at www.police.nsw.gov.au.

*0891 ACTIVE KIDS VOUCHERS BORDER TOWNS—Mr Jihad Dib asked the Minister for Sport, Multiculturalism, Seniors and Veterans—

- (1) How does the Office of Sport manage Active Kids Vouchers in border towns which share sporting facilities, such as Mulwala and Yarrowonga?
- (2) Are measures in place to ensure residents of New South Wales, particularly in rural and remote areas, are able to use Active Kids vouchers at their nearest facility?

Answer—

(1) The Government analyses service provision across New South Wales on an ongoing basis to ensure that sufficient activities are available for all New South Wales children wanting to use Active Kids vouchers. This includes meeting with local Government organisations in border regions, including the Riverina, to increase opportunities for child participation through a diverse provider network.

(2) A number of measures are in place to ensure children in rural and regional New South Wales can participate in Active Kids' programs. Active Kids targets areas of social disadvantage, culturally and linguistically diverse communities, isolated rural and remote communities, and indigenous communities to increase access to the program and participation.

The Office of Sport is working with partner agencies, such as NSW Education and Non-Government Organisations, in these communities to redress identified social inequity.

*0892 PEDESTRIAN CROSSINGS APPROVALS—Mr Clayton Barr asked the Minister for Regional Transport and Roads—

 - (a) City locations;
 - (b) Regional locations;
 - (c) Rural locations?

Answer—

I am advised:

Transport for NSW is not responsible for non-signalised pedestrian crossings which, with few exceptions, are on local roads and the responsibility of local government.

While warrants are an important consideration, the identification of the most appropriate pedestrian crossing facility should take into account a range of additional factors. These include adjacent land use and desire lines, vehicle speeds, sight lines, stopping distances, traffic lanes and traffic volume.

*0893 PAYMENT OPTIONS FOR TOLL NOTICES—Mr Clayton Barr asked the Minister for Transport and Roads—

- (1) What payment options are available for drivers who infrequently use toll roads to pay tolls when they do not have either a credit or debit card?

Answer—

I am advised:

- (1) and (2) This information is publicly available.
- (3) 2018.

(4) There are a number of costs associated with administration fees such as the cost of viewing the images of the vehicle (higher if the image has to be reviewed manually), and the costs associated with processing payments, and answering telephone or e-mail queries. To avoid paying an administration fee, arrangements should be made to pay within three days of any trip on a toll road.

 - (b) Four part-time employees
 - (c) Eight casual employees.
- (3) The full-time equivalent (FTE) of the full time and part time field officers as at 30 June 2019 was 86.1. This does not include the casual employees who work variable hours.

Throughout the project, WaterNSW will partner with the community to provide updates and opportunities for feedback.
- (b) The preferred option for the new weir is about 5.2 kilometres downstream of the existing weir. This option was confirmed after extensive technical investigations, community discussions, consideration of Indigenous social, cultural and spiritual concerns, stakeholder workshops and drop-in session.
- (c) Construction is due to commence by July 2020 and be completed by December 2020.

*0911 NEWCASTLE LIGHT RAIL TRACKS—Mr Tim Crakanthorp asked the Minister for Transport and Roads—

(1) Considering the Newcastle Light Rail tracks at the intersection of Scott and Pacific Streets, Newcastle has been the site of many accidents in recent months, what action has been taken to address these safety issues (as at 1 August 2019)?

(2) Further to my correspondence of 12 July 2019 regarding this matter, will the Minister convene a group of experts and key stakeholders, including representatives from the cycling community, to assess this section of track and identify enhancement that can be made to improve safety at this location for all users?

(3) Have rubber track inserts been considered as a possible solution to these issues?

(4) Will the Minister work with Newcastle City Council to prioritise the deliver of cycleway infrastructure in the Newcastle CBD?

Answer—

I am advised:

(1) and (2) Transport for NSW is conducting a review of road safety on the Newcastle Light Rail network. The review focuses on cyclist interaction within the mixed running alignment (where the light rail runs along a normal road environment) between Newcomen Street and Pacific Street.

As part of the review, an independent road safety audit was commissioned to assess the risk along the mixed running alignment. The audit was led by a qualified road safety auditor with extensive experience in light rail systems, and the audit team included the local Newcastle Cycleways President as an independent specialist advisor.

