

Answers to Questions on Notice
UBER

1. How will the new regulatory framework for the point to point transport industry effect rideshare services operating in conjunction with commuter car parking?

The new regulatory framework for the point to point transport industry will give industry certainty. The changes are designed to have a positive impact on commuter behaviours and make it easy - at the same time as maintaining safety, affordability and reliability - of point to point services.

2. How popular is Uber in more rural and regional areas of New South Wales?

You can access the Uber app in Newcastle, Wollongong and Byron Bay right now and it's a very popular service in these regions. We will continue considering wider expansion into other communities in 2018.