^ Persons of interest (POIs) are suspected offenders recorded by police in connection with a criminal incident. Some POIs are formally proceeded against to court and some are proceeded against other than to court whilst others are not proceeded against. The POIs included in the table above have all been proceeded against. POIs are not a count of unique offenders. Where an individual is involved in multiple criminal incidents throughout the year they will appear as a POI multiple times.

Correspondingly, no person of interest information will be recorded for criminal incidents in which there is no known suspect. This is very common among incidents of property crime which have a low clear up rate.

^^ Note: There could be quite some time between an event being recorded by police, an investigation being completed and an alleged offender (ie a person of interest (POI)) being charged. This delay can impact upon the number of POIs being proceeded against to court or in other ways. For this reason, POIs are counted in the time period they were proceeded against, rather than the time period the event/incident was reported to or recorded by police.

NOTE 2: For information about recorded crime data please see our 'Using crime statistics' webpage.

^ Persons of interest (POIs) are suspected offenders recorded by police in connection with a criminal incident. Some POIs are formally proceeded against to court and some are proceeded against other than to court whilst others are not proceeded against. The POIs included in the table above have all been proceeded against. POIs are not a count of unique offenders. Where an individual is involved in multiple criminal incidents throughout the year they will appear as a POI multiple times. Correspondingly, no person of interest information will be recorded for criminal incidents in which there is no known suspect. This is very common among incidents of property crime which have a low clear up rate.

^^ Note: There could be quite some time between an event being recorded by police, an investigation being completed and an alleged offender (ie a person of interest (POI)) being charged. This delay can impact upon the number of POIs being proceeded against to court or in other ways. For this reason, POIs are counted in the time period they were proceeded against, rather than the time period the event /incident was reported to or recorded by police.

4. Of the assaults on members of the NSW Police Force, what has been the breakdown of common or aggravated assaults; and what is the breakdown between common and aggravated assaults by LGA in:

This is not possible. More than 50% of persons are found guilty are charged with the generic offences under section 58 of the Crimes Act - Assault officer in execution of duty-T2 - Lawpart 235 or Assault officer in execution of duty (DV)-T2 - Lawpart 64772. These offences cannot be broken down into common or aggravated assault.

5. What sentencing resulted for people convicted of common assault against a member of the NSW Police force in:

As per above data is only available for ALL assault police offences, they cannot be broken down into common or aggravated assault.

^ Assault police is defined as the following offences:

- Lawparts 235 and 64772 under section 58 of the Crimes Act 1900
- sections 60(1), 60(1A), 60(2), 60(2A), 60(3), 60(3)(a), 60(3)(b), 60(3A) of the Crimes Act 1900

Note: Between March 2020 and July 2020 the number of criminal matters finalised in NSW Courts was lower than average due to changes in court operations following the COVID 19 pandemic.