An on-site investigation and walkthrough was held on 19 July 2019. Stakeholders involved in the walkthrough included Transport for NSW, Newcastle City Council, NSW Police, and transport group Keolis Downer. During the walkthrough the group discussed road safety risks to cyclists, previous crashes, and potential solutions that can be implemented to reduce the risk.

(3) A study was conducted in the United States of America into cyclist interactions with street car systems, which are considered similar to light rail and tram networks elsewhere in the world. The report refers to rubber inserts (flange filler material) used for heavy rail and its ability to reduce the risk of a cyclist wheel falling into the gap. However, the report further states that extensive experiments in Switzerland indicate that flange filler is not appropriate for light rail tracks due to the frequency of trams. Separate analysis conducted by Transport for NSW's Assets Standards Authority also supports this finding. The safety review will consider a range of solutions.

(4) Cycling infrastructure in the Newcastle CBD is a matter for the City of Newcastle Council. Transport for NSW will assist Council where possible and encourage Council to submit nominations through the Active Transport Program for consideration of future funding.

*0913 ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PAYMENT SCHEME COMPLAINTS—Mr Paul Scully asked the Minister for Transport and Roads—

- (1) How many complaints has Transport for NSW received from those involved in the taxi industry over the administration of the Additional Assistance Payment Scheme (AAPS) as at 1 August 2019?
- (2) What is the total number of complaints, in each electorate, received by Transport for NSW as at 1 August 2019?
- (3) Why did the correspondence to unsuccessful applicants under the AAPS not indicate the specific reasons for ineligibility?
- (4) What is the reason or reasons for the inability to seek a review of decisions made under the AAPS?
- (5) What communication strategy and plan did Transport for NSW use to advertise the AAPS?
- (6) Has Transport for NSW determined that this communication strategy was successful?
 - (a) If not, why not?
 - (b) If so, why are there large numbers of stakeholders in the taxi industry claiming they were unaware of the AAPS existence?

Answer—

I am advised:

(1) As at 1 August 2019, Transport for NSW (TfNSW) has received 26 requests for additional information and 151 enquiries related to a review of a determination of the Additional Assistance Payment Scheme (AAPS).

(2) Transport for NSW (TfNSW) does not collect this information.

(3) Determinations under the AAPS were made after careful consideration of the information provided in each application, the particular circumstances of the applicant and any other relevant evidence or information received. Determinations also took into account any relevant criteria recommended by the Taxi and Hire Vehicle Industry Assistance Panel (the Panel). As a result, each determination under the AAPS was unique to the particular circumstances of, and information provided by, the applicant. Applicants were advised that they could contact the AAPS hotline if they had any further queries.

(4) Applicants with queries regarding their determination, the application process and/or assessment of their information against the criteria are encouraged to contact 1300 639 074.

(5) TfNSW wrote to all holders of ordinary NSW taxi licences in early July 2018 to advise them that the AAPS was open to applications and to invite them to apply. On 3 July 2018, TfNSW issued a media release to advise that the scheme was now open. Also on 3 July 2018, TfNSW published a notice in the NSW Government Gazette to advise that the application period for the AAPS would be open from 2 July 2018 to 1 October 2018.

At this time, TfNSW updated its website to include detailed information about the AAPS including facts sheets providing guidance on how to apply. The Industry Assistance Contact Centre was established to provide applicants with assistance in the preparation and submission of their applications. TfNSW also engaged Business Connect to provide assistance to persons seeking to submit an application for AAPS.

(6) TfNSW received 1,258 applications for the AAPS. This is considered to be a significant number and evidence that the manner in which the AAPS was promoted and advertised was successful.

TfNSW is not aware of large numbers of persons claiming they were unaware of the existence of the AAPS.

*0915 REGIONAL RAIL FLEET PROJECT—Ms Janelle Saffin asked the Minister for Regional Transport and Roads—

- (1) Will sleeper car class still be available as a premium service to passengers when NSW Trainlink's existing XPTs are replaced by the new European-designed Civity trains as part of the New South Wales regional train fleet from 2023?
- (2) Will you publicly release Growth from Knowledge's full market research paper for the Regional Rail Fleet Project based on eight focus groups and an online survey of 860 people across New South Wales and the Australian Capital Territory?

