

Outsourcing Community Service Delivery

Date Received: 24/04/2012

Partially Confidential

Keeping ADHC functions within ADHC is important. This will keep firm accountabilities which are lost or severely compromised when given to NGO organisations. Information referral services within ADHC is a transparent service. Transparency will be lost if the service was to be disseminated out into the community. Govt has a role to carry out the planning of services, co-ordination or public monies, purchasing of required services, program co-ordination and quality services - all of the current task that ADHC staff are responsible for.