Answer—

I am advised:

TfNSW commissioned market research with existing and potential customers of regional services to understand what on-board features are important to customers.

The research involved a mix of qualitative and quantitative research, including eight focus groups and an online survey of 860 people across New South Wales and the Australian Capital Territory.

This research showed that if the fleet's first class features improved there would be less demand for sleeper carriages and as such, the new Regional Rail fleet will not feature sleeper cars.

The new fleet's premium class offers considerable improvements over the current first class. The shift from current two-plus-two to a two-plus-one seating configuration will allow for significantly wider, more spacious seating and would see the greatest patronage on both six and 11 hour journeys.

The design of the new trains provides the best combination of value for money, proven contemporary train design and faster delivery of new trains into service.

There are no plans to publicly release the full customer research paper for the Regional Rail Fleet Project.

- (2) What action has the Government taken in response to current trends?
- (3) What further action does the Government plan to take to prevent and address racism, xenophobia, antisemitism, Islamophobia and ethnic-based discrimination?

Answer—

New South Wales sets an example for the rest of the world as a peaceful and harmonious multicultural society. A clear majority of Australians support multiculturalism and recognise the benefits that cultural diversity brings to our way of life.

But we cannot take our social cohesion for granted. Community harmony takes commitment. It takes a concerted effort from all sections of our society.

This Government has implemented a raft of measures addressing these issues across the spectrum of criminal, civil and social concerns.

Crimes Amendment (Publicly Threatening and Inciting Violence) Act 2018

- Responding to community concerns, this Government introduced the Crimes Amendment (Publicly Threatening and Inciting Violence) Act 2018, which creates a new criminal offence of threatening or inciting violence on the ground of race, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity or intersex or HIV/AIDS status.
- The new law supports and complements existing civil provisions under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977, while replacing previous provisions for serious vilification with the tough new criminal offence focussed on public safety.
- The Anti-Discrimination Board continues to investigate vilification that does not include threats or incitement to harm people or property, while the NSW Police Force will now deal with allegations involving public threats of or incitement to violence.

Reporting on the State of Community Relations

- These criminal and civil measures are further supported by a range of proactive social programs being delivered by New South Wales agencies and reported to Parliament each year by my agency, Multicultural NSW, in its annual Community Relations Report.

New South Wales Community Resilience and Response Plan (COMPLAN)

- The Government further delivers a range of proactive programs that aim to safeguard social cohesion and community harmony.
- The New South Wales Community Resilience and Response Plan (COMPLAN) draws together agency capabilities and details a coordinated, whole-of-government approach to preventing and managing risks to community harmony identified by agencies through any of their community engagement activities and social cohesion programs.
- Since it first came together in early 2018, the COMPLAN Committee identified and will continue to monitor developments that pose a risk to community harmony, including far-right wing extremist activities, anti-Islamic and anti-Semitic sentiment, and local community tensions arising from conflicts or political turmoil overseas.

Community Partnership Action (COMPACT) Program

- The Government is also delivering the flagship $9.2 million Community Partnership Action (COMPACT) program. COMPACT aims to inspire and empower young people to stand up and stand united as champions for community harmony against the divisive forces of hate, fear and violence.
- Since 2016, the COMPACT Program has supported 24 youth engagement projects involving close to 60 partner organisations.
- COMPACT engaged over 20,000 young people and over 130 schools in its first two years (2016-18), inspiring a new generation of community leaders, critical thinkers and champions for community harmony.

 - (a) When will they be operating?

- (8) What further action will the Government take to increase services and access to light rail travel on this route?
(a) When will these be implemented?

Answer—

I am advised:

- (1) Patronage increased from 3.9 million journeys in 2013-14 to 10.3 million in 2017-18. The line was extended from Lilyfield to Dulwich Hill in March 2014.
- (2) Complaints increased from 2015-16 to 2017-18 and then decreased in 2018-19.

- (4) and (5) 220 services per week have been added since 2016, principally in peak periods. On 6 August 2018, morning peak period services began operating one hour earlier, from 7.00am. Evening peak period services were extended by an hour, to finish at 7.00pm.
- (6) Short trips are not provided for in the Sydney Light Rail Project Deed.
- (7) Consideration is being given to procuring up to four additional light rail vehicles. They could be obtained within 24 months, subject to availability.
- (8) Future Transport 2056, the Government's vision for transport across New South Wales, provides strategic direction on public transport improvements. The city-serving transport network provides high-frequency services to higher-density areas within 10 kilometres of metropolitan centres.

*0926 CASINO ALLEGATIONS—Mr Alex Greenwich asked the Minister for Customer Service—

- (1) Considering the allegations of criminal gang links, money laundering, sex trafficking and visa schemes connected with Crown Casio:
(a) What liaison has the Government carried out with Commonwealth Government agencies on these matters?
(b) What investigation and review of licensing conditions and links with criminal gangs has the Government carried out or initiated to date?
(c) What probity investigation will the Government carry out on casino licence holders?
(d) What measures does the Government use to prevent undue influence from gaming industry interests?
- (2) What action will the Government take to ensure New South Wales casinos operate ethically and within the law?
- (3) What plans does the Government have to increase oversight and strengthen probity requirements for casinos in New South Wales?

Answer—

(1) Liquor & Gaming NSW (L&GNSW) works with law enforcement agencies and has ongoing engagement with AUSTRAC and police as co-regulators at strategic, operational and policy levels to ensure that New South Wales casinos remain free of criminal influence and exploitation, including junket operations. This engagement supports L&GNSW's ongoing oversight of casino operations through the comprehensive casino regulatory framework.

On 8 August 2019, the Independent Liquor & Gaming Authority announced that it will be conducting an inquiry under section 143 of the Casino Control Act 1992 (the Act) into ongoing suitability issues relating to recent media reports about allegations of misconduct at Crown Melbourne.

The Authority has appointed the Honourable Patricia Bergin SC to conduct the inquiry. Ms Naomi Sharp SC and Mr Scott Aspinall will be appointed as counsel assisting the inquiry.

The inquiry will also consider the proposed sale of shares in Crown Resorts from James Packer's CPH Crown Holdings Pty Limited to Lawrence Ho's Melco Resorts & Entertainment Limited.

The Terms of Reference and a timetable for public submissions will be published by the Authority shortly and announcements will be made later regarding the processes of the inquiry, including how submissions can be made.

- are run in a way that contains and controls the potential for a casino to cause harm to the public interest, and to individuals and families.

This controls include the Casino Control Act 1992, the Casino Control Regulation 2010 (with the Casino Control Regulation 2019 due to commence from 1 September), a set of internal controls for each casino operator that need to be approved by the Authority, and the use of disciplinary actions where required.

*0928 DOMESTIC VIOLENCE FUNDING—Mr Tim Crakanthorp asked the Attorney General, and Minister for the Prevention of Domestic Violence—

- (2) How much of the $390 million the Government says it is spending on domestic violence programs over 4 years will be spent on:
 - (a) Jenny's Place;
 - (b) Newcastle services?

Answer—

I am advised:

The additional funding for Jenny's Place that expires in September was not provided by the Government but contributed by a philanthropic source.

Since 2016, Jenny's Place has received almost $4 million through the Specialist Homelessness Services Program for their Domestic Violence services which includes their Crisis and Transitional Housing provision. Jenny's Place continues to receive Government funding to support its important work providing specialist support services, including refuge and outreach services for women and children who are experiencing domestic and family violence.

The Government is committed to supporting women and children who are experiencing homelessness and we know that domestic and family violence is the main reason that women and children leave their homes in Australia.

In 2019-20, $7.7 million of state funding is scheduled to be allocated to the 33 Staying Home Leaving Violence sites in New South Wales. This includes the 6 new sites that became operational in 2018-19. The Commonwealth Government has allocated an additional $3.5 million over three years for the 33 sites via the Keep Women Safe in Their Homes Program.

$32.5 million is being invested in Start Safely in 2019-20 increasing the Government's commitment of $26.5 million in 2018-19.

Funding for services delivered by Jenny's Place and other providers across the Newcastle Local Government Area are also in addition to the hundreds of millions of dollars the Government spends each year to combat domestic and family violence through mainstream services in justice, police, health, child protection and social housing.

- (2) Further, is the requirement to open a MyServiceNSW Account, aside from having a Medicare card and residing in a specific electorate, an obstacle to participate in the voting process from 15 July 2019 until 15 August 2019?

Answer—

My Community Project (MCP) is the first grant program in New South Wales that gives the people of New South Wales the opportunity to propose and vote for projects to be funded in their local communities. This method puts the decision-making power in the hands of communities.

The Government requires voters to use a MyServiceNSW Account and Medicare card to ensure each person only votes once. Use of a Medicare card helps ensure that a voter is over 16 years of age and is eligible to vote for MCP. Many people already have a MyServiceNSW Account, which is free and only requires an email account to create.

Once established, it provides quick and easy access to a wide range of other New South Wales government services, such as the Compulsory Third Party Green Slip refund for eligible policyholders.

Signage, traffic lights, waiting zones, wayfinding and road markings across the city centre show cyclists, pedestrians and road users how to safely navigate light rail. Light rail drivers have also undergone extensive training. Additional sign posting and pavement markings, particularly for cyclists, will be installed by the end of September, weather permitting.

Throughout Rail Safety Week 2019, Newcastle Transport Customer Service Officers were also on the network talking to customers about rail safety.

Considering that it was a condition of planning consent for the M4 East project, why, a month after the M4 East opening, have two lanes of rapid public transport on Parramatta Road not been delivered?

The condition of approval does not specify a timeframe for implementing the public transport routes.

The Government is not in breach of this condition.

Consistent with priorities identified in Future Transport 2056, Transport for NSW is continuing detailed planning for short-term improvements between Burwood and Sydney CBD to be delivered under the Bus Priority Infrastructure Program. *0963 SOUTH COAST LINE OVERCROWDING—Mr Ryan Park asked the Minister for Transport and Roads—

With the announcement of the late delivery of the new carriages, has Transport for NSW any plans to help alleviate the overcrowding on the South Coast line until the arrival of the new carriages?

The Government is making improvements now to meet increased current and future demand on the South Coast Line.

In January 2019, in direct response to increased patronage, we doubled the capacity of the 3.24pm and 3.54pm weekday services from Central to the South Coast.

We are also about to improve weekend services. From January 2020, we will be operating trains with eight cars, instead of four, between Kiama, Wollongong and Sydney on 44 services each weekend.

To meet future increases in demand, even more services will be delivered as part of the Government's More Trains, More Services program.

 - (a) What was the process to determine these projects and locations?
 - (b) How does this funding interface with the Commonwealth Government's Blackspot program?

Answer—

Scoping and investigative works are underway to set the framework for a $300 million investment in regional mobile connectivity. The scale and innovative nature of this investment demands that the scoping study be given the time required for sufficient diligence and community consultation.

The Department of Planning, Industry and Environment is working closely with the Commonwealth Government to ensure this investment complements the Mobile Black Spots Program and leverages investments from both levels of government and the private sector to deliver the outcomes needed in regional communities.

*0966 REGIONAL DIGITAL CONNECTIVITY PROGRAM CASE STUDY—Mr Roy Butler asked the Deputy Premier, Minister for Regional New South Wales, Industry and Trade—

Answer—

The Regional Digital Connectivity program is ring-fenced exclusively for investment in transformative digital infrastructure across regional New South Wales.

The Department of Planning, Industry and Environment is currently engaging with stakeholders, including some councils in the Barwon electorate to understand the impacts of poor connectivity on education, services, industries and communities, and determine how best to leverage improved connectivity in regional centres for the benefit of surrounding areas.

*0967 WILD DOG EXCLUSION FENCING—Mr Roy Butler asked the Minister for Agriculture and Western New South Wales—

Previous wild dog exclusion fencing programs have been funded by the Australian Government.

The Government will work with a range of stakeholders, including private landholders, to deliver the extension of the Wild Dog Exclusion Fence. Where landholders have already constructed exclusion fencing which is aligned with the proposed route of the Wild Dog Exclusion Fence extension, this fence will be assessed by the Wild Dog Exclusion Fence Extension Project. If the existing exclusion is fit-for-purpose, it will be retained, and if not it will be upgraded.

*0969 ELECTRICITY POLES OWNERSHIP—Mrs Helen Dalton asked the Minister for Energy and Environment—

Considering that historically electricity network operators have borne responsibility for management and upkeep of electricity poles, what authority or legal basis does the Government rely upon in its assertion that the upkeep and maintenance of electricity poles is the responsibility of private landowners?

Answer—

Most electricity poles on private property are, and always have been, privately owned.

Property owners are responsible for the safe maintenance and upkeep of all privately-owned power poles and powerlines under the Electricity Supply Act 1995, the Electricity Supply (Safety and Network Management) Regulation 2014, and the New South Wales Service and Installation Rules. This includes the poles between the first point of connection on the owner's property to the switchboard or meter and the poles that extend into the owner's property.

Rectification of private power pole and powerline defects are deemed a contestable service. Under Part 3, Division 4 of the Electricity Supply Act 1995 a distributor may impose certain requirements on a customer in relation to their connection to the network, including requirements to procure and fund connection works or network augmentations.

Answer—

Murray Valley national and regional parks were reserved in 2010 due to the high conservation value and declining health of the river red gum forest. Active management of the national and regional parks is being carried out to protect and restore their conservation values, which include approximately 50 threatened species and an internationally protected wetland. Murray Valley National Park is now in the top 20 most visited national parks in New South Wales, and the economic value to New South Wales of visitation to the park is approximately $17.4 million per year.

 - (a) By what date will those investigative and program design works be completed?
- (2) Following the completion of those investigative and program design works, by what date will the locations receiving funding from the $300 million that has been committed be announced?

Answer—

The Government is committed to addressing the digital connectivity needs of regional residents, despite telecommunications typically being a Commonwealth Government responsibility.

There is a clear election commitment and funding profile outlined in the latest Budget to deliver these important investments.

The scale and innovative nature of this investment demands that the studies be given the time required for sufficient diligence and community consultation.

The Department of Planning, Industry and Environment is presently progressing investigative and program design works.

I am proud to be part of the first New South Wales Government delivering this unprecedented level of investment into regional digital connectivity.

Answer—

NSW Health has an extensive support program in place to assist staff including nurses and paramedics when they experience stressful or traumatic situations in their work. This includes a requirement from NSW Health that all health entities implement an Employee Assistance Program that provides an early intervention strategy for staff in order to assist them to identify and resolve professional, personal, health or work related issues.

In 2017, the Government also announced a $48 million investment in paramedic support which included $30 million to enhance health and wellbeing initiatives.

- *1009 ASSAULTS AT HOSPITALS STAFF AND PATIENT SAFETY—Ms Sonia Hornery asked the Minister for Health and Medical Research—

Considering the Minister's response to LA Q74 and Q75, and given recent industrial action taken over the matter of safety in hospitals, what steps are being taken to ensure that staff and patients are kept safe?

Answer—

The safety of staff, patients and visitors to New South Wales public hospitals is paramount and NSW Health maintains comprehensive policies and procedures, as well as training and education to ensure that all staff have the skills and support needed to prevent and manage escalating situations when they arise.

Steps have been undertaken to improve physical security measures and access controls at hospitals, enhance CCTV systems, and upgrade personal duress alarms for staff in emergency departments across New South Wales, which they must wear while on duty.

- *1010 ACCESS TO SANITARY ITEMS FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS FACING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE—Ms Sonia Hornery asked the Attorney General, and Minister for the Prevention of Domestic Violence—

Considering that across Australia some 85,000 women and girls are estimated to have difficulty accessing sanitary items when needed due to issues including domestic violence, what steps is the Minister taking to ensure that access to sanitary items is a right rather than privilege?

Answer—

The Government supports making access to sanitary products more affordable. Hence, we agreed with other States and Territories to remove the GST on sanitary products from 1 January 2019, removing the tax from tampons, menstrual cups, cloth or flannel pads, menstrual pads and panty liners, maternity pads and menstrual underwear. This change will benefit women right across New South Wales and ensure that sanitary products are more affordable and accessible for all women.

The Government is committed to addressing domestic and family violence, accordingly, we are investing $431 million over four years to tackle domestic violence through a range of initiatives.

This is in addition to the hundreds of millions of dollars our government spends each year to respond to domestic and family violence through mainstream services in justice, police, health, child protection, social housing and homelessness services.

- *1011 ACCESS TO SANITARY ITEMS FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS FACING HOMELESSNESS OR POVERTY—Ms Sonia Hornery asked the Minister for Families, Communities and Disability Services—

Considering that across Australia some 85,000 women and girls are estimated to have difficulty accessing sanitary items when needed due to issues including homelessness and poverty, what steps is the Minister taking to ensure that access to sanitary items is a right rather than privilege?

Answer—

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Friday 13 September 2019

The Government is concerned about homelessness and is taking a holistic approach to tackling this issue and the factors that contribute to it. Those factors are complex and require a range of solutions to meet the needs of vulnerable people.

The Specialist Homelessness Services (SHS) Program, funded by the Department of Communities and Justice and delivered by non-government organisations, forms a vital part of the service system supporting people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness. SHS provide a client-centred response built around the needs of the client's circumstances, experiences and choices. These services help people resolve their crisis and longer-term accommodation needs by working with them to develop a tailored response to their needs. Information about SHS program is available on the Department of Communities and Justice Website at <https://www.facs.nsw.gov.au>.

The Government also supports making access to sanitary products more affordable. That is why we agreed with other States and Territories to remove the GST on sanitary products from 1 January 2019, removing the tax from tampons, menstrual cups, cloth or flannel pads, menstrual pads and panty liners, maternity pads and menstrual underwear. This change will benefit women right across New South Wales, but particularly those on low incomes. Information about the agreement to remove GST on sanitary products is available on the Parliament of Australia Website at <https://www.aph.gov.au>.

- (a) If so, what were the findings?
- (b) If not, why not?

Answer—

On 21 August 2019 the Government proposed two amendments to the NSW Coroner's Act 2009 to reduce unnecessary coronial referrals and improve timeframes for bereaved families.

The Government is also increasing its investment in the coronial process with an additional $200,000 in funding to employ more forensic social workers, $450,000 to implement a new Forensic Medicine Information System and $60,000 for extra administrative support.

The Government has convened a high-level taskforce to conduct an end-to-end review of the coronial system in New South Wales. The taskforce seeks to improve the timeliness of coronial pathways in rural and regional New South Wales, as well as the experience of families.

Transport for NSW has completed all required actions to allow the Lismore Men's Shed Group to occupy the premises on the Lismore railway precinct. The group received its licence to occupy the premises on Friday 9 August 2019.

Answer—

The Government provides a diverse range of financial and non-financial assistance measures to support individuals, communities, small businesses, primary producers, and local councils in the wake of a disaster. Disaster assistance is activated on a case-by-case basis, and normally with the declaration of a natural disaster.

Landowners who have had water taken from their property in an emergency should visit their Local Land Services office or telephone 1300 795 299. *1034 KYOGLE SHIRE COUNCIL WASTE LEVY—Ms Janelle Saffin asked the Minister for Energy and Environment—

Why is a waste levy imposed on Kyogle Shire Council and its ratepayers as part of the North Coast Regulated Levy Area (RLA) when this local government area shares similar population density and socio-economic disadvantage with the neighbouring Tenterfield Shire, which sits outside the regulated levy area boundaries?

Answer—

Kyogle Council is defined under the Protection of the Environment Operations (Waste) Regulation 2014 as one of several local government areas that make up the Regional Levy Area. Tenterfield Shire Council is not included in this definition.

Following an independent review of the waste levy in 2012 which recommended the levy be extended across the state, the Government directed the Environment Protection Authority to consult with potentially affected councils. In 2015, after consultation with local councils, the Government decided to not expand the levy at that time but to instead introduce targeted measures to improve regional and rural landfills and transfer stations.

The Government is leading the development of a 20-Year Waste and Resource Recovery Strategy. Work is underway to ensure the strategy has a robust evidence base so that it can identify and address the key priorities for waste and resource recovery for New South Wales, including incentives and other tools to change behaviour. Considering the Bureau of Healthcare Information's 'People's use and experiences of mental health care in NSW' report found that 45 per cent of mental health-related patients waited four hours or less and 10 per cent of mental health-related patients waited more than 24 hours in the emergency department in the South Western Sydney Local Health District, what additional resources will be allocated to the Bankstown-Lidcombe Hospital to reduce emergency wait times for mental-health related presentations?

Answer—

Senior specialist clinical mental health nurses are based in the emergency department to provide timely assessment and review of patients presenting with mental health concerns.

A Rapid Emergency Mental Health Service trial has also commenced, where a dedicated ambulance vehicle staffed by a paramedic and a Mental Health Clinical Nurse Consultant attends to triple zero calls, undertakes an assessment and where clinically indicated, diverts the consumer to Community Mental Health services.
